

HEART FAILURE.

As Rapid and Fatal in its Action as a Stroke of Lightning.

The Daily Press is constantly announcing deaths of people, more or less prominent, from heart failure; they were well, as they thought, a few hours before; "never felt better" than just previous to the attack, and yet in a few hours are dead.

Nature has been at work silently and unfeelingly, until from some slight exertion the weak parts of the human engine breaks down, and the end overtakes the sufferer almost before he knows he is sick. If a little more care had been taken to keep the system "tuned up" and in perfect condition, and above all, the blood pure, these sudden collapses could be avoided.

For this purpose there is no remedy on earth so efficient as Kickapoo Indian Sagwa; made as it is from roots, herbs and gums of the forest. This remedy is without a parallel for keeping the body strong, healthy and well. It accomplishes its wonderful results by purifying the blood, and regulating the stomach, liver and kidneys. It should be taken regularly at this season of the year, when all nature is undergoing a change, as it will prevent the blood from becoming vitiated.

The Indians have used it successfully for centuries. Their continual perfect health and longevity, and the fact that sudden strokes, such as heart failure, apoplexy, and kindred ailments are unknown to them is due to the fact that from their birth they have used Kickapoo Indian Sagwa.

If you are not feeling just right, and cannot locate the trouble, take this wonderful medicine before it is too late. You do not know what minute you may be overtaken by some dire calamity. Health attends its use always. All druggists sell it. $1.00 a bottle, 6 bottles for $5.00.

Severe weather in Missouri, Arkansas and Texas. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 26.—The following item was sent by the Postal Telegraph company today: "The blizzard which set in here early last evening subsided this morning, after leaving sixteen to eighteen inches of snow on the ground, badly crippling street railroads and greatly impeding all kinds of traffic. Telephone wires are broken in numerous places and telegraphic lines are down in all directions. No damage has yet been reported in the city. From dispatches received late last night it is feared that the storm raged violently throughout Missouri, Arkansas, and Texas. In the latter state it swept over the ranches, covering the ground with snow several inches deep, severely exposing all kinds of live stock."

The Bride Col. McLaughlin's Daughter-The Groom Sub-Agent at Rock Creek.

Special to the Globe.

HISMAKOCK, N. D., Nov. 26.—One of the most brilliant social events which ever transpired at the Standing Rock agency was the marriage on the 19th inst. of Miss Marie Imelda McLaughlin and Frank Walter Lyon, which solemnized at the residence of the bride's parents at their lovely ranch on the Cannon Ball river. Rev. Father Martin officiating, assisted by Rev. Father Bernard Strassmaier. Mrs. Lyon is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Col. James McLaughlin, United States Indian Inspector, and for fourteen years Indian agent at Standing Rock. Mr. Lyon is a son of Col. L. D. Lyon, of Watertown, S. D., and at present is subagent at the Rock creek station, Standing Rock agency. The fact that both bride and groom are well known in social circles in Minnesota and the Dakotas brought out a large number of their friends to attend the wedding, notwithstanding the long distance necessary to travel in order to reach the ranch home of Col. McLaughlin. There were present besides the members of the family: Col. Samuel E. Slater, of Washington, D. C., chief of finance in the Indian department; Miss Angeline E. Buisson, Miss Alma Buisson, Daniel Buisson, Mr. and Mrs. Capt. Cyril Buisson, all of Wabasha, Minn.; Col. L. D. Lyon, of Watertown, S. Two little flower girls, Luella McLaughlin and Jean Witzleben, led the procession to the altar. The ceremony was quite elaborate and impressive, and many of the toasts were poems of elegance. After the ceremony light refreshments were served, and dancing followed on the festivities of the evening. An interesting feature of the ceremony was the congratulations of 100 Indians, who filed through the bride and groom, by this act showing their love and respect for the contracting parties.

On Saturday evening a family reunion was held at the residence of Maj. and Mrs. J. W. Cram, the major being the Indian agent at Standing Rock. There was congregated about thirty relatives, brought together by reason of the wedding, and a feast of reason and flow of soul prevailed. Maj. and Mrs. Cram entertained the visiting relatives over Sunday, and on Monday the friends left for their respective homes. NOT HIRING PLAYERS.

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA ANSWERS CASPAR W. WHITNEY.

Caspar W. Whitney has stirred up all the colleges of the West, from Ann Arbor to Minneapolis. During the last few weeks he has been contributing articles to Harper's Weekly, speculating upon the prospects of the various football teams. Had he stopped at this his work would have been harmless, but in the last issue of Harper's he took occasion to charge several institutions, including the University of Minnesota, with professionalism, with paying and offering to pay football players to become members of its team. Immediately upon its receipt in Detroit, the leaders of athletes put their heads together, and yesterday issued the following sweeping denial: "Harper's Weekly, in an article entitled, 'Amateur Sport,' and signed Caspar W. Whitney, appears certain unfounded and false statements concerning the University of Minnesota. It is stated that the football team has employed professional players, paying them money for their services during the season of 1895. Two names are mentioned; those of Hoagland and Parkyn. The University Athletic Association herewith files its explicit denial of the charges."

As regards Hoagland: This man was never in any way connected with the Minnesota team, and never ever played in a Minnesota uniform. No person connected with the management of the University of Minnesota has ever offered money to any player to play in the Chicago or in any other team. The Chicago athletic team prepared to return to Minnesota. When the University of Minnesota returned and enrolled himself in the medical college, where he has been pursuing work. No agreement to pay him $500 or any other sum was ever closed by him, and no money did he ever receive $500 or any other sum for playing on the Minnesota team. Nor was there any "guise" or "disguise" of any kind.

The charges against the manager of the Chicago team, Hoagland, and through him against the association, are in every particular false from beginning to end. —Conway MacMillan, Professor of Biology, Chairman of Faculty Committee on Athletics. —G. A. E. Finlayson, President of Athletic Association. —Manager of '35 Football Team.

ENOUGH OF SILVER.

A TRANS-MISSISSIPPI DELEGATE OFFERS A SOUND MONEY RESOLUTION.

FREE COINAGE OPPOSED.

IT WOULD LOWER AMERICAN CREDIT AND INJURE OUR PRESTIGE.

GOLD SUPPLY SUFFICIENT.

Reciprocity and the Nicaraguan Canal Before the Convention at Omaha.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 26.—The annual election of officers of the trans-Mississippi commercial congress was the first order of business when the convention opened this morning, but the work in this direction was slow. Preliminary to taking up the regular programme R. W. Richardson, of Omaha, introduced a declaration diametrically opposed to the free silver resolution previously offered by Gov. Prince. It was: "The trans-mississippi congress, at its eighth annual session, respectfully represents to congress of the United States: Recognizing the wisdom of the great commercial nations of the world in declaring that the gold supply is all sufficient and requisitely stable for the measure of standard value, we demand the maintenance of the present gold standard as a basis of our circulation, until such time as the leading commercial nations of the world shall, in the course of national agreement or by international agreement or otherwise, unite on a ratio we desire, the largest use of silver in the world consistent with the recognized standard of value. We deny the statements and declarations of free silver advocates that the law of 1873, dropping silver from the coinage, was surreptitious legislation; that such legislation introduced the price of wheat or any other commodity; that it is responsible for the present financial depression or the thousand ills so prolific in the imagination of the average free silver enthusiast. We are opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver by this government, independently of international agreement, because we believe the result of such action would mean silver monometallism, thus dropping our nation from her class with the leading commercial nations of the world."

A resolution introduced by M. V. W. Hulmann, of Missouri, called on congress to re-enact the reciprocity clause of the McKinley bill which was nullified by the Gorman bill.

The Nicaraguan canal question was discussed by Hugh Craig, of San Francisco, who represents the chamber of commerce of that city. Capt. W. L. Merry, who was to speak on this matter, was unable to be present. The remainder of the day's session was devoted to addresses on "Freight Rates and Discriminations," by James U. Mahoney, of Sioux City, and Capt. Lon Bryson, of Davenport, Io.

Hon. W. J. Bryan, of Nebraska, was the first who had been dismissed. The following subjects were discussed at this evening's session: "Hawaii," by Hugh Craig, San Francisco; "Deep Waterways to the Farmer," by Howell Holmes, of Topeka, Kan.; "The Waterways of the West," by Robert W. Wood, of St. Paul, Minn.; "The Advantages of Deep Waterways to the Farmer," by Howell Holmes, of Topeka, Kan.; "The Waterways of the West," by Robert W. Wood, of St. Paul, Minn.; "The Advantages of Deep Waterways to the Farmer," by Howell Holmes, of Topeka, Kan.

JEHOVAH'S SECOND DAY.

A St. Paul Man's Answer to Col. Ingersoll.

To the Editor of the Globe. Mr. Ingersoll has asked the ministers to tell their congregations what God was doing on the second day of the week. I am no minister in the accepted meaning of the word, but I love the old book, and I will be much indebted to you if you give me an opportunity to defend it through your columns. His apparent success in his attack on Gen. I. is caused by a poor translation of the Hebrew word "earth." King James' translation comes from the Latin, not the original Hebrew, hence the mistaken idea of firmness. The true meaning of the word is "solidity." The word "earth" is a translation of the Hebrew word "adamah," which means "solidity." The first act of creation, we are told, was the bringing of matter into being. Its condition was "a waste and emptiness," and it consisted of a fluid mass. The work of the second day, which Mr. Ingersoll asks about, was the separation of the waters above into waters above and water below. The "air," a gaseous substance, composed chiefly of oxygen and nitrogen, envelops the earth to a distance of about fifty miles from its surface. Gen. I, 7, tells us that God separated the cloudy vapors from the waters upon the earth, thus creating the "firmament," or "expanse." The Hebrew word "firmament" is "raqia," which means "to be stretched out." The word "firmament" is a translation of the Hebrew word "raqia," which means "to be stretched out." The word "firmament" is a translation of the Hebrew word "raqia," which means "to be stretched out."
