

to publish your official report in other than a paper printed in the English language.

"It is my opinion that a liberal construction of the law should obtain in the matter of the printing of the report. The purpose as evinced by provision of the constitution abovesaid, is to inform the people of the state generally as to its official affairs. While you should cause the report to be printed in at least one paper with fully comply with the requirements in defining a legal newspaper, it will be equally as well deemed advisable, to employ for such purpose the columns of any other paper, although printed in a foreign language."

FAMOUS KICKAPOO INDIAN DIES ALL POWERFUL FOR THIS PAINFUL OF AFFLICTIONS.

WHEN one considers the exposure and life endured by the Indians from whom this medicine is derived, it is not surprising that they should be so afflicted with rheumatism. The Kickapoo Indians, who are the only ones who have been known to cure this disease, have a secret which they have been unwilling to reveal to the white man. This secret is the only one that has been known to cure this disease, and it is the only one that has been known to cure this disease.

that their medicines must contain powerful properties, which is confirmed by the case. The Indian preserves perfect health by paying the most possible attention to his body. For he has studied the art of healing and having become thoroughly conversant with nature's own remedies which she dispenses to him in the form of roots, barks and herbs, and which by experience he has learned to skillfully gather and combine so that at last he has succeeded in obtaining remedies which are recognized throughout the world as the most wonderful for this most dreaded disease.
