

HAS A NEW PITCHER

COMISKEY HAD A SURPRISE FOR THE LOCAL FANS YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

TIE GAME WITH MILWAUKEE.

A BAD SHOWER INTERFERES WITH THE CONTEST IN THE SEVENTH.

MILLERS ARE STILL WINNING.

Kansas City Goes Down Before the Wilmut Aggregation as Easy as Can Be.

St. Paul 4, Milwaukee 4.

Minneapolis 9, Kansas City 2.

Table with columns: Played, Won, Lost, P. G. for various teams.

GAMES SCHEDULED FOR TODAY.

Milwaukee at St. Paul. Kansas City at Minneapolis. Detroit at Columbus.

Grand Rapids at Indianapolis.

Is it not strange that it never rains when St. Paul is ahead?

Anyway, if it does, not enough to stop the game.

Another tie yesterday.

Comiskey departs from the precinct of the St. Louis convention and, instead of playing a favorite to pitch, rang in a dark horse.

Butler looks like an Irishman; he also acts like an Irishman. He goes into the box the embodiment of confidence, and you feel that if he does anything less than strike out the first three men that he will be disappointed.

Spears opened the third with a safe hit, but the next three succumbed to those deceptive curves and could not get on.

Nicol and Weaver hit the new man safely, however, and all that saved the locals a bad inning was a brick double by Hartman's under which Mertes took up nicely.

The seventh opened with a safe hit by Nicol, who went to second on a balk. It was not half as plain a balk as the two which Barnett, of Kansas City, made in his game here.

St. Paul's runs were as scarce as hen's teeth, almost, when the hits and possibilities are considered.

In the first inning O'Rourke was struck by the first ball pitched, and stole second. Mertes hit safely and two were on bases with none out.

would have helped some, had it been forthcoming. Instead, he went out. The seventh was more distinctly a case of hard luck.

Table with columns: A. B. R. H. P. O. A. E. for various players.

EARNED RUN, MILWAUKEE; TWO-BASE HIT, GEORGE, MRZENA; STOLEN BASES, MERTEZ, O'ROURKE.

Umpire Clark announced that it was too dark to play any more, and called the game. Score:

St. Paul 4, Milwaukee 4.

Minneapolis 9, Kansas City 2.

Table with columns: Played, Won, Lost, P. G. for various teams.

GAMES SCHEDULED FOR TODAY.

Milwaukee at St. Paul. Kansas City at Minneapolis. Detroit at Columbus.

Grand Rapids at Indianapolis.

Is it not strange that it never rains when St. Paul is ahead?

Anyway, if it does, not enough to stop the game.

Another tie yesterday.

Comiskey departs from the precinct of the St. Louis convention and, instead of playing a favorite to pitch, rang in a dark horse.

Butler looks like an Irishman; he also acts like an Irishman. He goes into the box the embodiment of confidence, and you feel that if he does anything less than strike out the first three men that he will be disappointed.

Spears opened the third with a safe hit, but the next three succumbed to those deceptive curves and could not get on.

Nicol and Weaver hit the new man safely, however, and all that saved the locals a bad inning was a brick double by Hartman's under which Mertes took up nicely.

The seventh opened with a safe hit by Nicol, who went to second on a balk. It was not half as plain a balk as the two which Barnett, of Kansas City, made in his game here.

St. Paul's runs were as scarce as hen's teeth, almost, when the hits and possibilities are considered.

IT IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR ONE OF JIMMY MANNING'S PITCHERS TO MAKE A BALK.

It is impossible for one of Larry Twitcheil's pitchers to make a balk.

Oh! He's the best in the business. Nil! Glasscock's batting average for the season up to four o'clock yesterday was an even 1. It is made lower now, George, however, is still over .400.

Hartman is a hard enough kicker to get a good game with Kansas City.

Minneapolis ought to go away on the next trip in first place.

The Minneapolis outfield is as fast if not faster than any in the league. The men are fast on bases, and every one of them can hit the ball.

William Gray, of Hartford, has invented a mask that can be turned back over the head instead of throwing it off as the catchers now do in looking up for a foul fly.

The Indianapolis News says the secret of Daniel's success in the box is his wonderful control. It writes him more to give one base on balls than to have half a dozen hits made out of him.

Spies is probably batting as well as any catcher in the league.

The Indianapolis News says there is trouble among the Wolverines. Jealousies have sprung up, and it is the same old quarrel between Van Derbeck and the players, with the manager bearing the brunt of the conflict.

The old members of the team claim that Stallings is trying to make the club strictly a Southern league affair.

Spies is probably batting as well as any catcher in the league.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Champions Win Another Game From the Phillies.

Table with columns: Played, Won, Lost, Per Cent. for various teams.

Brooklyn at Boston. Pittsburgh at Cleveland. Washington at New York.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 23.—Baltimore won its fifth straight game today from the home team by outplaying the locals at all points.

Philadelphia . . . 0 0 0 0 0 2-2 6 4 Baltimore . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0-0 0 0

COLTS WON OUT.

Chicago, June 23.—Weak hitting and loose fielding evenly divided between the sides, made today's game nip and tuck for seven innings.

Chicago . . . 0 1 2 1 0 0 3-0 4-11 Cincinnati . . . 0 0 2 0 1 0 0 1-5 6

BOSTON, Mass., June 23.—Capt. Griffin was the only one of the Brooklyns who could hit big Jack Stevens safely today.

Boston . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0 12 8 Brooklyn . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0 12 8

ON A BATTING RALLY.

Cleveland, O., June 23.—Hawley's wildness, combined with a batting rally by the Clevelandists in the fifth, gave the home team a victory today.

WON BY THE GIANTS.

New York, June 23.—With the exception of the daily "silly" King pitched ball that no team on earth could beat.

New York . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1-5 7 1 Philadelphia . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0 12 8

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 23.—Louisville-St. Louis; no game; rain.

DOINGS OF THE AMATEURS.

The Crawfords defeated the Model base ball team of Stillwater at Stillwater Sunday being a very large crowd.

The "New Homes" will cross bats in the "National" Sunday on the former's grounds.

The "Keystones" would like a game for Sunday with any team in the city whose members are under 18 years of age.

THE YOUNG ARMY CHALLENGE ANY CLUB IN THE TWIN CITIES UNDER 18 YEARS OF AGE.

The Pioneer Press job press room has organized a base ball club to play any club in the Twin Cities.

The Lafayette want to play the Oriens on the 4th or 5th of July.

HOUSES AT NAHA.

Some Fast Ones Are to Be There This Year.

The entries for the summer meeting of the Minneapolis Driving club comprise a fast lot of trotters and pacers.

Andrew Talner, of Menominee, Wis., which contains many of the best horses of the Northwest, among them the famous Vera Card.

DUBUQUE, Ia., June 23.—The June meeting at Nutwood park opened today.

HENRY OF NAVARRE

A PROOF OF QUALITY

THE COMMONER RAN SECOND.

CLIFFORD, THE FAVORITE, AT HIS BEST, COULD ONLY FINISH THIRD.

RACE FROM START TO FINISH.

TARAL WORKED HARD ON CLIFFORD, BUT COULD NOT GET HIM UP TO THE FRONT.

NEW YORK, June 23.—Henry of Navarre is surely himself again.

Standing in the inner field and looking toward the grand stand, it was a sight worth seeing.

At last, at ten minutes past 4 o'clock the bugle sounded the contestants to the post and the swarm came out of the place where the layers of odds had congregated.

Starter Flynn was waiting for them, and after a few words of caution to the jockeys, got them in line for the start.

Western candidate had settled down, and when the saw the flag, he was ready, told them to "come on," and they did, passing him in almost perfect line, every one in motion.

It was a beautiful start, all well planned, but the possibility for complaint about the top weights being kept standing until they were tired.

The bunch swept past the grand stand at a good pace, and the crowd cheered as they advanced.

Starter Flynn was waiting for them, and after a few words of caution to the jockeys, got them in line for the start.

Western candidate had settled down, and when the saw the flag, he was ready, told them to "come on," and they did, passing him in almost perfect line, every one in motion.

It was a beautiful start, all well planned, but the possibility for complaint about the top weights being kept standing until they were tired.

The bunch swept past the grand stand at a good pace, and the crowd cheered as they advanced.

Starter Flynn was waiting for them, and after a few words of caution to the jockeys, got them in line for the start.

Western candidate had settled down, and when the saw the flag, he was ready, told them to "come on," and they did, passing him in almost perfect line, every one in motion.

It was a beautiful start, all well planned, but the possibility for complaint about the top weights being kept standing until they were tired.

The bunch swept past the grand stand at a good pace, and the crowd cheered as they advanced.

Starter Flynn was waiting for them, and after a few words of caution to the jockeys, got them in line for the start.

Western candidate had settled down, and when the saw the flag, he was ready, told them to "come on," and they did, passing him in almost perfect line, every one in motion.

It was a beautiful start, all well planned, but the possibility for complaint about the top weights being kept standing until they were tired.

The bunch swept past the grand stand at a good pace, and the crowd cheered as they advanced.

Starter Flynn was waiting for them, and after a few words of caution to the jockeys, got them in line for the start.

Western candidate had settled down, and when the saw the flag, he was ready, told them to "come on," and they did, passing him in almost perfect line, every one in motion.

It was a beautiful start, all well planned, but the possibility for complaint about the top weights being kept standing until they were tired.

The bunch swept past the grand stand at a good pace, and the crowd cheered as they advanced.

Starter Flynn was waiting for them, and after a few words of caution to the jockeys, got them in line for the start.

Western candidate had settled down, and when the saw the flag, he was ready, told them to "come on," and they did, passing him in almost perfect line, every one in motion.

HENRY OF NAVARRE

A PROOF OF QUALITY

THE COMMONER RAN SECOND.

CLIFFORD, THE FAVORITE, AT HIS BEST, COULD ONLY FINISH THIRD.

RACE FROM START TO FINISH.

TARAL WORKED HARD ON CLIFFORD, BUT COULD NOT GET HIM UP TO THE FRONT.

NEW YORK, June 23.—Henry of Navarre is surely himself again.

Standing in the inner field and looking toward the grand stand, it was a sight worth seeing.

At last, at ten minutes past 4 o'clock the bugle sounded the contestants to the post and the swarm came out of the place where the layers of odds had congregated.

Starter Flynn was waiting for them, and after a few words of caution to the jockeys, got them in line for the start.

Western candidate had settled down, and when the saw the flag, he was ready, told them to "come on," and they did, passing him in almost perfect line, every one in motion.

It was a beautiful start, all well planned, but the possibility for complaint about the top weights being kept standing until they were tired.

The bunch swept past the grand stand at a good pace, and the crowd cheered as they advanced.

Starter Flynn was waiting for them, and after a few words of caution to the jockeys, got them in line for the start.

Western candidate had settled down, and when the saw the flag, he was ready, told them to "come on," and they did, passing him in almost perfect line, every one in motion.

It was a beautiful start, all well planned, but the possibility for complaint about the top weights being kept standing until they were tired.

The bunch swept past the grand stand at a good pace, and the crowd cheered as they advanced.

Starter Flynn was waiting for them, and after a few words of caution to the jockeys, got them in line for the start.

Western candidate had settled down, and when the saw the flag, he was ready, told them to "come on," and they did, passing him in almost perfect line, every one in motion.

It was a beautiful start, all well planned, but the possibility for complaint about the top weights being kept standing until they were tired.

The bunch swept past the grand stand at a good pace, and the crowd cheered as they advanced.

Starter Flynn was waiting for them, and after a few words of caution to the jockeys, got them in line for the start.

Western candidate had settled down, and when the saw the flag, he was ready, told them to "come on," and they did, passing him in almost perfect line, every one in motion.

It was a beautiful start, all well planned, but the possibility for complaint about the top weights being kept standing until they were tired.

The bunch swept past the grand stand at a good pace, and the crowd cheered as they advanced.

Starter Flynn was waiting for them, and after a few words of caution to the jockeys, got them in line for the start.

Western candidate had settled down, and when the saw the flag, he was ready, told them to "come on," and they did, passing him in almost perfect line, every one in motion.

It was a beautiful start, all well planned, but the possibility for complaint about the top weights being kept standing until they were tired.

The bunch swept past the grand stand at a good pace, and the crowd cheered as they advanced.

Starter Flynn was waiting for them, and after a few words of caution to the jockeys, got them in line for the start.

Western candidate had settled down, and when the saw the flag, he was ready, told them to "come on," and they did, passing him in almost perfect line, every one in motion.

HENRY OF NAVARRE

A PROOF OF QUALITY

THE COMMONER RAN SECOND.

CLIFFORD, THE FAVORITE, AT HIS BEST, COULD ONLY FINISH THIRD.

RACE FROM START TO FINISH.

TARAL WORKED HARD ON CLIFFORD, BUT COULD NOT GET HIM UP TO THE FRONT.

NEW YORK, June 23.—Henry of Navarre is surely himself again.

Standing in the inner field and looking toward the grand stand, it was a sight worth seeing.

At last, at ten minutes past 4 o'clock the bugle sounded the contestants to the post and the swarm came out of the place where the layers of odds had congregated.

Starter Flynn was waiting for them, and after a few words of caution to the jockeys, got them in line for the start.

Western candidate had settled down, and when the saw the flag, he was ready, told them to "come on," and they did, passing him in almost perfect line, every one in motion.

It was a beautiful start, all well planned, but the possibility for complaint about the top weights being kept standing until they were tired.

The bunch swept past the grand stand at a good pace, and the crowd cheered as they advanced.

Starter Flynn was waiting for them, and after a few words of caution to the jockeys, got them in line for the start.

Western candidate had settled down, and when the saw the flag, he was ready, told them to "come on," and they did, passing him in almost perfect line, every one in motion.

It was a beautiful start, all well planned, but the possibility for complaint about the top weights being kept standing until they were tired.

The bunch swept past the grand stand at a good pace, and the crowd cheered as they advanced.

Starter Flynn was waiting for them, and after a few words of caution to the jockeys, got them in line for the start.

Western candidate had settled down, and when the saw the flag, he was ready, told them to "come on," and they did, passing him in almost perfect line, every one in motion.

It was a beautiful start, all well planned, but the possibility for complaint about the top weights being kept standing until they were tired.

The bunch swept past the grand stand at a good pace, and the crowd cheered as they advanced.

Starter Flynn was waiting for them, and after a few words of caution to the jockeys, got them in line for the start.

Western candidate had settled down, and when the saw the flag, he was ready, told them to "come on," and they did, passing him in almost perfect line, every one in motion.

It was a beautiful start, all well planned, but the possibility for complaint about the top weights being kept standing until they were tired.

The bunch swept past the grand stand at a good pace, and the crowd cheered as they advanced.

Starter Flynn was waiting for them, and after a few words of caution to the jockeys, got them in line for the start.

Western candidate had settled down, and when the saw the flag, he was ready, told them to "come on," and they did, passing him in almost perfect line, every one in motion.

It was a beautiful start, all well planned, but the possibility for complaint about the top weights being kept standing until they were tired.

The bunch swept past the grand stand at a good pace, and the crowd cheered as they advanced.

Starter Flynn was waiting for them, and after a few words of caution to the jockeys, got them in line for the start.

Western candidate had settled down, and when the saw the flag, he was ready, told them to "come on," and they did, passing him in almost perfect line, every one in motion.

BIG CYCLES INSURED

AGAINST THEFT FREE OF CHARGE.

BEN-HUR, ROMAN AND NAVAJO BICYCLES

Bought in the month of June, will be insured against theft for the year.

FREE OF CHARGE.

D. W. Van Vleck, AGENT 57 East Fifth Street.

THE ROBERTS BICYCLE SPEAKS FOR ITSELF.

The Eastest Riding and Most Durable Wheel on the Market.

MADE HERE IN ST. PAUL.

We guarantee satisfaction. One trial means another sale.

Tom Cooper rides a MONARCH, on which he made his reputation and breaks world's records.

Ride a MONARCH and keep in front.

ROBERTS Architectural and Ornamental Iron Co. Fourteen St. Peter Sts.

Gives a BIG Light! and Stays Light!

X-RAY LAMP For Sale at Dealers or F. M. SMITH & BRO. GENERAL AGENTS, 325 WABASHA ST.

MARCH, GOPHER and SUMMIT BICYCLES.

OUR LINE STERLING, CLEVELAND, EAGLE, RELAY, MONARCH, DEFIANCE, ABBOTT, ROADSTER.

ST. PAUL CYCLE CO., 342 WABASHA STREET.

Most Complete Line in the Twin Cities. SYRACUSE, REMINGTON, PATEE, ORIENT, MAPLE LEAF, COMET.

TWIN CITY CYCLE COMPANY 704 Nicollet Avenue, Minneapolis.

RELIABLE PATTERNS. Guaranteed to Fit if Proper Size is Given.

THE GLOBE, St. Paul, Minnesota. PLEASE OBSERVE THE FOLLOWING MEASUREMENTS.

For Waists: Measure around full length of bust, alone under arms, slightly in the back, draw moderately tight.

For Skirts: Measure around the waist, over the belt; draw moderately tight.

Printed directions accompany each pattern, showing how the garment is to be made.

When ordering patterns for children please state age of child.

MISSIE'S SHORT WAIST:—Here is a waist that is up-to-date in every respect. It is made of pale blue and white figured lawn and daintily trimmed with lace.

Full front, gathered into the neck, displays a very broad box-plait edged with narrow Valenciennes. The turn-down collar is ornamented in the same novel manner.

The back is laid in side plaits turning toward the center and fastening under a round yoke piece which insures a becoming fitness at the shoulders.

The sleeves display a becoming fullness and are completed at the wrists by turn back cuffs edged with the lace. Percale, French lawn, Swiss, gingham, chambray, cheviot, grass linen are equally appropriate for waists of this description.

20289—Missie's Short Waist (with yoke back and box-plait at the front) requires for medium size 4 yards material 27 inches wide, or 3 1/2 yards 36 inches wide. Cut in 2 pieces, 14, 18 and 22 pieces.

Advertisement for 'GLOBE' featuring 'GLOBE' brand base ball schedules and coupons for Globe Counting Room.