

THE DAILY GLOBE

IS PUBLISHED EVERY DAY AT NEWSPAPER ROW, COR. FOURTH AND MINNESOTA STS.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF ST. PAUL

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Payable in Advance. Daily and Sunday, per Month $0.50. Daily and Sunday, Six Months $2.75. Daily and Sunday, One Year $5.00.

Address all letters and telegrams to THE GLOBE, St. Paul, Minn.

EASTERN ADVERTISING OFFICE, ROOM 401, TEMPLE COURT BUILDING, NEW YORK. WASHINGTON BUREAU, 1065 F ST. N. W. Complete files of the Globe always kept on hand for reference.

TODAY'S WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—Forecast for Wednesday: Minnesota—Fair; southerly winds. Wisconsin—Light to fresh southerly winds; fair. The Dakotas—Fair; cooler; southerly winds, becoming westerly.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

United States, Department of Agriculture, Weather Bureau, Washington, June 30, 6:48 p. m. Local Time, 8 p. m. 75th Meridian Time.—Observations taken at the same moment of time at all stations.

TEMPERATURES.

Table with columns: Place, Ther., Place, Ther. St. Paul 80, Duluth 80, Huron 80, Bismarck 80, Williston 80, Helena 80, Edmore 80, Battleford 80, Prince Albert 80, Regina 80, Medicine Hat 80, Swift Current 80.

DAILY MEANS.

Barometer, 30.07; thermometer, 75; relative humidity, 62; wind, southwest; weather clear; maximum thermometer, 82; minimum thermometer, 61; daily range, 21; amount of rainfall in last twenty-four hours, 0.

RIVER AT 8 A. M.

Table with columns: Gauge Reading, Line, Water Change. St. Paul 14.6, La Crosse 10.6, Davenport 15.6, St. Louis 39.3.

THE TWO-THIRDS RULE.

For sixty-four years it has been the rule of Democratic national conventions, in an unbroken chain of precedents, that it should require two-thirds of all the votes in the convention to name the candidates of the party for president and vice president.

A GOOD EXAMPLE.

The property owners on Robert street have set an example which those of other parts of the city should be slow to follow. They have agreed upon the eminently practical and sensible proposition that they will approve the paving of that street with asphalt if the overhead wires are first put under ground and all the sewer and water connections made with each lot fronting on the paved portion.

Arkansas Convention.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 30.—The Republican state convention will assemble in this city tomorrow for the purpose of nominating candidates for state offices. The convention will endorse the St. Louis platform and nominate a ticket.

the rule, and its enforcement prevented Van Buren's nomination, then, though he had a clear majority of the delegates. Had Van Buren instead of Polk sat in the presidential chair from '44 to '48 the history of the nation would not be what it is.

WHY HOLD A CONVENTION?

The Republican state convention will meet this morning, but why there should really be any such meeting we cannot for the life of us determine. In the election of delegates to this gathering it has been made so obvious that the Republican voters of the state have nothing to say about it that we cannot conceive why their so-called representatives should take the trouble to travel up higher in exceedingly hot weather and go to the expense and discomfort of spending several days to no other purpose than to register the orders that they have already received.

IN A WALK.

ALBERT LEA, Minn., June 30.—The first district congressional convention held here to-day was only a ratification meeting of the popular will, and it required less than an hour to nominate James H. Tawney as the Republican nominee. The platform ratified and approved the declarations of the recent national Republican platform and convention active and ardent.

EASY FOR MCLARY.

His Name Presented by His Only Opponent. MANKATO, Minn., June 30.—The second district congressional convention opened here to-day with the nomination of T. McCleary for congress. His opponent, Mr. Summerville, of Brown county, after sizing up the situation withdrew and placed the present congressman in nomination.

Scale Trouble Will Close The Mills.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 30.—Additional firms who have signed the scale are the Hyde Park Steel Company at Apollo, Pa., and the Pennsylvania Iron Works at Pittsburgh. Jones & Laughlin, of Pittsburgh, have signed the scale to-day.

Many Men Out.

Scale Trouble Will Close The Mills. PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 30.—Additional firms who have signed the scale are the Hyde Park Steel Company at Apollo, Pa., and the Pennsylvania Iron Works at Pittsburgh. Jones & Laughlin, of Pittsburgh, have signed the scale to-day.

FERROVAC ORDER

MACHINE MADE ENTHUSIASM READY FOR THE RETURN OF MR. PETTIGREW. THREE GIVEN REWARDS. TAWNEY, MCLARY AND HEATWOLE ALL RENOMINATED BY THEIR DISTRICTS.

Money Attitude of the Republican Party Indorsed by the Various Congressional Conventions.

Special to the Globe. SIOUX FALLS, S. D., June 30.—Preparations are now completed for a grand demonstration in honor of Senator Pettigrew in his city to-morrow. The outline of the plan was arranged by the St. Louis platform just after the convention. Two of the staunchest friends returned from there and at once began to organize the movement.

Special to the Globe.

Special to the Globe. BISMARCK, N. D., June 30.—Returns from nearly all precincts are now in and it is assumed that the Republican convention tomorrow will select delegates to Grand Forks to oppose to Governor Allen. In the city, the men held caucuses under a call made by the St. Louis platform to register the Republican call, published for three weeks, the convention would not be recognized in the city was 177 for Allen and 325 against.

Special to the Globe.

Special to the Globe. WINONA, Minn., June 30.—New Ulm captured nearly every vote in Grand Forks and was a close second in the state records made at the Minnesota Turnout concluded today. The favorite of the state teacher resides in New Ulm has perhaps some ground to do with the good work of the boys in the school.

Special to the Globe.

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, June 30.—The brotherhood of tailors and the union of hat makers and trimmers of the several local unions in affiliation with the United Garment Workers of America, have today signed a scale which involves thousands of workers. The claim is made that the contractors have made a 45 per cent reduction in the wages of the men.

Special to the Globe.

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, June 30.—Fire broke out at about 12:30 o'clock this morning in Brooklyn, in George W. Pape's Long Island kindling factory. The flames quickly extended to the extensive lumber yard of E. C. Smith, and from there to Ritchie, Brown & McDonald's iron works, Post & McCord's iron works and Pirana Baldwin's asphalt works. No details regarding the loss can yet be ascertained, but the estimate has been ranging from $50,000 to $100,000.

Special to the Globe.

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, June 30.—Additional firms who have signed the scale are the Hyde Park Steel Company at Apollo, Pa., and the Pennsylvania Iron Works at Pittsburgh. Jones & Laughlin, of Pittsburgh, have signed the scale to-day.

DO CITY DADS LIE? ROBS

MRS. HORACE R. BIGELOW'S RESIDENCE ON WALNUT STREET ENTERED. BY SOME BOLD BAD BURGLAR. AFTER RANSACKING THE HOUSE HE MAKES FRIENDS WITH AN EXPRESSMAN. GIVES HIM AN EMPTY PURSE.

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

Just to show what a good thing St. Paul is at present among the work workers, one of the craft went through the residence of Mrs. Horace R. Bigelow, 288 Walnut street, in broad daylight yesterday afternoon and helped himself to every portable object of value he could find about the place.

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

The work was undoubtedly that of a skilled thief, as his mode of operation in planning and executing a daylight robbery in a thickly settled portion of the residence part of the city fully attests. An entrance was secured by prying open the door between the rear of the house, though how the burglar got into the house, though how the burglar performed such a piece of carpentering without attracting the attention of the neighbors, or possibly the policeman on the beat, is something of a mystery.

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

The burglar had left behind a note, which was found by the police. It was a note of introduction to the expressman who was to take the stolen goods to the city. The note was signed "John Doe" and was addressed to "John Doe, Expressman, 123 Main street, St. Paul, Minn."

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

The burglar had left behind a note, which was found by the police. It was a note of introduction to the expressman who was to take the stolen goods to the city. The note was signed "John Doe" and was addressed to "John Doe, Expressman, 123 Main street, St. Paul, Minn."

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

The burglar had left behind a note, which was found by the police. It was a note of introduction to the expressman who was to take the stolen goods to the city. The note was signed "John Doe" and was addressed to "John Doe, Expressman, 123 Main street, St. Paul, Minn."

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

The burglar had left behind a note, which was found by the police. It was a note of introduction to the expressman who was to take the stolen goods to the city. The note was signed "John Doe" and was addressed to "John Doe, Expressman, 123 Main street, St. Paul, Minn."

DO CITY DADS LIE? ROBS

MRS. HORACE R. BIGELOW'S RESIDENCE ON WALNUT STREET ENTERED. BY SOME BOLD BAD BURGLAR. AFTER RANSACKING THE HOUSE HE MAKES FRIENDS WITH AN EXPRESSMAN. GIVES HIM AN EMPTY PURSE.

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

Just to show what a good thing St. Paul is at present among the work workers, one of the craft went through the residence of Mrs. Horace R. Bigelow, 288 Walnut street, in broad daylight yesterday afternoon and helped himself to every portable object of value he could find about the place.

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

The work was undoubtedly that of a skilled thief, as his mode of operation in planning and executing a daylight robbery in a thickly settled portion of the residence part of the city fully attests. An entrance was secured by prying open the door between the rear of the house, though how the burglar got into the house, though how the burglar performed such a piece of carpentering without attracting the attention of the neighbors, or possibly the policeman on the beat, is something of a mystery.

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

The burglar had left behind a note, which was found by the police. It was a note of introduction to the expressman who was to take the stolen goods to the city. The note was signed "John Doe" and was addressed to "John Doe, Expressman, 123 Main street, St. Paul, Minn."

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

The burglar had left behind a note, which was found by the police. It was a note of introduction to the expressman who was to take the stolen goods to the city. The note was signed "John Doe" and was addressed to "John Doe, Expressman, 123 Main street, St. Paul, Minn."

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

The burglar had left behind a note, which was found by the police. It was a note of introduction to the expressman who was to take the stolen goods to the city. The note was signed "John Doe" and was addressed to "John Doe, Expressman, 123 Main street, St. Paul, Minn."

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

The burglar had left behind a note, which was found by the police. It was a note of introduction to the expressman who was to take the stolen goods to the city. The note was signed "John Doe" and was addressed to "John Doe, Expressman, 123 Main street, St. Paul, Minn."

DO CITY DADS LIE? ROBS

MRS. HORACE R. BIGELOW'S RESIDENCE ON WALNUT STREET ENTERED. BY SOME BOLD BAD BURGLAR. AFTER RANSACKING THE HOUSE HE MAKES FRIENDS WITH AN EXPRESSMAN. GIVES HIM AN EMPTY PURSE.

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

Just to show what a good thing St. Paul is at present among the work workers, one of the craft went through the residence of Mrs. Horace R. Bigelow, 288 Walnut street, in broad daylight yesterday afternoon and helped himself to every portable object of value he could find about the place.

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

The work was undoubtedly that of a skilled thief, as his mode of operation in planning and executing a daylight robbery in a thickly settled portion of the residence part of the city fully attests. An entrance was secured by prying open the door between the rear of the house, though how the burglar got into the house, though how the burglar performed such a piece of carpentering without attracting the attention of the neighbors, or possibly the policeman on the beat, is something of a mystery.

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

The burglar had left behind a note, which was found by the police. It was a note of introduction to the expressman who was to take the stolen goods to the city. The note was signed "John Doe" and was addressed to "John Doe, Expressman, 123 Main street, St. Paul, Minn."

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

The burglar had left behind a note, which was found by the police. It was a note of introduction to the expressman who was to take the stolen goods to the city. The note was signed "John Doe" and was addressed to "John Doe, Expressman, 123 Main street, St. Paul, Minn."

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

The burglar had left behind a note, which was found by the police. It was a note of introduction to the expressman who was to take the stolen goods to the city. The note was signed "John Doe" and was addressed to "John Doe, Expressman, 123 Main street, St. Paul, Minn."

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

The burglar had left behind a note, which was found by the police. It was a note of introduction to the expressman who was to take the stolen goods to the city. The note was signed "John Doe" and was addressed to "John Doe, Expressman, 123 Main street, St. Paul, Minn."

DO CITY DADS LIE? ROBS

MRS. HORACE R. BIGELOW'S RESIDENCE ON WALNUT STREET ENTERED. BY SOME BOLD BAD BURGLAR. AFTER RANSACKING THE HOUSE HE MAKES FRIENDS WITH AN EXPRESSMAN. GIVES HIM AN EMPTY PURSE.

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

Just to show what a good thing St. Paul is at present among the work workers, one of the craft went through the residence of Mrs. Horace R. Bigelow, 288 Walnut street, in broad daylight yesterday afternoon and helped himself to every portable object of value he could find about the place.

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

The work was undoubtedly that of a skilled thief, as his mode of operation in planning and executing a daylight robbery in a thickly settled portion of the residence part of the city fully attests. An entrance was secured by prying open the door between the rear of the house, though how the burglar got into the house, though how the burglar performed such a piece of carpentering without attracting the attention of the neighbors, or possibly the policeman on the beat, is something of a mystery.

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

The burglar had left behind a note, which was found by the police. It was a note of introduction to the expressman who was to take the stolen goods to the city. The note was signed "John Doe" and was addressed to "John Doe, Expressman, 123 Main street, St. Paul, Minn."

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

The burglar had left behind a note, which was found by the police. It was a note of introduction to the expressman who was to take the stolen goods to the city. The note was signed "John Doe" and was addressed to "John Doe, Expressman, 123 Main street, St. Paul, Minn."

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

The burglar had left behind a note, which was found by the police. It was a note of introduction to the expressman who was to take the stolen goods to the city. The note was signed "John Doe" and was addressed to "John Doe, Expressman, 123 Main street, St. Paul, Minn."

THE Token of Friendship Was One of the Articles Stolen From the Bigelow's.

The burglar had left behind a note, which was found by the police. It was a note of introduction to the expressman who was to take the stolen goods to the city. The note was signed "John Doe" and was addressed to "John Doe, Expressman, 123 Main street, St. Paul, Minn."