GAMES TODAY.

Paul. Whether they can do the same thing on the St. Paul grounds remains to be seen. St. Paul played a superb fielding game though they had few difficult chances, but Carney was an enigma of the worst kind for them. They hatted him out of the box Tuesday, but they could not do it yesterday. The youngster did some superb work, and severa if the nine hits made off him were made after the side would have been retired but for errors. Young Denzer, on the other hand, was a ark for the Millers, and they pounded him right along. Each side made three runs in the first inning. O'Rourke started the game by striking out. Glasscock went out at first. Then George hit down to Connors. It was a hot ball, but Connors got it, and could have thrown the man out at first. He let it get away from him, though, and George was safe. There had been a chance to retire the side right here. Then Kraus hit hard between Ball and Kuehne, and Pickett made a home run, bringing in two men besides himself. Shugart went out at first. For Minneapolis, Connors and Lally each got their base on balls. Then Joe Strauss hit for two bases after the usual two strikes had been called on him. He is the greatest man in the business at this sort of work. He brought Connors home with the hit. Werden got a fielder's choice, Lally being caught off third by Pickett. Strauss came home on Frank's foul out to O'Rourke, and Schriver brought Werden home with a chise." St. Paul cares nothing about this single. Schriver was out trying to reach sec-

Carney struck out Mertes by throwing the ball in fast. Spies and O'Rourke both singled, but could not score. In the third Minneapolis practically decided the game in the minds of the spectators. Lally made a good single to left field and Joe Strauss sacrificed. Then Werden made a pretty single flew out to George. Schriver hit over Denzer's head and Pickett couldn't get to the ball in time. Then Kuehne made a two-bagger over the fence, bringing Werden home. Ball stepped up and made a single, bringing both Kuehne and Schriver in. Arthur was out not until Wilmot had vigo ously objected to the umpire's decision. The ses were full, and Denzer had a chance to distinguish himself. He succeeded in doubling up Shugart, though. O'Rourke had a base on balls and the bases were full again. Right here Big Bill Schriver got in his clever work. He threw down to Werden like a cyclone and O'Rourke was caught off the e fair and square. All this and no runs Minneapolis made another quartette, though. Carney made a lucky single over second base and Connors got first balls. Lally advanced both by sacrificing. Then Strauss hit safely and brought in two runs. Joe was caught trying to reach second. Perry Werden would not be outdoor by any one and he put the ball over the ce for a home run. Frank and Schriver followed with singles and Kuehne hit safely to right field, bringing Frank home. Schriver was caught trying to reach third on the hit. This made the score 11 to 3, and the Saints began to lose heart.

In the fifth Glasscock, George and Kraus each singled, and St. Paul had the bases full again and no one out. The mighty Pickett looked as if he would do something, but all he could do was foul out to Schriver. Then Shugart struck out, and Pickett had another chance to kick. Mertes left the three men on bases by sending a hot liner to Lally, which he easily took care of. Minneapolis scored another in the fifth. Ball got a base on balls, after sending a hot foul tip, which took Umpire McDonald on the ankle. Carney made a good single to left field, after two strikes had been called on him. Connors strikes had been called on him. Connors fouled out and Carney started to steal second. Spies decided to let him go and hold Ball at third. He had him easy, but for a poor throw to third. O'Rourke had the ball all right, but he let it get away from him, and Ball came home. Although Joe Strauss made another single, Lally fouled out and Werden struck out. Score, 12 to 3.

St. Paul had considerable luck in the St. Paul had considerable luck in the sixth inning. There was a short delay be-fore they started in, because a St. Paul baby did not like the way the game was going and had to be removed from the grand stand because of its crying. Spies got a base on balls. Delizer flew out, but O'Rourke made a two-bagger and Spies came home. Glasscock went out at first, but Joe Strauss dropped a fly from George, and O'Rourke came home. There was a chance to put George out at second when Kraus hit down to Ball, but Conners dropped the ball, and both were safe. Pickett hit to Ball also, but this time Connors held the ball and Kraus was out at second. Minneapolis did not score in the sixth, although getting two men on bases. St. Paul added two more in the seventh. After Shugart went out at first, Mertes his for a base and Spies made a home run. Den zer struck out. O'Rourke got his second base on balls and Carney dropped Glasscock's easy fly, but no more runs came in, George flying out to Ball.

Minneapolis made its thirteenth run in the seventh inning. Connors hit for a base, but was doubled up on Lally's hit. Joe Strauss got four bad balls in succession. Denzer hit Werden with the ball, and Frank brought in Strauss with a single down by Glasscock. Werden was caught trying to reach third. Neither side scored after that. Frank dropped Pickett's fly in the eighth, but Pickett was caught at second. Ball made his fourth single in the eighth, but was the only man to reach first, Carney making a great try for a hit, though. In the ninth Burns was sent in to bat for Denzer, but went out easily. There was a chance to make some runs, as Mertes was hit with the ball, O'Rourke went to first on a balk, and Glasscock got a base on balls. With the bases full, all George could do was to hit down to Ball, and Glassceck was out at second. During the game Spies was hit on the cheek by a bad foul tip, and there was a short delay. It drew blood, and he will have

St. Paul and Minneapolis to Play Here Today.

The Minneapolis club will come over today to meet the Apostles on the home grounds, and as Tony Mullane is on the cards to pitch, it is likely that the Millers' caught trying to steal second, but four runs had been scored.

DALY KNOCKED OUT. He Only Lasted Three Rounds With

Kid McCoy.

NEW YORK, May 7.-The gymnasium of the new Manhattan Athletic club was well filled tonight with an appreciative crowd of members and guests. There were three bouts on the programme, the principal one of which was a twelve round fight at catchweights between "Kid" McKoy and Jim Daly, of Buffalo. The first boxers were Tommy Butler, of Brooklyn, and Mike Mur-phy, of New York, eight rounds, at 135 Butler won. The second contest brought "Kid" McPartland, of New York, and John Mullins, of Boston, together for Tonkins were his seconds. Corbett's exsparring partner, Jim Daly, of Buffalo, accompanied by his seconds, Peter Butler and Jack McTiernan, Harry Boland and Charley Kelly, was very slow in getting into the ring.

Daly was knocked down and in the cesond he was badly punished. In the last round Mc-Coy led off with five left hand jabs on the stomach and Daly fell to the floor after getting two right hand smashes on the face. The referee called the bout to a close when Daly had gone to grass three times.

At a late hour tonight Daly was taken to Roosevelt hospital, suffering from a broken jawbone. Friends of the boxer claim that his injury was received during the fight with McCoy.

VARIED PROGRAMME GIVEN.

LOCAL CYCLERS INVITED TO JOIN IN A PARADE TO MINNE-APOLIS

ON NEXT SUNDAY, RAIN OR SHINE.

E. Bouquet Issues a Letter to All Dealers on the Subject.

The Columbus Cycle club was host last evening at an excellently gotten up entertainment and hop, and proved its members entertainers of a right royal kind. The first of the evening was devoted to a programme of a varied nature. Ryder's orchestra was in attendance, and gave the opening number. This was followed by a skillful fencing exhibition by Messrs. Mallett and Freeman. Herbert C. Gurnee gave an exhibition in fancy club-swinging and hand-balancing, which was one of the finest of its kind given in St. Paul recently. Mr. Gurnee is a Minneapolis man, and an artist in his peculiar line. Agnes Wilson gave a recitation and Charles Ryder gave a number of comic German readings. A piano solo was given by H. Delefield, and a comic duet by Messrs. Tenny and Wolf. Messrs. Ryder, Skoog and Ryder did a musical sketch. Emily Brugeman sang a solo, and F. A. Fortorelli gave selections on a harp.

Following there was a dance programme of ten numbers, and it appeared that those who ride the bicycle are truly the best dancers. The night was warm, so warm in fact, one felt it an exertion to breathe, but youth and good health, due to out door exercise and plenty of it, joined hands, laughed at the heat, and made merry. Ice water was plentiful and "where the heart is young all the world seems gay."

The Laurel Cycle Club of St. Paul, and the Spalding club, of Minneapolis, were in attendance. The Columbus Cycle club is a new organization and is fast coming to the front one of the largest clubs of its kind in St. Paul. Meetings are held each Thursday in the club rooms, which last evening were decked in the club colors. Maroon, black and yellow and large palms were placed about. The club has a membership of seventy-five, twenty of which, are women members. F. M. Hoblitt is the fast rider of the club.

The committees last evening were: Arrangements—C. S. Richardson, J. Ryder, Miss Laura Kent, J. T. Zak, F. M. Hoblitt, Miss Tillie Geib. B. E. Allen. Reception-Misses Hattie M. Wiley, Olga Fox, Eva Yaeger, Julia C. Nichols, Laura

NEXT SUNDAY SURE. St. Paul Cyclists to Visit Minneapolis in Numbers.

The big bicycle turnout to Minneapolls, which rain and bad roads have prevented for two Sundays, will come off next Sunday, rain or shine. E. Bouquet, the gentleman inor snine. E. Bouquet, the gentleman interested in making the plans for it, has issued a statement to that effect, which settles it. Mr. Bouquet sent the following to all the bicycle houses in St. Paul yesterday:

On Sunday, May 10, at 2 p. m. (rain or shine), you and all your friends are most cordially invited to be at Summit and Selby avenues to join the largest bicycle parade ever attempted between St. Paul and Minneapolis. The route will be out Summit to Marshall avenue, to Lake street, to Park avenue. At the foot of Lake street, we will be met by a delegation of Minneapolis cyclists, who will act as escorts around the Blotz City. On Park avenue the roll be clists, who will act as escorts around the Flour City. On Park avenue there will be a photographer to take the party in small groups of friends and en masse. We expect to turn out at least 1,000 wheels.

SPAIN'S BOOK OF BLOOD.

Spanish Details of Horrors Com. mitted in Cuba From 1868 to 1873. The indications that Captain General Weyler may be depended upon to enforce the usual Spanish methods against the Cuban insurgents render interesting a publication issued twen ty-three years ago, dealing with the atrocities committed in the struggle of 1868-1873, which has been placed on the shelves of the Enoch Pratt library. The book, or pamphlet, is entitled "The Book of Blood"—an authentic record of the policy adopted by modern Spain to put an end to the war for the independence of Cuba. The material for the pamphlet was drawn almost exclusively from Spanish sources, and deals with details of the butcheries committed during the regimes of Gens. Lersundi, Dolce, Cabellero de Rodas, Ceballos, Pieltan and Joveller, the last three being representatives of the Spanish Republic. Be tween Dec. 8, 1868, and Nov. 15, 1873, incomplete records show that, exclusive of those slain in battle, there were 2,027 political prisoners executed. Of these many were shot on the roads when being taken to the cities for trial. Hi-Famayo was the first patriot publicly executed, and while in most instances the names of the victims appear, there are in the lists such designations as the following:

"Some rebel chiefs and many insurgents, of whose fate only the earth that receives them in her bosom after they are shot can render an account.

"Four prisoners." "A Mexican general."
"Two spies."

"Eighteen more sent to Guantanamo to be tried, and shot on the way by volunteers."

"Some prisoners of high rank."
"An idiot." "Five who had been pardoned." "Fourteen members of the Hacienda La Punta, hanged, head down, by the Spaniards. "A mulatto eighty years old." "One who uttered seditious words." "A lady of twenty-six years of age, condemned to death for her crime of concealing in her room a rebel.' "One who smelt as a rebel."

"For the crime of being an uncle of Gen. Quesada." In February, 1869, a decree was published that all insurgents caught with arms in their hands should be shot. Between that time and Nov. 15, 1873, there were 4,672 prisoners taken whose fate was never made known. One hundred and ninety-one persons were condemned to death in the garotte by the military commission sitting in Havana; but they escaped execution by being out of the reach of the Spanish hangman. Eighty-four were delivered to the military courts by the captain general, and many of them mysteriously disappeared. Thirty-one were transported to the penal colony of Ceuta, and 185 were sentenced to the chain gang for terms ranging from two to ten years. Among the latter were many students and one woman. To the barren and unhealthy island Fernando Po, off the coast of Africa, were sent 250 of these. Many died during the passage or in the hospital after landing. An idea of their position in society may be had when it is known that forty-one were clerks, twenty farmers, seventeen property holders, ten carpenters, five clergymen, four engineers, four druggists, six lawyers, seven administrators of plantations, two bankers, three brokers, four masons, eight notaries, six physicians, four surveyors, seven teach-natives of Cuba. Some of the extreme measures re sorted to by the Spanish authorities are instanced in the pamphlet. On April 4, 1869, Count Valmaseda issued a proclamation, in which he ordered that every man above the age of fifteen found away from his habitation, and not able to show a justifiable motive therefor, should be shot; every uninhabited home to be burned, and every habitation that did not float white flag as a sign of peace, to be reduced to ashes. This order led Mr. Hamilton Fish to write that "in interest of Christian civilization and humanity he hoped the document was a forgery." Capt. Domingo Traino wrote in 1869: "More than 300 spies and conspira-tors are shot monthly in this jurisdic-Myself alone, with my band, have already disposed of nine, and it will never be weary of killing. Capt. Pedro Fardon, in the same strain, wrote in the same year: "Not a single Cuban will remain in this island, because we shoot all those we find in the fields, on the farms and in every hovel. We do not leave a creature alive where we pass, be it man or animal. If we find cows, we kill them; if horses, ditto; if hogs, ditto; if men, women or ditto; as to houses, we burn them. So every one receives his due—the men in balls, the animals in bayonet thrusts. The island will remain a desert.'

Such Wonderful Results Should Be Heralded to the World."-So Says the Restored Gentleman.

"Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co., 519 Guaranty Bidg., Minneapolis, Minn., Dec. 13, 1895.—Gentlemen: Will you accept my thanks for the great benefit received from the use of Dr. Charcot's Kola Nervine Tablets? At the time of commencing its use, last July, I could not read, without my glasses, the signs on our business streets; could not retain on my mind a matter of business sufficiently long to get to the street from my office, and could not call the names of my intimate friends, and would frequently get lost in parts of the city where I had been a daily visitor for the past seven years. I attributed my condition to advanced age. Thanks to Kola Nervine Tablets, however, although fity-six years of age, I am satisfied that I am today in as good condition, in every respect, as I was at thirty-five. Anything that will accomplish such wonderful results as this should be heralded to the world. I might add for the benefit of the public, that this testimonial is given without any solicitation on your part whatever. Yours truly. W. S. Swett, Manager."

RESIGNATION IN QUESTION.

THE COMPANY HAS OFFICIALLY DISAVOWED RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE RAID.

GOVERNMENT GIVES NO ADVICE.

Mr. Chamberlain Says the Directors of the Company Must Do as They Think Best.

LONDON, May 8 .- The Times this mornng publishes a communication from Mr. Hawksley, solicitor for the British Chartered South African company, which contains the minutes of the board meetings and its correspondence, during the period of the excitement over the Jameson raid and since, showing that Cecil Rhodes, before leaving London, on his return to Rhodesia, empowered Mr. Hawksley to tender his resignation to the Chartered company if it should prove advisable, he being actuated by a supreme desire to preserve the company's charter. Dr. Jameson also, it is announced, authorized Mr. Hawksley to exonerate the directors of the chartered company from any knowledge of, or complicity in, his raid. The directors at a meeting also placed on record their absolute ignorance of the raid. Hawksley's letter to the board tendering the resignations of Cecil Rhodes and Alfred Beit, the two directors directly implicated by the "Transvaal cryptogram." intimated that both these persons will continue to devote their energies to Rhodesia in an unofficial capacity, retaining their directorship in other African railway and telegraph companies. The directors of the Chartered South Africa company on Monday cabled to Cecil Rhodes at Gwelo as follows: "Hesitate to accept resignation. What's your view?"

Mr. Rhodes replied on Wednesday: "Let esignation wait. We fight Matabeles to-The directors thereupon deferred their ac-walked demurely down to the center and took the only vacant seat. She carried a neatly wrapped package, and after bowing and smiling to several acquaintances she leaned back in her seat and was apparently quite comfortable until the car reached Twentleth street. Here she suddenly thrust the package from her lap to the floor and started at running speed toward the back door, out to the conductor and, grasping him by the arm, said:

"It's alive! It's alive! catch it quick!"

The conductor, a green-looking young man, rushed in, caught the package and placed it upon the seat the woman had vacated. The passengers in the meantime began to edge closer to the doors, fearing it might be an infernal machine of some kind. The young matron finally summoned up enough courage to return to her seat, but she gave the package a wide berth. After a few moments of awkward silence she said in a most innocent manner:

"And the butcher didn't kill it enough," at which every man and woman on the car sereamed with laughter. The conductor walked out to the platform and leaned over the wire gate, convulsed with laughter, in which the passengers, with the exception of the embarrassed young woman, joined heartily. At Eighteenth street she could stand it no longer. She stopped the car after ringing the bell on the rear platform five times and finally appealing to the driver to let her off.

stititions of Jack Tar are accurate, Years ago, so the legend runs, a Spanish man-of-war was lost under pe-culiar circumstances. The ship was ca-reering before a Levant breeze, when reering before a Levant breeze, when suddenly the heavens grew dark with an approaching squall. All hands were called to shorten sail, sheets and clewilnes were manned, but not a sheet would budge an inch. Down hissed the squall; the carpenter and his mates were ordered to cut the halyards as a last resort, but the yards remained mastheaded, and the vessel capsized. It was afterward discovered that the It was afterward discovered that the sheaves, through which sheets and running gear had been rove, were so tightly plugged with wedges that it was impossible for the gear to render. It was asserted that no human agency could have done this, and the work was attributed to supernatural and evil

Shortly after the fatal occurrence a general order was issued, directing the crews of every Spanish war vessel to be sent aloft to chase evil spirits out of the sheave holes every evening at sundown. From that day, as the story goes, it has been the custom for Spanish men-of-war crews to go aloft for that purpose. The men run up the rigging, lie out on each yardarm and closely inspect all suspects ed parts.

TENNESSEE DEMOCRATS.

Gold Men Were Given No Chance in the Convention.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 7 .- The largest Democratic state convention ever held in Tennessee has met and adjourned. It was a town. Nothing of importance was done until 9 o'clock tonight, when a vote on contested delegations reports showed that the free silver men proposed to grant no quarter to the handful of sound money delegates. Senator Isham, G. Harris, W. B. Bate, E. W. Caremack and T. M. McConnell were chosen delegates from the state at large to Chicago. The district delegates chosen today were accepted by the convention.

The platform contains a strong free silver plank as follows: "We demand a restoration of the money of the constitution by law providing for the free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver as full legal tenden money at the ratio of 16 to 1, regardless of the action of any other nation."

Robert Taylor was nominated for governos by acclamation.

Congregational Reunion,

The breach in the fellowship of Con, gregational churches in Brooklyn and New York which has lasted for over twenty years, seems now about to be healed. It was an outgrowth of the Beecher trial. After that tragic event Plymouth church thought it best to drop Theodore Tilton from its membership without bringing him to trial for his offenses, which, in view of the friends of Mr. Beecher, were heinous. But Rev. Dr. R. S. Storrs and Re Dr. William Ives Budington and their churches sternly resolved that they would take part in no councils to which Plymouth church was invited. Then the Manhattan conference was formed, and that and the old New York and Brooklyn associations have gone on their ways, separately, ever since. It has been a great grief on both sides, and, the first step having been taken by the old association, committees of both bodies met and agreed on union under the constitution and standing rules of the Manhattan conference, and with the name of the Manhattan-Brooklyn conference Congregational churches. Further, it was agreed that the union shall be effected at the next meeting of the Manhattan conference "by simple re-sponse to a roll call" of all the churches in the two bodies.
