NETO GOES OVER

CITY FATHERS WILL INVESTIGATE PAVING IN CHICAGO BEFORE ACTING.

REGARDING BICYCLE PATHS

NEW ORDINANCE IS PROPOSED—NEW SEWERS ORDERED BUILT.

SENSATION IN THE PERKINS CASE.

One Is Promised for Today—Architects Organize—Minneapolis News.

After six weeks of vacation, three of which was spent on the Pacific coast, the aldermen convened again last evening.

The vacation appears to have done much for the aldermanic temper, as there was no little fun indulged in over trivial matters. The session was not long, and was adjourned as soon as possible in deference to Mr. Haney's weakened condition.

The only matter of passing importance transacted was in connection with the paving imbroglio. The committee which has Mayor Pratt's veto safely hidden within its archives did not make a report upon the same, somewhat to the general surprise.

Ald. Rand sprang a surprise, which took the popular fancy the moment it was given. It appears that the committee meeting yesterday afternoon, Randolph Coleman, representing the Trinidad Asphalt company, made the statement that Chicago was paying from 15 to 20 cents more for the same kind of asphalt than Minneapolis had been asked to accept for that much less.

If this was a true statement it was looked upon as an important one. So Ald. Rand introduced a motion for the purpose of finding out, instructing the city engineer to visit Chicago before the next council meeting and investigate.

Mr. Coleman "challenged investigation" and will get it, for the motion was adopted. A report will be received from the city engineer May 8.

The reservoir construction pay roll for the coming summer was sent to the committee for immediate consideration. The reference was made necessary through a resolution offered by Ald. Jennings, of the Third ward, recommending that laborers at the reservoir be paid $1.75 and teamsters $3.50 per day, instead of $1.50, as heretofore.

Ald. Miner introduced an amendment to the bicycle ordinance providing for the construction of bicycle paths. The proposed amendment allows twenty-five or more wheelmen to petition for permission to construct, at their own expense, bicycle paths on and along the public streets and highways, and providing penalties for driving other vehicles along such paths.

The amendment was referred to a special committee of one alderman from each ward. Sewers were ordered built in Fifteenth avenue north, from Fifth street to Sixth street; in Blaisdell avenue, from Twenty-Eighth to Twenty-ninth street; Girard avenue, from Sixth avenue north to north line of lot 1, block 32, Gale's second addition; Lyndale avenue, from Thirty-Second to Thirty-third avenue north, from Lyndale to Emerson avenues.

The council annulled water mains in Penn avenue north, from the present terminus to Sixteenth avenue north; on First street south, from Thirteenth avenue to Fourteenth avenue, and on Twentieth avenue south, from Lake to Thirty-first street.

Perkins was ordered to advertise for bids for printing the council proceedings, and the city engineer instructed to proceed with the construction of the bridge over Minnehaha creek at Nicollet avenue.

The council appropriated $300 from the contingent fund to assist in paying Memorial day expenses.

Health Commissioner H. N. Avery presented a list of darymen whose herds had been treated for tuberculosis, and recommended that licenses be granted to the darymen named. The report was referred to the committee on licenses.

SENTATION IS PROMISED. CIMAX in Perkins Case Expected Today.

The Perkins case is drawing to a close and as far as the public can see there will be little interest in the examination. In this, however, the public is mistaken. Up to date the plaintiff has had rather the best of the case as regards proof, with one exception of the law in the case regarding the extent of the application. The great excitement of the case, however, is to come. Up to date only the old straw has been threshed and both sides are lying low on each other with proof. No expense has been spared to make the evidence complete on both sides, and it will be.

The plaintiff tells a strange tale to prove relationship, one that almost makes the hearer believe that the two women were really related, and that money from old Spain came to them to be used lavishly. It almost appears that there is some secret in their birth, but it is hinted that the Spanish aunt may be brought to light for the purpose of this trial, and that, under oath, she may be made to tell whether the tale is true or false. Then, perhaps, the world may know the secret.

But this is not all. Nothing has been left undone, and today in this most wonderful case, the dead will be brought to life, and testimony will come before the court from the spirit of the dead. Such is the promise, and if the promise is fulfilled, as it bids fair to be, there will be a sensation in Judge Belding's court room.

In yesterday's testimony several witnesses gave evidence that Mrs. Hawkins was down town the day the application was handed in.

Lou M. Perkins was recalled for a few questions, and then Mrs. A. D. Axtell was called to tell of admissions and conversations held between the witness.

Eleanor B. Walt, the Mrs. Donovan, whom it is claimed by the defense is Mrs. Perkins' mother, testified to having taken the child at the age of one year to raise. She swore that there was an aunt, just as Mrs. Perkins had testified to. The court ruled out some of the questions relative to letters received from her. Witness told the same story recited by Mrs. Perkins relative to the Spanish woman bringing her the child at Buffalo. A recess was taken until this morning, before cross-examination.

ALL HAD WHEELS. Nicollet Avenue Parade Was a Brilliant Affair.

Nicollet avenue put on a gala day appearance last evening; Greek fire burned every hundred feet, lighting the scene like a fête nocturne; thousands of spectators on wheels and on foot lined the street from Washington avenue to Tenth street, and a squad of mounted police and footmen bustled themselves keeping the streets clear. It was a reminder of the eventful festival of the appropriate service to the modern god of the wheel.

Before 8 o'clock Nicollet avenue was crowded from one end to the other with cyclists. They went down one side and up the other like the bubbles in a boiling caldron.

At 8:30 a party of about a dozen began to push the crowds back and then came the event of the evening. It was the maneuver of the Falcon Cycle club, of about thirty members, under the command of Captain Bonniwell. The drill in the parade was a silk gaiter appropriately worked in letters of gold, and it is nearly as may be like cavalry drill, the commands being the same and movements are all executed with military exactness.

The Falcon club proved excellently drilled and ready for any emergency which is likely to come to a wheelman. The uniforms are the handsomest ever worn by any club in the city, being dark navy blue, trimmed with bands of gold filigree.

The club was repeatedly cheered and applauded after one of its maneuvers, and at the conclusion of the parade President J. P. Calderwood presented a pair of gold cufflinks to the club, and the club members were appropriately worked in letters of gold, and it is nearly as may be like cavalry drill, the commands being the same and movements are all executed with military exactness.

After the Falcons retired, the street was given up to the thousands of bicyclists who were in a labyrinth of whirrs and twists and turns. Pedestrians were handicapped, and teams were not in it. The purpose of the Commercial club in getting up the festival was to give the wheelmen a little, and it succeeded. It is understood that the parades will be a regular feature during the summer, next week being given over to the Spaulding club.

STILLWATER NEWS. Old Resident Dead—Material for the Twine Factory.

Perry Organ, a resident of this city since 1854, died yesterday afternoon of kidney and heart trouble. Deceased was sixty-six years of age, and had a wide circle of friends.

Warden Wolfert will return from New York tomorrow. The sail purchased by him while absent is enough to keep the binder wine factory in operation until harvest is over.

The Elliott house, on the corner of Third and Chestnut streets, has been purchased by Postmaster General for a consideration of $6,000. The property was owned by Thomas McCormick, of Eau Claire, Wis.

SHELBLY M. SHELBLY

HOPES OF THE FAVORITE SON OF ILLINOIS CAREFULLY PUT AWAY.

M'KINLEY WON WITH EASE.

ONLY ONE VOTE WAS NEEDED TO SHOW WHO WAS THE MASTER.

CULLOM SAYS HE IS SATISFIED.

The Illinois Senator Has No Fault to Find With Either Friends or Foes.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 30.—William McKinley, of Ohio, is the choice of the Republicans of Illinois for president of the United States. He was so declared at the Republican state convention today.

The contest was between the Republicans of the state, who believed that Senator Shelby M. Cullom should have been honored as the standard-bearer in the presidential contest by the people of this state, but all their plans went wrong today. While Senator Cullom and his backers met with defeat, they met it gracefully, and announced their determination to lend their sincerest and heartiest co-operation for the election of Maj. McKinley to the highest office within the gift of the people of the United States.

The battle today was not a long one. It lasted scarcely an hour, but in that time the struggle was one of the hardest ever made in a state convention. The candidates for president were not opposed, with the exception of the trustees for the state university before resolutions instructing the delegates at large to the national convention were brought up. This was in accordance with an agreement reached between the advocates of Cullom and McKinley. The first shot was fired by the Cullom men in the shape of a resolution instructing the national delegates to support him at the St. Louis convention. As soon as Senator Cullom's name was mentioned there was wild and enthusiastic cheering from his friends and followers. But when the amendment, substituting the name of McKinley for that of Senator Cullom was offered, the outburst of applause was simply tremendous.

From this the Senator's friends gave up. They saw that nothing could stop the determination of the delegates to name McKinley as their choice for president.

Ex-State Senator Charles M. Fuller, of Boone county, presented the resolution instructing the national delegates at large to support Senator Cullom. This move on the part of the Cullom men was a surprise to Mr. McKinley's supporters, and during the applause which followed the mention of Senator Cullom's name, there was a hasty consultation of the leaders, who were seated on the floor of the convention. The Chinese leaders take advantage of them and rush the resolutions through. While they were in conference, a delegate from Lee county jumped to the floor and moved an amendment substituting the name of McKinley for that of Cullom.

W. J. Cahoon, of Danville, the McKinley leader here, made a speech supporting the amendment. When he had finished, M. B. Maddox, of Chicago, offered an amendment to the amendment instructing the delegates to the national convention to declare their confidence in the ability of Thomas B. Reed, of Maine, and W. B. Allison, of Iowa, as the Republican fight in the presidential contest.

This proposition was defeated, as was also a motion to table, and the convention then adopted the amendment substituting the name of William McKinley for that of Shelby M. Cullom. This action was, upon the motion of one of Senator Cullom's friends, made unanimous, and the delegates at large then adjourned.

Showing in the ill-fated convention the convention Governor, John R. Tanner, the Clay County; Lieutenant Governor, W. A. Northcott, Bond county; secretary of state, J. A. Rose, Pope county; state auditor, J. R. McCullough, Boone county; attorney general, Henry L. Hertz, Cook county; attorney general, E. C. Aiken, Will county; delegates at large, William Penn Nixon and R. W. Patterson, Chicago; ex-Gov. Joseph W. Fryer, Elmhurst; alternates, C. W. Hopper and J. W. Ellisworth, Chicago; Pleasant P. Chapman, Johnson county; Rev. Jordan Chavis (colored), Quincy.

Senator Cullom gave out the following statement tonight regarding the result of the convention: "The Republicans of Illinois have shown that they want the delegates at large to support McKinley, and I will be because of the popular belief that he most thoroughly typifies those cardinal principles of the Republican party which are embodied in our platform."

The convention was in continuous session from 10 a. m. until 9:25 p. m.

Not a Real Victory. Special to the Globe.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Concerning the result in Illinois, Senator Quay, of Pennsylvania, says the action of the Republican convention is by no means conclusive. Three of the delegates at large are opposed to McKinley.

Cameron, Not in It. MEXICO CITY, April 30.—Senator Cameron and party have returned from Mexico. The senator says he is not a candidate for the presidency, and that newspapers have manufactured the story. He is much pleased with his cordial treatment here.

Split in Arizona. PHOENIX, Ariz., April 30.—The split expected in the Republican territorial convention came late last night, when about fifty of the 112 delegates left the hall. Those who left were known as the McKinley faction, and elected delegates to St. Louis. The platform is for free silver and high protection. The opposing faction now claim they constitute the territorial convention, and will meet again. They will select a contesting delegation.

Wide Split in Georgia. ATLANTA, Ga., April 30.—So far as can be gathered from the confusion of the proceed-

CRIPPLE CREEK LOSS.

IT WILL FOOT UP A MILLION AND A HALF DOLLARS.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Col., April 30.—The total loss by yesterday's fire is estimated at $1,500,000. The insurance will probably foot up between $400,000 and $500,000. The heavy losers are as follows: Louis Weinberg, clothing store, $40,000; Palace hotel, $40,000; Portland hotel, $20,000; furniture, $7,000; W. T. Booth, furniture, $50,000; Wright Hardware company, $30,000; El Paso Lumber company, $20,000; Hotel the first store, $20,000.

A company of the Colorado national guard is on duty in the unburned district. Numerous arrests have been made in the outside district, those to which has been made by the vagrant element, which later has infested Cripple Creek.

A rumor is in circulation that a man was seen in the act of setting fire to a dwelling on Capitol Hill and was shot by a resident. A man was caught late in the afternoon in the very act of firing the rear of the Newell Hardware company's store. He is in the hands of the national guard. He was found under a saloon in Poverty gulch. An officer fired four shots at them and they were captured. In their possession was a bunch of skeleton keys. So far as known here there have been no arrests.

In a general way, the grounds within the fire limits, does not present to view even a decent ruin. The fire swept everything before it, just as if a flaming broom had passed over the district. In the business portion of the camp the Masonic Temple, the postoffice, and a few other scattering structures remain.

Today thousands of people who sought some sort of shelter in the unburned district came flocking back to the scene of their losses. On all the foot hills stands lines of homeless people awaiting news. The most of them will leave town if they can. The people are not unkind at all. During the night the officers and local military patrolled the streets and arrested all who could not give a strict and prompt account of themselves, thus doing the most for the least amount. The jail was full by midnight, and after that camp cars at the Midland depot were improvised into prisons. A morning train brought Sergeant Dunnington and a squad of ten men from highway and a dozen other police officers. Mayor Steele said today that Cripple Creek was in sore need, and any help proffered by outside towns would be accepted with cheerfulness.

PAID CASH FOR JOBS. Jury Decides That the Foremen Must Refund the Money.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., April 30.—After thirty hours of deliberation, the jury in the famous barge works case returned a verdict for the plaintiff, Gust Anderson, and mid-night. This was a test case brought by Anderson for himself and a dozen other laboring men against William Potts, Charles Rose and James Gunn, foremen in the American Steel Barge company's yards. The plaintiffs alleged that sums of money ranging from $5 to $10 had been paid to each of the laboring men against William Potts, Charles Rose and James Gunn, foremen in the American Steel Barge company's yards. The plaintiffs alleged that sums of money ranging from $5 to $10 had been paid to each of the laboring men against William Potts, Charles Rose and James Gunn, foremen in the American Steel Barge company's yards.

The men did not get work, and could not get their money back, hence the suit to recover.

FIRST BOAT FROM NEW ORLEANS. HASTINGS, Minn., April 30.—The steamer Flora Clark, Capt. E. Brown in command, arrived here yesterday from New Orleans with two barges in tow, the first through since the passage of Mrs. R. C. Libbey and Mrs. E. E. Brown, of this city, and an excursion party of ten people from Little Falls and Duluth. They left New Orleans March 21, having a very pleasant and enjoyable trip. The boat will go into a general jobbing and excursion trade.

Raising the Grand Pacific. MOORHEAD, Minn., April 30.—Parties arranged from St. Paul to make arrangements to tear down the Grand Pacific hotel and ship away the material. Ten thousand dollars was recently donated to the building, but the offer was refused. People here regret to see the structure torn down and removed, but it was only suitable for a hotel, and for that was too big and unprofitable. It is owned by J. J. Hill, and originally cost $200,000.

Weaver Not a Candidate. MANIKATO, Minn., April 30.—Mayor Weaver is not today with the usual appropriation bill, and will not be a candidate for congress before the Second District Republican convention. His name has been frequently mentioned by those who are opposed to McCleary. Weaver's attitude is considered to assume McCleary's renomination.

Band to Attract the Farmers. MASON CITY, Io., April 30.—The local Rain-makers' band of two-piece pieces have been engaged for summer concerts over Saturday afternoon in the park. These concerts are expected to be quite an attractive feature. Their pay is arranged by subscription among the business men.

BULUWAYO SAFE. British Are Now Ready to Act on the Offensive. BULUWAYO, April 30.—Earl Grey, co-adjutor with Cecil Rhodes, of the territory of the British Chartered South African company, has arrived here with a strong escort. The recent actions with the insurgent natives have resulted in losing such severe loss upon them that Buluwayo is looked upon as being practically relieved. The arrival of Earl Grey will be a signal for a general advance of the British forces.

OLD PARTIES SCORED. Mr. Allen Took Them to Task in the Senate. WASHINGTON, April 30.—The senate spent another day on the naval appropriation bill without completing it. Mr. Gorman further opposed the item of four battleships and expressed the opinion that the appropriations already made would consume the balance in the treasury. A deterring number of the battleships has not yet been reached. Mr. Chandler has proposed substituting thirty large and fast torpedo gunboats for two of the battleships. Mr. White (Cal.) spoke in the need of coast defenses before further naval vessels were built, and Mr. Allen (Neb.) made a speech of over three hours, arraigning the two old parties.

THE TIME FOR MAKING THE EIGHT-HOUR DEMAND HAS ARRIVED. SEE NO SIGNS OF TROUBLE. REPORTS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTRY TELL OF PEACE. CARPENTERS TO QUIT IN GOTHAM. It is Not Expected That Even There Any Serious Difficulty Will Be the Result.

NEW YORK, April 30.—The movement for the eight-hour workday will be duly celebrated in this city tomorrow. The United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, numbering about 1,400, have completed all their arrangements for the enforcement of the eight-hour demand, and they expect that the big majority of the members will get the shorter hours without any difficulty. No trouble or strike is anticipated. It was expected the horsehoes of this city, Brooklyn and Jersey City would take part in the short-day movement, but it is claimed they are not in a position to make a stand through insufficient organization.
