HILL AND SHERMAN

WERE THE CONSPICUOUS FIGURES IN THE CUBAN DEBATE YESTERDAY.

SCORNS THE GROUND TAKEN.

SCATHING ARRANGEMENT OF THE REVOLUTIONISTS BY THE NEW YORK MAX.

BELIEVES IN FORCEFUL ACTION.

We Should Do Something Definite for Cuba—Sherman Praises Cleveland.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Senators Sherman and Hill were the conspicuous figures in the Cuban debate in the senate today, the New York senator forcibly urging the strenuous character of the resolution, while Mr. Sherman upheld them with another graphic arraignment of Spain and Gen. Weyler. It was the fourth day of the debate on the conference report, and yet there was no indication of a near approach to a final vote, although Mr. Sherman announced that he would press for a vote at the earliest moment. The galleries continue to be crowded, and today showed no diminution of public interest. Mr. Hill's opposition to the resolutions was confined to that feature which expressed the purpose of the United States to intervene to protect the legitimate interests of the United States. This the senator declared was an ignoble and contemptible attitude. It was placing the cause of human liberty and patriotism on a very low plane, and he urged that the resolutions be defeated in order that they might be amended, and the mercenary features eliminated.

Sherman's speech was mainly a reassertion of the views he presented when the senate resolutions were adopted. He declared that war in Cuba was flagrant and the evidences of it abundant. He insisted on his characterization of Gen. Weyler as "the butcher," but conceded that the Spanish minister, Senor de Lome, had the full right and the duty in contesting and explaining the statement, either in or out of the state department. In the course of his speech, Mr. Sherman paid a glowing tribute to the patriotism and fidelity of President Cleveland, and his readiness to uphold the country's flag. The latter part of the day was given to the Dupont contest, Mr. Pritchard, of North Carolina, arguing in support of the claimant.

An important bill creating an art commission of five members was passed. Several unobjectionable bills were also passed.

HILL'S VIGOROUS SPEECH.

Mr. Sherman gave notice that he would endeavor to secure a vote on the report at the earliest possible moment. He was given the floor, clearing away routine matters, the Cuban resolutions were laid before the senate, and Mr. Hill, of New York, was called to the floor. He declared that he would vote against the conference report, and would confine his remarks mainly to the report at the earliest possible moment. ST. PAUL MEN IN IT

BILL BY SENATOR HANSBROUGH TO INCORPORATE A GREAT CANAL COMPANY.

BIG LAKES TO THE HUDSON.

INCORPORATORS NEARLY ALL WELL-KNOWN NORTHWESTERN BUSINESS MEN.

PROJECT IS A GIGANTIC ONE.

Canada Has Already Granted Privileges, But an American Line Is Wanted.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—A bill to incorporate the maritime canal of North America to connect the Hudson river and the great lakes was introduced today in the senate by Senator Hansbrough, of North Dakota, and in the house by Representative Cooper of Wisconsin. The incorporators of the company are Daniel H. Burnham, L. G. Fisher and O. D. Wetherell, of Chicago; Luther Allen, of Cleveland; F. L. Vance, of Milwaukee; L. R. Hurd and R. J. Wemyss, of Superior; W. B. Dean and Patrick H. Kelly, of St. Paul; Luthmer Mendenhall, G. Hartley and T. W. Hugo, of Duluth; James Andrews, of Pittsburg; Henry C. Burleigh, of Whitehall, N. Y.; John Bogart, C. H. Dutton, H. B. Slaven and G. S. Stever, of New York and Smith M. Weed, of Pittsburg, N. Y.

The capital stock is to be $10,000,000, and a bond issue of $2,000,000 is provided for. The canal system, for which the bill provides, includes canals from the head of tide navigation on the Hudson to Lake Champlain; from the head of Lake St. Francis to the St. Lawrence river, above the long Sault Rapids; from Lewiston, on the Niagara river, to a point on the river above the falls, and from that point to the falls and authority to deepen and widen the Champlain and Hudson canal is asked. The channels are to be twenty feet deep, to permit two of the largest vessels, drawing twenty feet, to pass, and the locks are to admit vessels 550 feet long and 65 wide. The project is to be approved by a board of five engineers appointed by the secretary of war, the canal is to be under the control of the interstate commerce commission and the government is, by the bill, authorized to take possession of the property on one week's notice by paying the value of the property. Speaking of the bill, Senator Hansbrough said:

"Although the persons securing this charter have a broad and liberal charter for a ship canal from Lake Erie to the Atlantic, through Canada, and to the Gulf of Mexico, with the privilege of using and enlarging the Welland canal, which is very important to the commerce of the world, it is much more important to the American route and induced the company, as I am informed, to do nothing in Canada until the charter could be secured from the congress of the United States."

At the conclusion of his remarks, the bill creating the "art commission of the United States" was taken up on the request of Mr. Hansbrough, and passed, after Mr. Hoar had secured an amendment striking out the provision that the commission should be appointed by the president and the arts.

The question of the proposed resolution program arose as to the future of the canal. Mr. Gray said it was the great desire of the committee on foreign relations to secure the canal as early as possible. Mr. Fry said that Mr. Sherman (who was absent) had told him that he would tomorrow, at the close of a speech by Mr. Cockrell on financial conditions, address the Cuban resolutions, and if there was objection, he would move to take them up. It was the general impression, however, that the vote would not be reached tomorrow.

The senate then passed several bills, among which were: To permit owners of claims to iron and coal mines on the forest reservations to perfect their title thereto and to procure a patent therefor.

At 5:35 the senate adjourned.

ALABAMA ELECTION METHODS

The Subject of Vexatious Debate in the House.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—In the house today, during the morning hour, a bill was passed extending the Union Railway company across the Monongahela river, and a motion was made by Mr. Johnson (Rep., Ind.) a resolution was introduced by the claim of Coleman (Rep.), of the Second Louisiana district, that the seat of the Republics be decided in favor of the latter. Then Mr. Daniels (Dem., N. Y.) called up the contested election case of Aldrich vs. Hobbs, from the Fourth Alabama district, in which the Republicans recommended the seating of Aldrich. Three hours and a half, he said, were to be allowed on each side for argument. Mr. Moody (Rep., Mass.) denounced in forcible language what he termed the crimes against honest elections in Alabama. He was followed by Mr. Lacey (N. C.) in a vehement speech in denunciation of frauds against the ballot, which he stigmatized as the "red-eyed daughter of high treason."

Mr. Hoar (Rep., Ind.) closed the debate for the day, and a speech in favor of seating Mr. Aldrich.

At 5:30 the house adjourned.

NO RIGHT TO KILL SEALS.

North American Company Protests Against the Dingley Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The North American Commercial company, by N. L. Jeffrey, its attorney here, has protested to the secretary of the treasury against the destruction of the Alaska fur seals by the Dingley bill, or in any other manner whatsoever. The protest, which the company, the least of the rights to take fur seals on the islands of St. Paul and St. George, under the terms and stipulations of its contract with the government, is an exclusive right to engage in the business of taking fur seals on the islands of St. Paul and St. George for two years from May 1, 1890, which tract is subsisting and remains valid and in full force and effect.

To Improve Stillwater Harbor.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Senator Nelson today introduced a resolution calling upon the secretary for an estimate of the cost of improving and maintaining the harbor at Stillwater, Minn. He also presented a resolution of the Minnesota State Forestry Association, praying for the protection of forestry reserves.

Hill to Open Mile Lacs.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Senator Nelson today introduced a joint resolution declaring the Mile Lacs reservation to be public land and as much entitled to homestead entry as other public lands. Mr. Nelson says he proposes, if possible, to straighten out the complications which have existed so long in reference to the land.

To Make Alaska a Territory.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The house committee on territories today decided to recommend the passage of a bill creating a territorial government for Alaska, and giving the territory a delegate in congress.

Judge Hall to Resign.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—It is extremely probable that Attorney General John I. Hall will tender his resignation to the president within two months. Judge Hall has just returned here from Atlanta, and he said today that while he had not yet resigned, he may do so later in the spring. He has been offered the generalship of the Georgia Southern & Florida railroad. Gen. A. S. Little, of Columbus, Ga., in all probability will be Mr. Hall's successor in the interior department.

Winona County Has a Sensational Matrimonial Affair.

Winnipeg, Minn., March 12.—A story of one of the youngest girl elopements on record from the village of Ononca. As usual, the couple went to Wisconsin to have the ceremony performed, and thus escape the penalties of a marriage license.

Last Monday a young man named Wallace Peck, accompanied by a young girl but thirteen years of age, went to Rochester, Minn., to attend a dance, and would be home late the next day. The girl, who is named Carrie, seems to have been with the couple since they left their parents. They did not return the same night, and the girl's mother, who is named Mrs. Peck, is now in a state of great anxiety.

The girl's mother is now in a state of great anxiety. She is a widow, and the girl is her only child. The girl is said to be a very beautiful and accomplished young woman. She is now in a state of great anxiety, and is being sought for by the police.
