

BULLETIN OF THE ST. PAUL GLOBE.

SATURDAY, MARCH 21, 1896.
Weather for Today—Snow, Colder.

PAGE 1.
Results of County Conventions State Strongly for McKinley. Manderson Out of the Race. Tame Primaries in St. Paul.

PAGE 2.
E. A. R. Discuss Raising Cash. Murphy's Saloon Closed.

PAGE 3.
Minneapolis Matters. Hein Declared Not Guilty. The East Snowed Under.

PAGE 4.
Editorial. House Censures Bayard. Cuban Sympathy Waning.

PAGE 5.
Young Democrats to Banquet. Hill Approves N. P. Reorganization. Italian Deputies Again Excited.

PAGE 6.
Bar Silver, 68 7/8c. Cash Wheat in Chicago, 60 5/8c. Falling Off in Stock Trading.

PAGE 7.
Disappointing Trade Reports. Popular Wants.

PAGE 8.
Violations of Fish and Game Laws. Royal Arcanum Grand Council.

TODAY'S EVENTS.
Met—Camille, 2.30.

Daughters of Eve, 8.15. Grand—20th Century Girl, 2.30, 8.15. Lumber Ex.—Democratic Banquet, 8. Market Hall—Rep. Convention, 11.

MOVEMENTS OF STEAMSHIPS.

NEW YORK, March 20—Arrived: H. H. Meier, Bremen; Elze, Genoa. LIVERPOOL—Arrived: Lucania, New York. Baled: Bovic, New York. LONDON—Arrived: Mississippi, New York. GLASGOW—Sailed: Norwegian, New York. CHRISTIANA—Arrived: Virginia, New York. GENOA—Arrived: Kaiser Wilhelm II, New York.

Late reports indicate that Cuba still has towns to burn.

If you must eat strawberries, you can get them for 10 cents apiece now.

It is pretty plain that we are not going to get our March lamb until April.

Pennsylvania gets another big snow storm every time a Quay delegate is elected.

If it ever gets so hot that there is a scarcity of icebergs, Capt. Gen. Weyer can be set up for one.

The pudgy woman doesn't look well on a bicycle. She doesn't look well off a bicycle, for that matter.

Six Democrats, to their discredit be it said, voted for the resolution censuring Ambassador Bayard.

King Menckel also has plenty of "nerve." He wants Italy to pay him 40,000,000 lire for giving it the thrashing of its life.

Princeton is going to send a team to Athens to find out whether the Greeks are really athletes or plain oriental bluffers.

Let it be understood that John G. Carlisle will stand for sound money whether on a national platform or as a private citizen.

The report that a circus trust has been formed is denied by J. A. Bailey. It was probably impossible to get the St. Louis circus into it.

Pauline Ballard, the actress, who charges her husband with beating her fifty-one times, must keep a diary of these pleasant episodes.

Nine hundred and nine gentlemen will sit in the St. Louis convention. Present indications are that about 95 of them will be for McKinley.

The harmony of the Republicans of New York city has reached such a degree of intensity that the state militia is advised to keep an eye on it.

It is evident that Levi P. Morton was put off many miles east of Buffalo, while McKinley made a triumphant trip through to the great lake entrepot.

The Kansas man who buried $50,000 in gold when he knew hundreds of people of his state were on the verge of starvation was suffering from marble heart.

When Marcus Aurelius Hanna, of Cleveland, gets interested in the campaign, he won't object to receiving any kind of money, even British pounds.

The efficacy of prayer is shown in the result of a Massachusetts election. The women of Mattuck remained at the polls all day in prayer. The town went dry.

Money must be getting plentiful in the East. Secretary Lamont has approved the plans for a new bridge to cost $90,000,000 between New York and New Jersey.

St. Louis Delegates. Now that the house of representatives has got through spouting about Mr. Bayard, let it get to work and surprise itself and the country by passing a bill of some importance.

Now an ambitious New Yorker is trying to fix up a scheme by which a man can look through a cigar box and discover whether the goods therein are one-centers or twenty-five-centers.

James S. Clarkson is in the state of Washington trying to get the commonwealth to declare for Allison. He will no doubt return in a state of mind without having accomplished anything.

MANDERSON IS OUT

COMBINATION MADE FAVORABLE TO THE LITTLE NAPOLEON OF OHIO.

CONCESSIONS BOTH WAYS.

THE NEBRASKA DELEGATION WILL CONSIST OF SIXTEEN MCKINLEY MEN.

THE SLIP TWIXT CUP AND LIP.

Just Possible It May Come Into Play and Defeat the Combination Agreed Upon.

OMAHA, Neb., March 20.—After an animated conference which lasted all day, an agreement has been reached between the Manderson and McKinley forces of Nebraska by which the supporters of Gen. Manderson agree to withdraw all opposition to the selection of a McKinley delegation to the Republican national convention. In return for this concession, the McKinley people bind themselves to present the name of Gen. Manderson to the convention unless in their judgment it is apparent that McKinley will be nominated. The conference took place at 11 o'clock this morning. It was attended by representatives of both sides. The McKinley side issued this proclamation:

It is understood between the persons representing Hon. Charles F. Manderson and the committee acting as friends and supporters of Hon. William McKinley and in the behalf of the McKinley club, that the delegation from Nebraska to the national convention shall be composed of sixteen original McKinley men, but that the Manderson headquarters will be closed.

The following resolution will be adopted by the state convention:

Resolved, That the name of Hon. Charles F. Manderson be formally presented to the convention as a candidate, unless, in the judgment of the Nebraska delegation at the assembly of the national convention, it is apparent that McKinley will be nominated for president.

As a result of the agreement, the Manderson men are to make no further contention. The delegation to St. Louis will be composed of avowed McKinley men. The Manderson headquarters have been closed. Manderson's many friends in Nebraska are not disposed to believe that McKinley will be the choice of the convention.

PLATT MEN

Charter Most of the Assembly District Conventions Held Yesterday.

NEW YORK, March 20.—Assembly district conventions for the purpose of electing delegates to the Republican state convention were held in thirty-five districts of this city to-day. The Platt men triumphed in most of the districts. The first, third, eighth, ninth, tenth, twelfth, thirteenth, eighteenth, twenty-third, twenty-seventh, and thirty-first were carried by the Brookfield men. The second, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eleventh, fourteenth, fifteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth, nineteenth, twentieth, twenty-first, twenty-second, twenty-fourth, twenty-fifth, twenty-sixth, twenty-eighth, twenty-ninth, thirtieth, thirty-second, thirty-third, thirty-fourth, thirty-fifth, thirty-sixth, thirty-seventh, thirty-eighth, thirty-ninth, and fortieth were carried by the Platt men with out opposition. There were lively times at the district at Stanton Street, where the Platt men, who were very numerous, were held, but the police prevented any disturbance beyond the shouting.

EVEN INDIANS.

A Choctaw Nation Republican Meeting Has Declared for McKinley.

SOUTH MALESTER, 1. 8, March 20.—The Choctaw Nation is holding a mass meeting today, indorsed William McKinley for president, indorsed home rule and protested against the annexation of the territory. The courts continuing jurisdiction over the criminal courts of the Indian territory. Thirty-three delegates to the national convention at Muskogee, and J. P. Grady was elected delegate to the national convention at St. Louis.

Reed Stays Out.

PITTSBURG, March 20.—In a letter to Thomas W. Reed, secretary, H. O. English, of this city stated that it was proposed by the county committee to submit the names of McKinley and Quay to the voters of this county, as had many warm friends, his name should be submitted as well. Mr. English has declined the offer, saying that the slightest desire to have my name submitted in the way you suggest, in no state where there is a candidate, has any friends of mine interfered with local wishes, nor will they with my consent.

Indorsed in Virginia.

RICHMOND, Va., March 20.—Both factions of the Republicans tonight held conventions and elected delegates to the state convention. The national convention was fixed for this city. The Republicans of this city elected delegates to the district convention, which meets here on April 16, and to the state convention at Staunton April 23. Resolutions indorsing McKinley for the presidency were unanimously passed.

Call for Conventions.

ST. LOUIS, March 20.—The Republican state committee decided to hold two state conventions. The first, for the selection of delegates to the national convention, was fixed for Wednesday, May 27. The second, for the nomination of candidates for state offices, was set for Wednesday, July 2. A poll of the members showed that every one of the thirty-seven precinct were favorable to McKinley for first choice.

Platt Element Beaten.

NEW YORK, March 20.—The Fifth congressional district (Brooklyn) elected Mayor F. W. Wurstler and E. Klatenbach delegates to the state convention. In four of the five Brooklyn districts the Worth wing of the party, which is affiliated with the Platt element, was defeated. Worth delegates were chosen only in the Sixth congressional district. There were no instructions on presidential candidates.

Is All for Allison.

PORTLAND, Or., March 20.—James S. Clarkson, of Iowa, and party have arrived here from San Francisco. Speaking of his trip West, Mr. Clarkson says that on his way to the state of Washington, in the interest of William B. Allison, for president.

Reed Leads Maryland.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., March 20.—A poll of the legislature shows that Reed has 37 supporters for the presidency. McKinley 3, Allison 3, Morton 5, Theodore Roosevelt 2, Robert Lincoln 1 and Harrison 1.

St. Louis Delegates.

CHESTER, Pa., March 20.—The Delaware county Republican convention has nominated Congressman J. B. Robinson. Judge Thomas J. Clayton, a Quay man, was chosen as delegate to the St. Louis convention.

DIRECT VOTE.

Senate Committee Favorable to the Report Made by Mr. Mitchell.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The senate committee on elections held a meeting today for the purpose of issuing upon Senator Mitchell's report upon the election of senators by acceptable to a majority of the committee. It provides for an amendment to the constitutional provision of senators by a direct vote of the people. The tendency of public opinion, the report concludes, "is to disparage the senate and attack its dignity,

STATE IS FOR MAG

DUT SENATOR DAVIS WILL PROBABLY RECEIVE A COMPLEX-TARY VOTE.

RESULTS OF THE PRIMARIES

GENERALLY INDICATE SUCH SENTIMENT WHERE CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATES ARE CHOSEN.

HENNEPIN MAY INDORSE WALKER.

Whether the St. Louis Delegates Are to Go Unfrustrated or Not Remains to Be Seen.

Strongly McKinley, with a kindly feeling for Davis, seems to be the tenor of Republican opinion not only locally, but throughout the state. Primaries were held pretty generally yesterday, and in some cases conventions were held where the primaries had previously been disposed of. The various congressional district conventions will be held today and Monday, except in the First district, where a mistake in the call set it for Friday next. How this will be gotten around the executive committee has not yet made public. The Fifth, or Minneapolis district, holds its convention today. The others, with the exception above mentioned, meet Monday.

The prospect is that the only question to come up when the state convention meets Tuesday will be whether or not Davis shall be given a complimentary vote. This will probably be done unless it appears as foregoing conclusion that McKinley is to be chosen on the first or second ballot. Senator Davis' friends may be turned down, even in the selection of delegates. Robert G. Evans, of Minneapolis, who was scheduled to make a spell-binding nominating speech for Minnesota's favorite son, has not been elected as yet, and there is a chance that the Hennepin county convention, which meets today, will indorse T. B. Walker instead of Evans. In St. Paul the delegates will be W. R. Merriam and John F. Carroll, these having been practically agreed upon. Capt. Castle, who was talked of, may go as an alternate. Senator Davis has been kept fully informed of the local situation, and when asked if he desired to name the delegation from the district, declined, stating that he was satisfied to leave the matter in the hands of the voters.

MAY NOT INSTRUCT.

But, while the delegates in a body will favor McKinley, it is not certain that they will all be instructed. In fact, it is intimated that in the First and Sixth districts resolutions favorable to McKinley will be passed, although instructions to vote for him are hardly expected.

In the First congressional district W. W. Parsons, of Mantorville, is the only known candidate for delegate at large, he being for Davis, with McKinley as second choice. Congressman Tanney, however, has been mentioned as a possible place.

As to district delegates, it is generally conceded that J. M. Diment, of Owatonna; Prof. L. S. Swenson, of Alameda; and Archibald Gray, of Preston, lead in the race. It is probable that two of these three will be elected. Other parties who are candidates are Burdett Thayer, of Spring Lake; George W. Edwards, of Grand Rapids; G. W. Rockwell, of Rushford; J. C. Bailey, of Waseca, and J. S. Littleton, of Kasson.

Mr. Diment seems to be divided as to the propriety of indorsing Davis, who is quite a popular candidate. The convention will have to decide that on the floor.

In the Second district there is to be a lively fight. L. P. Hunt, of Mankato, and E. C. Huntington, of Windom, want to be delegate at large, but the latter is not expected to get the vote. The feeling in the district is in favor of McKinley, so that he may exploit his free silver principles on the floor of the big convention at St. Louis.

As to the candidates for the place at large or for one of the district places is not as yet apparent, but, in any event, a lively contest is assured.

Other candidates are W. R. Edwards, of Tracy; A. H. Fowler, of Slayton; E. C. Dean, of Pipestone; Dr. W. Rowe, of St. James; Charles Wilcox, of Marshall; Edward Adams, of the Lyon county delegates, which gives him a strong backing. McKinley men will be sent to the convention, but they will probably without any spirit of hostility to Davis.

HUBBARD FOR DELEGATE.

The indications are that ex-Gov. L. F. Hubbard, Red Wing, and Charles Brockbeck, of Litchfield, will represent the Third district at St. Louis. Donald Grant, of Faribault, and T. M. Payne, of Glencoe, also are candidates. At large the following are favored, George Thompson, St. Paul; R. G. Evans, Minneapolis; O. H. Burke, Duluth; J. A. Tanney, Winona. The Third district delegates will probably be sent to the convention, although it is doubtful if they will be instructed.

Fred Gnebe, of Dakota county, will probably be one of the alternates, and E. B. Benson, of Litchfield, may enter the race for delegateship.

The Sixth district convention will be held at Alexandria, Minn., and the candidates for district delegate, Monroe Nichols, of Duluth; A. H. Davidson, of Little Falls; C. F. Hendry, of Little Falls; and J. A. Hodge, of Pine City. The people, however, are supposed to be for McKinley, although the delegates may not be bound. Henry's second choice is said to be Thomas Brackett Reed.

The Seventh district convention at Crookston, is likely to choose an instructed McKinley delegation, although E. E. Corlies, Elmer E. Adams and other Ferguson Falls leaders are fighting for an unhampered delegation. The leading candidates for delegate are J. H. Smith, of Detroit, and E. T. Young, of Appleton.

If any one doubted the sentiment of the Minneapolis Republicans in the matter of preference of presidential candidates, that doubt must have been dispelled by the primaries held last evening. It was a regular McKinley cloudburst. They were for the purpose of electing delegates to attend two conventions to be held today at Turner hall, Washington and Fifth avenues north. The first convention will be called to order at 10 o'clock, and will be for the purpose of selecting

STATE IS FOR MAG

DUT SENATOR DAVIS WILL PROBABLY RECEIVE A COMPLEX-TARY VOTE.

RESULTS OF THE PRIMARIES

GENERALLY INDICATE SUCH SENTIMENT WHERE CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATES ARE CHOSEN.

HENNEPIN MAY INDORSE WALKER.

Whether the St. Louis Delegates Are to Go Unfrustrated or Not Remains to Be Seen.

Strongly McKinley, with a kindly feeling for Davis, seems to be the tenor of Republican opinion not only locally, but throughout the state. Primaries were held pretty generally yesterday, and in some cases conventions were held where the primaries had previously been disposed of. The various congressional district conventions will be held today and Monday, except in the First district, where a mistake in the call set it for Friday next. How this will be gotten around the executive committee has not yet made public. The Fifth, or Minneapolis district, holds its convention today. The others, with the exception above mentioned, meet Monday.

The prospect is that the only question to come up when the state convention meets Tuesday will be whether or not Davis shall be given a complimentary vote. This will probably be done unless it appears as foregoing conclusion that McKinley is to be chosen on the first or second ballot. Senator Davis' friends may be turned down, even in the selection of delegates. Robert G. Evans, of Minneapolis, who was scheduled to make a spell-binding nominating speech for Minnesota's favorite son, has not been elected as yet, and there is a chance that the Hennepin county convention, which meets today, will indorse T. B. Walker instead of Evans. In St. Paul the delegates will be W. R. Merriam and John F. Carroll, these having been practically agreed upon. Capt. Castle, who was talked of, may go as an alternate. Senator Davis has been kept fully informed of the local situation, and when asked if he desired to name the delegation from the district, declined, stating that he was satisfied to leave the matter in the hands of the voters.

MAY NOT INSTRUCT.

But, while the delegates in a body will favor McKinley, it is not certain that they will all be instructed. In fact, it is intimated that in the First and Sixth districts resolutions favorable to McKinley will be passed, although instructions to vote for him are hardly expected.

In the First congressional district W. W. Parsons, of Mantorville, is the only known candidate for delegate at large, he being for Davis, with McKinley as second choice. Congressman Tanney, however, has been mentioned as a possible place.

As to district delegates, it is generally conceded that J. M. Diment, of Owatonna; Prof. L. S. Swenson, of Alameda; and Archibald Gray, of Preston, lead in the race. It is probable that two of these three will be elected. Other parties who are candidates are Burdett Thayer, of Spring Lake; George W. Edwards, of Grand Rapids; G. W. Rockwell, of Rushford; J. C. Bailey, of Waseca, and J. S. Littleton, of Kasson.

Mr. Diment seems to be divided as to the propriety of indorsing Davis, who is quite a popular candidate. The convention will have to decide that on the floor.

In the Second district there is to be a lively fight. L. P. Hunt, of Mankato, and E. C. Huntington, of Windom, want to be delegate at large, but the latter is not expected to get the vote. The feeling in the district is in favor of McKinley, so that he may exploit his free silver principles on the floor of the big convention at St. Louis.

As to the candidates for the place at large or for one of the district places is not as yet apparent, but, in any event, a lively contest is assured.

Other candidates are W. R. Edwards, of Tracy; A. H. Fowler, of Slayton; E. C. Dean, of Pipestone; Dr. W. Rowe, of St. James; Charles Wilcox, of Marshall; Edward Adams, of the Lyon county delegates, which gives him a strong backing. McKinley men will be sent to the convention, but they will probably without any spirit of hostility to Davis.

HUBBARD FOR DELEGATE.

The indications are that ex-Gov. L. F. Hubbard, Red Wing, and Charles Brockbeck, of Litchfield, will represent the Third district at St. Louis. Donald Grant, of Faribault, and T. M. Payne, of Glencoe, also are candidates. At large the following are favored, George Thompson, St. Paul; R. G. Evans, Minneapolis; O. H. Burke, Duluth; J. A. Tanney, Winona. The Third district delegates will probably be sent to the convention, although it is doubtful if they will be instructed.

Fred Gnebe, of Dakota county, will probably be one of the alternates, and E. B. Benson, of Litchfield, may enter the race for delegateship.

The Sixth district convention will be held at Alexandria, Minn., and the candidates for district delegate, Monroe Nichols, of Duluth; A. H. Davidson, of Little Falls; C. F. Hendry, of Little Falls; and J. A. Hodge, of Pine City. The people, however, are supposed to be for McKinley, although the delegates may not be bound. Henry's second choice is said to be Thomas Brackett Reed.

The Seventh district convention at Crookston, is likely to choose an instructed McKinley delegation, although E. E. Corlies, Elmer E. Adams and other Ferguson Falls leaders are fighting for an unhampered delegation. The leading candidates for delegate are J. H. Smith, of Detroit, and E. T. Young, of Appleton.

If any one doubted the sentiment of the Minneapolis Republicans in the matter of preference of presidential candidates, that doubt must have been dispelled by the primaries held last evening. It was a regular McKinley cloudburst. They were for the purpose of electing delegates to attend two conventions to be held today at Turner hall, Washington and Fifth avenues north. The first convention will be called to order at 10 o'clock, and will be for the purpose of selecting

STATE IS FOR MAG

DUT SENATOR DAVIS WILL PROBABLY RECEIVE A COMPLEX-TARY VOTE.

RESULTS OF THE PRIMARIES

GENERALLY INDICATE SUCH SENTIMENT WHERE CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATES ARE CHOSEN.

HENNEPIN MAY INDORSE WALKER.

Whether the St. Louis Delegates Are to Go Unfrustrated or Not Remains to Be Seen.

Strongly McKinley, with a kindly feeling for Davis, seems to be the tenor of Republican opinion not only locally, but throughout the state. Primaries were held pretty generally yesterday, and in some cases conventions were held where the primaries had previously been disposed of. The various congressional district conventions will be held today and Monday, except in the First district, where a mistake in the call set it for Friday next. How this will be gotten around the executive committee has not yet made public. The Fifth, or Minneapolis district, holds its convention today. The others, with the exception above mentioned, meet Monday.

The prospect is that the only question to come up when the state convention meets Tuesday will be whether or not Davis shall be given a complimentary vote. This will probably be done unless it appears as foregoing conclusion that McKinley is to be chosen on the first or second ballot. Senator Davis' friends may be turned down, even in the selection of delegates. Robert G. Evans, of Minneapolis, who was scheduled to make a spell-binding nominating speech for Minnesota's favorite son, has not been elected as yet, and there is a chance that the Hennepin county convention, which meets today, will indorse T. B. Walker instead of Evans. In St. Paul the delegates will be W. R. Merriam and John F. Carroll, these having been practically agreed upon. Capt. Castle, who was talked of, may go as an alternate. Senator Davis has been kept fully informed of the local situation, and when asked if he desired to name the delegation from the district, declined, stating that he was satisfied to leave the matter in the hands of the voters.

MAY NOT INSTRUCT.

But, while the delegates in a body will favor McKinley, it is not certain that they will all be instructed. In fact, it is intimated that in the First and Sixth districts resolutions favorable to McKinley will be passed, although instructions to vote for him are hardly expected.

In the First congressional district W. W. Parsons, of Mantorville, is the only known candidate for delegate at large, he being for Davis, with McKinley as second choice. Congressman Tanney, however, has been mentioned as a possible place.

As to district delegates, it is generally conceded that J. M. Diment, of Owatonna; Prof. L. S. Swenson, of Alameda; and Archibald Gray, of Preston, lead in the race. It is probable that two of these three will be elected. Other parties who are candidates are Burdett Thayer, of Spring Lake; George W. Edwards, of Grand Rapids; G. W. Rockwell, of Rushford; J. C. Bailey, of Waseca, and J. S. Littleton, of Kasson.

Mr. Diment seems to be divided as to the propriety of indorsing Davis, who is quite a popular candidate. The convention will have to decide that on the floor.

In the Second district there is to be a lively fight. L. P. Hunt, of Mankato, and E. C. Huntington, of Windom, want to be delegate at large, but the latter is not expected to get the vote. The feeling in the district is in favor of McKinley, so that he may exploit his free silver principles on the floor of the big convention at St. Louis.

As to the candidates for the place at large or for one of the district places is not as yet apparent, but, in any event, a lively contest is assured.

Other candidates are W. R. Edwards, of Tracy; A. H. Fowler, of Slayton; E. C. Dean, of Pipestone; Dr. W. Rowe, of St. James; Charles Wilcox, of Marshall; Edward Adams, of the Lyon county delegates, which gives him a strong backing. McKinley men will be sent to the convention, but they will probably without any spirit of hostility to Davis.

HUBBARD FOR DELEGATE.

The indications are that ex-Gov. L. F. Hubbard, Red Wing, and Charles Brockbeck, of Litchfield, will represent the Third district at St. Louis. Donald Grant, of Faribault, and T. M. Payne, of Glencoe, also are candidates. At large the following are favored, George Thompson, St. Paul; R. G. Evans, Minneapolis; O. H. Burke, Duluth; J. A. Tanney, Winona. The Third district delegates will probably be sent to the convention, although it is doubtful if they will be instructed.

Fred Gnebe, of Dakota county, will probably be one of the alternates, and E. B. Benson, of Litchfield, may enter the race for delegateship.

The Sixth district convention will be held at Alexandria, Minn., and the candidates for district delegate, Monroe Nichols, of Duluth; A. H. Davidson, of Little Falls; C. F. Hendry, of Little Falls; and J. A. Hodge, of Pine City. The people, however, are supposed to be for McKinley, although the delegates may not be bound. Henry's second choice is said to be Thomas Brackett Reed.

The Seventh district convention at Crookston, is likely to choose an instructed McKinley delegation, although E. E. Corlies, Elmer E. Adams and other Ferguson Falls leaders are fighting for an unhampered delegation. The leading candidates for delegate are J. H. Smith, of Detroit, and E. T. Young, of Appleton.

If any one doubted the sentiment of the Minneapolis Republicans in the matter of preference of presidential candidates, that doubt must have been dispelled by the primaries held last evening. It was a regular McKinley cloudburst. They were for the purpose of electing delegates to attend two conventions to be held today at Turner hall, Washington and Fifth avenues north. The first convention will be called to order at 10 o'clock, and will be for the purpose of selecting

STATE IS FOR MAG

DUT SENATOR DAVIS WILL PROBABLY RECEIVE A COMPLEX-TARY VOTE.

RESULTS OF THE PRIMARIES

GENERALLY INDICATE SUCH SENTIMENT WHERE CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATES ARE CHOSEN.

HENNEPIN MAY INDORSE WALKER.

Whether the St. Louis Delegates Are to Go Unfrustrated or Not Remains to Be Seen.

Strongly McKinley, with a kindly feeling for Davis, seems to be the tenor of Republican opinion not only locally, but throughout the state. Primaries were held pretty generally yesterday, and in some cases conventions were held where the primaries had previously been disposed of. The various congressional district conventions will be held today and Monday, except in the First district, where a mistake in the call set it for Friday next. How this will be gotten around the executive committee has not yet made public. The Fifth, or Minneapolis district, holds its convention today. The others, with the exception above mentioned, meet Monday.

The prospect is that the only question to come up when the state convention meets Tuesday will be whether or not Davis shall be given a complimentary vote. This will probably be done unless it appears as foregoing conclusion that McKinley is to be chosen on the first or second ballot. Senator Davis' friends may be turned down, even in the selection of delegates. Robert G. Evans, of Minneapolis, who was scheduled to make a spell-binding nominating speech for Minnesota's favorite son, has not been elected as yet, and there is a chance that the Hennepin county convention, which meets today, will indorse T. B. Walker instead of Evans. In St. Paul the delegates will be W. R. Merriam and John F. Carroll, these having been practically agreed upon. Capt. Castle, who was talked of, may go as an alternate. Senator Davis has been kept fully informed of the local situation, and when asked if he desired to name the delegation from the district, declined, stating that he was satisfied to leave the matter in the hands of the voters.

MAY NOT INSTRUCT.

But, while the delegates in a body will favor McKinley, it is not certain that they will all be instructed. In fact, it is intimated that in the First and Sixth districts resolutions favorable to McKinley will be passed, although instructions to vote for him are hardly expected.

In the First congressional district W. W. Parsons, of Mantorville, is the only known candidate for delegate at large, he being for Davis, with McKinley as second choice. Congressman Tanney, however, has been mentioned as a possible place.

As to district delegates, it is generally conceded that J. M. Diment, of Owatonna; Prof. L. S. Swenson, of Alameda; and Archibald Gray, of Preston, lead in the race. It is probable that two of these three will be elected. Other parties who are candidates are Burdett Thayer, of Spring Lake; George W. Edwards, of Grand Rapids; G. W. Rockwell, of Rushford; J. C. Bailey, of Waseca, and J. S. Littleton, of Kasson.

Mr. Diment seems to be divided as to the propriety of indorsing Davis, who is quite a popular candidate. The convention will have to decide that on the floor.

In the Second district there is to be a lively fight. L. P. Hunt, of Mankato, and E. C. Huntington, of Windom, want to be delegate at large, but the latter is not expected to get the vote. The feeling in the district is in favor of McKinley, so that he may exploit his free silver principles on the floor of the big convention at St. Louis.

As to the candidates for the place at large or for one of the district places is not as yet apparent, but, in any event, a lively contest is assured.