

MINNEAPOLIS.

LOYAL LEGION.

Monthly Meeting of the Order in Minneapolis.

The Minnesota Commandery of the Loyal Legion held their monthly meeting in the ordinary of the West hotel last evening. There were 15 members present besides the guests, who were Byron Sutherland, W. K. Collins, A. L. Beknap, John Day Smith, R. W. Sutherland, Maj. S. A. U. S. A., D. H. Snee and L. H. Isted.

Ellwood S. Corser, after the supper had been finished, read the paper of the evening, entitled "Day With the Confederates," giving a very graphic account of the charge on the bloody angle at the battle of Spotsylvania. The reader touched particularly upon the part taken in the charge by the Ninety-third New York infantry, and also the thrilling experience he himself had in the fight.

Samuel Appleton told a funny experience that Col. Fry had in trying to tell a rabid Democratic confederate the magnitude of the Republican confederate party after the war. The old rebel knew that Jeff Davis was burned to a birch tree in the presence of his wife and children, and there was no telling him about the Republican party.

Judge Willis, of St. Paul, spoke with feeling of the noble work of the august body before him, and at whose feet he was delighted to have the opportunity to sit.

John Day Smith, one of the guests of the evening, was in the charge of Bloody Angle, and told his recollections of what was one of the fiercest battles of the war.

Col. Paige, Third United States Infantry, now a member of the Minnesota commandery, by transfer from Illinois, made a patriotic, stirring speech on the grand results accruing from the late unpleasantness.

Dr. Witt C. Fowler was elected a member of the order.

PARTIES WILL PURCHASE.

Men Found Who Will Take Reservoir Bonds.

The reservoir committee of the city council held a meeting yesterday afternoon at which it was developed that there now stand ready to take the bonds at a premium, so that there will be no trouble whatever in imbursement of the sinking fund for money advanced to carry on the necessary work at the reservoir.

Winston Dross, from whom the rails were purchased to lay the temporary track used in hauling material around the reservoir, sent a communication offering to purchase the track back from the city at the price paid for it. Their offer was accepted.

The delivery of the stone at the reservoir was ordered continued.

MRS. VALESH SPEAKS.

Mrs. Eva McDonald Valesh, of St. Paul, was invited by the president to address the convention. She said she had come here to spend her holidays among the labor leaders in order to learn from them and take back to the workmen and workwomen of Chicago what she learns here.

"I am on my way to Europe," she said, "where I intend to spend six months. I will take my bicycle and visit the homes of foreign working people, and learn as far as possible how they live, what wages they earn and how they spend them."

On motion she was voted a letter of credentials from the American Federation of Labor to the foreign labor unions.

George McNeill, the father in this country of the labor union movement, was made one of a special committee to take resolutions in connection with the eight-hour movement.

A part of the report of the executive council, which is likely to cause a breeze in the convention, refers to the request of the trades and labor assembly of St. Louis that the charter of the Musicians' Mutual Benefit Association No. 5,579 be revoked because the latter organization refused to strike to support the theatrical stage employees. The council refused to revoke the charter, and presents these resolutions for adoption in its report.

"Resolved, That no central body or state federation have the right to expel or suspend delegates of any local or national union for refusing to violate a contract existing with the employees."

The report further resolves: "That in the trouble between the St. Louis central body and the musicians, we refuse to withdraw the musicians' autonomy accorded by the national convention, but we prohibit them from interfering with bona fide contracts of local unions."

EIGHT HOURS OF IT.

A Civil Service Examination Is in Progress.

Mark Wavog has a hard task on his hands. He is conducting the civil service examination of O. G. Borgen as a mechanical draughtsman. Uncle Sam is very careful in his selection of candidates for such positions, and this examination will last for two more days, having commenced yesterday morning. Every day the candidate is kept in the sweat box for eight hours, during which he is not allowed to communicate with any person except the examiner.

WILL BUY IN JUNE.

Charities and Corrections Board.

Decides to Secure Fuel Early. Monday evening the board of correction and charities held a short meeting, at which it was decided to postpone the removal of the board's quarters to the new court house for some time. Mayor Pratt moved that the board advertise for fuel bids in June instead of in the fall. The motion was carried. The monthly budget showed the following figures: Poor department, $2,544.18; city hospital, $1,929.98; workhouse, $467.88. Misses Emma Myers, Anna Segram and May Ashley were appointed nurses.

Remembered Her Benefactor.

The will of Mrs. Eliza A. Tolman, who recently committed suicide by throwing herself into the river, was filed in the probate court yesterday. She divided her fortune of $99,900 among a number of relatives and friends, including a number of people who had shown her kindness at different times in her life. She remembered Ed Voris, the postmaster at Crawfordville, Ind., with a $200 gift for his help in her life in Germany a number of years ago. She was crossing a railroad track in front of an approaching train when she was killed.

HELD THEM DOWN.

SOVIETISTS NOT TO BE ALLOWED TO RUN THE A. F. L. CONVENTION.

EIGHT-HOUR RESOLUTIONS.

CHARGES THAT THE TIME LIMIT IS NOT ENFORCED ON PUBLIC WORKS.

EXONERATION OF MURKIN.

Rejection of a Delegate From St. Louis Because He Represented Only Himself.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—At today's session of the Federation of Labor President McBride was exonerated of the charges that during a strike in Pennsylvania he had accepted a bribe. It became evident early in the afternoon that any attempt on the part of the socialists to run the convention would be nipped in the bud. In fact, the other delegates claim that any interference whatever on the part of the socialists would be promptly squelched. The first business of the day was the determination by the convention to hold meetings daily from 9:30 to 12:30 and from 2:30 to 5:30 p. m. It was also voted to make Thursday afternoon the latest time for the presentation of resolutions. Debate on questions will be limited to five minutes.

Secretary McCracken read the report of the executive council, which bears various grievances. The report relates to the boycotts of the past year, and the manner in which they were settled. Action upon the report was deferred until the printed copies should be in the hands of the delegates. The committee on credentials reported in favor of seating the delegates of the Iron Molders' and Painters and Decorators' unions and excluding J. H. Sullivan in place of J. W. Kenny, of the painters and decorators. A report from the executive council was read by Secretary McCracken, in which President McBride was exonerated of the bribery charges made during a strike in Pennsylvania.

MRS. VALESH SPEAKS.

Mrs. Eva McDonald Valesh, of St. Paul, was invited by the president to address the convention. She said she had come here to spend her holidays among the labor leaders in order to learn from them and take back to the workmen and workwomen of Chicago what she learns here.

"I am on my way to Europe," she said, "where I intend to spend six months. I will take my bicycle and visit the homes of foreign working people, and learn as far as possible how they live, what wages they earn and how they spend them."

On motion she was voted a letter of credentials from the American Federation of Labor to the foreign labor unions.

George McNeill, the father in this country of the labor union movement, was made one of a special committee to take resolutions in connection with the eight-hour movement.

A part of the report of the executive council, which is likely to cause a breeze in the convention, refers to the request of the trades and labor assembly of St. Louis that the charter of the Musicians' Mutual Benefit Association No. 5,579 be revoked because the latter organization refused to strike to support the theatrical stage employees. The council refused to revoke the charter, and presents these resolutions for adoption in its report.

"Resolved, That no central body or state federation have the right to expel or suspend delegates of any local or national union for refusing to violate a contract existing with the employees."

The report further resolves: "That in the trouble between the St. Louis central body and the musicians, we refuse to withdraw the musicians' autonomy accorded by the national convention, but we prohibit them from interfering with bona fide contracts of local unions."

EIGHT HOURS OF IT.

A Civil Service Examination Is in Progress.

Mark Wavog has a hard task on his hands. He is conducting the civil service examination of O. G. Borgen as a mechanical draughtsman. Uncle Sam is very careful in his selection of candidates for such positions, and this examination will last for two more days, having commenced yesterday morning. Every day the candidate is kept in the sweat box for eight hours, during which he is not allowed to communicate with any person except the examiner.

WILL BUY IN JUNE.

Charities and Corrections Board.

Decides to Secure Fuel Early. Monday evening the board of correction and charities held a short meeting, at which it was decided to postpone the removal of the board's quarters to the new court house for some time. Mayor Pratt moved that the board advertise for fuel bids in June instead of in the fall. The motion was carried. The monthly budget showed the following figures: Poor department, $2,544.18; city hospital, $1,929.98; workhouse, $467.88. Misses Emma Myers, Anna Segram and May Ashley were appointed nurses.

Remembered Her Benefactor.

The will of Mrs. Eliza A. Tolman, who recently committed suicide by throwing herself into the river, was filed in the probate court yesterday. She divided her fortune of $99,900 among a number of relatives and friends, including a number of people who had shown her kindness at different times in her life. She remembered Ed Voris, the postmaster at Crawfordville, Ind., with a $200 gift for his help in her life in Germany a number of years ago. She was crossing a railroad track in front of an approaching train when she was killed.

Langston's Hard Luck.

Alaric Langston, who has just finished a two years' term at Stillwater, was brought over by Deputy George Bright and yesterday appeared before Judge Jamison to answer to two other charges, one for grand larceny in the second degree and the other for burglary in the third degree. The indictment was brought against him Feb. 18, 1894, charging him with stealing $27 worth of silverware from a North-east Pacific freight car.

He was given 40 months to secure a lawyer, when he will enter his plea.

Daunais was Arraigned.

Theophile Daunais, the alleged forger, was arraigned in the criminal court yesterday. He pleaded not guilty. His case was set for Dec. 19. He is charged with passing a forged check for $100 on Joseph Barbeau. He was placed under bonds of $500.

BRADLEY IN OFFICE.

GREAT GATHERING OF REPUBLICANS AT FRANKFORT FOR INAUGURATION.

PARADE THROUGH THE CITY.

PARTY JUBILATION OVER KENTUCKY'S FIRST REPUBLICAN GOVERNOR.

HIS INAUGURAL ADDRESS.

Protection to American Industries and Greater Recognition of Silver in the Currency.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

BRADLEY IN OFFICE.

GREAT GATHERING OF REPUBLICANS AT FRANKFORT FOR INAUGURATION.

PARADE THROUGH THE CITY.

PARTY JUBILATION OVER KENTUCKY'S FIRST REPUBLICAN GOVERNOR.

HIS INAUGURAL ADDRESS.

Protection to American Industries and Greater Recognition of Silver in the Currency.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—William O'Donnell Bradley was sworn in at noon today as governor of Kentucky. President Lary, when seen tonight, said there was no material change in the situation of affairs, and expressed himself as being strong in the belief that the strike would be long and lasting, as both sides were firm in the course adopted.

DONALDSON'S Glass Block Store, Minneapolis. ALL INTERURBAN CARS PASS OUR DOORS.

Overtops Them All in the elaborate display of Christmas Goods; in the merits of the merchandise offered; in the Low Prices asked; in the vastness of the Toy Collection on the Second Floor; in the wonderful Interior and Window Displays THE GLASS BLOCK STORE this year more than ever the rendezvous of the connoisseur and thrifty gift-seeker.

Second Floor TOYS Second Floor. Pacheesl game 79c, Iron Fire Engine 94c, Wooden Horse on wheels 79c, 13-inch Toy Boat, a fine toy 21c, Tin wagon, covered and side doors that lift up, also horses 21c, Oral Sled, hardwood sled, finely finished, 36 inches long 65c, 10-inch Drum, very handsome price today 59c, Toy Bureau, size 16x22 98c, Toy Scales 18c, Keyless Bank, made of cast iron, 4 1/2 x 20 89c, China Tea Set, 15 pieces, painted 25c, Hardwood Toy Bed 21c, Nickel Pocket Dime Bank 7c, Optical Dept Solid Gold Spectacles $1.69, $2.50, $3.50, $4.50.

Important Notice! NIAGARA FALLS, in all its glory, will be in full operation hourly each day from 12 o'clock noon. A REAL LIVE SANTA CLAUS Will appear daily in the Nicollet Avenue Windows.

SLAIN BY APACHES ANOTHER HORRIBLE MURDER BY INDIANS IN ARIZONA. FAMILY OF FIVE THIS TIME. KILLED BY THE SAME BAND THAT PUT THE MERRILLS TO DEATH. HEADING OFF THE CULPRITS. Soldiers and Cowboys Hot on the Trail of the Reds, Who Number Thirty-five.

THE ONLY NIGHT TRAIN SERVICE To Ashland and Gogebic Iron Range Towns. Commencing Dec. 14th the Wisconsin Central Line will run through sleeping cars between St. Paul and Ashland, leaving St. Paul 7:40 p. m., arriving Ashland, 7:55 a. m.; Hurley, 7:55 a. m.; Ironwood, 8 a. m.; Bessemer, 8:15 a. m. Returning, trains arrive at St. Paul 8:15 a. m. For tickets and sleeping car reservations call at City Ticket Office, 306 Robert street.

SHOT MASSEY DEAD. Fate of a Colored Prize Fighter in St. Louis. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 10.—Henry Massey, the colored prize fighter, was shot and instantly killed this afternoon by Nelson Casey, a driver of a garbage wagon. Casey claims he shot Massey in defense of his wife.

THE ONLY NIGHT TRAIN SERVICE To Ashland and Gogebic Iron Range Towns. Commencing Dec. 14th the Wisconsin Central Line will run through sleeping cars between St. Paul and Ashland, leaving St. Paul 7:40 p. m., arriving Ashland, 7:55 a. m.; Hurley, 7:55 a. m.; Ironwood, 8 a. m.; Bessemer, 8:15 a. m. Returning, trains arrive at St. Paul 8:15 a. m. For tickets and sleeping car reservations call at City Ticket Office, 306 Robert street.

THROUGH THE ROOF. MURPHYSBORO, Ill., Dec. 10.—A wholesale jail delivery occurred at an early hour today at the county jail here. The prisoners who escaped were John S. Jones, incarcerated for murder; C. W. Colton, held for horse stealing; George Brown and Charles Smith, burglary; George Gordon, larceny. Two prisoners, Charley Terrell, colored, held for larceny, and James Lipe, refused to escape, expecting acquittal in the January court. The men broke through the roof of their cells, which were but lately put in, and were thought to be safe.

Killed by Gas. CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—Mrs. Mae Allen Wright was found dead in her bed at the house of A. E. Kirk, her brother-in-law, this morning. Her death was due to inhaling illuminating gas. The coroner's jury in the afternoon returned a verdict of suicide, but the Kirk family maintain that it was an accident. Mrs. Wright was the wife of Elbe E. Wright, lately a professor in the Great Bend, Kan., college.

JUST THE THING FOR A Christmas Present. Any lady will appreciate such a useful and beautiful gift as our "Scovill's Gold". Puff Box AND A BOX OF Pozzoni's Celebrated Complexion Powder. Pozzoni's is the ideal Complexion Powder—beautifying, refreshing, cleanly, healthy and harmless. Both at your druggists or fancy goods dealers—50c or mailed on receipt of price. Address J. A. POZZONI PHARMACEUTICAL CO., St. Louis, Mo.

ESTABLISHED 1865. AUCTION SALE DIAMONDS AND WATCHES, SILVERWARE. Holiday Goods by the Thousands! NO RESERVE! NO LIMIT! POSITIVELY RETIRING FROM BUSINESS. SELECT any article in the house and you can buy it at your own price. J. R. ELLIOT, 428 and 430 Nicollet, Minneapolis, Minn.