

THE DAILY GLOBE IS PUBLISHED EVERY DAY AT NEWSPAPER ROW, COR. FOURTH AND MINNESOTA STS. OFFICIAL PAPER OF ST. PAUL, MINN.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Payable in Advance. Daily and Sunday, per Month, $2.75. Daily and Sunday, Six Months, $15.00. Daily and Sunday, One Year, $30.00.

Address all letters and telegrams to THE GLOBE, St. Paul, Minn. EASTERN ADVERTISING OFFICE, ROOM 517, TEMPLE COURT BUILDING, NEW YORK.

TODAY'S WEATHER. WASHINGTON, March 15.—Forecast for Monday: For Minnesota: Fair weather; northwesterly winds.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS. United States Department of Agriculture, Weather Bureau, Washington, March 15, 6:48 a. m. Local Time, 8 p. m. 75th Meridian Time.—Observations taken at the same moment of time at all stations.

Table with columns: Place, Temp., Place, Temp. St. Paul, 30; Winthrop, 34; Duluth, 20; Bismarck, 22; Bismarck, 22; Boston, 24-28; Wilkes-Barre, 20; Chicago, 23-29; Helena, 20; St. Helena, 20-28; Bartlesford, 20; New Orleans, 18-19; Prince Albert, 32; New York, 23-28; Medicine Hat, 20; Cincinnati, 23-32; Salt Creek, 20; Cincinnati, 23-32; Qu'Appelle, 20.

BAROMETER, 30.9; THERMOMETER, 24; relative humidity, 71; wind, southeast; weather, cloudy; maximum thermometer, 31; minimum thermometer, 17; daily range, 14; amount of melted snow in last twenty-four hours, trace.

ANOTHER ILLUSTRATION. We have a striking illustration of the radical difference between parties in the action of the Democrats and Republicans of New York under almost precisely similar circumstances.

Every man of any party who acts only in his capacity of private citizen reserves the right of independent action in an emergency. We have, for example, no quarrel with the individual Democrat who has made up his mind that he will not support a resolution either for or against free coinage.

It might have occurred to the Sentinel, we should suppose, that it asks the Globe to do that which we have blamed others for doing. It is a curious lapse of acuteness in our esteemed contemporary to demand that the Globe assert in advance what it will do or will not do if the national convention acts or refuses to act in a certain way.

MULTIPLYING DEPARTMENTS. The bill of Senator Frye to create a department of commerce and manufactures, with a cabinet officer at the head of it, is the natural successor of that by which the department of agriculture was so erected.

This year we find a similar condition existing in the Republican party in that state. There, too, is a machine absolutely dominating the party. Its engineer proposes to cast the vote of the delegation in the national convention in whatever direction will bring him gain of power.

Here the difference between Democrats and Republicans begins. Here the vital difference in the spirit of the two parties shows itself. The injunction, "Children, obey your parents," in Republican politics reads: "Voters, obey your bosses."

Here the difference between Democrats and Republicans begins. Here the vital difference in the spirit of the two parties shows itself. The injunction, "Children, obey your parents," in Republican politics reads: "Voters, obey your bosses."

dacity, their unscrupulousness, have gained mastery of the party organization. With such a spirit controlling the voters of a nation a kakocracy is not only possible, but inevitable.

A FOOLISH QUESTION. Some time ago the Globe, in commenting upon the declaration of Senator Tillman and some other Demopulists that they were going to the Chicago convention this year, and that if it did not adopt a free silver resolution at the 16 to 1 ratio they would walk out of it, denounced this position in the severest terms.

It is in the first place, the proposition which we laid down was applied to prospective participants in the national convention of the Democratic party. It is a rule of political action, recognized universally among honorable men.

Every man of any party who acts only in his capacity of private citizen reserves the right of independent action in an emergency. We have, for example, no quarrel with the individual Democrat who has made up his mind that he will not support a resolution either for or against free coinage.

It might have occurred to the Sentinel, we should suppose, that it asks the Globe to do that which we have blamed others for doing. It is a curious lapse of acuteness in our esteemed contemporary to demand that the Globe assert in advance what it will do or will not do if the national convention acts or refuses to act in a certain way.

MULTIPLYING DEPARTMENTS. The bill of Senator Frye to create a department of commerce and manufactures, with a cabinet officer at the head of it, is the natural successor of that by which the department of agriculture was so erected.

This year we find a similar condition existing in the Republican party in that state. There, too, is a machine absolutely dominating the party. Its engineer proposes to cast the vote of the delegation in the national convention in whatever direction will bring him gain of power.

Here the difference between Democrats and Republicans begins. Here the vital difference in the spirit of the two parties shows itself. The injunction, "Children, obey your parents," in Republican politics reads: "Voters, obey your bosses."

Here the difference between Democrats and Republicans begins. Here the vital difference in the spirit of the two parties shows itself. The injunction, "Children, obey your parents," in Republican politics reads: "Voters, obey your bosses."

protected interests, and for fastening more firmly upon the people the system of legalized robbery for their benefit. It has not a single public aspect that can command honest praise.

MARKETS AND ECONOMICS. So vast has been the expansion of corporate activities, sharing power with the sovereign, either the nation or the states or both, so intimately do these activities come in touch with the everyday affairs of every citizen, sensibly or without exciting consciousness, that their movements, their successes or their failures, their capitalization and the values of their stocks and bonds become matters of interest to all, and not alone to those who have invested their means in them.

Among the latter is the Bond Record, which adds to its statistical purpose, indicated by that title, the wider scope of "A Monthly Journal of Economics." The current number is replete in its information. In the Record division of "Quotations and Statistics" one finds a statement of government finances, while the bond and stock record covers governments, bank and railway stocks and bonds, the group of industrials and others.

The conjunction of a "Journal of Economics" with a record of financial transactions is a happy and fortunate one. Sound finance, whether of individuals, corporations or governments, is only possible when conducted in obedience to established economic laws, which are the same for all.

Every man of any party who acts only in his capacity of private citizen reserves the right of independent action in an emergency. We have, for example, no quarrel with the individual Democrat who has made up his mind that he will not support a resolution either for or against free coinage.

MULTIPLYING DEPARTMENTS. The bill of Senator Frye to create a department of commerce and manufactures, with a cabinet officer at the head of it, is the natural successor of that by which the department of agriculture was so erected.

This year we find a similar condition existing in the Republican party in that state. There, too, is a machine absolutely dominating the party. Its engineer proposes to cast the vote of the delegation in the national convention in whatever direction will bring him gain of power.

Here the difference between Democrats and Republicans begins. Here the vital difference in the spirit of the two parties shows itself. The injunction, "Children, obey your parents," in Republican politics reads: "Voters, obey your bosses."

Here the difference between Democrats and Republicans begins. Here the vital difference in the spirit of the two parties shows itself. The injunction, "Children, obey your parents," in Republican politics reads: "Voters, obey your bosses."

humbung and the lopping off of sinecures for political favorites. Of these 1,489 are in the classified service, an increase of 145 per cent. But four of these are excepted from competitive examination, the remaining 539 not in the classified service being laborers, workmen and charwomen.

MARKETS AND ECONOMICS. So vast has been the expansion of corporate activities, sharing power with the sovereign, either the nation or the states or both, so intimately do these activities come in touch with the everyday affairs of every citizen, sensibly or without exciting consciousness, that their movements, their successes or their failures, their capitalization and the values of their stocks and bonds become matters of interest to all, and not alone to those who have invested their means in them.

Among the latter is the Bond Record, which adds to its statistical purpose, indicated by that title, the wider scope of "A Monthly Journal of Economics." The current number is replete in its information. In the Record division of "Quotations and Statistics" one finds a statement of government finances, while the bond and stock record covers governments, bank and railway stocks and bonds, the group of industrials and others.

The conjunction of a "Journal of Economics" with a record of financial transactions is a happy and fortunate one. Sound finance, whether of individuals, corporations or governments, is only possible when conducted in obedience to established economic laws, which are the same for all.

Every man of any party who acts only in his capacity of private citizen reserves the right of independent action in an emergency. We have, for example, no quarrel with the individual Democrat who has made up his mind that he will not support a resolution either for or against free coinage.

MULTIPLYING DEPARTMENTS. The bill of Senator Frye to create a department of commerce and manufactures, with a cabinet officer at the head of it, is the natural successor of that by which the department of agriculture was so erected.

This year we find a similar condition existing in the Republican party in that state. There, too, is a machine absolutely dominating the party. Its engineer proposes to cast the vote of the delegation in the national convention in whatever direction will bring him gain of power.

Here the difference between Democrats and Republicans begins. Here the vital difference in the spirit of the two parties shows itself. The injunction, "Children, obey your parents," in Republican politics reads: "Voters, obey your bosses."

Here the difference between Democrats and Republicans begins. Here the vital difference in the spirit of the two parties shows itself. The injunction, "Children, obey your parents," in Republican politics reads: "Voters, obey your bosses."

AT THE THEATERS.

An English farce by Robert Buchanan and C. Marlows entitled "The Strange Adventures of Miss Brown" was presented for the first time in the city at the Metropolitan opera house last night.

It is not difficult to conceive that a company of players specially adapted to present this laughable absurdity might make a box office success of it. Perhaps the company that appeared at the Metropolitan last night may accomplish this in time, but at present there is a lack of the smoothness and spontaneity that are so essential to the success of a farce of farcical creations.

The 20th Century Girl which began a week's engagement at the Grand opera house last night under the direction of Frederick Hallen, is a most entertaining compound. The most captious spectator could not deny this virtue to the burlesque in the face of the shouts of laughter and the vociferous and frequent applause with which the performance was greeted by an audience that filled the theatre.

There will be another straddle. Philadelphia Telegraph (Rep.). There is not a hopeful outlook for the presentation of a sound financial platform by the St. Louis convention, that body will be divided into as many parts as there are aspirants for the nominations, but as all the former are adding the financial question, there is reason to fear that the convention itself may similarly straddle it.

Better Honestly Than Knowingly Wrong. Milwaukee Sentinel. Representative Hall of Missouri, would interest the country if he gave the names of the silver advocates who say that they believe the free and unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1 would mean national bankruptcy.

Editor Feels Snubbed. If George Thompson had shown himself at the meeting of the state editorial association, he would have been a very valuable asset to the cause.

Particularly the Senate. New York Evening Post. Senator Smith blurted out the truth in the Senate when he said that the country is disgusted with congress in general and the senate in particular.

With Intent to Amuse. "Let's see, a clock is supposed to have a faster in many years, is it not?" "Yes—days are shorter, you know!" Exchange.

A Time to Speak Out. Milwaukee Sentinel. Republicans who believe the time has come for the adoption of an honest and outspoken financial plank in their platforms will read the proceedings of the Ohio state convention, held yesterday.

Truthful Now, but After St. Louis. Chicago Chronicle. It is fortunate that these great journals are frank in describing the characteristics and action of the Republican party opposed to each.

Where McKinley Gets the Bootie. Athla's Journal. There is no doubt that McKinley's agents and strikers are lavishly supplied with money to be used in capturing and fixing delegates to the Republican party.

BURNED BY A CINDER.

San Francisco Bulletin. Many curious stories have been told concerning bank checks. Some of these relate to the largest drawn and others to the smallest.

But There Was Enough Left of the Check to Make It Legible. San Francisco Bulletin. Many curious stories have been told concerning bank checks. Some of these relate to the largest drawn and others to the smallest.

It is not difficult to conceive that a company of players specially adapted to present this laughable absurdity might make a box office success of it. Perhaps the company that appeared at the Metropolitan last night may accomplish this in time, but at present there is a lack of the smoothness and spontaneity that are so essential to the success of a farce of farcical creations.

The 20th Century Girl which began a week's engagement at the Grand opera house last night under the direction of Frederick Hallen, is a most entertaining compound. The most captious spectator could not deny this virtue to the burlesque in the face of the shouts of laughter and the vociferous and frequent applause with which the performance was greeted by an audience that filled the theatre.

There will be another straddle. Philadelphia Telegraph (Rep.). There is not a hopeful outlook for the presentation of a sound financial platform by the St. Louis convention, that body will be divided into as many parts as there are aspirants for the nominations, but as all the former are adding the financial question, there is reason to fear that the convention itself may similarly straddle it.

Better Honestly Than Knowingly Wrong. Milwaukee Sentinel. Representative Hall of Missouri, would interest the country if he gave the names of the silver advocates who say that they believe the free and unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1 would mean national bankruptcy.

Editor Feels Snubbed. If George Thompson had shown himself at the meeting of the state editorial association, he would have been a very valuable asset to the cause.

Particularly the Senate. New York Evening Post. Senator Smith blurted out the truth in the Senate when he said that the country is disgusted with congress in general and the senate in particular.

With Intent to Amuse. "Let's see, a clock is supposed to have a faster in many years, is it not?" "Yes—days are shorter, you know!" Exchange.

A Time to Speak Out. Milwaukee Sentinel. Republicans who believe the time has come for the adoption of an honest and outspoken financial plank in their platforms will read the proceedings of the Ohio state convention, held yesterday.

Where McKinley Gets the Bootie. Athla's Journal. There is no doubt that McKinley's agents and strikers are lavishly supplied with money to be used in capturing and fixing delegates to the Republican party.

MESSAGE ON CUBA

IT IS INTIMATED THAT CLEVELAND MAY SEND ONE TO CONGRESS THIS WEEK.

OPPOSITION TO RECOGNITION

MAY DELAY ACTION ON THE CUBAN RESOLUTION FOR SOME TIME. DUPONT CASE NEXT IN SENATE.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—The indications are that the Cuban question and the Dupont election case will continue to claim the greater share of the attention of the senate during the present week, though other matters will be undoubtedly considered at different times.

Senator Sherman is exceedingly desirous of getting the Cuban resolutions passed in the way of the earliest practicable time, and will press consideration of the matter as a subject for the consideration of the senate, and there is now no prospect of an immediate vote on the conference report. It is intimated that the president is likely to send a message to the senate on the Cuban question in response to Senator Hoar's resolution of inquiry, and if he should do so, unquestionably will have influenced the senate.

A variety of matters make up the programme for the week in the house. Tomorrow the committee suspension bill, the bill for the reform of the administrative features of the tariff law, which has been carefully formulated as a result of extensive hearings before the committee on commerce, will be brought forward.

Like the Globe—a Winner. Stillwater Gazette. The whist department of the Globe, so ably edited by George L. Dunn, is proving quite a success. The Sunday edition is a long and interesting article relative to the long and short suits, the latter being written by a writer from the New York Sun, which brings forth the statement from Mr. Dunn that the last issue of the Sun's whist column contained statistics of the number of suits worn by the members of the party which inaugurates the next presidential election.

One of the Rock-Ribbed. Boston Herald. The announcement that Playwright Hoyt is about to renounce the Democracy and join the Republicans is probably an invention of some lawless newspaper.

Senator Palmer Pithy as Usual. Springfield Republican. Senator Palmer, of Illinois, is quoted as saying that the present congress is an easy matter to attend to the affairs of other nations, but has shown itself incompetent to care for its own people.

Penny a Day for Soldiers. London Daily News. We stated the other day the small amount of pay received by officers of the Italian army. Our Florence correspondent adds that the pay of the private amounts to only one penny a day. Besides this, the soldiers are supplied with their rations, which consist of half a kilo of bread, half a pound of meat and a portion of pasta (macaroni) per diem.

A Desperate Flirtation. Baltimore Sun. There are, of course, some Democrats who are free silverites without being protectionists, and some Republicans who are protectionists without being free silverites.

Will the Shoes Fit? Wells Advocate. George W. Summerville, of Sleepy Eye, would like to fill a U. S. senatorial shoe, and is a candidate for congress. He is said to be a good man, but he will have to work under nine hours a day to retire McCleary.

Statesman, Not a Trimmer. Courier-Journal. Judge Turner should by all means oppose ex-Speaker Crisp for the Georgia senatorship. Turner is one of the ablest men in the country. His elevation to the senate would bring to the south the best brains in which it is sadly lacking.

Advertisement for CHEW AND SMOKE THE PUREST THE BEST. Includes an image of a man and a pack of cigarettes. Text: PURE HARMLESS SATISFYING. NICOTINE NEUTRALIZED.