LIND WILL HEAD IT. MINNESOTA'S LATEST POLITICAL GROWTH IS A FREE SILVER TICKET. CLOUGH-CLAPP IMBROGLIO. THE GOVERNOR'S END WILL BE BOOMED LOCALLY DURING THE WEEK. STATE CONVENTION NOTICE. Official Call for the Coming Democratic State Conclave is Issued by the Committee. John Lind for governor, on an independent free silver platform. A strenuous effort is being made to have the ex-congressman make the race. From a source that entitles it to credence, the Globe gets the statement that Lind has practically signified his

side of these counties, however, the governor appears to be doing quite well. Of the conventions held to date, he seems to be quite largely the beneficiary. Atkin gives its vote to Gibbs; Rice declares for Clapp, the partner of its leading citizen, Donald Grant, and Winona has instructed for its favorite son, Van Sant. Within the past week a Globe man talked with Lee, Van Sant, Gibbs, Clapp and Tams Bixby. Of all the men named Lee makes the least claims, and yet he is more often mentioned by politicians as a possible "comer" than any of the others. Capt. Van Sant contented himself with the statement that he expects to receive votes from all parts of the state, and he evinced a reasonable amount of confidence in his ability to land the prize. Mr. Gibbs allowed that he had been doing considerable work in various sections of the state and expects good results therefrom. Gen. Clapp confidently looks for support in the First, Sixth and Seventh congressional districts, and his fight for a big slice of the delegation in the Fourth is becoming a part of Minnesota political life. Tams Bixby, as the Clough man says, takes a good hard squeeze at the inquirer's hand, looks him earnestly in the eye and solemnly asserts that David M. will be renominated without the slightest trouble. So there you are. It looks like Clough—but it can easily be swung to any one of the others.

Following is the official call for the fight the friends of Fred C. Stevens, who are engaged in an effort to prevent his renomination for congress. Mr. Kiefer says the St. Louis platform suits him as well as if he had made it himself, and having made this declaration he asserts he has no doubt that he will be renominated to succeed himself, especially as he took time enough from his pressing business yesterday to send a welcome telegram of congratulation to McKinley, which Stevens has not done. Representative C. P. Reeves, of Glenwood, was in St. Paul on business. He reports that Pope county will send a solid Clough delegation to the Republican state convention. County Treasurer Frank E. Elmund and his force of assistants are not worrying even a little bit over the threat of a few ambitious Republican politicians that Mr. Elmund is to be defeated for a renomination in the fall. The county treasurer's office is so well and carefully managed that even the critical examination of a committee of the grand jury could find nothing to cavil at, but everything to commend. Treasurer Elmund is attending strictly to his business and letting his nomination take care of itself. A meeting in the interest of Gen. Moses E. Clapp for governor was held at 112 South Robert street last night. The attendance was good. The speakers were Gen. Clapp, Capt. Henry A. Castle, Mark D. Sawyer and Aid. M. J. Bell. Gen. Clapp's speech was the

The crime was committed in a quarrel over a claim. It is also reported here that four settlers were recently drowned in Lost River. No particulars are obtainable at this writing. Mrs. Gray is the daughter of the late Pierre Bouteau, and it is thought in a good position to learn news from the reservation. Hastings Pastor Resigns. Special to the Globe. willingness to run as the candidate of the silver men, provided they will also put free silver candidates for congress in the field in the Fourth and Fifth districts. Fourth district white metal men rely on Hon. R. A. Walsh, even though the populists nominate him first. Judge Rea or A. D. Smith are regarded as available in the Fifth, with Rea largely preferred. Towne will, of course, contest the sixth as an independent candidate for re-election; and his friends promise the hottest campaign ever seen in a Minnesota congressional district. George N. Lamphere, the ex-Republican editor of the Moorhead Daily News, is looked on as the man who will win the free silver nomination in the Seventh, to go against Eddy. There is no question, either, that the populists of the Second district will nominate a free silver candidate for congress at their convention, to be held at Marshall next week. Leaders of the free silver men have decided to have a state convention in Minneapolis on some date between the 1st of July and the 4th of August, the dates for the Republican and Democratic conventions, respectively. No one but John Lind is talked of for the head of the ticket, and it seems an assured thing at this moment that he will be the free silver candidate for governor.

A Globe reporter visited Minneapolis yesterday and conversed with several members of the Hennepin legislative delegation. Even the most conservative and careful of these men insisted that the delegation will be divided between Eustis, Van Sant and Lee. When reminded that Tams Bixby is a state senator said: "Well, Mr. Bixby is not a resident of Hennepin county, and his word as to how this county will go is discounted by his connection with the governor. While Mr. Clough is a resident, he is not of the kind the people of this big city and county delight to honor. He will not get any delegates here, according to the information we have. Ramsey's unwise course in declaring for a solid Clough or anti-Clough delegation will not be followed in Hennepin. We shall divide our votes between three or more candidates until the time appears right for consolidation on some one of the candidates outside of Clough, and then we expect to cast the decisive vote."

In Hennepin the main reliance of the anti-Clough men appears to rest on the alleged fact that J. J. and Sam Hill are backing the governor with all the power at their command. State Oil Inspector Hy Poote, Surveyor-General Brown, and in fact, all of these appointive state officials, are working night and day to defeat the plans of the anti-Clough men. They have the necessary time and money to spare, and however the fight results both sides will know they have had a most trying test of their strength and resources. The local Clough managers—Messrs. Warner, Reese, Schiffman, Sheehan et al.—have been resting for a day or two; but, beginning with tomorrow evening they will hold a series of rallies which they intend shall offset the work Gen. Clapp has been doing the past week in his public meetings. The first one of the Clough rallies will be held in Liedertafel hall, in the Sixth ward, Monday evening. In addition to the Clough quartette named above, Hon. E. G. Rogers is announced to speak; and he will direct his argument to an attempt to prove that it is not good politics to seek honors from the party this year, nor for Ramsey county to bestow its vote upon him. Governor Clough and his fuglemen are becoming somewhat worried by the fight that the Clapp men are putting up in Ramsey; and this same fight is spurring the anti-Clough men to even greater exertions in Hennepin. Out-only extended effort of the meeting. It was a vigorous and spirited arraignment of the so-called Clough-Merrill machine. Gen. Clapp described the tactics employed by the machine to elect him. The machine had control of the two Republican daily newspapers of St. Paul. Consequently the columns of those papers were not only closed to him—Gen. Clapp—but were the tools of the machine in its political enemies. Gen. Clapp declared that the Republican party in Minnesota was not organized. It had no head. The man who should be respected as one of the party leaders, namely the chairman of the State Central Committee, whose duty it was to work solely in the interests of the party and not for the selfish ends of any individual, had prostituted his high office in the interest of one man's campaign. The general feeling of the party and history of the movement of which he is the leader, against the machine, and predicted that whether he should reach the governor's chair or not forever he would private life, the movement he represented would continue and ultimately smash the machine. Alluding to a recent labeling him as a tramp in Ramsey county politics, Gen. Clapp said that a few weeks prior to the appearance of the caricature in the editor of the paper publishing it, he had written the A. T. Towner, another man, and urged him to become a candidate for mayor. Did this indicate that he, Clapp, was a "tramp in Ramsey county politics?" Gen. Clapp accused the Clough machine of trying to trade off the Sixth congressional district by offering to give Ramsey county to the St. Louis county delegation would cast its vote for D. M. Clough. In conclusion Gen. Clapp said that the time has at last arrived when a man might aspire to the highest office in the state without the backing of a barrel of hooch or without wearing the collar of a man who owned the bar. The other addresses were brief, the speakers contending that the nomination of Gen. Clapp for governor would not as alleged, interfere with the selection of a St. Paul man for United States senator a year and a half hence.

FAIR WILL CASE. Sensation Caused by a Deed Placed on Record. San Francisco, June 20.—A sensation was caused today by a friend of Mrs. Nettie Craven filed for record a deed from the late Senator Fair, conveying to her two valuable properties of San Francisco. The deed is dated Sept. 8, 1884, and was acknowledged before Notary Public Cooney, Sept. 22 of that year. The entire consideration for the deed was $100,000. The deed is in the hands of the Senator Fair, is in ink. For love and affection the senator bequeathed a large lot on the corner of Pine and Sanson streets, and a half a block of land on Mission street to Mrs. Craven. The property is worth $100,000. Some time ago it was rumored that Mrs. Craven had in her possession a document showing that she had been married to Mr. Fair, and a deed to valuable property. The filing of the deed is the best confirmation of the rumors. MONTANA DEMOCRATS. Free Silver Coinage Platform Adopted by Them. BUTTE, Mont., June 20.—The Democratic state convention met here today. A. C. Gornley was chosen permanent chairman. The platform was adopted unanimously, although one of the delegates wanted to insert a resolution instructing for Bland. The following is the platform: That the mint of the United States be opened to the free coinage of silver as well as gold at the ratio of 16 to 1 without waiting the action of other nations. We believe the free coinage of silver will not only revive the drooping industries of the country, but the natural and inevitable result of free coinage will be to enlarge and extend the commerce of the country. A. C. Gornley, W. A. Clark, of Butte; Samuel Hauser, of Helena; and Eugene D. Matix, of Anaconda, were chosen by acclamation as delegates to the national convention.

During his pastorate of the past three and a half years Dr. Hearst has greatly endeared himself to his congregation. He has accepted a call from Jeffersonville, Ind., a much larger field of usefulness. STAFF PLEADED GUILTY. Ex-Treasurer of Dakota Given Option of a Fine or Imprisonment. Special to the Globe. HASTINGS, Minn., June 20.—G. W. Stapf, corner of Dakota county, and late treasurer of the city of South St. Paul, who was indicted for grand larceny in the first degree, appropriating funds without authority to his own use, pleaded guilty to grand larceny in the second degree this afternoon in the District court and was sentenced by Judge F. M. Crosby to pay a fine of $100 or to serve ninety days in the county jail. He paid the fine. STEARNS COUNTY POPULISTS. Special to the Globe. ST. CLOUGH, Minn., June 20.—Populists held a county convention this afternoon to elect delegates to the district convention at Duluth on the 24th inst. Resolutions instructing for the support of the Omaha platform and for Ignatius Donnelly for president were passed. REVOLT REPORTED. Details of the Trouble are Still Wanting. New York, June 20.—A dispatch to the Herald from Colon, Columbia, says: Mr. Jenner, the British minister, whose recall was reported by the Columbian government, has sailed for Europe, accompanied by his wife. The Columbian gunboat Boyace has been ordered in haste to Buenaventura. It is feared that there is trouble in the Cacia district where recently the government seized a large quantity of arms and ammunition, which was in the hands of the disaffected liberals. It is reported that many arrests have been made. Reports of a revolt in Guatemala have reached this city. They are absolutely devoid of detail. It is not known how serious the rebellion is, nor in what quarter it occurred. New York, June 20.—A dispatch to the Herald from Madrid, says: Four correspondents of the Herald, on the best authority that in cabinet council, the government has decided to propose to the cortes the purchase of two ironclads, one from the Italian government, the other from the British government. Both ships are at present in the ship yards at Seltra and Genoa. The former is finished and can be got ready for sea in fifteen days; the latter requires three or four months more work. The consent of the cortes is said to be certain. New York, June 20.—A dispatch to the Herald from Buenos Ayres says: Senator Romeo, minister of finance, who bitterly opposes the unification of the provincial debt, is using all his influence with senators to bring about the arrangements which would allow the intervention of the German syndicate interested in the debt. It is said that if such an arrangement could be made the syndicate in question would receive the large commission. The senate bill now before the congress provides for a loan of $100,000,000 in Great Britain without any recourse to other foreign aid. The opinion is strong here among all those able to judge that great disunion in trade between the United States and all South American countries, without exception, will result from the planks in the platform adopted by the republican convention at St. Louis, relative to reciprocity and discrimination. Reciprocity is the most objectionable plank, as it affirms that no South American republic will ever again accept or even entertain the proposition. MADAGASCAR GOBBLED. Annexation Bill Passed by the French Deputies. PARIS, June 20.—The chamber of deputies adopted today without opposition the law making Madagascar a French colony. A bill abolishing slavery throughout Madagascar
