

MR. BUTLER HONORED

CHOSEN FOR CHAIRMAN BY THE NEW POPULIST NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

FIGHT ON SECRETARYSHIP.

SCHILLING, OF WISCONSIN, WHO OPPOSED BRYAN, HAD A STRONG FOLLOWING.

MIDDLE ROADERS WERE CURIOUS.

Wanted to Know What the Committee Would Do in Case Mr. Bryan Declined.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 25.—The Populist national committee held its first meeting tonight. After quite a spirited contest, Senator Butler, of North Carolina, was elected chairman, receiving 55 votes on the second ballot. The other men who were placed in leg from hip to knee being shattered, and he died from loss of blood two hours later. Charles Johnson, the owner of the gun, was hiding near by, and after assisting the wounded man to his carriage disappeared, and the sheriff is now hunting for him.

EXPENSIVE CHICKENS.

They Will Cost Eau Claire Young Men $25 Apiece.

Special to the Globe. EAU CLAIRE, Wis., July 25.—Game Warden A. J. Klotfanda has the names of five well known young men of this city who went out after prairie chickens on Friday. The party was hunting on the farm of Chas. Buffington, town of Pleasant Valley. Buffington mounted a spirited horse and gave chase to the poachers. The horse became unmanageable and threw Buffington, breaking his left arm in two places and severely injuring his leg. The hunters secured a large bag of chickens and will have to pay a fine of $25 for each. The Eau Claire gun club will take an active part in having the parties prosecuted.

SILVER DELEGATIONS

Chosen by the Scott County Democratic Convention.

NEW PRAGUE, Minn., July 25.—The Scott county Democratic convention held here today passed off very quietly. There were upwards of 55 delegates. Fifteen delegates were elected to the state convention to be held at Minneapolis on Aug. 4, and 15 de-

PROMINENT POPULISTS TELL WHAT THEY THINK OF THE PRESENT SITUATION.

ALL HOPE FOR HARMONY.

NO BOLT EXPECTED ON THE PART OF THE PEOPLE'S PARTY.

BROAD HINTS FOR MR. SEWALL.

Opinions Freely Expressed That He Should Take His Name Off the Democratic Ticket.

ST. LOUIS, July 25.—Signed statements regarding the convention and its work were given out tonight by the Populist leaders as follows: Ignatius Donnelly—I think the situation is in good shape and that nine-tenths of the delegates would be satisfied. There are some who believe that Mr. Bryan should be called upon to say whether he will accept the platform as presented to him and the name of Col. Norton, who had the next highest number of votes, be substituted. This will produce great discontent over the United States, and Col. Norton would not receive one-quarter of the regular Populist vote. The remainder would go over directly to Mr. Bryan and our party be torn to pieces. I think the better course is that which I advocated in the first place, to accept or reject our platform or to repudiate or defend Mr. Sewall. If this were an intent to merge the Populist party with a Democratic party a perfect identity of opinions and principles would be necessary, but it is not. We remain in our own territory and simply agree to transfer for this campaign our two or three million votes to Bryan and our Democratic party platform, but on the basis of Mr. Bryan's life and worth. Every Populist in the United States will be glad to support Mr. Watson. If the Democrats do not withdraw Mr. Sewall there will be no election of vice president in the United States. The people will go into the United States, where the Populists hold the balance of power and would control the government. Senator Butler.—The result of the convention is what the North Carolina delegation has contended for. Markham relative to the ordinance adopting the act abolishing the board of public works. The council has been built up by appointing the best elements of the two old parties to put principle and patriotism above party. In this connection I believe the Populist party has practiced what it has preached. It has endorsed and approved the action of the Chicago convention as far as it was concerned and has condemned it where it was wrong. The nomination of Mr. Bryan was satisfactory to every Populist in America. I stand for the principles that the party has contended for against the two old parties. We have put up a platform and nomination vice president in harmony with our principles. It became a matter of indifference to me whether we would endorse Mr. Sewall or accept the Democratic platform as it stood. The Democratic platform was good as far as it went, a victory for the Populist party as far as it did go. The People's party has been built up by appointing more than half way. Now, if Mr. Sewall will be patriotic, and withdraw from the Democratic ticket as a candidate for vice president, he will remove the only obstacle to a complete unification of all the voters who oppose the single issue of the Democratic ticket. I am sure that he will be assured from the hour that he takes that high and patriotic position.

WILL DORAN SIGN?

Board of Public Works Abolition Awaits Him.

AN ADDRESS TO THE PUBLIC.

One Will be Issued Stating the Position of the Faction Opposed to Bryan.

LOUIS, Mo., July 25.—The "middle of the road men" met at the Southern hotel after leaving the convention hall today and sent the message to the national committee referred to in the report of the meeting of that body. FURIOUS RUNAWAY.

Misses Haag and Mall Shocked, But Not Hurt.

A horse attached to a buggy, the outfit owned by H. Steinmueller, of 47 East Third street, ran away last evening about 6 o'clock. The steed took for its course Minnesota street from Fourth to Summit avenue, and the manner in which the obstructions along the thoroughfare were cleared was something wonderful. In front of Smith & Farwell's store on Minnesota street, a horse and buggy, belonging to Joseph Haag, was standing. Miss Haag had just driven up to the sidewalk and struck the shaft of the buggy through one of the plate glass windows. Miss Haag was thrown out but not seriously injured. She fainted away, however, and Miss Hall, who was seated in the store, was lost consciousness. Dr. Dohm was called, but found that neither of the ladies were injured except from the shock of their fall. The broken window will cost $60 to replace, but this amount will have to be stood by the insurance company that has the risk. Steinmueller's horse left the buggy and ran into the street and Minnesota streets, and ran until exhausted.

THEY CHASED A DOG. Terrible Charge Against Central Station Prisoners.

A trio of young men who gave their names as Frank Kirk, Joseph Bishop and Joseph Miller, were arrested last night by Patrolman McCall for "rushing the growler." The young men say that they visited the "Bad Lands" in the vicinity of the Central Station and Temperance streets in the purpose of arranging for a base ball game with a nine from that section today. When they arrived a can of beer was being finished by a party of young fellows. Just then a policeman came up and the crowd seemingly melted away. The empty can considered conclusive evidence by the officer that the law had been violated, and the visitors to the "Bad Lands" were arrested for disorderly conduct.
