

MINNEAPOLIS.

NOT ALL FOR LOREN

THE MINNEAPOLIS OFFICE OF THE DAILY GLOBE HAS BEEN REMOVED TO 29 SOUTH FOURTH STREET.

FOUR SCORE OF DAVIS DELEGATES REFUSED TO BE RECONSTRUCTED. IT WAS A RECORD BREAKER.

MINNEAPOLIS GLOBULES. Frank M. Anderson, instructor in history at the state university, received notification Friday that he had been awarded the Thayer scholarship in history at Harvard university.

FIFTH DISTRICT CONVENTION IN SESSION LESS THAN ONE WEEK. FLETCHER QUICKLY NOMINATED.

Attempt to Make the Nomination Unanimous Resulted in a Show of Discard. The convention was called to order at 10:25 o'clock by the reading of the official call.

Yesterday's congressional convention was the shortest in the history of Hennepin county. In just fifty-eight minutes from the time the gavel fell Fletcher had been nominated.

There will be afforded an opportunity to witness a series of experiments illustrating the connection between the spiritualism, clairvoyance, telepathy, etc., at the Bijou today, matinee and night, by Perry, the hypnotist.

Harmonia hall was crowded to its utmost with delegates and politicians as early as 10 o'clock to see the battle commence. But there was no battle.

A lad named Hall, of about fourteen years of age, and residing on Fifteenth avenue southeast, near Fourth street, was picked up in a semi-conscious condition on the Great Northern tracks near the university campus yesterday morning.

The primaries of the night before settled the matter effectually. Frank Davis did not have to wait until the vote of the convention was taken in order to satisfy himself that he was defeated.

Stockholders Liable. Judge Jamison yesterday took up the hearing of the creditors of the Minneapolis Paint company to enforce the stockholders' liability.

On the opening of the convention A. M. Johnson popped up in his seat, and with the prevalent spirit of haste, nominated E. M. Johnson for the office of temporary chairman.

When the temporary chairman stepped to the platform he was greeted with loud cheers. "I esteem it an honor to preside at this convention," said he.

The finance committee is sorely in need of money and a determined effort is to be made to raise it at once. The members of the committee waited before asking aid until they were assured of making their encampment a great success.
