FREDERICK BUCHOLTZ GETS A LICENSE TO MARRY MARY NEUMANN.

THE MINISTER WAS ENGAGED.

HE HAD, HOWEVER, HEARD THAT BUCHOLTZ HAD A WIFE IN GERMANY.

CONSULTED CONSUL PASSAVANT.

With the result that the license was returned and no marriage took place.

In its list of marriage licenses, the Globe published yesterday morning these two names: Fritz Bucholtz and Mary Neumann.

The sound money men of the First Ward held a meeting at Wells and Payne streets last evening, and many of them signed a call for another mass meeting to be held in the near future.

At which a branch organization of the Central sound money club will be formed. There is considerable enthusiasm in the ward and a large enrollment is anticipated.

John Lendall was chairman of last night's meeting, and may be elected permanent chairman.

E. H. Ozmun was called upon for an address and spoke briefly upon the issues of the present campaign, dwelling principally upon sound money.

In speaking of the failures in history to solve the money questions by trying to make the two metals, gold and silver, operate side by side on a parity, Mr. Ozmun made some interesting remarks.

He said that attempts have often been made by governments to fix the price of commodities. England had tried in vain to fix the price of bread, but him to find out where her husband was, as she was without means of support. She wrote that she either would support her husband or else consent to a divorce. At once she telegraphed and had a talk with him. He admitted that he had a wife and children in Germany, but had left her wife because she was unkind and had no sympathy with him.

That is the only dealing I ever had with Bucholtz until this morning, when Rev. Mr. Gausewitz brought him before me for identification. He pretended not to be Mr. Bucholtz whom I knew.

He said his Christian name was 'Fritz,' not 'Frederick,' which is the name of the husband of Mrs. Bucholtz. His explanation was laughable, as 'Fritz' in German is the short, 'as you call it, for Frederick.' I might add that the postoffice clerk also identified Mr. Bucholtz as the man who called for letters at the general delivery window.

According to the marriage license record, Mrs. Bucholtz is 31 years of age. The age of Miss Mary Neumann, whom he intended to marry, is stated to be 22.

VALISE FULL OF COIN

SAMUEL SHORT ARRESTED AS ROSEMOUNT WITH SOME SPURIOUS MONEY.

ONE HUNDRED SILVER DOLLARS WHICH ARE SAID TO BE VERY EXCELLENT COUNTERFEIT PIECES.

BROUGHT TO ST. PAUL LAST NIGHT, HE SAID HE FOUND THE VALISE NEAR THE ROSEMOUNT DEPOT.

Deputy United States Marshal Henry arrived in St. Paul last evening with Samuel Short, an elderly man whom he had arrested at Rosemount yesterday afternoon, on a charge of counterfeiting.

The marshal and his prisoner drove to the jail and after Short had been comfortably quartered in a cell, a large valise which the prisoner had with him was taken over to the marshal's office.

The valise contained about $100 in counterfeit silver dollars, together with a lot of sandpaper, acids and other things which seemed to engage in the business of making and passing bogus coins.

Yesterday morning Short, who has the appearance of being an old fakir, of the class who take in the county fairs, and is about 60 years old, arrived at the village of Rosemount, Dakota county.

He left his valise at the house of Mrs. Murphy, and partly arranged to stop over night at the house. The valise, he told the woman, contained tea, coffee and sugar, and was stowed away under a small table.

During the morning Mrs. Murphy had occasion to sweep the room, and when she moved the valise, which seemed particularly heavy, she heard the sound of something that jingled. She had never seen any tea or coffee that jingled, so she opened the satchel to investigate.

What she found was a lot of silver dollars, bottles of liquids and other things. She at once acquainted Deputy Sheriff J. J. Ryan, who lives in the house adjoining, of the find, and that official, after examining the coins, pronounced them counterfeit.

A telegram was at once sent to the United States officials in this city, and at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon Deputy Marshal Henry arrived at Rosemount.

When Henry arrived, Short had not called for his satchel and as he had passed no counterfeit money during the day there was some question as to whether the valise would be best to have Short take possession of the satchel before placing him under arrest.

Word was sent to Short to come and get his property and after he had taken the valise and started away from the house, he was arrested. Short seeing that he was caught at once said that he had no knowledge of what was in the valise, and claimed to be a farmer.

Short refused to talk, but the officials insisted that he was undoubtedly making ready for the purpose of passing the bogus dollars. Short will be arraigned before Commissioner Spencer tomorrow morning.

The counterfeit dollars found in Short's valise are excellent ones and would readily pass for genuine.

Little Girls' Sailor Suit—This is just the thing for a little girl's outing dress. Made of white duck, trimmed with narrow dark blue braid, it forms the jauntiest of Summer suits. The blouse waist requires no lining. It is cut with a big sailor collar, which may be braided or trimmed with lace or insertions to suit the taste. A shield piece either of dark blue duck or of the same material as the costume, fills in the opening left by the sailor collar. A narrow band collar completes the neck. The bishop sleeves are cut very full and end under the prettiest of braided cuffs. A convenient little pocket is placed on the left side of the front. A draw string run in around the bottom of the waist confines its fullness in the proper position. The full skirt is cut in the usual manner, or trimmed with rows of braid as preferred. It is gathered into a belt. Serge, flannel, outing cloth, cotton cover, Galatea, duck, plume, grass linen, gingham chambray etc., can be used for this design.

SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES.

ST. JOSEPH'S ACADEMY

For young ladies and children, conducted by the Sisters of St. Joseph, will reopen on Tuesday, Sept. 1, 1896. Address: The Rectory, St. Joseph's Academy, St. Paul, Minn.

The Globe herewith presents a picture of the massive new office building to be erected immediately for the headquarters of the Northern Pacific Railway company, and as an adjunct of the present building, which has long been too small. The new building will be erected after plans drawn by Cass Gilbert, the noted architect. Its cost will be about $25,000.

The building will be five stories and basement high, and above the first story will be constructed of mottled pressed brick. The first story and basement will be of Ortoria granite. In size, the building will be 144 feet on Broadway, and 116 feet on Fourth street.

There will be an interior court, and the new and the old buildings will form a letter "U." The building will be made of nearly fireproof material, and the floors will be concrete. The interior walls and doors will be carried upon steel columns, after the method of the new building to be erected at the corner of Broadway and Fourth street.

The new building will be erected a modern power plant, which will furnish light and heat and power for all mechanical appliances needed in the new and old buildings. The exterior height of the new building will be 35 feet above the street level. The contractors, who will commence work immediately.

never had succeeded for the reason that the commodity fluctuated according to the laws of supply and demand. It was the same with gold and silver, he said, and it was the same with the two metals which fixed the legal value and ratio of the dollar, and not the coin which regulated the price of the bullion.

The chairman pro tem, Dr. E. Schrader, of the German Sound Money league, has appointed the following members of the committee on organization: First Ward—J. P. Biebigbaum, F. W. Wagner. Second Ward—G. P. Bitt, Ferd Hinrichs. Third Ward—S. G. Kramer, F. H. Brandhorst. Fourth Ward—Consul Dr. Stamm, Charles Horst. Fifth Ward—Leo G. Brunner, William Theobald. Sixth Ward—Paul Quehl, William Springer. Seventh Ward—Theodore Schurmeier, Otto Kuffner. Eighth Ward—Paul Theegarten, Bernhard Michel. Ninth Ward—Peter M. Kerst, Theodore Sander. Tenth Ward—H. E. Schuetz. Eleventh Ward—Ad. Holmsted, Peter Zelch. Twelfth Ward—Consul Dr. Stamm, treasurer. North St. Paul—Ernst Reif. White Bear—Charles Reif.

SOCIETY'S BALL GAME.

St. Anthony Bill Belles Will Peddle Popcorn. St. Paul society has its hands full for the coming week, for beside the Cycle path entertainment at White Birch and Towley night, there the wealth and fashion will congress, there is also coming the annual society ball game. This year it is to be for the benefit of the Minnesota Boat club, and it will be played on Saturday afternoon at Aurora park, between teams from the medical and legal professions. The society belles of the city will sell peanuts, badges, lemonade, and other delicacies of the season.

The lawyers will put two teams in the field, "dining" team and a playing team, and they will line up as follows: First base—F. J. Frandus. Second base—C. R. Pettigill. Third base—C. H. Taylor. Fourth base—J. D. Williams. Pitcher—B. B. McCaughy. D. D. Williams, short stop. E. J. Frandus, left field. B. B. Clark. H. H. Horton, right field. Dick O'Brien. Fred Butler, center field. Carl Ducus. Lou Wilkes will be the umpire.

Dr. Robert A. Wheaton, who is to pitch for the medicals, practices daily in his back yard and states that he is now so proficient that he can put a curved ball through a knothole in his back fence nine times out of ten. This will leave little for the umpire to do but call the strikes.

M. D. Munn thinks that base running is where he needs to strengthen and at 6 o'clock every morning he may be seen sprinting up and down Summit avenue.

Reeves, who will catch for the doctors, is an ex-professional, having played with one of the big league clubs in the old days.

H. H. Horn, who will be of counsel for the lawyers when disputed points arise, has forewarned his cycle for the city for the past ten days and during that time Stengler had been doing some collecting for him. Neither the collector nor the collections having been heard from, Stengler has been seen sprinting up and down Summit avenue.

An investigation showed that Stengler had been sent to the workhouse for ten days on July 21, on a charge of drunkenness.

STENGLER TURNS UP.

J. H. Bradhorst, was at police headquarters yesterday to report as missing F. Stengler, who had been in his employ. Bradhorst was away from the city for the past ten days and during that time Stengler had been doing some collecting for him. Neither the collector nor the collections having been heard from, Stengler has been seen sprinting up and down Summit avenue.

An investigation showed that Stengler had been sent to the workhouse for ten days on July 21, on a charge of drunkenness.

DANZ'S LAST DAY.

The Band Will Leave Como After Tonight. Danz's band will play at Como this afternoon and evening, and then may not be heard again for some time. During its long engagement at Como the band has proved itself to be a very popular entertainment, all its concerts having been well attended and the music well received.

Tomorrow night the "Plantation Minstrel company" will fill the boards and give a show, which will no doubt, cause the shores of Como to be black with people.

The company is composed of eighteen members, all of whom are artists in their line and of whom the negroes. Their dancing is both unique and graceful and their singing both musical and amusing. The last half of the programme will consist of specialties and the management has secured the three Bernhards to introduce their astonishing acrobatic feats.

The minstrel company carries its own band and orchestra.

LIKE A "PIPE STOKER."

Williams-Moran Sensation Explodes in Court. Aleck Williams, arrested Thursday night as one of the assailants of Mrs. Paul Moran, was discharged in the police court yesterday. Mrs. Moran appeared in court, and after being shown the prisoner, who was then in the bull-pen, stated that he was not the person who had assaulted her. The main shot was not as dark complexioned as Williams.
