

PACKERS TOO EASY

ST. PAUL DEFEATS SOUTH ST. PAUL BY A SCORE OF 43 TO 7.

SPIES AND HIS THROWING

ARE A SOURCE OF MUCH ENCOURAGEMENT TO THE LOCAL FANS.

HOLLINGSWORTH AND MERTES

Also Promise to Prove Strong Local Favorites—A Good Exhibition Game Yesterday.

St. Paul, 25; Packers, 7. What may be termed, perhaps, the St. Paul "Warrior" team yesterday played an exhibition game with a nine largely composed of the members of the Minnesota Packing and Provision company's team, but strengthened by the addition of three members of the St. Paul team, Hollingsworth, Kraus and Phyle.

The game was not close, but it was interesting, inasmuch as it was the first chance the ball loving public has had to see the team this year, and there was much anxiety to see how the new members of the team conducted themselves.

The fact that St. Paul piled up eight runs in the first inning and six in the second before the opposition had scored, or gone through its batting list, even, spoiled any prospect of a close contest, but the game served its other purpose none the less.

If there was one player more than another of the new men who distinguished himself, that was Spies. The new catcher throws to bases with speed and precision combined, and with his arm in its present shape, the opponents of St. Paul will be cautious about yesterday, and, in fact, he cannot be called a heavy hitter, but he fields his position well.

Huggins' opening was very unimpressive, in that he failed to do much better than average in the game. He retrieved himself later, however, especially in view of the fact that the grounds had been rolled hurriedly, and were in far from perfect condition.

Glascosk distinguished himself by an errorless game, and three hits, one of them a double. It was not such a game, however, as tries a first baseman, his chances being few, owing to ragged infielding.

Mertes, although at the latter portion of the game he permitted himself to be struck out twice by the Packers' pitcher, Munch, had previously acquitted himself creditably with two baggers of the delivery of young Comiskey, who pitched the first part of the game for the South St. Paul aggregation, promises to be a source of strength.

Denzer pitched the first five innings, and although appearing somewhat nervous in the beginning, did well. Only three safe hits were made by the St. Paul players in the opening team making them.

Hollingsworth, the young Dubuque shortstop, who played with the Packers, although he made some bad errors, played an aggressive game, and he has the distinction of making the first home run which was made on the grounds this year. The diamond has been swung around this season, so that the left foul line intersects the home plate to the plate than before, and it was in this direction that his lucky hit went. It was a hard drive, however, and deserving of its own record.

Pickett was strongly in the game with fourteen chances, but three of them were errors, and there was a little school boy play on Jack's part that would not do in a first league game. One spoiled a sure double-play, but nothing can be said to be sure until it is done.

Jim Burns went to first three times, four, in fact, counting the time he went on Mertes' bad throw. Jim's safe hit was a good one.

Tom Mullaney pitched an easy game the last four innings, as the game was safe, and was largely a perfunctory matter, that pitching, anyway.

Kraus, who caught for the Packers, made two of their seven runs.

Hayesbuhl, of the Packers, made two pretty catches in center field, one of them who succeeded him after the pitcher changed, duplicated one of them.

Young Comiskey pitched a steady game, but he was outclassed, as was the team as a whole.

GOSSIP OF THE GAME.

Magnate Goodnow, of the Minneapolis club, was in the grand stand. He went back to bet $100, so he said, that St. Paul would not beat Minneapolis out. Things must be good in Minneapolis when John finds his own townsmen betting against his aggregation of Gulf Coast importations in Chicago mark-downs.

Up to date the traces of the skating rink have not all been removed. There is a long ridge of rubbish in the farthest corner of the floor.

Joe Werwick, of last year's Minneapolis team, umpired the game, and for the most part, excellently. He was not always right, but "under the new rules," you know, an umpire is allowed to differ from the crowd; in his judgment not to exceed six times in each game.

The new passes of the Minneapolis club were designed by an architect, who rebuilt the old Tribune ring. They are printed on Bristol board found from the best pine edgings to be found in John Goodnow's wood yard, and are said to have marked down.

NO REST NO SLEEP DAY OR NIGHT

My hands were completely covered with zema, and between my fingers the skin was perfectly raw. I had to sit with both hands held up, and away from the fire. My husband had a baby, and his medicines gave me no relief, and drove me almost crazy. I was advised to try CUTICURA, and I did so, although my husband had to go twenty miles to get them. As soon as he got back, I used the CUTICURA, and in five minutes after the first application I was perfectly easy, and slept soundly all that night. Before I commenced using the CUTICURA REMEDIES I could not get any sleep at night. I could not bear to get warm, and would put me in a rage of hot water. I always keep the CUTICURA REMEDIES in my house now, and recommend them to everybody, because of their wonderful effect. CUTICURA, Sold Everywhere. AGNES M. HARRIS, Puch, Mecklenburg Co. Va. DOT AT THE FINISH

MISS FARNSWORTH BEAT HELEN BALDWIN IN THE FIRST NIGHT'S RACING.

AT THE GREAT AUDITORIUM.

HER STAR-SPANGLED BELT WAS THE EMBLEM OF VICTORY AGAIN.

IT SEEMED ALMOST A DEAD HEAT.

But the Referee Decided That Miss Farnsworth Had a Shade the Best of It.

If every night's racing is as exciting as last night's, then the one-day bicycle race which started at the Auditorium last night will be a four-time winner in point of popular enthusiasm.

The last lap was a whirlwind of excitement. Dottie Farnsworth, the Minneapolis girl, who had taken the lead ten minutes before, was closely pushed by the California beauty, Helen Baldwin, and as they came up the course, they were almost neck and neck.

Baldwin, however, being further up the sloping track, was at a disadvantage, and as they came to the tape, it was decided by the referee, John King, that Miss Farnsworth was ahead, although many in the crowd believed that it was Miss Baldwin, who darted to the front just as soon as the tape was crossed and on the curve showed well in front.

There was a little delay in starting the race, partly due to the trouble of seating the thousands who came to see the first night of an exciting race.

Considerable local interest was stirred by the appearance of a local bicyclist, in the person of Miss Zella Villard, a handsome blonde, who became at once upon her appearance a strong favorite. The pace set was too hot for Miss Villard, however, and after fourteen laps she dropped out.

The other contestants were Miss Helen Baldwin, of San Francisco, the winner of the recent race in Minneapolis; Miss Dottie Farnsworth, of Minneapolis; Miss May Allen, of New York, and Miss Minnie Hokenson.

As the time for the start approached the riders threw off their wraps and were bunched at the tape for a mammoth flash light picture.

Miss Baldwin had a costume of dainty blue, and Miss Allen was in green and Miss Farnsworth had an American flag draped about her waist over a loose pair of sprouting pants. Misses Peterson and Hokenson were in black, with maroon sweaters, and Miss Villard's trim figure was entirely in black, which set off her trim figure and clear blonde crown to a decided advantage.

After the picture was taken, the riders were given a few minutes to warm up, and it was about 8:45 when they were started by the starter, who gave the word to go.

Miss Farnsworth and Miss Helen Baldwin took the lead, with Miss Helen second, Miss Peterson third, and Miss Hokenson fourth. The race was a close one, with the exception that Miss Villard soon dropped out. Almost like a flash the women went around the eight-lap race, but one and now started a lively and hot race.
