MOVEMENTS OF STEAMSHIPS. NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Arrived: Manitoba, from London; Havel, from Bremen.

SOUTHAMPTON.—Arrived: St. Louis, from New York.

Mr. Cleveland could easily be elected president of Venezuela.

Philadelphia is such a slow old town that walking is about its proper gait.

This is a good time for the Minnesota militia to get its ear to the ground.

Allen G. Thurman handled his own affairs so well that he left $100,000 to his children.

Mr. Harrison has said nothing to indicate that he is not still a candidate for the hand of Mrs. Dimmick.

Speaking of the matter of boundaries, there is no longer any question about the boundary of the Monroe doctrine.

Who knows but Davis H. Waite, of Colorado, may yet get an opportunity for his horse to "wade in blood up to his bridle?"

In the event of a war a few companies of the new women in bloomers might be useful in awing the blawsted Brits.

In the meantime, let's proceed with the case of Abdul Hamid, under indictment for murder by the nations of the earth.

Many newspapers are publishing portraits of the mothers of noted men. The mother of Mrs. Lease belongs in the list.

It is pretty plain that the Populists of the senate are open to the "usual arguments" offered by Republicans as a last resort.

Louisiana wants Christmas "sugar." Judge Pardee has decided at New Orleans that the sugar bounty act is unconstitutional.

Amid the smoke of battle one does not see the beautiful form of Joel Heatwole or hear his silver tongue shouting for more bullets.

The eldersmakers of the Northwest met at Chicago yesterday to protest against the kind of raisins some people are putting in their cider.

Harry Hayward is not here to make affidavits in the "confession" about to be printed in the confession he made in the Hennepin county jail.

Senator Quay has presented to the senate a petition for a tariff on wool. For this act the senator will no doubt secure wool enough to pull over the eyes of the Republican national convention.

The friends of Gen. Harrison have decided to locate to some other state than Indiana to get the seats of that many Democrats in the house. This is downright cruelty. If twenty-five Democrats are unseated, there will hardly be enough left to form a corporal's guard.

It is a matter worthy of note that the only two people of prominence in America who did not approve of the president's stand on the Venezuelan question are Joseph Pulitzer and John P. Altgeld.

Twenty-nine Republicans are in Washington trying to get the seats of that many Democrats in the house. This is downright cruelty. If twenty-five Democrats are unseated, there will hardly be enough left to form a corporal's guard.

While we are at it, Mr. J. Bull, we want to know just what you are doing on the Alaskan border. If you monkey with the surveyors' outfit in that locality you must not be surprised if our good right arm is used without much formality to bring you to your senses.

The senate appears to have just discovered what the Globe has known for years, that money is being used to influence national legislation. The election committee of the body has been directed to investigate the efforts of corporations to control the election of congressmen and also to control legislation.

HASTINGS GETS IT

SELECTED AS THE SITE FOR THE FOURTH INSANE HOSPITAL.

NINE BALLOTS WERE TAKEN

BEFORE THE MAJORITY OF THE COMMISSION CAST SIMILAR VOTES.

IS SAID TO BE A FINE SITE.

Beautiful Location for Buildings, Besides It Has Splendid and Valuable Water Power.

The fourth state hospital for the insane will be located at Hastings.

Such was the decision reached yesterday afternoon by the commission appointed by the governor to look up a location and supervise the work of construction.

Nine ballots were taken, the first an informal one, on which Hastings received 3 votes, Anoka 3 and Chaska 1. On the first formal ballot the vote was Bondy, Smith and Hoper for Hastings, Bloch, Merriam and Eastman for Anoka and Carlson for Chaska. On the next six ballots the vote stood exactly the same, and on the ninth Mr. Carlson changed his vote to Hastings, thereby giving that town a majority of one.

Messrs. Bloch, Merriam and Eastman voted for Anoka right straight through the nine ballots, but when the final vote was counted, and Hastings was found to have a majority, a motion to make the vote unanimous was put and carried.

The commission decided not to advertise for plans and specifications until several hospitals had been visited. They will go to St. Peter today and to Rochester tomorrow to look over the buildings.

The offer made by the city of Hastings to the commissioners is a very liberal one. The city is to receive $50,000 for the site, which is 642 acres in extent. The value of the land is $30 per acre, and it has a water power valued at $50,000. The city agrees further to put improvements on the site to the value of $40,000. From the descriptions furnished of the other sites offered the Hastings one contains all the advantages and in every way meets the demands of a location for such an institution. The citizens who appeared before the commission to urge the claims of the town were Hon. John T. Norish, Senator Schaller, Mayor Parker, Ald. Bailey, Tuttle and Busch, ex-Mayor John Herman, C. Melloy and Charles E. Staples.

Before the plans are advertised for the commissioners will have to settle upon the general plan of the buildings, whether they will be on the cottage plan or as the other hospitals are, and in connection with this the important proposition as to whether the hospital shall be for the treatment of acute cases only or for all classes of patients, as the other hospitals are. The commissioners have been in correspondence with authorities all over the country in regard to this matter, and it was discussed briefly at the meeting yesterday. The general feeling seems to be in favor of the cottage plan, but the commission will visit some of the most prominent hospitals in the country before arriving at any definite conclusions as to what plan will be recommended to the legislature next winter.

A good deal of excitement was gotten up around the capitol while the meeting was in progress, and this was increased when Rush City appeared in the field as a candidate. A large delegation came down and offered a site of 640 acres of land or $15,000 in cash. In addition to the delegation from Rush City there were several members of the Duluth chamber of commerce and a number of representative men from Taylor's Falls and the surrounding towns and counties. The delegation from Rush City was headed by J. D. Markham and S. C. Johnson, president of the village council. The other members were D. McGuire, J. J. Squires, J. F. Somers, D. Farrell, I. C. Carlson, H. W. Hart, F. C. Laird, T. W. Wadlow, K. G. Ramberg, J. J. Flynn and V. D. Eddy, of the Rush City Post. Senator Hodge, of Pine City, and Representative Anderson and L. W. Folsom, of Taylor's Falls, also accompanied the delegation.

The visitors were given a hearing and a map was presented showing the location of the other asylums, and dividing the state into districts. There are sixteen and one-half counties, containing a population according to the state census, of 562,759, were directly tributary to Rush City; that it was a district constantly increasing in population, and, in short, a natural location for the hospital, being easily accessible from the three largest cities and the mining district in the northwestern part of the state. Mr. Markham stated that the soil in that vicinity was excellent, and they could offer a tract of land with a fine stream running through it.

After listening to the proposition, the commission decided that no further sites could be considered, as an opportunity had been given some time since for cities desiring to do so to send in plans.

The delegation from Anoka was also present, and they came down fearing no competition except Hastings. The commissioners were all present at the meeting. O. C. Merriman, of Minneapolis, presided. After the matter of the location was disposed of, the board adjourned to meet today at St. Peter.
