

MINNEAPOLIS. TWO BIG PARADES

OFFICE 29 SOUTH FOURTH STREET.

MINNEAPOLIS GLOBELS.

The jury in the case of C. Wright Davidson vs. Hill, Sons & Co. have failed to agree and was discharged by Judge Elliott.

On account of the policemen's picnic today the municipal court will have only one session, opening at 12 o'clock.

Judge Smith has completed his Wright county term of court and is again at his post of duty, taking charge of the civil jury calendar.

Schedules in the assignment of the I. E. Hurt Portland company have been filed here place the liabilities at $6,968.96 and the probable value of the assets at $2,419.97.

It is announced that John W. St. John, formerly national standard bearer of the Prohibition party, will be in Minneapolis and give a public lecture Monday evening, June 24.

Mrs. Hetty Maude Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Lewis, and Horace J. Shottwell were married at noon in Fifth Avenue Congregational church, Rev. J. E. Smith officiating.

The will of the late Sander Segelbaum was filed in the probate court yesterday, leaving a $200,000 estate in bulk to the widow.

Of this amount, $250,000 is in improved real estate, $30,000 in unimproved realty and the balance is personal property.

Mrs. Carrie Millward, the cornetist, yesterday received her diploma and medal awarded by the Columbian exposition, department of music, for her playing. The medal is in the usual form, of bronze, and enclosed in a handsome white metal case.

Maj. Stillwell, of the Salvation Army, is in New York attending the national convention of the organization. He has been relieved of the command of this division, and will not return to Minneapolis. Who his successor will be is not yet decided.

The marriage of Miss Grace Woodard to Edgar A. Smith was solemnized at 11 o'clock at the residence of the bride's brother, F. R. Woodard, 2194 Park Avenue.

The ceremony of marriage uniting Miss Frederica Shaw Barnard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Barnard, and William Arthur Howland was performed yesterday at high noon at the bride's home, 521 Chicago street, by Rev. Nathaniel Thomas, of Leavenworth, Kan., who is officiating in St. Mark's during the absence of the rector.

The wedding ceremony numbered forty relatives and intimate friends.

NOTES WERE FORGERIES.

Grave Charges Made by Mrs. Corrigan Against Her Ex-Husband.

The evidence for the plaintiff in the action brought by the Irish-American bank against the American Savings and Loan association to take a note for $1000, was given during the introduction of the evidence for the plaintiff in an affidavit in which forgery was charged.

In looking up the notes held as collateral it was discovered that there were three notes bearing the signature of Timothy E. Corrigan. When the notes were presented for payment, Mrs. Corrigan at once denied them, and afterward she stated that she would swear that they were not notes of her making.

She was very diffident about coming into court, however, and was brought some way out of that publicity if possible. It was finally agreed by both parties, the defense consenting to the move, that a deposition might be taken and used for the purpose of the trial.

The plaintiff attorneys have the affidavit ready to produce, and it states positively that the notes in question were signed by Timothy E. Corrigan. It is also stated that the defendant obtained a divorce from him not long afterward. The affidavit will be used in showing the value of securities.

IS A PRIVATE AGAIN.

Timothy E. Byrnes Returns From St. Louis.

"This pleasant tour to see one's name in print," said Private Citizen Timothy E. Byrnes, as he alighted from a St. Louis train yesterday and extended the hand that had held Hanna's, "but I've had a very fine time."

"Yes, I'll admit I divided attention with Mr. Hanna for three days," went on Byrnes, "but you see my name was prominent. I had a box of St. Louis Republican national convention in my pocket, and I had a box of St. Louis Republican national convention in my pocket, and I had a box of St. Louis Republican national convention in my pocket."

MINNESOTA SILVERITES.

They Are Called to Meet in Convention July 16.

A call for a mass convention of free silver coinage believers, to be held at Harmonia hall, July 16, was issued yesterday by James W. Griffin, of this city, member of Minnesota of the national committee of the American Silver organization.

The object of the convention is to elect a national committee for the purpose of nominating candidates for president and vice president of the United States. Any qualified voter of the state who believes in the free coinage movement as set forth in the principles of the American Silver organization is entitled to a seat. The call announces that distinguished speakers and advocates of bimetalism will be present.

Jeffrey & Co.'s Loss $35,000.

The fire in the premises of T. Jeffrey & Company's store, 523-25 Nicollet avenue, Tuesday night, proved even more disastrous than at first thought. The contents of the store were practically a total loss, amounting to $35,000. The building, which is owned by Elias Pfeiffer, was damaged to the extent of $10,000, and was fully covered by insurance.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Wedding at Pennville.

Special to the Globe.

RENVELLE, Minn., June 24.—The social event of the season here is the wedding of the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Hennig, this city, in the marriage of their daughter Bertha to Theodore Carlson, a rising young business man of Medford, Wis.

Firebreaks in a Lumberyard.

Special to the Globe.

WINONA, Minn., June 24.—Fire in the lumber yard of Youmans Bros. & Hodgins caused slight damage, though the fire department had hard light to subdue it. The fire was evidently incendiary, and apparently the work of some one acquainted with the yard. The company recently discharged several men.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS AND VETERANS ARRANGE THEM FOR THE TWIN CITIES.

THERE WILL BE NO CLASH.

VISITORS IN EACH CITY HAVE AMPLE OPPORTUNITY TO WITNESS BOTH EVENTS.

MILL MAN'S HORRIBLE FATE.

Numerous Bridal Couples Made Happy—General News of the Mill City.

The conference committee, composed of the members of the Grand Army of the Republic, the Knights of Pythias and the Carnival Association, held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the Commercial Club.

An enthusiastic handful of men of the sort who always do the work in big events was present, and a fine program of entertainment was mapped out for encampment week.

The G. A. R. was represented by Judge Rea, William B. Roberts and Judge Daniel Fish; the K. P. by Col. Wheaton, Mayor Pratt and Robert Stratton, while Secretary Danforth stood for the Carnival Association and the Commercial Club.

The G. A. R. contingent, which was appointed by the St. Paul committee to work in harmony with the other organizations in the matter of providing entertainment during the great Pythian celebration, appeared well satisfied with the arrangements now under way by the K. P. and Carnival people.

In fact the old soldiers feel that their job is to do and die if needs be to make the encampment the glorious success that has been promised.

As a result of yesterday's conference, the great parade of the G. A. R. veterans will be held Wednesday, Sept. 6, in St. Paul, and all Pythian attractions will be scratched off the program for that day to give the veterans the thousands of strangers who will be in the city, as well as Minneapolis people, a chance to see the grandest parade in all the world.

Then on the following day, Sept. 7, the great parade of the uniformed knights will be held in Minneapolis, when the same courteous inducements to witness the parade will be extended to the G. A. R. veterans and the people of St. Paul.

It is proposed to make the day in Minneapolis one long to be remembered by the old soldiers. Reviewing stands will be erected for the express benefit of the veterans, and they will be enabled to witness a grand military spectacle directed by civilians. This arrangement is being made now under way by the K. P. and Carnival people.

In the evening the entire city will be expected to attend the G. A. R. veterans' tented the veterans at the exposition building. The carnival association and the K. P. decorating committee will make the line of march brilliant with special decorations and fire displays, and a series of demonstrations will take place at the various reviewing stands.

WORKED THE HONEST MERCHANTS.

Crook Uncerthly a New Scheme for Swindling.

Inspectors Courtney and Morrissy yesterday arrested a man giving the name of C. E. Hamilton charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. He professes to be connected with Forepaugh and Sons' first circus, and by that manner is said to have made contracts with local meat merchants for the purpose of nominating a Republican national convention in St. Paul.

The officers state the prisoner visited the market square yesterday afternoon, and was seen by several persons. He is charged with the sale of a bill for the entire amount. On the night of the he was given a check and small amount. He is charged with doing a similar work with the Columbia Meat Market.

There arose a suspicion that the contractor was not an authorized agent and the police searched for him. They located the prisoner in a jewelry store, where he had purchased a watch chain and was tendering the check of Wits Brothers in payment. He was arrested and taken to the Central station.

He was charged with the sale of a bill for the entire amount. On the night of the he was given a check and small amount. He is charged with doing a similar work with the Columbia Meat Market.

There arose a suspicion that the contractor was not an authorized agent and the police searched for him. They located the prisoner in a jewelry store, where he had purchased a watch chain and was tendering the check of Wits Brothers in payment. He was arrested and taken to the Central station.

He was charged with the sale of a bill for the entire amount. On the night of the he was given a check and small amount. He is charged with doing a similar work with the Columbia Meat Market.

There arose a suspicion that the contractor was not an authorized agent and the police searched for him. They located the prisoner in a jewelry store, where he had purchased a watch chain and was tendering the check of Wits Brothers in payment. He was arrested and taken to the Central station.

He was charged with the sale of a bill for the entire amount. On the night of the he was given a check and small amount. He is charged with doing a similar work with the Columbia Meat Market.

There arose a suspicion that the contractor was not an authorized agent and the police searched for him. They located the prisoner in a jewelry store, where he had purchased a watch chain and was tendering the check of Wits Brothers in payment. He was arrested and taken to the Central station.

He was charged with the sale of a bill for the entire amount. On the night of the he was given a check and small amount. He is charged with doing a similar work with the Columbia Meat Market.

There arose a suspicion that the contractor was not an authorized agent and the police searched for him. They located the prisoner in a jewelry store, where he had purchased a watch chain and was tendering the check of Wits Brothers in payment. He was arrested and taken to the Central station.

He was charged with the sale of a bill for the entire amount. On the night of the he was given a check and small amount. He is charged with doing a similar work with the Columbia Meat Market.

There arose a suspicion that the contractor was not an authorized agent and the police searched for him. They located the prisoner in a jewelry store, where he had purchased a watch chain and was tendering the check of Wits Brothers in payment. He was arrested and taken to the Central station.

He was charged with the sale of a bill for the entire amount. On the night of the he was given a check and small amount. He is charged with doing a similar work with the Columbia Meat Market.

There arose a suspicion that the contractor was not an authorized agent and the police searched for him. They located the prisoner in a jewelry store, where he had purchased a watch chain and was tendering the check of Wits Brothers in payment. He was arrested and taken to the Central station.

He was charged with the sale of a bill for the entire amount. On the night of the he was given a check and small amount. He is charged with doing a similar work with the Columbia Meat Market.

There arose a suspicion that the contractor was not an authorized agent and the police searched for him. They located the prisoner in a jewelry store, where he had purchased a watch chain and was tendering the check of Wits Brothers in payment. He was arrested and taken to the Central station.

He was charged with the sale of a bill for the entire amount. On the night of the he was given a check and small amount. He is charged with doing a similar work with the Columbia Meat Market.

There arose a suspicion that the contractor was not an authorized agent and the police searched for him. They located the prisoner in a jewelry store, where he had purchased a watch chain and was tendering the check of Wits Brothers in payment. He was arrested and taken to the Central station.

He was charged with the sale of a bill for the entire amount. On the night of the he was given a check and small amount. He is charged with doing a similar work with the Columbia Meat Market.

USED THEIR POWER

SILVER MEN OF INDIANA SHOWED NO MERCY TO THEIR OPPONENTS.

WHITE METAL PLATFORM.

DECLARATION AS STRONG AS THE SILVER CROWD COULD FORMULATE.

MATTHEWS IS THEIR FAVORITE.

All Delegates to Chicago Instructed to Vote for Him Until the Bitter End.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 24.—The Democratic state convention was the largest ever held in the state. The party primaries and the convention preliminaries had been prolific of contests and contentions. The silver sentiment had developed rapidly and the advocates of free coinage had with comparative ease captured a controlling interest in the convention. But the gold standard Democracy, in a minority and caught napping, wakened to a vigorous resistance.

Of the 174 delegates, the silver men, at first complacent in a two-thirds majority, found the minority so vigorous, that they determined to use their power mercilessly and the only advantage claimed by the gold men at the opening of the convention was due to circumstances which the silver men overlooked or could not control.

The silver men captured everything, instructing their Chicago delegates to stand through thick and thin by the most extreme silver deliverance and the nomination of a silver man for president. The candidate for governor, Mr. Shively, appeared after he had been declared the nominee and made a vigorous speech giving special attention to the silver plank.

The nominations were made as follows: Delegates at large: Daniel W. Voorhees, David Turpie, James D. McCabe, G. V. Menzies. Governor, G. W. Shively. Lieutenant governor, John Y. Lawler. Secretary, Samuel L. Ralston. Auditor, Joseph T. Fanning. Treasurer, Morgan Chandler. Attorney-general, J. G. McNut.

The convention was called to order at 10 o'clock, Robert C. Bell was chosen moderator, and the resolutions presented by the committee, apportionals, that of a majority seating most of the silver contestants was adopted.

The committee on resolutions offered the following platform: We reaffirm our adherence to the faithful Democratic doctrine of bimetalism, and therefore, we demand the immediate restoration of bimetalism by the free and unrestricted coinage of both silver and gold, as primary money, at the ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the cooperation of Great Britain.

We are strongly in favor of the coinage to be full legal tender in payment of all debts, public or private. We believe the existing tariff laws should be so amended as to secure needed revenue for the expenses of government economically administered, under the conditions which will arise from the restoration of bimetalism.

We demand the immediate and final cancellation of United States notes (greenbacks) for any other notes or certificates issued by the United States government, and the redemption and cancellation necessarily involving an increase of the public debt by the issue of bonds, and by other means, in a time of peace, and if the redemption clause of the so-called legal tender act is not repealed, as it is claimed, the right of the treasury department to issue interest-bearing bonds, without limit, without Congress, and under definite authority of Congress as to each issue of such bonds, we demand that the provisions of such act be unconditionally repealed, and the Democratic party has never believed that the public debt was a public blessing.

We demand that obligations of the government of every form be paid, and not at the option of the creditor. We demand that the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

USED THEIR POWER

SILVER MEN OF INDIANA SHOWED NO MERCY TO THEIR OPPONENTS.

WHITE METAL PLATFORM.

DECLARATION AS STRONG AS THE SILVER CROWD COULD FORMULATE.

MATTHEWS IS THEIR FAVORITE.

All Delegates to Chicago Instructed to Vote for Him Until the Bitter End.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 24.—The Democratic state convention was the largest ever held in the state. The party primaries and the convention preliminaries had been prolific of contests and contentions. The silver sentiment had developed rapidly and the advocates of free coinage had with comparative ease captured a controlling interest in the convention. But the gold standard Democracy, in a minority and caught napping, wakened to a vigorous resistance.

Of the 174 delegates, the silver men, at first complacent in a two-thirds majority, found the minority so vigorous, that they determined to use their power mercilessly and the only advantage claimed by the gold men at the opening of the convention was due to circumstances which the silver men overlooked or could not control.

The silver men captured everything, instructing their Chicago delegates to stand through thick and thin by the most extreme silver deliverance and the nomination of a silver man for president. The candidate for governor, Mr. Shively, appeared after he had been declared the nominee and made a vigorous speech giving special attention to the silver plank.

The nominations were made as follows: Delegates at large: Daniel W. Voorhees, David Turpie, James D. McCabe, G. V. Menzies. Governor, G. W. Shively. Lieutenant governor, John Y. Lawler. Secretary, Samuel L. Ralston. Auditor, Joseph T. Fanning. Treasurer, Morgan Chandler. Attorney-general, J. G. McNut.

The convention was called to order at 10 o'clock, Robert C. Bell was chosen moderator, and the resolutions presented by the committee, apportionals, that of a majority seating most of the silver contestants was adopted.

The committee on resolutions offered the following platform: We reaffirm our adherence to the faithful Democratic doctrine of bimetalism, and therefore, we demand the immediate restoration of bimetalism by the free and unrestricted coinage of both silver and gold, as primary money, at the ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the cooperation of Great Britain.

We are strongly in favor of the coinage to be full legal tender in payment of all debts, public or private. We believe the existing tariff laws should be so amended as to secure needed revenue for the expenses of government economically administered, under the conditions which will arise from the restoration of bimetalism.

We demand the immediate and final cancellation of United States notes (greenbacks) for any other notes or certificates issued by the United States government, and the redemption and cancellation necessarily involving an increase of the public debt by the issue of bonds, and by other means, in a time of peace, and if the redemption clause of the so-called legal tender act is not repealed, as it is claimed, the right of the treasury department to issue interest-bearing bonds, without limit, without Congress, and under definite authority of Congress as to each issue of such bonds, we demand that the provisions of such act be unconditionally repealed, and the Democratic party has never believed that the public debt was a public blessing.

We demand that obligations of the government of every form be paid, and not at the option of the creditor. We demand that the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

USED THEIR POWER

SILVER MEN OF INDIANA SHOWED NO MERCY TO THEIR OPPONENTS.

WHITE METAL PLATFORM.

DECLARATION AS STRONG AS THE SILVER CROWD COULD FORMULATE.

MATTHEWS IS THEIR FAVORITE.

All Delegates to Chicago Instructed to Vote for Him Until the Bitter End.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 24.—The Democratic state convention was the largest ever held in the state. The party primaries and the convention preliminaries had been prolific of contests and contentions. The silver sentiment had developed rapidly and the advocates of free coinage had with comparative ease captured a controlling interest in the convention. But the gold standard Democracy, in a minority and caught napping, wakened to a vigorous resistance.

Of the 174 delegates, the silver men, at first complacent in a two-thirds majority, found the minority so vigorous, that they determined to use their power mercilessly and the only advantage claimed by the gold men at the opening of the convention was due to circumstances which the silver men overlooked or could not control.

The silver men captured everything, instructing their Chicago delegates to stand through thick and thin by the most extreme silver deliverance and the nomination of a silver man for president. The candidate for governor, Mr. Shively, appeared after he had been declared the nominee and made a vigorous speech giving special attention to the silver plank.

The nominations were made as follows: Delegates at large: Daniel W. Voorhees, David Turpie, James D. McCabe, G. V. Menzies. Governor, G. W. Shively. Lieutenant governor, John Y. Lawler. Secretary, Samuel L. Ralston. Auditor, Joseph T. Fanning. Treasurer, Morgan Chandler. Attorney-general, J. G. McNut.

The convention was called to order at 10 o'clock, Robert C. Bell was chosen moderator, and the resolutions presented by the committee, apportionals, that of a majority seating most of the silver contestants was adopted.

The committee on resolutions offered the following platform: We reaffirm our adherence to the faithful Democratic doctrine of bimetalism, and therefore, we demand the immediate restoration of bimetalism by the free and unrestricted coinage of both silver and gold, as primary money, at the ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the cooperation of Great Britain.

We are strongly in favor of the coinage to be full legal tender in payment of all debts, public or private. We believe the existing tariff laws should be so amended as to secure needed revenue for the expenses of government economically administered, under the conditions which will arise from the restoration of bimetalism.

We demand the immediate and final cancellation of United States notes (greenbacks) for any other notes or certificates issued by the United States government, and the redemption and cancellation necessarily involving an increase of the public debt by the issue of bonds, and by other means, in a time of peace, and if the redemption clause of the so-called legal tender act is not repealed, as it is claimed, the right of the treasury department to issue interest-bearing bonds, without limit, without Congress, and under definite authority of Congress as to each issue of such bonds, we demand that the provisions of such act be unconditionally repealed, and the Democratic party has never believed that the public debt was a public blessing.

We demand that obligations of the government of every form be paid, and not at the option of the creditor. We demand that the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those who will serve the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party be restored to power, and that the government be placed in the hands of those