

DAVE DRAWS A LINE

GOV. CLOUGH REFUSES TO STAND FOR BARK-WRECKER KORTGAARD'S RELEASE.

HE DID NOT PARDON KRIST.

THINKS THE BOARD OF PRISON MANAGERS MAY PARADONED HIM.

STORY HURT HIS CAMPAIGN.

Minneapolis Scandinavians Are Sure On Kortgaard and Do Not Fancy His Release.

Gov. Clough is quite indignant at the assertion made by a Minneapolis evening paper with much display Thursday night to the effect that he had secretly pardoned Kristian Kortgaard, the State bank breaker of Minneapolis, who has just finished a year in the state prison at Stillwater.

Executive Clerk Angell yesterday authorized the Globe to evidently speaking have absolutely nothing to do with the pardoning of Kortgaard, that he had not signed any pardon, and as nearly as could be figured out, if Kortgaard is free, it must be by parole of the state board of prison managers, which meets periodically in Stillwater.

That is as far as the official statement from the governor's office pertains to the case.

Friends of the governor, however, were less moderate in their expressions and insisted that the Kortgaard article, which was made as sensational as possible, and illustrated with a double-column portrait, was purely a piece of anti-Clough campaign thunder. They pointed to the fact that not only in the article was it directly stated that it was Clough who pardoned Kortgaard, but that this charge was also made in the explanatory line that was run under the conspicuous illustration. They said it was on a par with the campaign which the paper in question had waged on the governor prior to the caucus, when it manifested its opinion in columns of personal abuse and appeals to local passions and prejudices, to defeat Clough on the ground that St. Paul and Merriam favored him. The same men who defended the governor so valiantly insisted that the publication was damaging beyond a peradventure.

As far as the secrecy pertaining to the release of Kortgaard is concerned, it is a matter of common custom with both the board of managers of the prison and the board of managers of the reformatory to maintain strict secrecy as to the parole of prisoners. Among the denizens of Kortgaard's bank were hundreds of his countrymen who lost all they had, and the feeling against him ran very high. One year has not been enough to drown this feeling, and the laying of his liberation at Clough's door is a hard blow especially in Minneapolis, where the feeling is most intense.

PROVIDENT SAVINGS SCHEME.

Local Associated Charities Consider It Favorably.

The regular meeting of the Associated Charities was held at its office in the New York life building yesterday. In brief Secretary Jackson's report was as follows: During the past three months we were asked by 13 different societies to investigate, as agents, against 141 investigations, as agents, for the corresponding period last year. Sixty-one of the 138 were visited for the first time, and with few exceptions the most attentive attention for other reasons than simply the accidents of sickness or lack of work.

MAILED TONES HAS A NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

Mamie Tones, a six-year-old girl, was struck by an interurban car yesterday morning near Kent street, but miraculously escaped serious injury. The child, who resides with her parents at Charles and Kent streets, had accompanied her mother to University avenue, where she attempted to cross the street and paid no attention to a car which was approaching at a good rate of speed. The spectators and the child's mother saw the danger the child was in but were not able to do anything but shriek. The motorist shut off the current and put on the brakes, but had it not been for the quick action of the child's mother, who was standing with her arms in front of the car, the child would have been frightfully injured, if not killed. As it was, when the car was brought to a standstill, the little girl was thrown to the ground in front of the car a trifle disfigured as to dress, but otherwise uninjured.

ACKER POST RECRUITS.

Eighteen Names to be Added to the Roll.

Acker Post No. 21, G. A. R., will hold a regular meeting at 8 o'clock in Central hall, West Seventh and Sixth streets, a large attendance in full uniform is requested.

W. O. Aime, private Company F, Thirtieth Wisconsin cavalry.

W. L. Peterson, private Company F, Fifty-fourth Wisconsin.

C. H. Rouleau, private Company A, Hatch's battery.

W. M. Bartlett, private Company I, Sixteenth Connecticut.

R. D. Eggleston, private Company H, Twentieth United States cavalry.

A. A. Price, Company B, One Hundred and Sixty-first New York.

T. H. Leaton, private Company E, Eighty-eighth Illinois.

W. S. Reed, corporal Company G, First Minnesota.

George W. Reese, private Company G, Ninety-second Illinois.

W. M. Johnson, private Company B, Sixth Michigan cavalry.

J. P. Ryan, seaman United States navy, and J. A. Frenette, private Company H, Eighteenth Minnesota.

W. M. Dyke, private Company G, Third Wisconsin cavalry.

Charles Criss, captain Company A, Thirtieth Wisconsin cavalry.

AUSTIN WENT AWAY

HE HAD A JOB IN THE HARVEST WORKS BUT DID NOT STAY.

HIS AUNT IS SHY OVER $1,000

AND SHE SUSPECTS THAT HENRY TOOK IT WHEN HE LEFT THE CITY.

POLICE ARE TRAILING HIM.

One Sixteen Year Old Will be Closely Looked for in Various Cities.

The detectives are looking for Henry Austin, a lad of sixteen who is believed to have stolen $300 in cash yesterday, and a note for $1,000 from his aunt and then skipped out. The boy, whose mother lives at 461 Selby avenue, has been stopping with his aunt, Mrs. Maggie Waters, at Gladstone, for the past few weeks. The husband of Mrs. Waters had secured Henry a place in the Harvesters works, and the boy was to commence work today. Instead, it seems that Henry decided that he would rather travel and see the country, and while his aunt was out of the house for a few moments he searched the dresser and found the money and a note for $1,000, took the same and departed. Mrs. Waters in reporting the case to Chief Schwitzer yesterday, said the money had been paid to her, and that she had intended to bank it tomorrow. She was suspicious that her nephew was up to some mischief, and had been looking for him ever since Thursday afternoon, and yesterday morning. The boy is supposed to have left the city in company with a colored boy of about the same age. The police at Minneapolis were notified to be on the lookout for Austin.

SHE WAS SELLING LACE.

Heinous Crime of an Elderly Woman Arrested Yesterday.

A neatly dressed old lady in the neighborhood of sixty-five years, was brought to the central station yesterday afternoon. She was taken in custody by Patrolman McHale, of the Rondo street district, and was charged with peddling without a license. The officer saw the woman going from house to house on Dayton avenue, with a small black valise, and stopped her to find out what she was doing. She said she was selling lace, and as she had no license she was taken to the Rondo street station. Captain Lowell had her sent to the central station, as a few weeks ago a number of persons had been given the worst of a bargain by an old lady who had sold them a lot of lace which turned out to be not the genuine article.

SHOENES ON THE CARPET.

Mayor Doran Stands by One of His New Appointments.

Patrolman Shogren, one of Mayor Doran's appointments, appeared before his honor yesterday to answer to a complaint filed by Samuel Lipfritz, the keeper of a second-hand store on East Seventh street, who charged Shogren with three days ago Officer Shogren arrested Lipfritz, and a young man, with whom he was having an altercation in the vicinity of Lipfritz's store. Lipfritz subsequently fined $5 in the municipal court. His charge against the officer was that the latter, in placing him under arrest told him that he "had it in for" him, and that he refused to allow him to look up his store, which hurried him off, while his shop remained open. When Mr. Lipfritz was released from custody, he says that upon returning to his store, he discovered that the sum of $38 was missing.

YOUNG CARR DID IT ALL.

Was Responsible for the Elgin Dairy Robbery.

Three of the four boys arrested for tapping the till of the Elgin dairy on Sunday last, were discharged in the police court yesterday. James Carr, the nine-year-old boy who took the money from the drawer, told the story and exonerated the other three boys except that two of them took part in the spending of the coin after it was stolen. Young Duffley was able to do nothing to do with it. The Carr boy, who has been before the court for incorrigibility and also for drunkenness, will be held for the reform school. His father, who lives at 411 East Fifth street, informed the court that the state institution would probably be the best place for the lad as he could not make him stay at the farm. The parents of young Duffley are going to take some action against Officer Cummings for arresting their boy, as they say, without a warrant.

MILLER AND HIS PAL.

They Will Explain Their Affairs in Police Court.

George Miller, who pretends that he is a deaf mute, was run in yesterday morning by Patrolman McHale and charged with vagrancy. Miller had a card giving the deaf and dumb alphabet, which was Officer McHale's idea of a dime each. When arraigned in court a deaf mute named Schroeder, who is one of the officers of a society for their interests, was called in. Miller was deaf and dumb he did not believe it as the fellow could not even converse in the alphabet which he was selling. Miller was continued to Monday. Louis Simpson was in the past three weeks has been traveling about the city with Miller, was arrested for vagrancy by a West side officer. When placed in the bull pen Simpson demanded that Miller pay him $5, which he claimed to have lost while in Miller's company. The amount was turned over in honor of Miller, who, although he may be what the police call a vagrant, has plenty of coin.

Went to Minnetonka.

L. Swanson, R. Manganum, R. Rafuku and A. MacMillan, the jumping gentlemen who are in the city awaiting the return of J. J.

ALL READ THE BULLETINS.

Glabe's Service Was Watched by Hundreds All Day.

ALL READ THE BULLETINS.

Glabe's Service Was Watched by Hundreds All Day.

ALL READ THE BULLETINS.

Glabe's Service Was Watched by Hundreds All Day.

ALL READ THE BULLETINS.

Glabe's Service Was Watched by Hundreds All Day.

ALL READ THE BULLETINS.

Glabe's Service Was Watched by Hundreds All Day.

ALL READ THE BULLETINS.

Glabe's Service Was Watched by Hundreds All Day.

ALL READ THE BULLETINS.

Glabe's Service Was Watched by Hundreds All Day.

ALL READ THE BULLETINS.

Glabe's Service Was Watched by Hundreds All Day.

ALL READ THE BULLETINS.

Glabe's Service Was Watched by Hundreds All Day.

Glabe's Service Was Watched by Hundreds All Day.