The St. Paul team went Democratic yesterday afternoon.

It was not enough for both Democrats and Republicans yesterday.

The presidential bee continues its perilous activity in Mr. Harrison's hat.

It appears paradoxical, but Mr. McCarty ran so well that he won in a walk.

Of course, if Mr. Allard feels lonesome among so many Republicans he can resign.

Three of the new aldermen have majorities of less than 100. They are the most tickled trio in the new council.

Gov. Bradley, of Kentucky, is puzzled as to how to dispose of the votes given him as the favorite son of Kentucky.

The "old partners" Doran and McCarty, now have a clear field in which to do their promised millennial work.

Congress actually expresses a belief that it can adjourn in the next two weeks. The public is resigned to the prospect.

Had there been no tidal wave, it is evident that a Democrat would have been chosen alderman from the Eleventh ward.

With Reardon in one branch of the council and Kenny in the other the proceedings ought to be of interest at every session.

Butter was reported firm in New York yesterday. It was not firm in St. Paul, however, unless surrounded by four walls of ice.

McCarty's majorities increase as his meanness increases. It is apparent that the people want him to be as mean as he can. Go it, McCarty!

Nearly every man in town will be his own policeman if Mr. Doran appoints all the men he has promised places on the force.

A man who calls himself a Messiah has appeared in Texas to rescue the Democratic party from the free silver craze. His purpose is laudable.

Mr. Doran's real troubles began yesterday. He was interviewed by some-thing less than 1,000 men, each of whom wanted a job under the new administration.

Let the Democratic leaders get together at once and organize for the work of the future. A complete organization is the one thing now most needed.

COAST IS FOR MAG

ALL THE ENTHUSIASTS OF THE GOLDEN STATE FOR THE OHIO MAN.

IRON-BOUND INSTRUCTIONS.

DELEGATES TO THE ST. LOUIS CONVENTION GIVEN NO OPTION OF CHOICE.

SILVER PLANK TACKLED ON ALSO.

Republicans of California Think Protection and Free Silver Should Go Well Together.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., May 6.—The McKinley enthusiasts completely captured the Republican state convention today, although the district delegates elected from the Fourth congressional district are unpledged, and are avowed Allison supporters. The Fifth district delegates will probably be of the same political complexion, but the other four are bound to McKinley by the strongest pledges that could be framed. After eulogizing the American protective tariff system as advocated by Blaine and McKinley, the platform, as reported, continued: "A delegate to a national convention is charged with a public trust in the execution of a mandate. William McKinley, of Ohio, is the choice of the people of the state of California for the nomination for president of the United States. Therefore, we endorse him for such nomination, and our delegates are hereby instructed to vote for him and to use their best endeavors to procure his nomination."

George A. Knight, of San Francisco, said that the McKinley plank in the platform was not strong enough, and offered the following substitute, which was adopted amid enthusiastic cheering: "The Republicans of California, while recognizing the earnest worth and fitness of each of the distinguished statesmen of their party whose names have been mentioned as aspirants for the presidential nomination at St. Louis, and, while pledging in advance the electoral vote of the Golden state to the Republican nominee, whoever he may be, hereby declare that the emphatic sentiment of California is in favor of the nomination of that wise and able statesman; that pure and unsullied patriot; that true and loyal American; that peerless champion of protection, William McKinley, of Ohio, and the delegates from this state are hereby directed and instructed to vote and vote for the success of William McKinley as long as there is a reasonable prospect of his nomination."

The following amendment to the platform was adopted unanimously: "We commend the course of our delegates in congress in opposing the proposed funding schemes of the Pacific railroad companies, and urge that the latter be compelled to settle their indebtedness in some reasonable and business way, or that the government shall foreclose its liens and take possession of the properties."

The convention came out squarely for silver in the following declaration, which was enthusiastically received: "We favor the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, and the making of silver, as well as gold, a legal tender in payment of all debts, both public and private."

The following was the convention's position regarding the public schools: "We heartily recognize the right to establish schools through private enterprise, but we demand that none but non-sectarian free public schools shall receive public aid."

For delegates at large, the following were elected: John D. Spreckels, San Francisco; U. S. Grant Jr., San Diego; L. A. Sheldon, Los Angeles; C. F. Crocker, and Irving M. Scott for the national silver; R. M. Carter was nominated incumbent governor, and then the convention adjourned sine die.

TEXAS MESSIAH.

He Will Release the Democrat From the Silver Ring.

AUSTIN, Tex., May 6.—Owing to the warmth with which the financial question has been waged in Texas, the people are this morning confronted with two candidates for governor. One is Charles Culberson, the present incumbent, and the other is Gov. O. M. Roberts, who, after ten years of private life, comes out today for the rescue of the Democratic party, as he terms it. He charges that in the clutches of a silver ring, headed by Culberson, that is doing it bodily harm, and that its leaders are trying to take the whole Democratic party of Texas into the national silver ring.

BALTIMORE, May 6.—The Democratic state central committee met here today, and fixed June 10 as the date for holding the state convention to select delegates to the national convention.

NEW FLOUR TRUST.

Greatest One the Country Has Ever Known Organized.

CHICAGO, May 6.—A special from Minneapolis to the Times-Herald says: R. M. Hubbard, the executive front of the Lined Oil trust, has succeeded with the aid of the Pillsburys in perfecting the organization of the greatest millers' combine ever made in this country. The purpose is to advance the price of flour from the present low quotations to secure satisfactory rail and water transportation rates and to compel every spring wheat grinder in the country to become a part of the pool. There are 600 spring wheat millers in the United States. More than 100 have joined the new pool, which had its inception last fall, reached a head February, and is now a bona fide organization. The pool has been incorporated, its name being the North American Milling company. It is commonly known here, in St. Paul, at Duluth and in Southern Minnesota as the American Mill company. It is the successor of the Southern Minnesota Millers' association of which R. M. Hubbard was the leading spirit. Representatives of the trust here claim to represent 10 mills, having a daily capacity of 166,000 barrels. The whole aim of the organization is to protect the flouring interests of Minneapolis, which are now threatened by competition.

TRUSTY IS WANTED.

Charged With Perjury to Save Scott Jackson.

NEWPORT, Ky., May 6.—Not a whit does the public interest in the Scott-Jackson case abate. The attendance of women grows larger daily. There were over a hundred present today. During all the proceedings the most perfect quiet has been preserved. It is very rarely that any one leaves the room. All seats are full when court opens and they remain filled till the hour of adjournment. Testimony in rebuttal, begun yesterday, will likely commence tomorrow at least. The trial of Willing set for Wednesday, has been postponed, but to what time has not yet been fixed.

The most important testimony of the day was that of Carrie Evans. She is the woman of the story of George R. Trusty, who is wanted, but cannot be found. Trusty said her assumed name was George Baker, and her true name Evans. She says her husband met her on April 8, and never saw him again until last night. His bond name was Virginia Catherine Williams. Trusty says he had known her six years. Carrie Evans says she never saw Trusty until John Seward again until last night. She met Trusty with John Seward. The court asked her if she talked to Seward and Trusty. She answered: "Only about what John Seward told me to swear to."

Before the trial was resumed today it was learned that Trusty, who had been under bond for his appearance, had fled. All efforts up to noon failed to get any trace of him. His bond expired last night, and by mistake was not renewed. He is wanted on the charge of perjury for his testimony on the defense. Seward, the detective, who coached Trusty, is still under bond, but knows nothing about Trusty.

MEN AND ARMS.

Bermuda Expedition Has Safely Reached the Cuban Coast.

HAVANA, via Key West, Fla., May 6.—There is tremendous excitement throughout Cuba over the rumor that the Bermuda has again been sent to sea. The vessel, which is said to have sailed from Havana, is reported to have taken the Bermuda to the east coast of Cardenas. It is said that while the cruiser Bona Mercedes waited for an insurgent expedition at Hole-in-the-Wall, between Nassau and Abaco, the Bermuda took the outside course and escaped. She was pursued by a Spanish gunboat, but was too fast to be caught.

ST. LOUIS FIRE.

Is It Expected the Loss Will Be Heavy.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 7, 12:30 a. m.—The extensive packing houses of Nelson, Morris & Co., in East St. Louis, Ill., are burning and will be completely destroyed. It is not known at this hour what the loss amounts to, but it will be heavy.

Matrimonial Item.

San Antonio (Tex.) drawing room a lady was narrating her sad experience. "I imagine the frightful position in which I am placed. My husband went North and now it is almost three years since I had a line from him."

"Horrible!" groaned the chorus. "Yes, but that ain't the worst. He is likely to turn up here in town any day and head me off from getting a divorce for desertion."

A Meet Tea.

New York Times. "A meet tea is a novel English adaptation to the popular bicycling interest. The hostess sends out invitations to a paper chase and 'meet tea' tea is served on the wheels, the paper bicycle is started, the others follow, and finally everybody brings up the 'tea' plan. SCARED BY A SHADOW.

A CLOUD OBSCURES THE POLITICAL PATHWAY IN INDIANA.

REAL CIVIL SERVICE

THIRTY THOUSAND POSITIONS HAVE BEEN TRANSFERRED TO THE CLASSIFIED LIST.

SPOILS SYSTEM SPOILED.

PRACTICALLY ALL CIVIL POSITIONS NOW REMOVED FROM POLITICAL INFLUENCE.

ORDER ISSUED BY THE PRESIDENT.

The Step the Most Important Since Civil Service Was Instituted a Decade Ago.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The long-expected order of the president including in the civil service most of the offices now outside of the classified list was issued this afternoon. It is stated at the civil service commission bureau that the new rules add 23,339 positions to the classified list, increasing the number of classified positions from 55,735 to 85,135. The number of classified places which are exempted from examination has been reduced from 2,069 to 775, being mainly positions as cashiers in the customs, postal and internal revenue bureaus. Indians employed in minor capacities in the Indian service are excepted from the list. The new rules will be put into effect immediately. Its practical effect is the classification of all government employes below the rank of those subject to nomination by the president and confirmation by the senate, and above the grades of laborers or workmen, with a few exceptions. The order has long been in contemplation, and its promulgation this afternoon is the result of an executive decision of the president, the civil service commissioners and the heads of the various departments.

The revision of the rules divides the executive civil service into five branches: The departmental, custom house, postoffice, government printing and internal revenue services. In the departmental service are classified all officers and employes except persons merely employed as laborers or workmen and persons who have been nominated for confirmation by the senate. In the postoffice service are classified all officers and employes in any free delivery postoffice, except persons merely employed as laborers or workmen and persons who have been nominated for confirmation by the senate. In the internal revenue service are classified all officers and employes in any internal revenue district, except persons employed merely as laborers or workmen and persons who have been nominated for confirmation by the senate.

The statement explanatory of the order issued by the civil service commission says that officers and employes in any customs district are completely subject to merit principles and take it out of politics. Where so large a part of the service was left to be filled by political influence, and when the men appointed possibly were active seeking politicians, the rest of the force tended to fall under political influence. The statement continues: "The first civil service rules were promulgated by President Arthur in 1883. In 1888 President Cleveland adopted a revision of them, which was continued in force with various succeeding amendments until now. These involved a repetition for each of the branches of the classified service of provisions common to all. When the classified service was again this plan worked well, but now the service has grown to large proportions, and there are several branches. The repetition now is avoided by putting the common provisions into general rules."

A large reduction is now made of the list of

INDIANA REPUBLICANS WILL DECLARE FOR MCKINLEY IN TO-DAY'S CONVENTION.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 6.—That the Indiana Republican convention will instruct its delegates for McKinley when it meets to-morrow, seems assured tonight. Eight of the thirteen districts in the state at caucuses held this evening, instructed their representatives on the resolutions committee to vote for the incorporation of McKinley resolutions in the platform, and one district, the Fourth, refused to vote against instructions, merely tabling the resolution. This, McKinley and anti-McKinley forces alike, concede to settle the matter until the unexpected happens, and the unexpected in this instance is the nature of the speech which it is vaguely rumored Gen. Harrison may make at the convention. The ex-president has been invited to address the gathering, and what he may do and say, providing he accepts the invitation, is the element of uncertainty in the situation. It is generally believed that no impending sensation is hidden, but disquieting rumors, unverified but persistent, are floating about Republican headquarters, to the effect that a stampede to Harrison will follow his address. The fact that both ex-United States Marshal Daniel Ramsdell and John C. New are out in interviews today, declaring that no McKinley instructions will be adopted if the ex-president makes a speech is pointed to as significant. Many of the fact that he has not refused the invitation, but the McKinley people laugh at the talk and declare they will have a hands-down walkover. Meanwhile, Gen. Harrison maintains silence and has not even announced his determination to address the convention.

MILWAUKEE STRIKE.

Company Officials Say That It Is Already Over.

MILWAUKEE, May 6.—Vice President Payne, of the street railway company, says the strike is over, so far as the company is concerned. He says they have all the men they want, and have ceased hiring new men. Mr. Payne announces that the strikers will not be blacklisted, but that none of the old men will be hired unless it is to fill vacancies that may occur in the future. Sixty cars were running on the various lines this morning. The number of people who ride is constantly increasing, and it looks as if the strike will be broken in a day or two. Both sides are as determined as ever to win. The worst disturbance since the outbreak of the strike occurred this noon at the corner of Third and Walnut streets. A large number of brewery employes were out on the street during the noon hour. One of them stopped a moving car and attempted to pull the motor-car off the platform. A squad was soon on the scene, and a pitched battle ensued, in which clubs were freely used. Nobody was dangerously hurt, however. The wife of a striker threw her two-year-old child in front of a moving car in order to stop it, and a pitched battle ensued, in which clubs were freely used. Nobody was dangerously hurt, however.

WILL JOFFIFY NOW

VICTORIOUS REPUBLICANS PEARING TO HAVE JOY IN THE SIXTH WARD.

MR. F. B. DORAN'S FRIENDS

BEGIN TO CALL AROUND TO PREVENT HIS FORGETTING THEM.

PLACES FOR THE OFFICE SEEKERS

What Rumor Says in Connection With Some of Those to Be Distributed.

Tonight Frank B. Doran, mayor-elect, will be the star at the public meeting at his home in the Sixth ward, 201 East Congress street. After the jollification, or ratification, his troubles will begin. Only the Republican campaign committee and a few of the principal workers will be present to assist in the celebration at Mr. Doran's home. When the surprise created by the Republican sweep had somewhat worn off yesterday the party workers who have cherished ambitions to hold public office gathered so thickly on the trail of the mayor-elect that he hardly had time to see where his private business stood. As soon as the result was decided beyond doubt the Republican workers began to lay plans to secure this, that or the other position. Ed Bean and C. M. Webber, chief of the local Pinkerton agency, are the candidates most prominently mentioned to succeed Chief Clark in command of the police force. John Harris would rather have a position under George N. Warren, who is to be director of public works after the installation of the new council, than be chief of detectives. It is generally understood, however, that Warren and Harris can have anything they want from the new mayor. The Dispatch last night confirmed the Globe's analysis of Warren's ambition in these paragraphs: "It develops from a reading of the provisions of the law that the wiping out of the board of public works originates with the council, which is empowered to direct the mayor to abolish the board. The great cause of the position of commissioner of the board is George Warren, who did such splendid service for Mr. Doran and the whole Republican ticket. Willis W. Williams, Fred S. Bryant and Percy Godfrey are mentioned for the office of private secretary to the mayor. Mr. Williams is a reporter on the Pioneer Press; Mr. Bryant is secretary and treasurer of the Republican campaign committee, and Mr. Godfrey is a Sixth ward hustler, who has helped Doran in his canvass since the start, two years ago. A few persons were talking yesterday of John Copeland for chief of police, but Mr. Copeland has a good position with the Globe, although the talk probably means nothing. Besides, the young Republicans of the First ward are going to demand recognition, and they are undertaken to be unfriendly to Copeland. Although Attorney Darragh has yet a year to serve, candidates for his position are being talked of. Walter Chapin, who defended Scamell's right to be on the ballot, is looked upon as the most promising possibility for this place. The name of George C. Stevens has been mentioned in connection with the license inspectorship."

HAD 3,705 TO SPARE.

That Is the Exact Plurality of F. B. Doran.

As the complete figures of the vote on the general city offices were published in the second edition of the Globe yesterday morning, the following figures are hardly news, although the talk is going on that Mr. Doran having 4,468 votes to spare, while Charles Horst, the nominee for city treasurer, pulled through by the narrow margin of 625 votes. Mayor-elect Doran's exact plurality is 3,705.
