

SHINING IN GLORY

MEMORY OF THE BRAVE HEROES RESTING ON ETERNAL CAMPING GROUNDS

UNDIMMED BY FLEETING TIME.

GRATEFUL HEARTS WILL AGAIN PAY LOVING TRIBUTE TO THE DEAD.

PROGRAMME OF EXERCISES HERE.

Line of March and All the Details for the Observance of the Day.

Commander-in-Chief Walker, of the G. A. R., in his Memorial day order, received this week by all the G. A. R. posts in St. Paul, says:

The time is again at hand when inclination and duty call the Grand Army of the Republic to prepare for the solemn services of Memorial day. The third day of May is set apart for its reverent observance. This day is consecrated to the memory of our dead. It is the nation's tribute of remembrance, when a liberty-loving and happy people, enjoying the blessings of peace and prosperity, cease from their labors and with grateful hearts pay loving tribute to the memory of brave men, who, having finished their course with undimmed glory, imperishable fame, now rest peacefully under the shade of the trees on eternal camping grounds. Sweet be their sleep, undisturbed by grief, imperishable their fame. Cover the mounds above them with spring-time's richest offerings. Raise above them the flag they loved. Let silvered age standing by their tombs feel that with the dust of such men sleeping in our soil, the republic will stand with its glory undimmed and its power unbroken. Let trusting childhood wave garlands for them, and at their graves receive inspiration that will keep them earnest in loyalty, true in citizenship, and faithful to duty.

It has been our custom for years to gather in the churches of the land on the Sunday preceding Memorial day for such reverent worship and instruction as becomes the occasion. We shall honor ourselves by a continuance of this custom as a fitting preparation for the solemn services of Memorial day.

At 8 o'clock in the morning of Memorial day squads will be detailed from all the posts of the city to visit the cemeteries and appropriately do the graves of veterans. Since last Memorial day many G. A. R. veterans have passed away. They are:

Lists will be reserved for the veterans and the Woman's Relief corps, and the soldiers are requested to be at the rendezvous in the basement of the church at 10 a. m. Jacob Schaefer, post of Minneapolis, will send a delegation.

Capt. Stees is making preparations to receive his personal friends, to whom he has extended invitations, who will attend the G. A. R. national encampment in September. They will come from Philadelphia, Baltimore and San Francisco, principally, and from the interior of the state of Minnesota. His private apartments will be given up to the wives and daughters of comrades, who will accompany their fathers and husbands to the encampment, while the husbands and fathers will occupy cots and mattresses on the floor of the captain's office.

For the comrades who "skirmish singly or by fours," Capt. Stees has provided bunks in the shape of mattresses upon the floor of the Weiler's hall, on University avenue, which he has hired for the occasion, said hall having a capacity for from sixty to eighty mattresses.

"My wife and family and I are going to live in the garret and give the house up to the boys of my regiment while the encampment is here!" is a common expression frequently heard among the G. A. R. comrades who propose to do all in their power to make the "bunkies" of their company or regiment comfortable and happy.

MOUNTS GETS IT. To Be Secretary of the New Chief of Police. M. N. Goss, the new chief of police, has finally decided to make Joseph N. Mounts his secretary, as predicted in the Globe a week ago.

Mr. Mounts is a popular young man of thirty-three, who came here in 1889 from Pennsylvania. He has been prominent in secret society work for several years. He is at present secretary of Minnehaha camp, Modern Woodmen, and in connection with the Knights of Pythias. For some time past he has been a special deputy in the sheriff's office.

SCHOOL BOARD, TOO. Corporation Attorney Says It Must Pay for Water. The corporation attorney submitted a written opinion yesterday to the school board in response to its inquiry concerning the liability of the school fund for the payment of water bills. The school board is advised that the water bills are a proper charge against the school maintenance fund. In the case of the park board, which is not obliged to pay the water bills out of the fund set apart for park purposes, the corporation attorney explains that the order of the law relating to this department is radically different from that regulating the furnishing of water to the school department. The fund for the maintenance of the schools is raised by special tax levy, and is intended to cover all expenses which the park fund, so called, is merely a certain sum set aside from the general fund for park purposes.

VEGAS SEASON CLOSES. With a Swedish Play and a Dancing Party. The Vega society gave its closing entertainment of the season at its hall on East Seventh street last night. There was a fair attendance and after the audience enjoyed a two-act comedy, written by August Blanche in the Swedish language, and entitled "The Child We Found," the seats were removed and dancing was the order of the evening. Those taking part in the play were August Ohman, C. Skog, Charlotte Grahn, G. Ryberg, L. Ordell, Anna Anderson, Minnie Collins, G. Carlin and Amelia Carlson, all of whom acquitted themselves creditably for amateurs. On June 7 the society will give a picnic at Forest lake.

Today's Day. At Wildwood, the beautiful spot on White Bear Lake, boating, fishing, music and water sports. Electric cars from end of Seventh street leave every half-hour. Round trip, 25 cents.

NEW CAPITOL SITE

TEMPORARY INJUNCTION HAS NOT CAUSED ANY DELAY IN THE WORK.

CONTRACTOR GRANT'S MEN

HAVE CAUSED THE BIG HILL TO ENTIRELY DISAPPEAR FROM VIEW.

THE OUTLINE OF THE EXCAVATION

Now Gives an Idea of the Size of the Foundation to Be Built.

The hearing on the injunction suits of John Klein and Charles Albrecht against the state capitol commission was continued for two weeks, by Judge Willis yesterday, on motion of the commission. The work will progress in the meantime, but that part of Aurora avenue mentioned in the complaints of the plaintiffs will not be interfered with until the case has been heard.

Despite the suits to secure injunctions, Contractor George J. Grant, with a force of men, teams, scrapers and dump cars, is rapidly grading the capitol site. At the same time that the grading is in progress, with scrapers, the dump cars are being used to haul away the material that is being excavated from the area to be covered by the extensive foundation. This material is being hauled out Park avenue on temporary tracks, and is being used to fill in low-lying lands and lots within a half mile or so of the site.

The big hill which used to be so prominent a feature of the site had entirely disappeared last night. The result of the cutting down of the hill and the filling in of the lots adjacent to Wabasha street is a slope which will require little more than leveling hereafter to put it in proper condition. Thus far the work has progressed with surprising rapidity. No obstructions have been met with for either plow or scraper.

Standing on the capitol grounds at the Park avenue side, one sees a ditch-like excavation which looks as if it might be intended for a canal or artificial lake. It extends practically across the site, with a branch tapping Aurora avenue about midway. The dimensions of this excavation, when it is finished and made true, will represent the size of the new capitol, and even now the observer gets a fairly good idea of how large it will be on the ground.

No particular stoppage of the work in progress will result from the temporary injunction. It affects only Aurora avenue; and while that is not in extra good condition for driving, it is still passable. From present indications before any new splendid foundation will have been finished on the site, to show the state solons that the capitol commissioners are men entirely competent to manage a great enterprise on behalf of the people of Minnesota.

ADVENTISTS' CONFERENCE Will Be Held at Merriam Park June 2 to 8.

The seventh day Adventists will convene for their thirty-seventh annual conference June 2 to 8, preceded by a workers' meeting and ministerial institute of one week. The conference will be held at Merriam Park, near the Minnesota Transfer yards, and on the line of the Interurban cars, and being convenient to the two cities, will, no doubt, be largely attended by people from St. Paul and Minneapolis.

The conference is made up of the several churches of the denomination, and will consist of five in the state. There will be about 200 delegates present representing the various churches. The camp meeting will be a feature of the conference, and from present indications it is expected that the campers will number between 1,000 and 1,500.
