

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

SAINT PAUL SOCIAL.

The preparations for the coming encampment have had a noticeable effect on society people, who, like everybody else, have been busy making preparations for the coming event.

Major and Mrs. Tucker will give a reception in honor of Mrs. John Logan, Aug. 23, at the Town and Country Club. The affair will be one of the most elegant of the season.

AN AMERICAN "COUNTESS" AND HER LEGACY AND LITTLE ROMANCE.

Pauline Bradshaw, now of New York, formerly of Chicago, has just fallen heir to 50,000 gold rubles—that Russian money, and a ruble is worth, roughly, 70 cents.

appeal to every patriotic person, namely, to give to the chapter the beginning of a permanent fund to which they hope to add as the years go by, and some time in the future to erect some tribute to the memory of the revolutionary hero for whom the chapter is named.

The Richard Lord Jones Chapter of Children of the American Revolution has recently been formed in this city, under the presidency of Mrs. Charles E. Smith, a relative of this young hero, who was the youngest soldier upon the pay-roll of the Revolutionary army.

Never has Fairbault society seen anything prettier than the wedding solemnized Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Congregational church.

LOOKING BACKWARD. Out on West Seventh street in a beautiful room located on a picturesque back overlooking the Mississippi river on Sunday last were gathered a large number of the friends of Frank McKee to enjoy an invitation picnic on his handsome dairy farm.

LOOKING FORWARD. An unusually attractive programme has been arranged by Miss Grace Dornan for a concert to be given at Ramsey's pavilion, on the lake, on Sunday next.

Daughters of Erin, Division No. 3, will celebrate their first anniversary by a reception on the 25th inst., from 8 to 12 o'clock p. m., at the residence of the president, Miss Josie Cook, to which a cordial invitation is extended to all members of the division.

Wednesday evening next, at Cresta's hall, Bishop McGee, of Duluth, will present four gold medals to the Catholic Total Abstinence society showing the largest increase in membership during the past year.

bride's mother, where a reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Mahon will be at home after Nov. 11, at 74 Central avenue, St. Paul.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Pollock, 122 East Isabel street, Tuesday evening, Miss Lily C. Potvin and E. H. Towner were married by Rev. G. H. Gamble. The bride was Miss Millicent Newton, and groomsmen Albert S. Cooper, L. Newton, and groomsmen Albert S. Cooper, L. Newton, and groomsmen Albert S. Cooper, L. Newton.

Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, at the Church of the Assumption, on Exchange street, Miss Elizabeth Bastian and George A. Moller, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Mealey, were married by Father Alfred. Miss Della O'Neil was maid of honor, and John Bastian the bride's brother, groomsmen. The bride was Miss Millicent Newton, and groomsmen Albert S. Cooper, L. Newton, and groomsmen Albert S. Cooper, L. Newton.

The members of the German M. E. church choir gave a farewell reception to Miss Mary Horner, of Nashville, Tenn., Tuesday evening. The decorations were in sweet peas and were charmingly pretty. The party was in honor of Miss Houston, of Leavenworth, Kan. Those present were: Misses Corneil, Grace, Grace, Elia Nabersburg, Lillian Moore, Bertha Plunton, Corneil Saunders, Bessie Fern, Harry Adams, Mrs. J. J. Coates, Fred Baker, Harry Adams, Mrs. J. J. Coates, Ralph Duncan, Randall and Barnes, Davidson, of St. Paul, and a large party of both men and women.

The Fudge club met at the home of Mrs. Bigelow in Irvine park Wednesday evening. Each lady brought a luncheon, and the party was one of the most enjoyable of the season. Among those present were: Misses Daisy Black, Josephine Kalmann, Mary Bass, Ruth Stikney, Mrs. Trevor McClurg, Wallace Winter, Miss Simpson and Miss Lindeke.

The following party was given at the Fort Tuesday evening: Misses Nellie Cunningham, Eulah Douglas, Caddie Fisk, Horneuse and Amanda, Mrs. J. J. Coates, Edson Waite, Charles Stevenson, William Cavanaugh, Robert Wood, Kiefer, Naylor and Albert Zahn. The party was highly enjoyed by all.

Mrs. W. Shaw and Miss Fletcher, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Condon, of Philadelphia, dined with the bride and groom Monday evening. Miss Fletcher occupies the chair of archeology at Harvard university. She has gone to the Smithsonian institution to address at the scientific institute of that city.

A lawn fete was given at the home of Mrs. H. Hoyt, of Fairmount avenue, Thursday evening. The lawn was prettily decorated and dainty refreshments served. Music was furnished by the 'Boys of the Wood' and the ladies assisting were Miss Susie Watson, Bacon, Miss Bessie Mahan and Miss Wynn.

Mrs. Samuel Rosenberg gave a luncheon Tuesday at 1:30 o'clock for Miss Lillian Rosenfield and the Misses Snyderack, of Chicago. The table was prettily decorated with pink flowers, and the guests were Misses Edson, Gattner, Miss Clemmie Levy, Mrs. J. Aub and Miss Della Aub, of White Bear.

A luncheon was given yesterday by Mrs. Ambrose Gulterman, of Mackubin street, among those present were: Misses Snyderack, of Chicago; Mrs. J. J. Coates, of Chicago; Miss Rosefeldt, Mrs. Benjamin Good, Miss Catherine Levy and Mrs. Alfred Gulterman.

Mrs. S. P. Crosby gave a picnic supper at Cornu Wednesday evening for a party of Minneapolis friends. The party was a children's party Friday afternoon for her daughter Alice and Miss Daisy Peter of Minneapolis.

Miss Julia A. Nettleton, of Ashland, O., Mr. and Mrs. J. Phillips, of Eau Claire, and Mrs. W. D. Smith, of St. Paul, will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Nettleton, of the Marlowe, during the encampment.

John Miller entertained informally Monday evening. Those present were the Misses Carr, Julian McClellan, Messrs. Walter Hale, DuRoi, Herman Oppenheim and Charlie Farman.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Cowley, of Dellwood, celebrated their 11th wedding anniversary with a picnic at the park and a party at the home later in the evening. The dancing was enjoyed by the guests present.

Miss Nora Johnson, of Western avenue, gave a bicycle party Wednesday evening. Those present were: The Misses Hawkins, Flower and Prosper; Mrs. Orton, Hosmer, Rogers and George Cochran.

A leap year party was given yesterday at White Bear lake, by the following young people: The Misses E. W. Nettleton, Miss Grace Baker and the Misses Fletcher, of Minneapolis.

Louis T. Jammie gave a small dinner Monday evening for his sister, who has been visiting Lila Breed of this city. Music and recitations by Miss Jammie were given during the evening.

Miss Grace Robbins, of Summit avenue, gave a large dinner Friday at 1 o'clock. Among those present were: Mrs. Carr, Lanpher, Beardsley, Nichols and Kalmann.

A party consisting of the Misses Kirk, K. Mason, Mary Clark and Messrs. Homer Clark, Conrad Seaman and Sanford rode to the Fort Wednesday evening.

The Catholic parish gave a lawn social on Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Catholic Infants' Home. The affair was a very enjoyable one.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

have to go far and spend many a day to find a happy party. Those who enjoyed Mr. Meyer's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. William Usher and children, Mr. and Mrs. O. Spangler and little ones, Mr. and Mrs. Mott and daughter, Mrs. Purdy and children, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bock and children, Mr. and Mrs. Swift, Mr. and Mrs. Adams, Misses Kate and Olive Poren, Tom Tiernan and Frank Egan.

Miss Edna McCreary was pleasantly surprised at her home at 386 Sherman street Wednesday afternoon by a party of her young friends. The feature of the evening was dancing.

A delicate luncheon was served by the hostesses at the home of Mrs. M. Mealey, 74 Central avenue, St. Paul, Tuesday evening. The guests were: Misses Marie Reine, Mrs. J. J. Coates, Miss Helman, of Chicago; Mary Ryan, Margie Kemp, Carrie McCreary, Edna De Gracie Allen, Lillian Smith, Edna and Alice McQuade, Annie Amort, Mamie Timbach, Marlan and Blanche Hersham, Mamie Mealey, Eugene Julian, Mrs. J. J. Coates, Charles Heenan, Will Dohlan, Hugh McQuade, James McLaughlin, Anthony Ryan, Lillian McCreary and Will and George Robinson, of St. Paul.

Miss Mabel Robinson, of Dayton avenue, gave a large euchre party Tuesday evening. The decorations were in sweet peas and were charmingly pretty. The party was in honor of Miss Houston, of Leavenworth, Kan. Those present were: Misses Corneil, Grace, Grace, Elia Nabersburg, Lillian Moore, Bertha Plunton, Corneil Saunders, Bessie Fern, Harry Adams, Mrs. J. J. Coates, Fred Baker, Harry Adams, Mrs. J. J. Coates, Ralph Duncan, Randall and Barnes, Davidson, of St. Paul, and a large party of both men and women.

The members of the German M. E. church choir gave a farewell reception to Miss Mary Horner, of Nashville, Tenn., Tuesday evening. The decorations were in sweet peas and were charmingly pretty. The party was in honor of Miss Houston, of Leavenworth, Kan. Those present were: Misses Corneil, Grace, Grace, Elia Nabersburg, Lillian Moore, Bertha Plunton, Corneil Saunders, Bessie Fern, Harry Adams, Mrs. J. J. Coates, Fred Baker, Harry Adams, Mrs. J. J. Coates, Ralph Duncan, Randall and Barnes, Davidson, of St. Paul, and a large party of both men and women.

The Fudge club met at the home of Mrs. Bigelow in Irvine park Wednesday evening. Each lady brought a luncheon, and the party was one of the most enjoyable of the season. Among those present were: Misses Daisy Black, Josephine Kalmann, Mary Bass, Ruth Stikney, Mrs. Trevor McClurg, Wallace Winter, Miss Simpson and Miss Lindeke.

The following party was given at the Fort Tuesday evening: Misses Nellie Cunningham, Eulah Douglas, Caddie Fisk, Horneuse and Amanda, Mrs. J. J. Coates, Edson Waite, Charles Stevenson, William Cavanaugh, Robert Wood, Kiefer, Naylor and Albert Zahn. The party was highly enjoyed by all.

Mrs. W. Shaw and Miss Fletcher, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Condon, of Philadelphia, dined with the bride and groom Monday evening. Miss Fletcher occupies the chair of archeology at Harvard university. She has gone to the Smithsonian institution to address at the scientific institute of that city.

A lawn fete was given at the home of Mrs. H. Hoyt, of Fairmount avenue, Thursday evening. The lawn was prettily decorated and dainty refreshments served. Music was furnished by the 'Boys of the Wood' and the ladies assisting were Miss Susie Watson, Bacon, Miss Bessie Mahan and Miss Wynn.

Mrs. Samuel Rosenberg gave a luncheon Tuesday at 1:30 o'clock for Miss Lillian Rosenfield and the Misses Snyderack, of Chicago. The table was prettily decorated with pink flowers, and the guests were Misses Edson, Gattner, Miss Clemmie Levy, Mrs. J. Aub and Miss Della Aub, of White Bear.

A luncheon was given yesterday by Mrs. Ambrose Gulterman, of Mackubin street, among those present were: Misses Snyderack, of Chicago; Mrs. J. J. Coates, of Chicago; Miss Rosefeldt, Mrs. Benjamin Good, Miss Catherine Levy and Mrs. Alfred Gulterman.

Mrs. S. P. Crosby gave a picnic supper at Cornu Wednesday evening for a party of Minneapolis friends. The party was a children's party Friday afternoon for her daughter Alice and Miss Daisy Peter of Minneapolis.

Miss Julia A. Nettleton, of Ashland, O., Mr. and Mrs. J. Phillips, of Eau Claire, and Mrs. W. D. Smith, of St. Paul, will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Nettleton, of the Marlowe, during the encampment.

John Miller entertained informally Monday evening. Those present were the Misses Carr, Julian McClellan, Messrs. Walter Hale, DuRoi, Herman Oppenheim and Charlie Farman.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Cowley, of Dellwood, celebrated their 11th wedding anniversary with a picnic at the park and a party at the home later in the evening. The dancing was enjoyed by the guests present.

Miss Nora Johnson, of Western avenue, gave a bicycle party Wednesday evening. Those present were: The Misses Hawkins, Flower and Prosper; Mrs. Orton, Hosmer, Rogers and George Cochran.

A leap year party was given yesterday at White Bear lake, by the following young people: The Misses E. W. Nettleton, Miss Grace Baker and the Misses Fletcher, of Minneapolis.

Louis T. Jammie gave a small dinner Monday evening for his sister, who has been visiting Lila Breed of this city. Music and recitations by Miss Jammie were given during the evening.

Miss Grace Robbins, of Summit avenue, gave a large dinner Friday at 1 o'clock. Among those present were: Mrs. Carr, Lanpher, Beardsley, Nichols and Kalmann.

A party consisting of the Misses Kirk, K. Mason, Mary Clark and Messrs. Homer Clark, Conrad Seaman and Sanford rode to the Fort Wednesday evening.

The Catholic parish gave a lawn social on Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Catholic Infants' Home. The affair was a very enjoyable one.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Nettleton, of the Marlowe, during the encampment.

PERSONAL.

The Misses Timberlake, Miss Nellie Finch, Miss Hill, the Misses Stevenson, and Miss White are among the ardent devotees of caddies, they are accompanied by their friends to the region of the town and country club where game is played. They are rapidly becoming experts in this season's favorite game.

Mrs. W. H. Culver, who has been spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. M. Bunker, at Marshall avenue, and Mrs. Dampier, of White Bear Lake, left Friday for Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashworth have returned from Bald Eagle, where they have been spending the summer. Their guests Sunday were Miss Ella Meier, Mr. Charles Cadden and Percy S. Bush.

The Cornells Saunders and Edward Saulan, of the Misses Stevenson, and Miss White are among the ardent devotees of caddies, they are accompanied by their friends to the region of the town and country club where game is played. They are rapidly becoming experts in this season's favorite game.

Mrs. W. H. Culver, who has been spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. M. Bunker, at Marshall avenue, and Mrs. Dampier, of White Bear Lake, left Friday for Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashworth have returned from Bald Eagle, where they have been spending the summer. Their guests Sunday were Miss Ella Meier, Mr. Charles Cadden and Percy S. Bush.

The Cornells Saunders and Edward Saulan, of the Misses Stevenson, and Miss White are among the ardent devotees of caddies, they are accompanied by their friends to the region of the town and country club where game is played. They are rapidly becoming experts in this season's favorite game.

Mrs. W. H. Culver, who has been spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. M. Bunker, at Marshall avenue, and Mrs. Dampier, of White Bear Lake, left Friday for Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashworth have returned from Bald Eagle, where they have been spending the summer. Their guests Sunday were Miss Ella Meier, Mr. Charles Cadden and Percy S. Bush.

The Cornells Saunders and Edward Saulan, of the Misses Stevenson, and Miss White are among the ardent devotees of caddies, they are accompanied by their friends to the region of the town and country club where game is played. They are rapidly becoming experts in this season's favorite game.

Mrs. W. H. Culver, who has been spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. M. Bunker, at Marshall avenue, and Mrs. Dampier, of White Bear Lake, left Friday for Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashworth have returned from Bald Eagle, where they have been spending the summer. Their guests Sunday were Miss Ella Meier, Mr. Charles Cadden and Percy S. Bush.

The Cornells Saunders and Edward Saulan, of the Misses Stevenson, and Miss White are among the ardent devotees of caddies, they are accompanied by their friends to the region of the town and country club where game is played. They are rapidly becoming experts in this season's favorite game.

Mrs. W. H. Culver, who has been spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. M. Bunker, at Marshall avenue, and Mrs. Dampier, of White Bear Lake, left Friday for Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashworth have returned from Bald Eagle, where they have been spending the summer. Their guests Sunday were Miss Ella Meier, Mr. Charles Cadden and Percy S. Bush.

The Cornells Saunders and Edward Saulan, of the Misses Stevenson, and Miss White are among the ardent devotees of caddies, they are accompanied by their friends to the region of the town and country club where game is played. They are rapidly becoming experts in this season's favorite game.

Mrs. W. H. Culver, who has been spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. M. Bunker, at Marshall avenue, and Mrs. Dampier, of White Bear Lake, left Friday for Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashworth have returned from Bald Eagle, where they have been spending the summer. Their guests Sunday were Miss Ella Meier, Mr. Charles Cadden and Percy S. Bush.

The Cornells Saunders and Edward Saulan, of the Misses Stevenson, and Miss White are among the ardent devotees of caddies, they are accompanied by their friends to the region of the town and country club where game is played. They are rapidly becoming experts in this season's favorite game.

Mrs. W. H. Culver, who has been spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. M. Bunker, at Marshall avenue, and Mrs. Dampier, of White Bear Lake, left Friday for Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashworth have returned from Bald Eagle, where they have been spending the summer. Their guests Sunday were Miss Ella Meier, Mr. Charles Cadden and Percy S. Bush.

The Cornells Saunders and Edward Saulan, of the Misses Stevenson, and Miss White are among the ardent devotees of caddies, they are accompanied by their friends to the region of the town and country club where game is played. They are rapidly becoming experts in this season's favorite game.

Mrs. W. H. Culver, who has been spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. M. Bunker, at Marshall avenue, and Mrs. Dampier, of White Bear Lake, left Friday for Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashworth have returned from Bald Eagle, where they have been spending the summer. Their guests Sunday were Miss Ella Meier, Mr. Charles Cadden and Percy S. Bush.

The Cornells Saunders and Edward Saulan, of the Misses Stevenson, and Miss White are among the ardent devotees of caddies, they are accompanied by their friends to the region of the town and country club where game is played. They are rapidly becoming experts in this season's favorite game.

Mrs. W. H. Culver, who has been spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. M. Bunker, at Marshall avenue, and Mrs. Dampier, of White Bear Lake, left Friday for Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashworth have returned from Bald Eagle, where they have been spending the summer. Their guests Sunday were Miss Ella Meier, Mr. Charles Cadden and Percy S. Bush.

Family News

The last item—as well as the others—will be very interesting reading.

TO BEGIN THE AUTUMN SEASON—17,000 yards of $2.50, $2.00, $1.75, $1.50 and $1.00 High Class Novelty Silks, a special purchase from the well-known house of Arnold, Constable & Co., of New York, will be sold Monday and all this week at 19c, 29c, 39c, 49c, 59c, 69c and 89c Per Yard.

The lots will be ready at 9:30 Monday morning—not before. Preparations for speedy and pleasant selling have been made.

They are all New, Selected Styles. All are Superb in Quality. No Equal Opportunity to buy High Class Silks—Many at a Fourth of the Actual Cost to Make—Ever Occurred Anywhere Before

See the Season's Novelties—All ready Monday morning—Moire Velours, Moire Faconne, Moire Jacquards, Moire Brilliants and Damas Moire—all Blacks. They are all gems, and are very reasonable in price.

The Colored Novelties are: Cloth of Gold, Cloth of Silver, Gros Grain Pompadours, Jacquards, Ombres, Monotone, Self-Color Effects, Chameleon Novelties, and Elegant Self-Colored Evening Brocades.

Last Item—500 short lengths manufacturers' samples. The choicest Silks made. Lengths are from 1/2 yard to 1 1/2 yards. Values are from 75c each to $3.00 each. For Monday's selling they are marked 10c, 20c, 30c, 40c, 50c, 60c Each.

If you want a Dress Trimming, if you want a few pieces for Fancy Work, don't miss these.

NEW FALL DRESS GOODS.

With the changing season comes the demand for the changing styles. Always the first to tell you of the absolutely correct things, we mention a few of the specials for Monday in New Fall and Winter Fabrics. Prominent in our extensive display are the importations from Bonny Scotland—exquisite combinations of coloring. Besides these are importations from the looms of the best manufacturers of England, Germany and France, of which we show rare novelties in Single Dress Patterns.

COLORED GOODS. 40 pieces of Novelty Suiting, equal in style to the finest goods made. They are in all the autumn colors, excellent value at 75c a yard. Our Monday price..... 50c

Bourette Novelties, in two and three-tone colorings, 46 inches wide. Per yard..... 75c

English Curly, rough shaggy fabrics, very stylish and durable, in all the new autumn colors, 44 1/2 inches wide; good value at $1.25 a yard. Our price..... 85c

Covert Whipcords, the correct fabric for tailor-made gowns, in all the leading shades, 50 inches wide, at $1.25, $1.75 and $2.00 a yard.

JAPANESE RUGS.

We thought we had completely supplied the market for Japanese Rugs, but the frequent inquiries of late show us our error. Monday we begin the largest special sale we have yet had on these goods.

This collection is larger and the quality superior to any heretofore offered.

We also show a large line of Reed's Axminster Rugs, Mats, 2 ft 6 in x 5 ft for $1.60

Size Sale Price 1 ft 6 in x 3 ft..... 40c 4 ft x 7 ft..... $2.00 5 ft x 9 ft..... 5.50 6 ft x 12 ft..... 7.50 8 ft x 12 ft..... 11.50

Our stock of Oriental Carpets and Rugs is now complete. Prices are lower than ever before.

Lace Department.

Our first importation of Laces and Lace trimmings for the Fall season '96 just opened. New Irish Point Edgings, Insertings, and All-Overs. New Venise Edgings, Insertings and All-Over.

Chantilly Laces, in Black and White. New Wash Laces. New Gauzes, Chiffons and Nets in every shade, for evening wear. New Spangled and Beaded Nets, and Mouselines.

New Honiton Spangled Trimmings, in Black and Cream. Gold Cloth, in plain and fancy, the highest novelty of the season. New Embroideries at moderate prices.

Muslin Underwear Dept. On the Second Floor. Don't fail to see these Black and Colored Rustling Taf-feta Silk Skirts, for..... $6.00

New styles in Black Moreen Skirts. A new line of Children's Short Cloaks, ages 1, 2 and 3 years. R. & G. Corsets, all colors... $1.00 W. & B. Corsets, black, for... $1.25 Thomson's Corsets, black, gray and white, for... $1.00 A la Spirit Corsets, gray and white, for... $1.50 P. D. Corsets, gray and white $1.50 Her Majesty's Corsets... $2.75

Millinery Dept. Third Floor. As a Monday special we offer a large lot of children's Tam O'Shanter and Caps, the jaunty thing for school and fall wear. Former prices were $1.00 and $1.50 each. Special, to close... 35c

We are also showing all the latest novelties in Ladies' Walking Hats for early Fall wear.

High Grade Hosiery. Last opportunity this season to buy Women's very fine open-work lace ankle Lisle thread Stockings. The $1.00 quality 50c for.....

Last opportunity to buy our $2.25 quality women's pure thread silk stockings, black and colors, for $1.29

And the last opportunity to buy our regular $1.00 and $1.25 quality women's finest Lisle thread and Sea Island Cotton stockings for..... 69c

Wash Goods Dept.

Big preparations here for furnishing materials for decorating purposes. Wool Flags, all sizes, at lowest retail prices. Cotton Bunting—all the latest styles—in fast colors, at extremely low prices.

Handkerchiefs. FALL 1896. We are now taking orders on Ladies' and Gents' Pure Linen Handkerchiefs, made in Ireland, hemstitched and embroidered by hand. The manufacturer has arranged specially for our work, and will put it in the hands of his best artists. We make special prices, and have a large selection of initial letters, fac-simile signatures and crests. Deliveries made any time after 60 days from date of receipt of order. Customers have the privilege of placing orders now, to be delivered any time before Christmas.

Men's Furnishings. Have you seen for..... 5c 15c Wash Ties for..... 5c 40c Half Hose for..... 15c $1.25 Negligee Shirts for..... 69c

This department is replete with finest qualities Underwear, Hosiery, Night Shirts, Dress Shirts, Neckties, Collars, Suspenders—Everything for men.

Fur Repairs. Attend to Fur repairs at once. Delay means disappointment, advanced prices, cold weather here and your fur not ready. Send us a postal and we will call for your furs and give estimates on repairing or making over up to date. Satisfaction guaranteed. Our charges the lowest, workmanship considered.

A visit to the art department on Third Floor will give you an idea of appropriate articles for Wedding gifts, anniversary gifts and card prices.

Butterick's Patterns. And publications. We are agents. September patterns now here.

Mail Orders. Always get prompt and careful attention. Goods shipped same day instructions are received.

Kingsbury, A. Henderson, W. A. Naylor, S. V. Boyer and George Williamson. Mr. and Mrs. George Stevens, of Duluth, and Misses W. E. Carruthers, of Duluth, Royallan, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Chandler.

Miss Bertha Cunningham, of Wilder avenue, returned this week from Wisconsin. Miss Maud Cook, of Neenah, accompanied her.

Miss Annie Sanborn returned from the East last Sunday. Frank Byrne Fox has returned from Detroit, Mich. Miss Louise Jewett leaves for Des Moines tomorrow.

Miss Florence Hight returns Tuesday from St. Louis. Rev. Mr. Bowman, of Louisiana, is visiting Mr. Greer. Miss Alice Monfort left for Frontenac Friday.

Miss Lila Breed left for Milwaukee Wednesday. The members of the Presbyterian church and Shady school held their annual picnic Thursday at Lake Como.

Miss Maud Ferris has returned to her home in Madison, after a short visit with her aunt. Miss Holmes returned from Stevens Point, accompanied by her grandmother, Mrs. Spurr.

Mrs. H. R. McGregor and family are expected back from Canada this week. Rev. Mr. Phillips, of Montreal, called on his sister during the week.

A. S. Bell was called to Spencer, N. Y., to attend the funeral of his sister. Mrs. Martin Akers, of Ohio, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. E. Carruthers, who has returned from Canada this week. Miss Fannie Phelps has gone to Duluth for a few weeks. Annie Fairbanks has returned to the Park. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Carruthers are visiting in Hastings. G. A. Chaffee and family have returned to the Park. Mrs. S. J. Small is visiting in Manchester, Io.

BURLINGTON HEIGHTS. A. S. Morion and family removed yesterday from Highwood to Burlington Heights, St. Paul, where they will permanently reside. They will be greatly missed in this community. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Carruthers, who have been spending the summer with the family, are returning to Burlington Heights. Miss Langhorne, have removed to the city. Misses Bessie and Mildred Dockstader entertained Wednesday evening for a number of young friends. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Carruthers and family are back from a visit to friends in the northern part of the State. Miss Nellie Plisk of St. Croix Falls, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Dockstader. Mrs. Bessie and Mildred Dockstader returned from a visit in Bayfield, Wis. John Swinburne and wife returned Friday from a trip on the lake.

65 CENTS ROUND TRIP TODAY

St. Paul to Lake Minnetonka! SUNDAY, AUGUST 23, 1896.

SIX DAILY TRAINS from Union Depot via Great Northern Railway

HOTEL LAFAYETTE The Largest Hotel for the Entertainment of Summer Visitors in the Northwest.

FLEET OF LAKE STEAMERS Sufficient for the carrying of thousands. Sail boats and row boats. Bathing facilities.

TICKET OFFICES: 199 E. 3d St., St. Paul, 300 Nicollet Av., Minneapolis, and Union Depot.