Stetson's Recommendations Go. Chief Stetson, of the fire department, appears to have made up his mind to make an effort to establish the department under him upon a clean-cut, new basis. He started in with the matter of salaries, and last evening after a two days' session with the joint salary committee, succeeded in inducing the members thereof to approve his new system. If the council approves of the action of the committee hereafter the firemen will be paid in two grades according to their length of time in service, and their salaries will be increased accordingly.

There was a disposition to crowd the salary list up to the very last notch, but this the chief would not permit, and the result was to close the year with a big deficit. The total figure of the salary list finally adopted is $25,025.

After Charles Tyler, the colored man, had been convicted of running a gambling house, on a minister's testimony in the municipal court yesterday afternoon, he paid his $50 fine like a little man and then whispered softly to himself: "Vengeance is mine."

He held a consultation with his attorney, W. R. Morris, and determined to play even with Rev. James McAllister, of Silver Lake Congregational church, by having that gentleman arrested on a charge of gambling. It looked like a clear case. On the stand, but a short time before the divine had admitted that he bucked the tiger to the extent of $500.

He admitted that he had played roulette. Therefore Tyler and his attorney argued that he was guilty of violating the city ordinance which says: "Thou shalt not gamble." True, Rev. McAllister could not be convicted on his own testimony, but that made little difference, Tyler had a number of witnesses who saw him play, among them "the man behind the wheel."

FOR SHOAL WATERS.

SUCH IS THE NEW WAR SHIP LAUNCHED AT NEWPORT NEWS YESTERDAY.

IT IS CHRISTENED HELENA.

THE USUAL BOTTLE OF CHAMPAGNE IS BROKEN BY A MONTANA BELLE.

WAS A DOUBLE-HEADER EVENT. The Grand Duchesse, Which Will Be Part of the Auxiliary Navy, Goes Off the Ways.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Jan. 30.—The third warship constructed by a private Southern shipyard since the war, and also the largest merchant steamer built in this country, with the exception of the two American trans-Atlantic liners built by the Cramps, were launched successfully here by the Newport News Ship-Building company at high tide this morning in the presence of a distinguished party from Washington. Members of the house naval affairs committee, Admiral Brown, commanding the navy yard, and a large concourse of people, estimated at 5,000, from adjacent towns. There were present also representatives from Admiral Bunce's great fleet in Hampton Roads; Senators Carter and Mantle, Montana, and Assistant Secretary McCo, who represented the navy department in the absence of Secretary Herbert.

To add to the spectacular effect produced by numbers of steamers and sailing vessels, which had gathered here for the occasion, was the battleship Indiana, which came up from Fort Monroe this morning to launch, pending her departure later for the coast. Her two vessels are the finest type of their class ever turned out by this yard, which soon begins the construction of the mammoth battleship Kentucky and Kearsarge, authorized by the last congress.

In order to take advantage of low tide, the launch of the vessel took place before 11 o'clock, one followed the other, as fast as the workmen could handle the material, and wedged up with their keels. The first to be launched was the merchant vessel, whose name had been kept a secret until she began to show above the water. She is the Grand Duchesse. As the stern of the great hull caught the water, the shrill whistle of the foreign ships at the yard and the hoarsest cheer blasted the battleship Indiana gave greetings while thousands of people showed their appreciation by prolonged cheers for the new vessels.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies President Orin and the other visitors at a banquet, where the ships and the company were toasted by the senators, representatives and others. The keels of the two new battleships will be laid near the spot where the two ships were launched today.

ONE OF A NEW TYPE. The gunboat Helena is one of the two ships of peculiar design built for the navy by the Newport News company, the first ship of this class being launched last October. The purpose was to secure an efficient type of vessel for the navigation of shallow waters, and also to enable them to be used in carrying the United States flag into many ports of South and Central America which are now inaccessible to our war ships owing to the shallow water. It is a vessel of complete with all stores aboard will draw only nine feet of water, and may go where any schooner able to navigate the coast can go. She is a battleship in the sense of possessing armor and big guns, will carry eight four-inch rifles, guns quite large enough to meet any emergency. She has the craft and heavy fortifications, and a number of smaller machine guns, so mounted as to afford an extremely deadly fire upon mobs, or troops on shore or on board. She has a hull of the Helena to make up and down narrow and crooked channels, she has double rudders, giving great turning power, and the stern is a soft bank and the bow swept around by the current as is customary in some of our smaller vessels.

To give the screw sufficient water to work in, and at the same time to protect them from snags and drift logs, the stern and bow are placed in two tunnels, worked in the bottom of the boat. The general lines of the boat above water are broad, and this results in giving much more than the usual displacement. The hull is so constructed that the boat will be peculiarly fitted for service in the tropics, and will also be able to give refuge to many people in time of stress. There will be no sails upon this vessel, and her one mast is a big steel tube, large enough to permit of a spiral staircase inside, giving easy access of space generally, where four machine guns are placed, to sweep the shores and the steersman may sit in safety, forty feet above the water, and thus look clear over the narrow bends in Chinese rivers. The Helena is 250 feet 9 inches long, by 40 feet 1 inch beam, and has a speed of 12 knots and will carry 500 officers and men. She is built of steel throughout and is launched just two years after the award of the contract for building her by the Newport News Ship Building company, at $2,000,000, although the appropriation for the entire ship was not to exceed $400,000. In her construction, every device calculated to give efficiency and comfort of space generally was used. She has a double bottom, as a guarantee against collisions and groundings and is believed to be a model gunboat for the special service she was designed to meet.

The Grand Duchesse is a merchant steamer built for the Plant line and designed to run between Tampa and the Bahamas, but as she is built in strict accordance with the requirements of the subsidy act, she is subject to call by the government at any time to serve as a vessel of the auxiliary navy. She is fully half as big again as the Helena, and is finished throughout in the latest style of the day. She has a double bottom, and is believed to be a model gunboat for the safety and comfort of the passengers. She is 404 feet long, by 27

INDIGNANT SPANIARDS. Cuban Resolutions Denounced by the Newspapers.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—A dispatch to the Standard from Madrid says: The papers here protest energetically against the United States senate committee's attitude on the Cuban question. They declare that the insurgents have fulfilled none of the requisites by international law or usage for the recognition of the belligerent status of government organs, with a view to pacifying the public irritation, point out that President Cleveland, his ministers and the federal authorities so far have preserved a perfectly correct and friendly attitude towards Spain, contrasting strongly with the popular sympathy and the federal authorities so far have obtained from the American people.

SWINDLED THE JUNTA. Facts Regarding the Hawkins Are Brought Out at a Cuban Meeting.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The World this morning says: A meeting of Cuban patriots which was not known of outside the revolutionary band until last night was held Wednesday night at the Astor house. The discussion brought out the facts. Gen. Garcia had asked for a first-class sailing vessel with which to take 200 men and some arms to Cuba. He was promised everything needed, and an agent of the junta was set at work equipping her. The vessel cost the junta $12,000, while it really cost not more than $2,000, and several experts, who were charged, had informed the junta before Garcia sailed that the vessel was wholly unfit for a voyage. No heed was paid to these warnings. The honesty of the agent who bought the ship was questioned, so the story goes, the great discrepancy between the value of the vessel and the purchase price being pointed out. A resolution of confidence in Minister Palma received almost unanimous assent.

CAMPANIA NOT ABOARD. NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Yermon H. Brown, agent of the Cunard line, has issued a statement in regard to rumors that the Campania had sailed for Havana Saturday morning at the time the St. Paul ground was being broken. He says that the Campania had been in dangerous proximity to the beach at Long Island, and that he had been emphatically denied that the Campania was within two miles of the shore. He says the ship is entirely false.

Thousands are continually dying who are scarcely 30 years of age, from a complex of worn out state. While you still have vitality of old age as though they had lived to be 100, and the cause of this is due to a general demoralized condition of the great vital organs of the body—the stomach, the liver, the kidneys and the blood; let any of these become impaired and the blood instead of flowing through the body and carrying nourishment to every part of the system, just as when a complete collapse is experienced and speedily death ensues.

The Indians in fact for his longevity, due to the fact that he takes no medicine, but contains poisonous ingredients, but depends upon his famous Kickapoo Indian Sassa entirely, which is purely vegetable, made from roots, bark, gums and herbs of the forest.

James Reuben, the oldest living Seneca Indian attributes his long life to the use of this wonderful medicine, and is enthusiastic in its praise. This wonderful remedy rectifies all disorders of the great vital organs, but above all purifies the blood and enables it to perform its natural function, imparting life and vigor to all parts of the system.
