

BULLETIN OF THE ST. PAUL GLOBE.

THURSDAY, JUNE 4.

Weather for Today—Local Storms; Warmer.

PAGE 1.

Silverites Control in Kentucky. Kansas Democrats for White Metal. Harbor Bill Becomes a Law. Rich Gold in Northern Minnesota. News of the Northwest.

PAGE 2.

Doran's Police Promotions. Alumni's Day at Hamline. Baldwin Seminary Commencement.

PAGE 3.

Mill City Matters. University Alumni Meet. East Side High Commencement. Globe's Tours.

PAGE 4.

Editorial. Schurmeier on Immigration. Clough's Answer to Coolican.

PAGE 5.

Buckeyes Find Deeper Easy. Brewers Shut Out. Tie in Hoosierdom. Tigers Lassoed by the Cowboys. Results in the National. Wales' Horse Won the Derby. Brooklyn Handicap Today. Belasco Testifies in His Suit.

PAGE 6.

Rev. Hoyme Will Retire. Stillwater News. Bar Silver, 68 3/8c. Cash Wheat in Chicago, 56 1/2c. No Improvement in Stocks.

PAGE 7.

Globe's Popular Wants. Supt. Gilbert Re-elected. Ladies' G. A. R. Committee Report. Order of World May Be Disrupted. Veterans Visit Winona.

PAGE 8.

WANTS THE DEAD MAN'S CASE. Housekeeper Claims to Be the Widow of E. E. Pinkham.

PAGE 9.

MOVEMENTS OF STEAMSHIPS. NEW YORK—Arrived: Itala, Naples; Lahn, Bremen; Auran, Liverpool. MOBILE—Arrived: Anchora, New York, or Glasgow. SOUTHAMPTON—Arrived: Trave, New York, or Bremen; New York, New York. LANSING—Arrived: Anchora, New York. ROTTERDAM—Sailed: Sparendam, New York.

PAGE 10.

Market Report—Butter is firm in the ice box. The pace that McKinley set gave James S. Clarkson heart disease.

PAGE 11.

The Cuban war should end soon. Gen. Fitzgibbon arrived in Havana yesterday.

PAGE 12.

It is hoped the St. Paul base ball team will not presume to come home without an invitation.

PAGE 13.

Cardinal Satolli attended a ball game the other day. But then the name of one of the nines was Holy Cross.

PAGE 14.

There was a snowdrift at Greenwood, Me., June 1. This could not have happened had Tom Reed been at home.

PAGE 15.

Col. Bradley has finally joined Davis and Cullom outside the breakwaters. The Kentuckian saw the storm coming.

PAGE 16.

Senator Hill got it about right when he said on the passage of the anti-bond bill: "And may God save the country!"

PAGE 17.

Helen Gould's heart is made of better stuff than marble. She has given $100,000 to the St. Louis cyclone sufferers.

PAGE 18.

The announcement that Duraven will not race the Valkyrie this year is received in this country with no regrets.

PAGE 19.

Philetus Sawyer is a candidate for governor of Wisconsin. There is a suspicion abroad that Philetus isn't of age.

PAGE 20.

Now let the St. Louis convention proceed. Col. Clowry says there are as many wires to the old town as before the big storm.

PAGE 21.

Chicago teachers will go away on their vacations with heavier hearts than usual. Their wages have been cut 5 per cent.

PAGE 22.

The senate passed the river and harbor bill over the president's veto—56 to 5. But let it be repeated—the president was right and the senate wrong.

PAGE 23.

Just now Timothy E. Byrnes is the most popular man in St. Louis. About June 16, along in the afternoon, he will be the most unpopular man in America.

PAGE 24.

The Prince of Wales will overlook the little matter of his mother refusing to resign in his favor for a few days. His colt Persimmon won the Epsom Derby yesterday.

PAGE 25.

The voters of Illinois are impatiently waiting for the time when they can thrust John P. Altgeld so far out of sight that he won't even be able to find himself.

PAGE 26.

The Kentucky Democrats greeted the names of Cleveland and Carlisle with hisses yesterday. The Kentucky Democrats will some day be sorry for this demonstration.

PAGE 27.

Capt. Ger. Weyler's disposition is getting drier and less lovely. He has ordered the arrest of a New York newspaper man for taking photographs in a province of Pinar del Rio.

PAGE 28.

"Boles and Blackburn" is said to be a much talked-of combination ticket, should the free coiners swing the Chicago convention. Very good; very appropriate. Two Bs, both buzzing.

PAGE 29.

The Republican victory in Oregon will hardly bear the light. The Populists have elected both congressmen, and the Republicans retain the legislature by a largely reduced majority.

PAGE 30.

Pennoyer is going to do better this time. He has voluntarily cut the salary of the mayor of Portland, which is now $3,000, to $2,500. As Pennoyer is the new mayor it will be readily recognized that he has done a very popular thing.

THESE ARE FOR GOLD

MINERS ON THE UPPER MINNESOTA BORDER HAVE A BONANZA IN YELLOW METAL.

REMARKABLY RICH FINDS.

SQUATTERS AT DULUTH ENTER SUIT TO RETAIN POSSESSION OF LANDS.

SECOND WESTERN GRAY CASE.

Another Woman Who Lays Claim to Estate of a Deceased Duluthian—The Northwest.

Special to the Globe. WINNIPEG, Man., June 3.—Gold mining properties on the north shore of Lake Superior, in which Duluth, St. Paul and Minneapolis capitalists are interested, are proving to be exceedingly rich. The vein in the Saw Mill mine at a depth of forty feet has increased to a width of five feet, and is very rich. At Lake Herald the mine superintendent writes that the ore is so rich that it should be smelted instead of milled. Two large bricks have been turned out within a fortnight.

THINK THEY OWN THE LAND. Duluth Squatters Enter Suit to Quiet Title.

Special to the Globe. DULUTH, Minn., June 3.—Several squatters who have live for twenty-five years on three blocks in the residence portion of the city this afternoon began suit in the district court to clear title to the property on the ground of adverse possession. The property is owned by the heirs of J. W. Norton, of Louisville, Ky., who own immense quantities of property in this section. The property includes all of blocks 4, 10 and 13. Norton's division, bounded by Sixth and Ninth streets and Seventh and Eighth avenues east, and four blocks from the court house. It is valued at about $50,000.

WANTS THE DEAD MAN'S CASE. Housekeeper Claims to Be the Widow of E. E. Pinkham.

Special to the Globe. DULUTH, Minn., June 3.—When E. E. Pinkham, a few weeks ago, committed suicide by jumping into the lake, he left about $7,000 in personal property and valuable iron range mining interests. His brother applied for letters of administration in his estate, and his application comes up Tuesday, the same day as the Western-Gray case. A woman who has lived with Pinkham for a number of years in his household will put in a claim for the estate on the ground that she is his common law wife.

DANES AT ALBERT. Three Hundred Delegates Expected at the Lutheran Conference.

Special to the Globe. ALBERT LEA, Minn., June 3.—Three hundred delegates are expected tomorrow to participate in the national conference of the Danish Lutheran Church of the United States. Many of the delegates are already here, and the conference will continue a full week or until next Wednesday evening.

ALL IN ROACH'S HARNESS. North Dakota Democrats Will Declare for Free Silver.

Special to the Globe. JAMESTOWN, N. D., June 3.—The state Democratic convention meets here tomorrow noon to elect delegates to the national convention. Senator Roach will arrive from Washington in the morning. It is expected his position on the financial issues will be strongly endorsed. The convention will undoubtedly favor the free coinage of silver. There are no contesting delegations.

DIPLOMAS FOR THESE. Students of Wabasha and Mazepa Schools Graduate.

Special to the Globe. WABASHA, Minn., June 3.—The commencement exercises of the Wabasha high school were held at the opera house last evening, when diplomas were awarded to the largest graduating class this city has ever had. This year's class numbers 100. The graduates are: Arvilla La Mont, Mollie Chamberlain, William Cleveland, Mary Ritchie, Margaret Myrtetus, May Jellison.

MISS HELEN GOULD, WHO GIVES $100,000 TO RELIEVE DISTRESS.

Special to the Globe. JAMESTOWN, N. D., June 3.—There can be no doubt that C. A. French, of Monticello, was here on an important political mission, and not in private business as he declared. It is known that he had conferred with Congressman Towne in regard to the political situation in Minnesota. It is well understood that French endeavored to bring about harmony between the friends of Congressman Towne and the state ring. French has gone to New Hampshire and will go directly home from there.

LEE ON HAND. New Consul General Has Arrived at Havana.

HAVANA, June 3.—Gen. Fitzgibbon, recently appointed United States consul general, succeeded to Ramon O. Williams, resigned, arrived here this morning by the Ward line steamer Mascotte. The steamer was met by a gayly decorated tug, on which were Messrs. Williams and Springer, Dr. Burgess, Senor Zaldo, representing the captain general, and the agent of the Ward line. The party boarded the Mascotte and extended a cordial welcome to Gen. Lee. Gen. Bradley Tyler Johnson and a number of other Americans and a large crowd of people awaited Gen. Lee ashore. On the wharf, Gen. Lee was received most respectfully. There were no demonstrations, and he entered a handsome carriage, with the coachman and footmen in Senor Zaldo's livery, and was driven to the Hotel Inglaterra, where Mr. Williams had previously secured a fine suite of rooms for his successor. Gen. Lee partook of coffee and then retired for a short rest, as he was very tired in consequence of the rough passage from Key West here. Gen. Lee has already made a favorable impression by his quiet and pleasant manner. It is understood that Gen. Johnson is very much pleased with the reception which has been accorded him by Capt. Gen. Weyler.

Will Not Trifle With Malls Against. Special to the Globe. WINONA, Minn., June 3.—In the United States court this morning John Fischer, of Winona, pled guilty to detaining a letter while in course of transmission through the United States mail. He was fined $250, which he immediately paid, and was discharged.

INJURIES WERE FATAL. GRAND FORKS, N. D., June 3.—While moving a house J. W. Pennell, who lives at Gibby, was struck by the sweep of a capstan in the stomach. He was driving the team, and the clevis slipped from the sweep. He died tonight from the injuries received. He was an old resident, and leaves a family.

South Dakota Opinions. PIERRE, S. D., June 3.—In the supreme court this morning the following opinions were handed down by Justice Corson: City of Yankton vs. Thomas Douglas, application to correct judgment denied; E. E. Bonnell vs. Edwin Vanicse, administrator, Lawrence county, motion to dismiss appeal denied; William A. Reid and Sarah A. Reid vs. Sarah C. Kellogg, Aurora county, affirmed.

Font Play is Possible. LITTLE FALLS, Minn., June 3.—Vincenz Liphanski, a Pole living in Pike Creek town, has suddenly disappeared, and it is feared he has been drowned or met with foul play. He was last seen on Sunday by some small boys, fishing, which brings up the drawing theory.

House Clears the Deck. WASHINGTON, June 3.—The house today began clearing the decks for final adjournment by extending the length of the daily sessions. In addition to this, Mr. Dingley, the floor leader of the majority, gave notice that henceforth he should object to all leaves of absence, save such as were requested on account of sickness. The importance of keeping a quorum constantly in attendance, he explained, compelled him to take this step. A partial conference report on the general deficiency bill was agreed to and the bill sent back to further conference. The Murray-Elliott contested case from the First South Carolina district was debated for four hours. The vote will be taken tomorrow. The majority report favors the seating of the contestant, who is a colored man and who was seated by the Fifty-first house in place of Elliott. Ten thousand copies of the president's veto message and the report of the river and harbor committee on the message were ordered printed.

Land List Approved. WASHINGTON, June 3.—Secretary Smith today approved as a basis for patent lists

Cyprian Dezell, John Steel, Maud Kyle, Theodore Scholtes, Lydia Leslin, Edward Toben and Gaud Anderson. The exercises were very entertaining, and of a much higher order than those usually met with on such an occasion.

Special to the Globe. MAZEPPA, Minn., June 2.—The commencement exercises of the Mazeppa graded school, Prof. W. G. Kingsford, principal, were held in the Congregational church last evening. Four graduates, Miss Phoebe Paul, Louis A. Phillips, John Schram and Joseph Hilger, acquitted themselves in a splendid manner.

Editor and Hawkshaw Disagree. DULUTH, Minn., June 3.—John L. Morrison, editor of the Duluth Citizen, a weekly paper recently started here, and Detective Robert Benson, came to blows on the street in front of the postoffice this morning. Morrison roasted Benson in his last issue, and the detective was wrathful. He met Morrison and they proceeded to obtain satisfaction. They were separated quickly, neither having gained any advantage. Morrison immediately swore out a warrant for Benson's arrest.

Geysers Broke Loose. TOWER CITY, N. D., June 3.—Drillers on the Butte farm, southeast of Buffalo have just struck what is probably the strongest artesian water flow ever secured from a shallow well in the Northwest. The water has burst the pipes far below the surface and gushes out for many feet around the original opening, heaping up immense quantities of sand and debris. Efforts to enclose it have so far been unavailing.

Work of the Crack Shots. Special to the Globe. WINONA, Minn., June 3.—Today's leaders in the Schutzenfest contest are, on people's target, A. J. Van Duzen, of Winona, 71 out of a possible 75; on standard target, A. J. Van Duzen, 45 out of a possible 50; on man target, William Sonnenberg and P. E. Van Duzen, both of Winona, each 90 out of a possible 100.

Rounding Up Horsetheives. FESSENDEN, N. D., June 3.—Last night Sheriff Curry and posse and Sheriff Hayes, of Faulkton, S. D., returned from that place with one more horsetheif. Sheriff Hayes has two at Faulkton. Five are now jailed here and most all the missing property from Wells county has been recovered. The first four have had their hearing and have been held. The gang will be broken up, and only two are still at large.

Austin Heard Mrs. Lease. Special to the Globe. AUSTIN, Minn., June 3.—The court house auditorium was filled to overflowing last night to hear Mrs. Mary Ellen Lease, of Kansas, on the "Political Issues of the Day" from a Populist point of view. The meeting was presided over by Hon. Thomas J. Meighen, of Freeville.

Dr. Perry Not Guilty. Special to the Globe. ALBERT LEA, Minn., June 3.—Dr. Perry, of Minneapolis, who has been on trial here this week charged with manslaughter, is now a free man, as Judge Whytock decided him not guilty without letting it go to the jury.

New Divines Licensed. PIERRE, S. D., June 3.—The general presbytery of Central Dakota has been in session here today and examined and licensed for the ministry Charles S. Blackburn, N. McKee and C. M. Wood, who will all be ordained tonight. The former will at once take up mission work in Persia.

Mrs. Lease at Dodge Center. Special to the Globe. DODGE CENTER, Minn., June 3.—Mrs. Lease spoke for two and a half hours to 1,000 people here today. The town is full of delegates to the congressional convention, which opens tomorrow.

Hopes to Wynn. Special to the Globe. YANKTON, S. D., June 3.—H. B. Wynn, of Yankton, today announced his candidacy for governor on the Populist ticket. The Telegram, the official Populist organ, announces the withdrawal of Andrew Lee, of Vermillion.

Waseca's Convention. WASCECA, Minn., June 3.—The call for the Republican county convention, for the election of delegates to the state convention, and also to the district congressional convention, was issued yesterday. It will be held June 28 in this city. Waseca county is entitled to twelve delegates.

Special to the Globe. WASHINGTON, June 3.—The friends of the Northern Pacific reorganization resolution are still endeavoring to get resolutions from Sen. Hill so as to have it called up and passed before congress adjourns. They have met with no positive success, however, and it is doubtful if they will be able to have it considered.

French's Mission. Special to the Globe. WASHINGTON, D. C., June 3.—There can be no doubt that C. A. French, of Monticello, was here on an important political mission, and not in private business as he declared. It is known that he had conferred with Congressman Towne in regard to the political situation in Minnesota. It is well understood that French endeavored to bring about harmony between the friends of Congressman Towne and the state ring. French has gone to New Hampshire and will go directly home from there.

LEE ON HAND. Special to the Globe. HAVANA, June 3.—Gen. Fitzgibbon, recently appointed United States consul general, succeeded to Ramon O. Williams, resigned, arrived here this morning by the Ward line steamer Mascotte. The steamer was met by a gayly decorated tug, on which were Messrs. Williams and Springer, Dr. Burgess, Senor Zaldo, representing the captain general, and the agent of the Ward line. The party boarded the Mascotte and extended a cordial welcome to Gen. Lee. Gen. Bradley Tyler Johnson and a number of other Americans and a large crowd of people awaited Gen. Lee ashore. On the wharf, Gen. Lee was received most respectfully. There were no demonstrations, and he entered a handsome carriage, with the coachman and footmen in Senor Zaldo's livery, and was driven to the Hotel Inglaterra, where Mr. Williams had previously secured a fine suite of rooms for his successor. Gen. Lee partook of coffee and then retired for a short rest, as he was very tired in consequence of the rough passage from Key West here. Gen. Lee has already made a favorable impression by his quiet and pleasant manner. It is understood that Gen. Johnson is very much pleased with the reception which has been accorded him by Capt. Gen. Weyler.

Will Not Trifle With Malls Against. Special to the Globe. WINONA, Minn., June 3.—In the United States court this morning John Fischer, of Winona, pled guilty to detaining a letter while in course of transmission through the United States mail. He was fined $250, which he immediately paid, and was discharged.

INJURIES WERE FATAL. GRAND FORKS, N. D., June 3.—While moving a house J. W. Pennell, who lives at Gibby, was struck by the sweep of a capstan in the stomach. He was driving the team, and the clevis slipped from the sweep. He died tonight from the injuries received. He was an old resident, and leaves a family.

South Dakota Opinions. PIERRE, S. D., June 3.—In the supreme court this morning the following opinions were handed down by Justice Corson: City of Yankton vs. Thomas Douglas, application to correct judgment denied; E. E. Bonnell vs. Edwin Vanicse, administrator, Lawrence county, motion to dismiss appeal denied; William A. Reid and Sarah A. Reid vs. Sarah C. Kellogg, Aurora county, affirmed.

Font Play is Possible. LITTLE FALLS, Minn., June 3.—Vincenz Liphanski, a Pole living in Pike Creek town, has suddenly disappeared, and it is feared he has been drowned or met with foul play. He was last seen on Sunday by some small boys, fishing, which brings up the drawing theory.

House Clears the Deck. WASHINGTON, June 3.—The house today began clearing the decks for final adjournment by extending the length of the daily sessions. In addition to this, Mr. Dingley, the floor leader of the majority, gave notice that henceforth he should object to all leaves of absence, save such as were requested on account of sickness. The importance of keeping a quorum constantly in attendance, he explained, compelled him to take this step. A partial conference report on the general deficiency bill was agreed to and the bill sent back to further conference. The Murray-Elliott contested case from the First South Carolina district was debated for four hours. The vote will be taken tomorrow. The majority report favors the seating of the contestant, who is a colored man and who was seated by the Fifty-first house in place of Elliott. Ten thousand copies of the president's veto message and the report of the river and harbor committee on the message were ordered printed.

Land List Approved. WASHINGTON, June 3.—Secretary Smith today approved as a basis for patent lists

HARBOR BILL LAW

PASSED BY THE SENATE OVER THE VETO OF THE PRESIDENT.

BUT FIVE NEGATIVE VOTES.

THE COURSE OF THE PRESIDENT DEFENDED BY VILAS AND HILL.

DEBATE PERSONAL IN ITS TONE.

During the Day Tillman Was Given a Chance to Get Out His Pitchfork.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The senate today passed the river and harbor bill over the president's veto, by the vote of 56 to 5. This was the last step in making the bill effective and it is now a law. The vote was taken after three hours of spirited debate, and defended, the remarks at times being directly and bitterly personal. Opposition to the veto was expressed by Senators Vest, Sherman, Pettigrew, Hawley and Butler, while the veto was defended by Senators Vilas, Hill and East. When a partial conference report was presented on the naval appropriation bill Mr. Quay moved that the senate recede from its amendment reducing the number of battleships from four to two. This brought on an extended debate. In its course, Mr. Tillman, S. C., spoke in his usual breezy way on "Armor Robbers." A final vote on the item of battleships will be taken at 1 o'clock tomorrow.

A contest for the right of way arose as soon as the senate met. Mr. Vest (Dem., Mo.) who, in the absence of Mr. Frye, was in charge of the river and harbor bill, sought the right of way for his bill. Mr. Pettigrew (Rep., S. D.) in charge of the Indian appropriation bill conference report. Mr. Vest urged that it was imperative that the bill be taken up at once. It was sustained, it could be determined whether any other river and harbor bill was to be framed. The bill and veto were taken up, more than 15 days ago. The negative vote was: Democrats, Bate, Chilton, Harris, Palmer, Vilas; Republicans, Brown, Morrill, Pettigrew, Pritchard, Teller, 5 Total, 10.

After Mr. Vest, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Smith (Dem., N. J.) had spoken, Mr. Vilas, of Wisconsin, took the floor. He said the bill contained important appropriations for his state, but he could not bring himself to the conviction that this great burden should be added to the distressed shoulders of the people. He regarded the criticisms of the veto by Mr. Vest as extremely minute and inconsequential. The appropriations of this congress total exceed $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill. Congress had come to dealing with vast sums as lightly as would an oriental prince who had no comprehension of values. The appropriations of this congress would be $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill. Congress had come to dealing with vast sums as lightly as would an oriental prince who had no comprehension of values. The appropriations of this congress would be $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill.

After Mr. Vest, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Smith (Dem., N. J.) had spoken, Mr. Vilas, of Wisconsin, took the floor. He said the bill contained important appropriations for his state, but he could not bring himself to the conviction that this great burden should be added to the distressed shoulders of the people. He regarded the criticisms of the veto by Mr. Vest as extremely minute and inconsequential. The appropriations of this congress total exceed $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill. Congress had come to dealing with vast sums as lightly as would an oriental prince who had no comprehension of values. The appropriations of this congress would be $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill.

After Mr. Vest, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Smith (Dem., N. J.) had spoken, Mr. Vilas, of Wisconsin, took the floor. He said the bill contained important appropriations for his state, but he could not bring himself to the conviction that this great burden should be added to the distressed shoulders of the people. He regarded the criticisms of the veto by Mr. Vest as extremely minute and inconsequential. The appropriations of this congress total exceed $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill. Congress had come to dealing with vast sums as lightly as would an oriental prince who had no comprehension of values. The appropriations of this congress would be $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill.

After Mr. Vest, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Smith (Dem., N. J.) had spoken, Mr. Vilas, of Wisconsin, took the floor. He said the bill contained important appropriations for his state, but he could not bring himself to the conviction that this great burden should be added to the distressed shoulders of the people. He regarded the criticisms of the veto by Mr. Vest as extremely minute and inconsequential. The appropriations of this congress total exceed $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill. Congress had come to dealing with vast sums as lightly as would an oriental prince who had no comprehension of values. The appropriations of this congress would be $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill.

After Mr. Vest, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Smith (Dem., N. J.) had spoken, Mr. Vilas, of Wisconsin, took the floor. He said the bill contained important appropriations for his state, but he could not bring himself to the conviction that this great burden should be added to the distressed shoulders of the people. He regarded the criticisms of the veto by Mr. Vest as extremely minute and inconsequential. The appropriations of this congress total exceed $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill. Congress had come to dealing with vast sums as lightly as would an oriental prince who had no comprehension of values. The appropriations of this congress would be $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill.

After Mr. Vest, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Smith (Dem., N. J.) had spoken, Mr. Vilas, of Wisconsin, took the floor. He said the bill contained important appropriations for his state, but he could not bring himself to the conviction that this great burden should be added to the distressed shoulders of the people. He regarded the criticisms of the veto by Mr. Vest as extremely minute and inconsequential. The appropriations of this congress total exceed $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill. Congress had come to dealing with vast sums as lightly as would an oriental prince who had no comprehension of values. The appropriations of this congress would be $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill.

After Mr. Vest, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Smith (Dem., N. J.) had spoken, Mr. Vilas, of Wisconsin, took the floor. He said the bill contained important appropriations for his state, but he could not bring himself to the conviction that this great burden should be added to the distressed shoulders of the people. He regarded the criticisms of the veto by Mr. Vest as extremely minute and inconsequential. The appropriations of this congress total exceed $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill. Congress had come to dealing with vast sums as lightly as would an oriental prince who had no comprehension of values. The appropriations of this congress would be $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill.

After Mr. Vest, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Smith (Dem., N. J.) had spoken, Mr. Vilas, of Wisconsin, took the floor. He said the bill contained important appropriations for his state, but he could not bring himself to the conviction that this great burden should be added to the distressed shoulders of the people. He regarded the criticisms of the veto by Mr. Vest as extremely minute and inconsequential. The appropriations of this congress total exceed $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill. Congress had come to dealing with vast sums as lightly as would an oriental prince who had no comprehension of values. The appropriations of this congress would be $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill.

After Mr. Vest, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Smith (Dem., N. J.) had spoken, Mr. Vilas, of Wisconsin, took the floor. He said the bill contained important appropriations for his state, but he could not bring himself to the conviction that this great burden should be added to the distressed shoulders of the people. He regarded the criticisms of the veto by Mr. Vest as extremely minute and inconsequential. The appropriations of this congress total exceed $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill. Congress had come to dealing with vast sums as lightly as would an oriental prince who had no comprehension of values. The appropriations of this congress would be $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill.

After Mr. Vest, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Smith (Dem., N. J.) had spoken, Mr. Vilas, of Wisconsin, took the floor. He said the bill contained important appropriations for his state, but he could not bring himself to the conviction that this great burden should be added to the distressed shoulders of the people. He regarded the criticisms of the veto by Mr. Vest as extremely minute and inconsequential. The appropriations of this congress total exceed $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill. Congress had come to dealing with vast sums as lightly as would an oriental prince who had no comprehension of values. The appropriations of this congress would be $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill.

After Mr. Vest, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Smith (Dem., N. J.) had spoken, Mr. Vilas, of Wisconsin, took the floor. He said the bill contained important appropriations for his state, but he could not bring himself to the conviction that this great burden should be added to the distressed shoulders of the people. He regarded the criticisms of the veto by Mr. Vest as extremely minute and inconsequential. The appropriations of this congress total exceed $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill. Congress had come to dealing with vast sums as lightly as would an oriental prince who had no comprehension of values. The appropriations of this congress would be $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill.

After Mr. Vest, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Smith (Dem., N. J.) had spoken, Mr. Vilas, of Wisconsin, took the floor. He said the bill contained important appropriations for his state, but he could not bring himself to the conviction that this great burden should be added to the distressed shoulders of the people. He regarded the criticisms of the veto by Mr. Vest as extremely minute and inconsequential. The appropriations of this congress total exceed $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill. Congress had come to dealing with vast sums as lightly as would an oriental prince who had no comprehension of values. The appropriations of this congress would be $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill.

After Mr. Vest, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Smith (Dem., N. J.) had spoken, Mr. Vilas, of Wisconsin, took the floor. He said the bill contained important appropriations for his state, but he could not bring himself to the conviction that this great burden should be added to the distressed shoulders of the people. He regarded the criticisms of the veto by Mr. Vest as extremely minute and inconsequential. The appropriations of this congress total exceed $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill. Congress had come to dealing with vast sums as lightly as would an oriental prince who had no comprehension of values. The appropriations of this congress would be $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill.

After Mr. Vest, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Smith (Dem., N. J.) had spoken, Mr. Vilas, of Wisconsin, took the floor. He said the bill contained important appropriations for his state, but he could not bring himself to the conviction that this great burden should be added to the distressed shoulders of the people. He regarded the criticisms of the veto by Mr. Vest as extremely minute and inconsequential. The appropriations of this congress total exceed $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill. Congress had come to dealing with vast sums as lightly as would an oriental prince who had no comprehension of values. The appropriations of this congress would be $100,000,000 before the river and harbor bill.

After Mr. Vest, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Smith (Dem., N. J.) had spoken, Mr. Vilas, of Wisconsin, took the floor. He said the bill contained important appropriations for his state, but he could not bring himself to the conviction that this great burden should be added to the distressed shoulders of the people. He regarded the criticisms of the veto by Mr. Vest as extremely