

GRATEFUL GERMANY

ANNIVERSARY OF THE SIGNING OF THE TREATY OF FRANKFORT OBSERVED.

MONUMENT TO WILLIAM I.

UNVEILED BY THE EMPEROR WITH THE USUAL ELABORATE CEREMONIES.

BISMARCK IS ALSO HONORED.

Emperor Takes Occasion to Express the Nation's Feeling to the Iron Chancellor.

FRANKFORT-ON-THAINE, May 10.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the signing of the treaty of Frankfort, which concluded the Franco-Prussian war, was celebrated here today in continuation of the fetes and celebrations which have been held throughout Germany in commemoration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the war.

Time Out in Two.

Fastest time from Twin Cities to Chicago, Buffalo, New York and Boston is now made by the Minneapolis & St. Louis Railway.

ADVERTISED.

List of Unclaimed Letters Remaining in the Postoffice, St. Paul, May 11, 1896.

First-Class delivery of letters by carriers at the residence of owners not secured by observing the following rules:

Second-Class letters with the writer's full address, including street and number, and request answers to be directed to the writer.

Third-Class letters to strangers or transient visitors in the city whose special address may be unknown should be marked "Transient." This will prevent their being delivered to persons of the same name.

Fourth-Class postage stamp on the upper right-hand corner, and leave space between the stamp and address for marking without defacing the writing.

Persons calling for letters in this list will please say they are advertised, otherwise they will not receive them.

H. A. CASTLE, Postmaster.

Admrs Miss Carrie Andrews Miss Nellie Archer Miss Belle Aronson Mrs W A Ashby C H Anderson Alice Ayres Horace Boehm

Blanche W A Bloomer C Bloomer J J Bloomer J J Bloomer J J Bloomer J J

Barker H B Barker H B

Barnes J A Barnes J A

Bartlett J A Bartlett J A Bartlett J A Bartlett J A Bartlett J A Bartlett J A

Bassett J A Bassett J A Bassett J A Bassett J A Bassett J A Bassett J A

Baxter J A Baxter J A Baxter J A Baxter J A Baxter J A Baxter J A

Bayne J A Bayne J A Bayne J A Bayne J A Bayne J A Bayne J A

Beaman J A Beaman J A Beaman J A Beaman J A Beaman J A Beaman J A

Beatty J A Beatty J A Beatty J A Beatty J A Beatty J A Beatty J A

Beck J A Beck J A Beck J A Beck J A Beck J A Beck J A

Beckwith J A Beckwith J A Beckwith J A Beckwith J A Beckwith J A Beckwith J A

Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A

Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A

Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A

Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A

Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A

Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A

Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A Bedford J A

A CITY OF TENTS

BOOMERS PREPARED FOR THE GRAND RUSH ON TO LANDS.

IT WILL BE A WILD RACE.

IN WHICH COVETOUS BORDER SETTLERS HAVE THE ADVANTAGE OF EXPERIENCE.

GRADING OF HINES' RAILWAY.

It is Expected Farmers Will Begin the Work When Seeding is Completed.

Special to the Globe.

FOSTON, Minn., May 10.—As the day approaches for the opening of Red Lake reservation to settlement, there is considerable activity manifested among the farmers along the Western line.

Special to the Globe.

TYNDALL, S. D., May 10.—C. Gotzian & Co., of St. Paul, wholesale boot and shoe men, have secured a verdict of $2,500 damages.

Special to the Globe.

LANGFORD, S. D., May 10.—The Spring Creek creamery at Amherst, in this county, started up today. This makes five creameries in Marshall county.

Special to the Globe.

LANGFORD, S. D., May 10.—J. W. Lee last night saw his way out of the county jail here. He was being held awaiting the action of the grand jury on a charge of burglary.

Lee's Generous Way.

Special to the Globe. NEW PAYNESVILLE, Minn., May 10.—St. Cloud, Minn., who now registers from his home in St. Cloud, came into town last night and has today practically put his house in his inside vest pocket.

Found Dead in the River.

Special to the Globe. CROOKSTON, Minn., May 10.—The dead body of an unknown man was found last evening in Red Lake river at a point about seven miles below this city.

Pardoned Two.

Special to the Globe. LANGDON, N. D., May 10.—Thomas Reilly and E. H. Moore, who have been serving in the penitentiary about six months of a term of two years each for burglary, have been pardoned by Gov. Allen.

BLUE-COATS WILL SHOOT.

National Guard Teams in Savannah to Take Part in Rifle Contests. SAVANNAH, Ga., May 10.—Gen. Bird W. Spencer, inspector general of rifle practice of the United States army, has returned to New Jersey, with a picked team of riflemen from the militia of that state.

During the civil officials of the department, and concludes by saying: "God grant that similar times may bring forth equally faithful and self-sacrificing men."

He then continued: "I hope that all will unanimously uphold our duty to maintain the nation fully armed. I hope that twenty-five years hence the empire will shine with the greatest splendor, and that Frankfort, like the whole of the nation, is destined to develop itself during a long period of peace."

He then continued: "I hope that all will unanimously uphold our duty to maintain the nation fully armed. I hope that twenty-five years hence the empire will shine with the greatest splendor, and that Frankfort, like the whole of the nation, is destined to develop itself during a long period of peace."

He then continued: "I hope that all will unanimously uphold our duty to maintain the nation fully armed. I hope that twenty-five years hence the empire will shine with the greatest splendor, and that Frankfort, like the whole of the nation, is destined to develop itself during a long period of peace."

He then continued: "I hope that all will unanimously uphold our duty to maintain the nation fully armed. I hope that twenty-five years hence the empire will shine with the greatest splendor, and that Frankfort, like the whole of the nation, is destined to develop itself during a long period of peace."

He then continued: "I hope that all will unanimously uphold our duty to maintain the nation fully armed. I hope that twenty-five years hence the empire will shine with the greatest splendor, and that Frankfort, like the whole of the nation, is destined to develop itself during a long period of peace."

He then continued: "I hope that all will unanimously uphold our duty to maintain the nation fully armed. I hope that twenty-five years hence the empire will shine with the greatest splendor, and that Frankfort, like the whole of the nation, is destined to develop itself during a long period of peace."

He then continued: "I hope that all will unanimously uphold our duty to maintain the nation fully armed. I hope that twenty-five years hence the empire will shine with the greatest splendor, and that Frankfort, like the whole of the nation, is destined to develop itself during a long period of peace."

He then continued: "I hope that all will unanimously uphold our duty to maintain the nation fully armed. I hope that twenty-five years hence the empire will shine with the greatest splendor, and that Frankfort, like the whole of the nation, is destined to develop itself during a long period of peace."

He then continued: "I hope that all will unanimously uphold our duty to maintain the nation fully armed. I hope that twenty-five years hence the empire will shine with the greatest splendor, and that Frankfort, like the whole of the nation, is destined to develop itself during a long period of peace."

He then continued: "I hope that all will unanimously uphold our duty to maintain the nation fully armed. I hope that twenty-five years hence the empire will shine with the greatest splendor, and that Frankfort, like the whole of the nation, is destined to develop itself during a long period of peace."

He then continued: "I hope that all will unanimously uphold our duty to maintain the nation fully armed. I hope that twenty-five years hence the empire will shine with the greatest splendor, and that Frankfort, like the whole of the nation, is destined to develop itself during a long period of peace."

He then continued: "I hope that all will unanimously uphold our duty to maintain the nation fully armed. I hope that twenty-five years hence the empire will shine with the greatest splendor, and that Frankfort, like the whole of the nation, is destined to develop itself during a long period of peace."

He then continued: "I hope that all will unanimously uphold our duty to maintain the nation fully armed. I hope that twenty-five years hence the empire will shine with the greatest splendor, and that Frankfort, like the whole of the nation, is destined to develop itself during a long period of peace."

He then continued: "I hope that all will unanimously uphold our duty to maintain the nation fully armed. I hope that twenty-five years hence the empire will shine with the greatest splendor, and that Frankfort, like the whole of the nation, is destined to develop itself during a long period of peace."

He then continued: "I hope that all will unanimously uphold our duty to maintain the nation fully armed. I hope that twenty-five years hence the empire will shine with the greatest splendor, and that Frankfort, like the whole of the nation, is destined to develop itself during a long period of peace."

He then continued: "I hope that all will unanimously uphold our duty to maintain the nation fully armed. I hope that twenty-five years hence the empire will shine with the greatest splendor, and that Frankfort, like the whole of the nation, is destined to develop itself during a long period of peace."

He then continued: "I hope that all will unanimously uphold our duty to maintain the nation fully armed. I hope that twenty-five years hence the empire will shine with the greatest splendor, and that Frankfort, like the whole of the nation, is destined to develop itself during a long period of peace."

REDS ARE PUGILISTS.

CINCINNATI, O., May 10.—The victory of the Reds by a little hitting was complete. Maul, angered at one of Umpire Hurst's decisions, tried to get out of the game with a $25 fine for objecting to a decision of the umpire. Attendance, 8,000.

BROWNS LOSE AT HOME.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 10.—The Browns lost today's game through poor fielding. Hart pitched a fine game, and his fielding was a feature, but the home team failed to support him at critical times. Attendance, 5,900.

AMATEUR GAMES IN TOWN.

The Nationals defeated the St. Johns as follows: Nationals.....3 2 0 2 3 0 2 1-15 St. Johns.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-4

THE NATIONALS ALSO LIKE TO GET A GAME WITH THE EXCELIOR QUICKSTEPS.

The Nationals also like to get a game with the Excelior Quicksteps. Address all challenges to James McDermott, 245 East Fairfield avenue.

The North Stars and A. D. Smith's Crawfords played a very exciting game Sunday, the former winning by a score of 27 to 13. Score by innings: A. D. Smith's.....0 2 1 0 5 1 1 1 2-13 North Stars.....2 4 1 5 6 9 1 3-27

For the Union Parks, Johnson and O'Malley; North Stars, McGrath, Brandt and Wagner.

The Maroons and Henleys crossed bats at the grounds of the latter yesterday, the Maroons winning by the score of 14 to 4. Batteries, for Maroons, Burke and Rogers; for Henleys, Campbell and Bolan; umpire, Boland. The score by innings was as follows: Maroons.....2 7 2 0 3 0 0 0-14 Henleys.....0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0-4

The Union Parks and the Colts played a match game at Merriam Park yesterday afternoon, which resulted in the Colts' defeat, 12 to 10. For the Union Parks, Johnson and O'Malley; for the Colts, Jones and Clark. The feature of the game was the pitching of Johnson, he striking out nine men. Umpire, H. L. Johnson.

BEST OF ITS KIND.

Cycle Parade to Minneapolis Masters 405 Riders. Yesterday's parade of St. Paul cyclists to the stater was an unqualified success. In spite of the threatening weather. When the wheels were counted at the rendezvous, summit of Selby avenue hill, it was found that there were 405 of them ridden by representatives of the fair county and many away in starting, owing to the delay of some of the clubs which participated, but, after taking photographs of the participants and their wheels, the parade started, out Summit and Marshall avenues to Minneapolis. Some of the scorers set too fast a pace for the rest, and the greater part of the feminine riders dropped out at Snelling avenue, when Marshall Bouquet sent his side to camp about to cross the river.

Among the pupils of the St. Paul schools who are training for the interschool bicycle day contests is Dan Kelly, a younger brother of W. D. Kelly, who is prominent candidate for the 100 yards. Dr. Kelly is a graduate of Jefferson college, where he took an active part in athletics, and has been coaching his younger brother in the start and sprint, so that the youngster has already made 100 yards in 1 1/4 fast time for a boy.

LOUISVILLE DISAPPOINTED.

Nearly Won a Game, Then Lost It—Would Mob the Umpire. LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 10.—Many of the fans who attended today's game between Brooklyn and Louisville were dissatisfied with several of Umpire Keeffe's decisions, and would have mobbed him after the game had it not been for police interference. He was conducted to his hotel by six policemen.

British Laughing at Croker.

LONDON, May 10.—Much satisfaction is expressed in racing circles here over the non-success of Richard Croker in the plumage of the Fulwell plate at Kempton park Friday with Eau Gallie. Croker and his friends are said to have lost heavily, and the poor showing made by American in the Jubilee stakes yesterday added to his disfavor. Croker has sold Red Banner to his trainer, Wantag, for $500. After Eau Gallie had been beaten in the race for the Fulwell plate he was claimed under the rules by Pickering, but it is thought Croker will buy him back.

HALF-RATE TO PITTSBURG AND RETURN.

Via "The Milwaukee." Account National Prohibition Convention. Tickets on sale May 24th and 25th, good returning until May 30th. For particulars apply at City Ticket Office, 365 Robert St., or address

To Break Wheel Records.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 10.—C. W. Butts and T. K. Goodwin, two young men, will start tomorrow upon bicycle trip to California, with the intention of breaking the present record.

Case of Eggs for Packers.

Special to the Globe. MANKATO, Minn., May 10.—Today the Mankato Maroon base ball team whitewashed the St. Paul Packers, 5 to 0.

Isaac Walton.

Would have been happy if fishing along the "So Line." The best fishing grounds in the Northwest for good sport. Call at "So Line" Office, 398 Robert street (Just Issued), and read over our fishing list which is given, giving particulars.

Saw Snakes While at Breakfast.

GOSHEN, Ind., May 10.—Ex-Mayor Cobb, of this city, unearthed a live snake neatly coiled up in the shell of his matutinal egg at breakfast today.

The Snake had gone through the soft-boiling process, and on the breaking of the eggshell wiggled around vigorously.

The ex-mayor called in his neighbors to verify the phenomenal find, and has preserved the reptile.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

GOSHEN, Ind., May 10.—Ex-Mayor Cobb, of this city, unearthed a live snake neatly coiled up in the shell of his matutinal egg at breakfast today.

Colts Play a Great Game Until the Eighth, Then Lose.

Philadelphia.....13 8 722 Boston.....12 6 487 Pittsburgh.....17 11 6 547 Chicago.....19 11 8 579

GAME SCHEDULE FOR TODAY.

Boston at Chicago. Washington at Cincinnati. Philadelphia at Cleveland. Brooklyn at Louisville. New York at St. Louis.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 10.—The tall-enders seemed to take a new lease of life today and had the Bridgecrossers shut out until the eighth inning, when three singles and an error gave Brooklyn the game. Umpire Keefe gave the home team the worst of it on several close decisions. Attendance, 2,000. Score:

Brooklyn.....0 0 0 0 0 0 3 5-9 Louisville.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

TOOK THE LAST ONE.

MILLERS CLOSE THE INTER-CITY SERIES WITH A PRETTILY PLAYED VICTORY.

THEY FINALLY BEAT TONY.

LONG JOHN HEALY, WITH GOOD BACKING, WINS ONE FROM THE COUNT.

WILMOT OBJECTS TO WERRICK.

Threatened to Take His Team From the Field if Joe Should Umpire.

Minneapolis 7, St. Paul 4.

Indianapolis 13, Columbus 1. Kansas City 11, Milwaukee 7.

Played. Won. Lost. Per Cent. Detroit.....14 2 875 Kansas City.....17 10 583 St. Paul.....10 7 700 Indianapolis.....9 8 467 Milwaukee.....18 9 442 Columbus.....15 7 319 Grand Rapids.....15 4 267

Minneapolis 7, St. Paul 4.

The last game of the inter-city series was won by the Millers. Viewed from the standpoint of general play, they earned it. Viewed from the standpoint of particular plays, they did not.

That is to say, they played the better fielding game, especially in the infield, but they really made their winning runs in the fourth inning after they should have been out, and the game really should have been St. Paul's. It was one of those complicated situations that occasionally arise in the game of base ball as it is played.

At the start, although Joe Werrick was on the grounds and ready to umpire, Manager Wilmot, of Minneapolis, threatened to take his men off the field if Werrick came on, and that he would not allow the crowd, Manager Comiskey again yielded, and Pitcher Johnston, of St. Paul, and Catcher Moran, of Minneapolis, were chosen as umpires. That both were fair is shown from the fact that the worst kickers on their decisions were the members of their own teams. But Johnston is a pitcher, not an umpire, and while he is probably reasonably familiar with the rules, he is not required to be an expert.

Consequently the tangle arose in the fourth inning. With one out and a man on first base, Schriver hit a high fly which went well back of Shugart, who muffed it. Johnston, however, declared him out, claiming that it was under the rule covering flies handled by an in-fielder when one man was on first and only one man out. The trouble was that that was the rule in 1894, and in the spring of 1895 was changed, so that the rule now only applies when both first and second bases are occupied. It is one of those plays that are so rarely seen that Johnston might well be excused for not knowing of the exact wording of the rule. Wilmot, however, made his usual roar. Johnston stuck to his decision, but finally said that if Comiskey would say that the rules were as Wilmot said they were, he would reverse his decision. Wilmot walked over to the players' bench.

"No," replied Comiskey, "I won't mix up 'No,' with your umpires. You would not have Werrick, but the best thing you can do now is to abide by the decision." But Wilmot kicked and growled, until finally Comiskey, relented, and conceded the point. Johnston reversed his decision, and declared both runners safe. The game was won then and there. Kuehne flew out to Billy George, which would have ended the inning under Johnston's first decision, but that was a safe one, and scored one, making it a tie. Healy struck to right field, and Burns threw to O'Rourke, who let the ball go through into the crowd, scoring two men when Ball should have been clearly out.

Healy hit a safe one, and Connors for two bases, which clinched the game, as it afterwards turned out.

Today is an open date. The Saints will play at St. Peter.

Tomorrow the Detroit will be here. It will be the first game with the Western clubs since Michigan champions have had, and St. Paul is in a position to make a record. He will be the first to take the contest out of the sewer Vanderbeck's new-broom aggregation.

If Moran had any disposition to be unfair, he could have beaten St. Paul on the run by declaring Billy George out when he beat his bun to first. It was close.

PLAYED LIKE AMATEURS. Buckeyes Lose a Game With the Greatest Ease.

COLUMBUS, O., May 10.—Four thousand people saw the Columbus team beaten by Indianapolis in a one-sided and uninteresting game today. The errors do not show half the stupid work of the Senators, who played like amateurs. Wolverton took the place in the box in the fourth inning. Score:

Columbus.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1-1 R.H.E. Indianapolis.....3 0 6 1 0 0 0 0-13 12 2

Batteries, Jones, Wolverton and Wilson, Phillips and Connors.

KAWS WON IN THE TENTH. Kansas City, Mo., May 10.—R.H.E. Kansas City.....1 1 0 0 3 0 0 15-11 16 4 Milwaukee.....2 0 0 2 1 7 8 6

Batteries, Bevis and Lake, Rettger and Speer.

DETROIT GO DOWN.

Colts Have No Trouble in Trouncing Both Ends of the Western League.

CHICAGO, May 10.—Nearly 4,000 people witnessed two exhibition games today. The scores:

Chicago.....0 5 0 0 0 4 3 0-24 20 3 Grand Rapids.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0 5 1

Batteries, McFarland, Kittredge and Anson, Walters and Davis.

Second game.....R.H.E. Chicago.....1 2 3 3 1 2 3 0-14 19 4 Grand Rapids.....1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1-12 11 2

Batteries, Briggs and Anson, Mayer and Trost. Umpires, O'Day and Gallagher.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Colons Play a Great Game Until the Eighth, Then Lose.

Philadelphia.....13 8 722 Boston.....12 6 487 Pittsburgh.....17 11 6 547 Chicago.....19 11 8 579

GAME SCHEDULE FOR TODAY. Boston at Chicago. Washington at Cincinnati. Philadelphia at Cleveland. Brooklyn at Louisville. New York at St. Louis.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 10.—The tall-enders seemed to take a new lease of life today and had the Bridgecrossers shut out until the eighth inning, when three singles and an error gave Brooklyn the game. Umpire Keefe gave the home team the worst of it on several close decisions. Attendance, 2,000. Score:

Brooklyn.....0 0 0 0 0 0 3 5-9 Louisville.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

TOOK THE LAST ONE.

MILLERS CLOSE THE INTER-CITY SERIES WITH A PRETTILY PLAYED VICTORY.

THEY FINALLY BEAT TONY.

LONG JOHN HEALY, WITH GOOD BACKING, WINS ONE FROM THE COUNT.

WILMOT OBJECTS TO WERRICK.

Threatened to Take His Team From the Field if Joe Should Umpire.

Minneapolis 7, St. Paul 4.

Indianapolis 13, Columbus 1. Kansas City 11, Milwaukee 7.

Played. Won. Lost. Per Cent. Detroit.....14 2 875 Kansas City.....17 10 583 St. Paul.....10 7 700 Indianapolis.....9 8 467 Milwaukee.....18 9 442 Columbus.....15 7 319 Grand Rapids.....15 4 267

Minneapolis 7, St. Paul 4.

The last game of the inter-city series was won by the Millers. Viewed from the standpoint of general play, they earned it. Viewed from the standpoint of particular plays, they did not.

That is to say, they played the better fielding game, especially in the infield, but they really made their winning runs in the fourth inning after they should have been out, and the game really should have been St. Paul's. It was one of those complicated situations that occasionally arise in the game of base ball as it is played.

At the start, although Joe Werrick was on the grounds and ready to umpire, Manager Wilmot, of Minneapolis, threatened to take his men off the field if Werrick came on, and that he would not allow the crowd, Manager Comiskey again yielded, and Pitcher Johnston, of St. Paul, and Catcher Moran, of Minneapolis, were chosen as umpires. That both were fair is shown from the fact that the worst kickers on their decisions were the members of their own teams. But Johnston is a pitcher, not an umpire, and while he is probably reasonably familiar with the rules, he is not required to be an expert.

Consequently the tangle arose in the fourth inning. With one out and a man on first base, Schriver hit a high fly which went well back of Shugart, who muffed it. Johnston, however, declared him out, claiming that it was under the rule covering flies handled by an in-fielder when one man was on first and only one man out. The trouble was that that was the rule in 1894, and in the spring of 1895 was changed, so that the rule now only applies when both first and second bases are occupied. It is one of those plays that are so rarely seen that Johnston might well be excused for not knowing of the exact wording of the rule. Wilmot, however, made his usual roar. Johnston stuck to his decision, but finally said that if Comiskey would say that the rules were as Wilmot said they were, he would reverse his decision. Wilmot walked over to the players' bench.

"No," replied Comiskey, "I won't mix up 'No,' with your umpires. You would not have Werrick, but the best thing you can do now is to abide by the decision." But Wilmot kicked and growled, until finally Comiskey, relented, and conceded the point. Johnston reversed his decision, and declared both runners safe. The game was won then and there. Kuehne flew out to Billy George, which would have ended the inning under Johnston's first decision, but that was a safe one, and scored one, making it a tie. Healy struck to right field, and Burns threw to O'Rourke, who let the ball go through into the crowd, scoring two men when Ball should have been clearly out.

Healy hit a safe one, and Connors for two bases, which clinched the game, as it afterwards turned out.

Today is an open date. The Saints will play at St. Peter.

Tomorrow the Detroit will be here. It will be the first game with the Western clubs since Michigan champions have had, and St. Paul is in a position to make a record. He will be the first to take the contest out of the sewer Vanderbeck's new-broom aggregation.

If Moran had any disposition to be unfair, he could have beaten St. Paul on the run by declaring Billy George out when he beat his bun to first. It was close.