ALUMNI OF THE MINNESOTA UNIVERSITY MEET AGAIN IN THE OLD HALLS.

VOTE A FREE SCHOLARSHIP.

CLASS OF '96 HOLDS ITS FAREWELL MEETING AND ELECTS OFFICERS.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES.

Commencement Exercises on the East Side—Close of the Kindergarten Normal.

The Alumni Association of the University of Minnesota held its annual meeting today in the reading room of the library building. In spirit and enthusiasm shown this was the most successful ever held by the association. Important business was transacted which brings the alumni into closer connection with the university than it has been in the past. The attendance was large and all those present took a ready hand in the debates on the various questions.

The meeting opened with the president, Stephen Mahoney, in the chair. After the opening routine business, President Northrop, of the university, delivered his annual address before the association. He gave an outline of the work done in the past year and the progress made. The showing was excellent. The first point to come up was the proposed merging of the Fellowship association into the Alumni association. For this purpose the association appointed Messrs. West, Rankin and Alton to confer with the Fellowship association and arrange for the consolidation of the two. The necessary steps were taken for the establishing of the first alumni scholarship by the adoption of resolutions to the effect that each member of the association pay $1 a year for the support of such scholarship, which will be $250.

The next point to come up brought out considerable discussion. A committee of five to be known as the "alumni committee on public affairs" was made one of the standing committees. The duty of this committee is to thoroughly familiarize itself with and promote the interests of the university and to make an annual report to the regular meeting of the Alumni association. The portrait of Prof. Powell, painted by Miss Millan, was formally presented to the university by C. J. Smith, in behalf of the alumni. A most touching reply was made by Prof. Powell.

It was shown that the property of the university was worth $2,350,000, divided among building, equipment, lands, permanent fund and uncollected lands. The income is $242,000, of which $25,000 is from students' fees. The annual expenses are a little more than the income. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, W. F. Webster, '96; vice president, W. T. Coe, '94; secretary, Alexander Winchell, '95; treasurer, Byron H. Timberlake, '91; historian, Wrs. W. J. Wilkins, '77. The other offices remained unfilled and the art committee was continued. The annual banquet will take place today at the West hotel, at 1 o'clock. Over 300 are expected to be in attendance.

CLASS OF '96. The class of '96 of the university held its last meeting yesterday at the library building. It being the last, the members took the occasion to say all that they could think of, making plenty of spirit and fun, and a meeting which those present will not soon forget. Reports from the various committees were made. The senior promenade committee were not ready to make a full report, but estimated that the big social affair had paid for itself. The class pay committee reported about $75 ahead as a result of careful management. Votes of thanks were extended to Herman Matteson and Miss Anna Walker, the authors of the play, for their work and to Miss McCulloch for assistance given. Mr. Burch, who had finished up the Gopher for the season, was also rewarded with a vote of thanks. Officers for the next year were elected: H. H. Matteson, president; A. D. Mayo, vice president; Miss C. E. Robb, recording secretary and treasurer; W. H. Condit, corresponding secretary.

NO CASE AGAINST DEAN.

His Alleged Victims Have to Admit as Much on the Stand.

The case of the state against John Dean, accused of forgery, was taken away from the jury yesterday by Judge Russell, who directed a verdict of not guilty in the case.

Dean was a canvasser for the Munsell Publishing company and took orders for a book giving the history of Hennepin county from a number of Brooklyn residents. They claimed to the county attorney that they did not sign the contracts which bore their signatures, and upon the strength of the evidence, the grand jury returned an indictment. On the stand several residents admitted that they signed a contract, but said it was different from the one presented, although they would not swear it was not their signatures, and admitted that the consideration was the same.

GRAFT FOR VETERANS.

Minnesota Detachment Which Will Go to St. Louis.

The Minnesota detachment of old soldiers who will hold positions at the St. Louis convention under Sergeant-at-Arms Byrnes, as doorkeeper, etc., is as follows: N. U. Mortimer, S. M. Wright, H. H. Humphries, Burke F. O'Brien, Hugh Lonstaff, George Holden, John J. Duncan, Comrade Richardson, Robert Watson, John Hughes, C. R. Fitz, W. C. Moore, P. B. Sholl and J. H. Abbott, Minneapolis; William Ray, J. B. Goodspeed, Richfield; W. E. Bullard, Verdala; John Schaefer, St. Cloud; W. E. Wood, Long Prairie; George Savage, Oscego; W. B. Henry, Rogers' siding.

Fire Stations Inspected.

Everything about the fire stations had a holiday appearance yesterday on account of the annual inspection by Chief Stetson and the aidmen. The men were attired in their Sunday best, the horses groomed until they glistened, and the apparatus was bright and clean. The inspecting party consisted of A. D. Nordeen, Phillips, Drew, Rhode and O'Brien, of the fire department committee; Adams, Elliott, Skoog and several others. They were driven to Station No. 12, on James and Fifth avenues north. At these and the other places visited the companies gave an exhibition of their dexterity and speed in hitching up.

East Side Commencement.

Commencement exercises of the East side high school were held last evening at 8:15 o'clock at the First Congregational church. This year's class has forty-nine members, among whom are not a few who have gained more or less distinction in other places, along educational lines. At the conclusion of the graduation programme the class was escorted by the Alumni association to the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Nelson, 115 Fifth street southeast, where a reception was tendered them. The members of the school board, the faculty of the school and several prominent East side citizens were present.

June Brides.

At 2:30 yesterday afternoon Miss Elizabeth Paine was united in marriage to Frederick Allen Williams, of Boston. The wedding occurred at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Martin Paine.

Miss Nellie Mabel Hutchins and Charles Fitzgerald Raikes, of Wiltshire, Eng., were married at 5 p. m. at the residence of the bride's parents.

Miss Gertrude Olive Perrott and Judson Lane Wicks were united in marriage at 4 o'clock p. m. at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Perrott, 1235 First avenue south.

FLAMES HIGH UP

EDISON BUILDING THE SCENE OF AN UGLY BLAZE THIS MORNING.

SUPPOSED TO BE FIRE-PROOF,

BUT THE FIRE WORKED ITS WAY THROUGH THE UPPER FIVE STORIES.

DAMAGE WAS FULLY $15,000.

Job Printers and Lawyers the Principal Losers by the Event.

Fire broke out in the seventh floor of the Edison Light and Power company's building shortly after 1 o'clock this morning. While the structure which is adjoining the Lumber Exchange on Hennepin avenue and Fifth street is supposed to be fire proof, the flames managed to find something to keep them alive. They ran up the elevator shaft to the twelfth or top story, but it was not thought that much damage would be done below the point where the fire started. The building is filled mainly with job printing establishments, and the Mississippi Valley Lumbermen's association offices in the scorched district. To what extent it suffered could not be told at 2 o'clock. Besides the printing firms the offices of A. B. Fairbank and A. C. Bosman will be damaged. At 2 o'clock it looked as if the damage would be about $15,000, but that is largely conjecture, as the fire was still burning, although well in control.

The firemen gained an almost miraculous victory. The loss it is now thought will be close to $50,000.

BISHOP GILBERT'S TENTH.

It is Celebrated in Connection With the Episcopal Council.

The thirty-ninth annual council of the Minnesota diocese of the Episcopal church was held yesterday at the Gethsemane church. This council is the regular business meeting of the diocese and is composed of the clergy and a delegate from each fifty members of the churches in the diocese.

The work of organization was very brief. Bishop Gilbert presided, and Rev. A. D. Stowe, of Stillwater, and Rev. C. E. Haupt, of St. Paul, were re-elected respectively secretary and assistant secretary. The committee on credentials reported the list of delegates.

At 2 p. m. the council took up the report of the committee on revision of constitutions and canon law by Rev. J. J. Faude. The articles reported were the same as those approved at the last council, but not finally adopted.

The first amendment proposed was the change of the phrase "assistant bishop" to "bishop coadjutor" to conform to the action of the general convention last fall. When the motion was put for adoption it was carried by a fixed limitation.

A very interesting event was the celebration, last evening, of Bishop Gilbert's tenth anniversary as coadjutor-bishop of the state of Minnesota. Preceding this demonstration an address by Bishop Whipple, who was unable to attend the council on account of sickness, was read by Rev. J. J. Faude. He greatly deprecated the fact that he was unable to be present at such a marked incident in the history of the diocese. The address thereupon takes up the work that is being done in the church.

Lane Andrews, pastor of Christ church, St. Paul, the rectorship which Bishop Gilbert held prior to his advancement, in well-chosen words, on behalf of the clergymen of the diocese, presented Bishop Gilbert, with a golden pectoral cross. He was followed by Hector Baxter, of Minneapolis, who, on behalf of the laity, presented the bishop with a beautifully engraved gold watch. Much affected with these signs of esteem on the part of those under him, the bishop made a short address of thanks. In closing he said: "The striking features of these ten years, besides the division of the diocese, may be summarized as follows: The formation of the Sunday school institute; the appointment of an archdeacon; the erection and development of the Breck school at Wilder; the erection of the new hospital of St. Luke's in St. Paul, and St. Barnabas in Minneapolis; the establishment of Miss Carter's lace work among the Indians; the formation of the Church club; the Swedish movement, and the meeting of the general convention in Gethsemane church in October last."

The bishop thereupon gave the present condition of the different institutions, and spoke in behalf of more work being done to support them.

This afternoon the women's auxiliary to the council will meet in the church.

Ward Citizens Organize.

The Fourth ward branch of the Good Citizens' league was formed last night at the board of trade rooms. It starts with a membership of 125. The officers elected last night were J. G. McIntyre, president; H. H. Nickell, vice president; H. V. Mercer, secretary.

These officers were instructed to report at the next meeting the names of ten persons to act with them as an executive committee. The president was also authorized to appoint a committee of seven to report at the next meeting the names of three men whom they recommend as suitable candidates for aldermen.

Skeleton in the Garbage.

Some excitement was occasioned yesterday afternoon by the announcement of the discovery of a human skeleton in the debris on the bank of the Mississippi, at the western terminus of Grove street. A laborer first saw the skull and other parts of the anatomy and informed Patrolman McQuade, of the East side station. The latter summoned the coroner, who had the collection removed to the county morgue. No special significance is attached to the finding, the officials presuming the skeleton to represent the work of a medical student.

Training Class Students Graduate.

The graduating exercises of the normal training class of the Minneapolis kindergarten association were held yesterday afternoon in the Church of the Redeemer lecture room. The occasion had something of social significance as well as educational merit, and there was a large gathering of friends of the class to attend the programme. The training class in its two departments, diploma and certificate, was composed of more than seventy young women, and they presented an imposing appearance as they rose to receive the parchment rolls that indicated the badge of their profession. With the exception of the rendition of two or three songs, the members of the class did not actively participate in the exercises.

Quite a Dog Show.

Inspector Hicks had his dog catchers at work bright and early yesterday. The wagon was brought into use for the first time this season, and with good results, as all previous records in the lassoing of canines were smashed. Last evening it was announced that twenty-five dogs had been gathered in during the day. They were taken to the pound, and if no claimant appears will be sent to the happy hunting grounds. The inspector is prosecuting the work with much vigor, and promises to make the season's work brief.

River Gives Up the Dead.

The body of Olaf Burg, the thirteen-year-old boy who was drowned in the Mississippi, near the upper end of Nicollet island, May 24, while fishing from a boom, was found floating in the water near the falls yesterday afternoon. Some workman first saw the body, and notified the police of the East side station. The body was removed to the morgue, and later taken to the home of his parents, 1132 Adams street northeast. The church will pay in the neighborhood of $40,000 for the property, it is reported.

His Peregrinations Postponed.

John Olson, a sturdy, bowler-ked tramp, stood up in the municipal court yesterday morning and wept tumultuously when sentenced to ten days in the workhouse for vagrancy. If a tenderhearted criminal had received ten years in the penitentiary for some crime it would hardly have been possible for him to feel worse over the matter than did Olson. He was heartbroken.

Site for Westminster.

The special committee of Westminster Presbyterian church, which was given authority to secure a new location for the church, has decided that the Foss property, at Eleventh street and Nicollet avenue, is too small for church purposes, and a new site has been purchased. It is lots 11 and 12, block 28, Snyder & Co.'s first addition, being the southeasterly corner of Nicollet avenue and Battle Ax Plug advertisement featuring an illustration of a man in a suit and the text: 'Sometimes quality is sacrificed in the effort to give big quantity for little money. No doubt about that. But once in a while it isn't. For instance, there's "BATTLE AX." The piece is bigger than you ever saw before for 5 cents. And the quality is, as many a man has said, "mighty good." There's no guess work in this statement. It is just a plain fact. You can prove it by investing 5 cents in "BATTLE AX."'

Twelfth street. The church will pay in the neighborhood of $40,000 for the property, it is reported.

COURT BRIEFS.

Paulina Krumrex has applied for letters of administration for the estate of August Krumrex, who leaves a $1,200 estate to the petitioner.

The case of the State against Lafayette Plorf, charged with grand larceny, was taken up by Judge Russell and a jury last night. William Sheren has asked the probate court for letters in the estate of Thomas Sheren. A small estate is left.

Alfred Peterson, under indictment for grand larceny, was brought before Judge Russell yesterday afternoon because he stated that he wanted to change his plea of not guilty to guilty. He stated that he had always been an upright young man except for the liquor habit. He was a coachman in the employ of George Pullman before coming to this city from Chicago. The court thought that a ninety days in the workhouse would be a good lesson, and the sentence was imposed.
