Altgeld has the nomination. Illinois goes to bat next.

Even Thomas B. Reed sleeps better this week than he did last.

There is a painfully obvious tameness in the McKinley ratification meetings.

Fourth of July fireworks are beginning to edge themselves into the procession.

There is nothing the matter with the numerousness of the Canadian Liberals.

Advance Bulletin from the Democratic National Convention—Unsettled weather.

Venezuela appears to be making a last supreme effort to push itself into prominence again.

Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, by the way, would make a good governor for the new state of Cuba.

If the Chinese had anything to say about it, the home of McKinley would be known as Can Tin.

Several of Uncle Sam's gunboats may conclude to get off their pyrotechnics off Havana July 4.

The spirit of Democracy is immortal.—John P. Altgeld. Why don't you catch the spirit, Mr. Altgeld?

Numerous Republican politicians are going on a trip to Alaska. They take this as an antidote to St. Louis.

All Mr. Winter's friends hope he will find life a perpetual summer as president of the Northern Pacific.

Quincy congratulates McKinley like a politician who thinks he would make a good secretary of the treasury.

Recent developments indicate that Garret A. Hobart, of New Jersey, considers Garret A. Hobart, of New Jersey, about the best thing in American politics.

The Democratic roster is getting ready for a row at Chicago? Go ahead there, you Republican paragraphers. This was written for you to shoot at.

The court gives Belasco $16,000 of Fairbank's money without saying a word as to whether the former succeeded in making an actress of Mrs. Leslie Carter.

Congressman Ellis, of Oregon, always a free silverite, announces that he is going to try to stand on the St. Louis platform. The least admirable man on earth is a coward.

The discussion of the question whether the nomination of McKinley on the anniversary of the battle of Waterloo is a good or bad omen may as well be tabled until after the election.

Minnesota Republicans might nominate Clough for governor and Clapp for lieutenant, but they won't. By the way, in what party procession is Frank A. Day marching this summer?

Wisconsin Democrats are all right. Their platform says: "We declare ourselves opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver and in favor of gold, the highest monetary standard of the world."

The St. Paul team is treating its visitors with a great degree of courtesy. It has won two games, lost two and tied one. This is a degree of generosity that is at least pleasing in the other cities of the Western League circuit.

MR. ALTGELD AGAIN

RENOMINATED WITHOUT A BALLOT BY THE DEMOCRATS OF ILLINOIS.

SILVER PLATFORM ADOPTED.

ALTGELD WILL HEAD THE STATE DELEGATION TO THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

THE UNIT RULE PUT INTO EFFECT.

All the Illinois Men Bound to a Silver Platform and a Silver Nominee.

PEORIA, Ill., June 23.—The following is the ticket nominated: For Governor—John P. Altgeld, of Chicago. Lieutenant Governor—Monroe C. Crawford, of Union county. Secretary of State—Flinnis E. Downing, of Cass county. Auditor—W. F. Beck, of Richland county. Treasurer—Edward C. Pace, of Washington county. Attorney General—George A. Trade, of Chicago. University Trustees—Julia Holmes Smith, R. B. Morgan, M. W. Graham, R. B. Morgan, M. W. Graham, R. B. Morgan, M. W. Graham. National Committee—Thomas Gahan, of Chicago.

John P. Altgeld is the nominee of the Democratic party for governor of Illinois. He was unanimously placed at the head of the ticket this afternoon. He had no opponent and a few moments before the honor was thrust upon him declared that he did not want it. He said so at the conclusion of one of the most impressive speeches ever made before a Democratic convention. He said that he was physically unable to lead the fight and his financial affairs were in bad shape and needed his attention. No sooner had he mentioned his desire to retire from public life than there came an impassioned shout of disapproval not only from the delegates, but from thousands of people who were crowded in the hall.

It was a strange convention and will not soon be forgotten. It was in session only a little over five hours. Nearly all the candidates were nominated by acclamation. There was no strife; there were no acrimonious speeches save those directed against the enemy. The convention, as had been predicted, came out strongly for silver and so instructed its delegates at large to the national convention. The platform was almost diametrically opposite in all its parts to that of the Republican party and the 1,000 delegates voted unanimously for its adoption.

When the convention was called to order this morning A. H. Bell was made temporary chairman to be succeeded later by Chas. K. Todd, the permanent presiding officer. Todd took the chair was loudly applauded for his reference to Altgeld. While waiting for the committee on platform to report there were a number of speeches, including one by Altgeld which set the crowd in an uproar.

At frequent intervals during his speech, the governor was interrupted by furious demonstrations of applause. He spoke with great earnestness, and the six thousand people listened with great attention. As he proceeded the throng of people became more and more inspired by his utterances, until at times it seemed they would go mad in their effort to demonstrate their approval.

After the speeches it was moved that the convention proceed to name a candidate for governor. The motion prevailed and Judge Prentice, of Chicago, offered the name of Altgeld.

The delegates from this convention to the national Democratic convention are instructed to support only such men for the presidency as are in full and pronounced sympathy with the foregoing principles.

We are also opposed to the contraction of the currency by the retirement of any part of the out-standing treasury notes.

We favor a tariff for revenue only and declare that the government should collect no more taxes than necessary to defray the expenses of the government honestly and economically administered.

We are unalterably opposed to the revival of any such monstrosity in legislation as that act of congress which was known as the McKinley law which for the first time in the history of the United States produced a deficit in the United States treasury of $70,000,000 under which wages were greatly lowered and which gave proprietors monopoly while it permitted the retailers to take the cheapest kind of cheap labor brought from all parts of the earth.

We demand the abolition of government by injunction, that new form of the tariff which is a violation of the principles of the Democratic of Wisconsin.

We believe that a tariff for revenue only is the best method of raising the money needed for the support of the government, and that a tariff for protection is a violation of the principles of the Democratic of Wisconsin.

fixed charges, which were not lowered. In this way the market for those things which the mechanic and laborer made was destroyed and the factories had to shut down.

But by thus taking out of the commercial world one-half of its blood, industry and trade have been paralyzed and idleness and misery have been spread over the civilized world. With the richest natural resources, with a most industrious, frugal and enterprising population, and with the most abundant harvests our people are in distress. Three per cent of our population own over one-half the wealth of this republic, and almost the only men who prosper are the bond sharks and the men who fatten off the misery of their country. These are conditions under which Republican institutions cannot long endure. We believe in the greatness and patriotism of the American people, in their energy, industry and thrift, and that such a people, with the unlimited resources of our land are strong enough to sustain a monetary system without the aid of foreign governments. We believe that the benefit of the independence which we gained a hundred years ago—the war which was initiated upon a matter of tribute—should not be lost by yielding vassalage to a monetary system, preferred by other governments.

To believe that the bimetallic system which has done the work of the world since the dawn of civilization and which was made the basis of monetary system by Hamilton and Jefferson is absolutely necessary at present to the prosperity of mankind, that its re-establishment will check the present business paralysis, will give to the country a safe and honest currency of adequate volume, will restore the prosperity of agricultural communities, will encourage enterprise and give our people steady and profitable employment. Having learned through bitter experience that Wall street controlled the financial legislation at Washington, and knowing that every effort will be made to defeat the will of the people we deem it proper to be explicit in our declarations. We declare that we are actuated by the foregoing principles and desiring the prosperity of the people we demand the immediate restoration of the free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver as standard money at the rate of 16 ounces of silver to one ounce of gold of equal fineness with full legal tender power to each metal without waiting for or depending on any other nation on earth; and the delegates from this convention to the national Democratic convention are instructed to use all honorable means to secure a permanent declaration by said national convention and to support only such men for the presidency as are in full and pronounced sympathy with these principles.

BADGERS FOR GOLD

A FREE SILVER PLANK IS VOTED DOWN BY THE BADGER STATE CONVENTION.

MR. VILAS HEADS THE LIST.

HE IS CHIEF OF THE DELEGATION NAMED TO GO TO CHICAGO.

RINGING SPEECH AGAINST SILVER.

Plea of the Wisconsin Senator for Hard Money a Feature of the Gathering.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 23.—Free silver developed unexpected strength in the Democratic state convention today. Until within three weeks the gold standard adherents were supposed to be overwhelmingly in the majority in the Wisconsin Democracy, but when the test vote came this afternoon on the adoption of the minority reports from the committee on resolutions, the silver men were found to number 128 of the 345 delegates in the convention. The delegates-at-large to the national convention are all gold standard advocates and are headed by Senator William E. Vilas and Gen. Edward S. Bragg. The delegates chosen today by the district caucuses include several silver men, but they will be governed by the unit rule. They have no preference for a presidential nominee.

The caucuses of district delegations delayed the opening of the convention, and it was 11:30 o'clock when ex-Gov. George W. Peck, chairman of the state central committee called the assembly to order. Joseph L. Lang, of Fond du Lac, and J. M. Clancy, of Madison, were made secretaries. Thomas Frawley, of Eau Claire, was selected as temporary chairman. After a brief burst of applause had subsided, Mr. Frawley proceeded to deliver a speech on the issues of the day.

At the conclusion of Mr. Frawley's speech, committees on permanent organization and resolutions were appointed. A fight between the gold and silver factions ensued, over a motion that all resolutions be referred to the committee without reading. The silver men opposed the motion, but they were overruled. The convention then took a recess until 2:30.

At the afternoon session of the convention, the temporary organization was made permanent, and the convention took up the platform.

The majority platform was as follows: We, the Democrats of Wisconsin, in state convention assembled, endorse the wise and patriotic administration of President Cleveland.

We commend the course in congress of our able senators, William F. Vilas and John L. Spooner, and the able members of the house, and we demand that the principles of the Democratic of Wisconsin.
