

BULLETIN OF THE ST. PAUL GLOBE.

Weather for Today—Fair; Variable Winds.

LI HUNG CHANG, THE CHINESE ENVOY, LANDS IN NEW YORK. ANXIOUS TO SEE GROVER. HIS FIRST QUESTION AS TO THE WHEREABOUTS OF THE PRESIDENT.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Promptly at 8 o'clock this morning colors were hoisted on board the fleet American warships at anchor off Tompkinsville, Staten Island, with the usual ceremonies, the band of the flagship New York playing the "Star Spangled Banner."

Other crowds flocked to the Battery at once, and the Chinese party, from which the arrival and greeting of the distinguished guest of the nation could be witnessed to the best advantage.

At 10:30 the ship was surrounded by the fleet of boats making it impossible to proceed very fast and as she steamed up bay towards the fleet, there was a continued toot of steam whistles and some boats touched a Chinese anthem in the shape of several bunches of fire crackers.

The party of Americans were ushered into the aft drawing room and waited for some minutes to see the ambassador, in the meantime meeting the members of his staff.

At 10:30 the ship was surrounded by the fleet of boats making it impossible to proceed very fast and as she steamed up bay towards the fleet, there was a continued toot of steam whistles and some boats touched a Chinese anthem in the shape of several bunches of fire crackers.

The party of Americans were ushered into the aft drawing room and waited for some minutes to see the ambassador, in the meantime meeting the members of his staff.

At 10:30 the ship was surrounded by the fleet of boats making it impossible to proceed very fast and as she steamed up bay towards the fleet, there was a continued toot of steam whistles and some boats touched a Chinese anthem in the shape of several bunches of fire crackers.

The party of Americans were ushered into the aft drawing room and waited for some minutes to see the ambassador, in the meantime meeting the members of his staff.

At 10:30 the ship was surrounded by the fleet of boats making it impossible to proceed very fast and as she steamed up bay towards the fleet, there was a continued toot of steam whistles and some boats touched a Chinese anthem in the shape of several bunches of fire crackers.

The party of Americans were ushered into the aft drawing room and waited for some minutes to see the ambassador, in the meantime meeting the members of his staff.

At 10:30 the ship was surrounded by the fleet of boats making it impossible to proceed very fast and as she steamed up bay towards the fleet, there was a continued toot of steam whistles and some boats touched a Chinese anthem in the shape of several bunches of fire crackers.

The party of Americans were ushered into the aft drawing room and waited for some minutes to see the ambassador, in the meantime meeting the members of his staff.

At 10:30 the ship was surrounded by the fleet of boats making it impossible to proceed very fast and as she steamed up bay towards the fleet, there was a continued toot of steam whistles and some boats touched a Chinese anthem in the shape of several bunches of fire crackers.

UNCLE SAM'S GUEST

LI HUNG CHANG, THE CHINESE ENVOY, LANDS IN NEW YORK.

ANXIOUS TO SEE GROVER. HIS FIRST QUESTION AS TO THE WHEREABOUTS OF THE PRESIDENT.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Promptly at 8 o'clock this morning colors were hoisted on board the fleet American warships at anchor off Tompkinsville, Staten Island, with the usual ceremonies, the band of the flagship New York playing the "Star Spangled Banner."

Other crowds flocked to the Battery at once, and the Chinese party, from which the arrival and greeting of the distinguished guest of the nation could be witnessed to the best advantage.

At 10:30 the ship was surrounded by the fleet of boats making it impossible to proceed very fast and as she steamed up bay towards the fleet, there was a continued toot of steam whistles and some boats touched a Chinese anthem in the shape of several bunches of fire crackers.

The party of Americans were ushered into the aft drawing room and waited for some minutes to see the ambassador, in the meantime meeting the members of his staff.

At 10:30 the ship was surrounded by the fleet of boats making it impossible to proceed very fast and as she steamed up bay towards the fleet, there was a continued toot of steam whistles and some boats touched a Chinese anthem in the shape of several bunches of fire crackers.

The party of Americans were ushered into the aft drawing room and waited for some minutes to see the ambassador, in the meantime meeting the members of his staff.

At 10:30 the ship was surrounded by the fleet of boats making it impossible to proceed very fast and as she steamed up bay towards the fleet, there was a continued toot of steam whistles and some boats touched a Chinese anthem in the shape of several bunches of fire crackers.

The party of Americans were ushered into the aft drawing room and waited for some minutes to see the ambassador, in the meantime meeting the members of his staff.

At 10:30 the ship was surrounded by the fleet of boats making it impossible to proceed very fast and as she steamed up bay towards the fleet, there was a continued toot of steam whistles and some boats touched a Chinese anthem in the shape of several bunches of fire crackers.

The party of Americans were ushered into the aft drawing room and waited for some minutes to see the ambassador, in the meantime meeting the members of his staff.

At 10:30 the ship was surrounded by the fleet of boats making it impossible to proceed very fast and as she steamed up bay towards the fleet, there was a continued toot of steam whistles and some boats touched a Chinese anthem in the shape of several bunches of fire crackers.

The party of Americans were ushered into the aft drawing room and waited for some minutes to see the ambassador, in the meantime meeting the members of his staff.

At 10:30 the ship was surrounded by the fleet of boats making it impossible to proceed very fast and as she steamed up bay towards the fleet, there was a continued toot of steam whistles and some boats touched a Chinese anthem in the shape of several bunches of fire crackers.

NO COLOR LINE HERE

NEGRO HEROES OF THE LATE WAR ARE FITTINGLY HONORED BY CITIZENS.

GREEN ARCH IS DEDICATED AT THE HEAD OF SIXTH STREET—A MOST COMMANDING POSITION—TO MEMORY OF NEGRO TROOPS.

The negro citizen of St. Paul has cause for rejoicing, because of the encouragement being held here. It has called forth expressions of admiration and the relating of valiant deeds and heroic efforts made by his race which were unknown to him before, and which assure him that in time to come, when truth gets a hearing and history records his deeds as they are, the American negro's child will rever the black soldier of the late rebellion as the American white child does his revolutionary ancestors.

In my mind's eye I see that great number of dead heroes and martyrs who offered themselves as living sacrifices for the black man's rights looking over the battlements of bliss, and exclaiming: "We did not die in vain."

Then the immortal Abraham Lincoln, by the stroke of whose hand it was made possible for the negroes, not only citizens of St. Paul yesterday afternoon. The monument to the patriotism of the negro is in the form of an arch situated at the corner of Summit avenue and Sixth street, on the line of march of the grand parade, and under which the thousands of veterans who will form the inspiring column on Wednesday next will pass.

In large letters on the west side is the word "Welcome." Both inscriptions are overhung with the Grand Army badge, about which are clustered the national colors, while midway on the pillars are medallions of Lincoln, John Brown, Frederick Douglass and Biddle, the first colored man to shed his blood in the cause of freedom as his troop was passing through the riotous streets of Baltimore on the way to the front.

The exercises opened with the singing of "America" by nearly 300 colored citizens who had assembled to witness the ceremony, following which Mrs. Russell formally presented the arch to the citizens' committee on behalf of the Afro-American citizens of St. Paul, supplementing the formal proceedings with the following address:

"This said all things come in time to those who know how to wait. Prayerfully and patiently for more than three decades the American negro has waited to have extended to him the privilege of publicly showing his gratitude and appreciation for the veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic. Providence decreed that Minnesota should be first in stepping out from the narrow bounds of prejudice and extending this opportunity. Too much praise cannot be bestowed upon the worthy, noble-minded and generous president of the ladies' committee, Mrs. R. M. Newport, and her kind, liberal, broad-minded assistant, Mrs. F. B. Johnson, chairman of the ladies' decoration committee, with whom originated the idea of the negro ladies of St. Paul erecting this arch. Our worthy president, Mrs. J. H. Cloak, seconded by that brave and energetic race-loving little woman, Mrs. J. R. White, with the faithful and earnest workers of their subcommittee point with pride to this magnificent arch, designed by our own eminent artist, Mrs. W. A. Hazel.

Dr. Gallagher Released. LONDON, Aug. 28.—Dr. Thomas Gallagher, of New York, the Irish medical prisoner, was released from Portland prison station, in charge of an infirmary nurse. Tickler was taken for Westport railway station, London, but it is believed that they will stop at Southampton, as it is understood that the United States embassy has booked a passage for Dr. Gallagher on the American line steamship St. Paul, which sails for New York tomorrow. Dr. Gallagher looked very pale and thin, was extremely weak and his hair has turned gray.

Durban Passengers Injured. CONCORD, N. H., Aug. 28.—A passenger train over the White Mountain division of the Boston & Maine road was derailed at the Ferry street crossing, within the city limits last night. The engine, baggage car and second car were wrecked and were badly wrecked. Every occupant of the smoking car was more or less seriously injured, and it is feared that several will die. The injured number about a dozen.

It was under their management that the exercises of yesterday were held. The speakers of the occasion were Mrs. J. E. Cloak, chairman of the memorial committee; Mrs. A. G. Russel, Mrs. Alfred Johnson, Frederick L. McGhee, Mrs. J. R. White and Gen. Mason.

The exercises opened with the singing of "America" by nearly 300 colored citizens who had assembled to witness the ceremony, following which Mrs. Russell formally presented the arch to the citizens' committee on behalf of the Afro-American citizens of St. Paul, supplementing the formal proceedings with the following address:

"This said all things come in time to those who know how to wait. Prayerfully and patiently for more than three decades the American negro has waited to have extended to him the privilege of publicly showing his gratitude and appreciation for the veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic. Providence decreed that Minnesota should be first in stepping out from the narrow bounds of prejudice and extending this opportunity. Too much praise cannot be bestowed upon the worthy, noble-minded and generous president of the ladies' committee, Mrs. R. M. Newport, and her kind, liberal, broad-minded assistant, Mrs. F. B. Johnson, chairman of the ladies' decoration committee, with whom originated the idea of the negro ladies of St. Paul erecting this arch. Our worthy president, Mrs. J. H. Cloak, seconded by that brave and energetic race-loving little woman, Mrs. J. R. White, with the faithful and earnest workers of their subcommittee point with pride to this magnificent arch, designed by our own eminent artist, Mrs. W. A. Hazel.

Dr. Gallagher Released. LONDON, Aug. 28.—Dr. Thomas Gallagher, of New York, the Irish medical prisoner, was released from Portland prison station, in charge of an infirmary nurse. Tickler was taken for Westport railway station, London, but it is believed that they will stop at Southampton, as it is understood that the United States embassy has booked a passage for Dr. Gallagher on the American line steamship St. Paul, which sails for New York tomorrow. Dr. Gallagher looked very pale and thin, was extremely weak and his hair has turned gray.

IT IS A LIVING FLAG

ENCAMPMENT CHORUS IS A TRULY REALISTIC AND INSPIRING COMPANY.

LAST REHEARSAL WAS HELD YESTERDAY AND THE LITTLE PEOPLE ARE READY FOR NEXT WEEK.

PARADE DAY WILL BE MARKED BY A GENERAL CLOSING OF THE WHOLESALE DISTRICT—NOTES

"Here, you youngsters, get down off there; now form in line! So, even now; there, ready, left, right, left, right, march!" and Prof. Congdon marched across the sidewalk floor of the Auditorium, in the lead of a straight little row of dirty and be-overlaid street Arabs, whom he had grabbed from off their perch on the platform where they had been interested listeners of the last rehearsal of the living flag held yesterday in the Auditorium. Prof. Congdon was giving the chorus instructions as to how the members were to march from the building yesterday to the stand on Sixth street, and used the ten little boys whose bare legs dangled from the platform as an illustration of his desires. And they marched across the floor like veterans, "Now children," Prof. Congdon called to the thousands of little ones above him. "Can't you march as well as these boys who have never done such a thing before?" "Yes, sir," came back from the many throats. But they didn't. When the show rehearsal was over the children were warned from the building and formed in the eight abreast, on Minnesota street, and passing up Ninth street to St. Peter marched down St. Peter to the stand on Sixth street. Here they were arranged in their places by Prof. Congdon and a number of assistants from the Central.

The rehearsal of the flower girls was held in Central. Mrs. Congdon yesterday morning and Mrs. Wilkinson was in attendance and took charge of the drill. The 200 young women in the chorus are to be divided into four divisions, responding to the number of divisions of veterans. Maj. Wilkinson yesterday drilled two divisions at a time in single lines which wheeled and marched in the manner of the Grand Army of the Republic. Another drill will be held Monday morning at 10 o'clock. The flower girls will be located at Mrs. Newport's the day of the parade and will be guarded by Maj. Wilkinson and a company of soldiers and every precaution will be taken for their security. Each girl will bring a pretty miniature basket for flowers, the latter being furnished her by Mrs. Newport's. All will bring luncheon. As the veterans arrive at this point a brief halt will be made by each division and also the carrying of the boys and the flowers in their path by a division of the flower girls. The effect will be exceedingly pretty and will be a pleasant feature of the parade for the veterans. Aside from the company of soldiers there will be nurses on the grounds in case any of the young women are overcome by heat or fatigue.

There will be two flag raisings in the city today—one on the West side and one on Dayton's bluff. At 2:30 this afternoon hundreds of children, under the direction of Prof. Congdon will assemble at Prospect terrace and South Wabasha street, from which point a twenty-five foot flag will be raised to the top of the pole. The flag will be raised by the boys and girls of the living flag and will be in the program. A platform has been erected whereon will be seated Mayor Doran, Judge Flanagan, Gen. Mason, R. A. Smith, D. W. Lawler, ex-Gov. Ramsey and many others. Addresses will be made by several of the distinguished persons present. The Children of the Van Buren, Sibley, St. John and German Lutheran schools, together with Selbert's band, will make the music for the ceremonies. The flag raising will be held on Dayton's bluff at 3:30 this afternoon. There will be a salute of forty-five guns fired by Battery A, of St. Paul, under the command of Capt. S. C. Appleby. All the school children will assemble at the Van Buren school at 2:30 to march to the Indian mounds where the flag will be raised on the very highest peak. Prof. Congdon will have charge of the music at this point as well as the West side programme, which is to be earlier. Maria avenue cars run directly to the scene of the ceremony.

This evening Acker post will give a reception to Mrs. John A. Logan at the residence of Mrs. Tucker, on Holly avenue. The reception will be held at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Tucker, and will remain in the city during the encampment. Members of Acker post will assemble at their headquarters at 7 o'clock in their uniforms and after the usual business, will proceed to Mrs. Tucker's residence, accompanied by the Marine band and Prof. Colville's quartette.

Wholesale merchants of the city are going to show their patriotism by closing the doors of their establishments during the parade on Wednesday. This practically means a suspension for the day, and a holiday for the employees of great houses. Although this is the busy season for the wholesale houses, the merchants generally were willing that the day should be observed as a holiday. The closing movement was begun only yesterday and every one so far as seen, subscribed willingly to the proposed plan. The paper will be passed further along the line this morning, and it is not likely there will be any refusals to sign. Those merchants who were seen yesterday and agreed to close were: Finch, Van Slyck, Young & Co., Noyes Bros. and Cutler; Lindbeck, Warner and Schurmer, Scheffer and Rossum, Geo. Benz & Sons, Gordon and Ferguson, Lanpher, Finch and Skinner, Kellough, Johnson, and Gottzian & Co., C. W. Hackett, Harde-Weaver Co., Griggs, Cooper & Co., Foot, Schultz & Co., Tarbox, Schliek & Co.,

There are something like 2,000 applications for seats in the grand stand, and seats for but little more than one-half the number. The committee in response to numerous inquiries, has issued a letter in which he says: "The reception is a public affair. The cards will be issued, but all of them will be given without further notice. All the old soldiers then in the city are especially invited to attend. We also all those who cherish the memory of the brave dead of the old soldiers on behalf of the Union in the war of the rebellion. The dress suit and a restaurant week will be the G. A. R. uniform, and as the old soldiers, people can dress as they please, and so on the old soldiers for a card of invitation. Don't fuss about what you shall wear. Come out and give a friendly hand to our commander-in-chief and his good wife. By the way, the brave and patriotic citizens of our Saintly City can make the opening event one of the greatest pleasures to our distinguished guests."

The reception begins at 8:30 Monday evening, and will be held at the Ryan hotel.

There are something like 2,000 applications for seats in the grand stand, and seats for but little more than one-half the number. The committee in response to numerous inquiries, has issued a letter in which he says: "The reception is a public affair. The cards will be issued, but all of them will be given without further notice. All the old soldiers then in the city are especially invited to attend. We also all those who cherish the memory of the brave dead of the old soldiers on behalf of the Union in the war of the rebellion. The dress suit and a restaurant week will be the G. A. R. uniform, and as the old soldiers, people can dress as they please, and so on the old soldiers for a card of invitation. Don't fuss about what you shall wear. Come out and give a friendly hand to our commander-in-chief and his good wife. By the way, the brave and patriotic citizens of our Saintly City can make the opening event one of the greatest pleasures to our distinguished guests."

The reception begins at 8:30 Monday evening, and will be held at the Ryan hotel.

There are something like 2,000 applications for seats in the grand stand, and seats for but little more than one-half the number. The committee in response to numerous inquiries, has issued a letter in which he says: "The reception is a public affair. The cards will be issued, but all of them will be given without further notice. All the old soldiers then in the city are especially invited to attend. We also all those who cherish the memory of the brave dead of the old soldiers on behalf of the Union in the war of the rebellion. The dress suit and a restaurant week will be the G. A. R. uniform, and as the old soldiers, people can dress as they please, and so on the old soldiers for a card of invitation. Don't fuss about what you shall wear. Come out and give a friendly hand to our commander-in-chief and his good wife. By the way, the brave and patriotic citizens of our Saintly City can make the opening event one of the greatest pleasures to our distinguished guests."

The reception begins at 8:30 Monday evening, and will be held at the Ryan hotel.

There are something like 2,000 applications for seats in the grand stand, and seats for but little more than one-half the number. The committee in response to numerous inquiries, has issued a letter in which he says: "The reception is a public affair. The cards will be issued, but all of them will be given without further notice. All the old soldiers then in the city are especially invited to attend. We also all those who cherish the memory of the brave dead of the old soldiers on behalf of the Union in the war of the rebellion. The dress suit and a restaurant week will be the G. A. R. uniform, and as the old soldiers, people can dress as they please, and so on the old soldiers for a card of invitation. Don't fuss about what you shall wear. Come out and give a friendly hand to our commander-in-chief and his good wife. By the way, the brave and patriotic citizens of our Saintly City can make the opening event one of the greatest pleasures to our distinguished guests."

TURK TO BE OVERTURNED.

Crises in the Eastern Question is Imminent.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—A dispatch to the Chronicle from Rome, says that private letters just received from Constantinople state that the Turkish government is on the eve of being overturned, and that a provisional government will be appointed.

BRYAN TO AID TOWNE. Democratic Presidential Nominee to Speak in Duluth.

DULUTH, Minn., Aug. 28.—Congressman Bryan will speak here on Monday, and in which he states that he will give a speech in Duluth and probably another in St. Paul. He is expected to be here to take place at St. Cloud, and Bryan will be here some time in October.

Dr. Gallagher Released. LONDON, Aug. 28.—Dr. Thomas Gallagher, of New York, the Irish medical prisoner, was released from Portland prison station, in charge of an infirmary nurse. Tickler was taken for Westport railway station, London, but it is believed that they will stop at Southampton, as it is understood that the United States embassy has booked a passage for Dr. Gallagher on the American line steamship St. Paul, which sails for New York tomorrow. Dr. Gallagher looked very pale and thin, was extremely weak and his hair has turned gray.

Durban Passengers Injured. CONCORD, N. H., Aug. 28.—A passenger train over the White Mountain division of the Boston & Maine road was derailed at the Ferry street crossing, within the city limits last night. The engine, baggage car and second car were wrecked and were badly wrecked. Every occupant of the smoking car was more or less seriously injured, and it is feared that several will die. The injured number about a dozen.

There are something like 2,000 applications for seats in the grand stand, and seats for but little more than one-half the number. The committee in response to numerous inquiries, has issued a letter in which he says: "The reception is a public affair. The cards will be issued, but all of them will be given without further notice. All the old soldiers then in the city are especially invited to attend. We also all those who cherish the memory of the brave dead of the old soldiers on behalf of the Union in the war of the rebellion. The dress suit and a restaurant week will be the G. A. R. uniform, and as the old soldiers, people can dress as they please, and so on the old soldiers for a card of invitation. Don't fuss about what you shall wear. Come out and give a friendly hand to our commander-in-chief and his good wife. By the way, the brave and patriotic citizens of our Saintly City can make the opening event one of the greatest pleasures to our distinguished guests."

The reception begins at 8:30 Monday evening, and will be held at the Ryan hotel.

There are something like 2,000 applications for seats in the grand stand, and seats for but little more than one-half the number. The committee in response to numerous inquiries, has issued a letter in which he says: "The reception is a public affair. The cards will be issued, but all of them will be given without further notice. All the old soldiers then in the city are especially invited to attend. We also all those who cherish the memory of the brave dead of the old soldiers on behalf of the Union in the war of the rebellion. The dress suit and a restaurant week will be the G. A. R. uniform, and as the old soldiers, people can dress as they please, and so on the old soldiers for a card of invitation. Don't fuss about what you shall wear. Come out and give a friendly hand to our commander-in-chief and his good wife. By the way, the brave and patriotic citizens of our Saintly City can make the opening event one of the greatest pleasures to our distinguished guests."

The reception begins at 8:30 Monday evening, and will be held at the Ryan hotel.

There are something like 2,000 applications for seats in the grand stand, and seats for but little more than one-half the number. The committee in response to numerous inquiries, has issued a letter in which he says: "The reception is a public affair. The cards will be issued, but all of them will be given without further notice. All the old soldiers then in the city are especially invited to attend. We also all those who cherish the memory of the brave dead of the old soldiers on behalf of the Union in the war of the rebellion. The dress suit and a restaurant week will be the G. A. R. uniform, and as the old soldiers, people can dress as they please, and so on the old soldiers for a card of invitation. Don't fuss about what you shall wear. Come out and give a friendly hand to our commander-in-chief and his good wife. By the way, the brave and patriotic citizens of our Saintly City can make the opening event one of the greatest pleasures to our distinguished guests."

The reception begins at 8:30 Monday evening, and will be held at the Ryan hotel.

There are something like 2,000 applications for seats in the grand stand, and seats for but little more than one-half the number. The committee in response to numerous inquiries, has issued a letter in which he says: "The reception is a public affair. The cards will be issued, but all of them will be given without further notice. All the old soldiers then in the city are especially invited to attend. We also all those who cherish the memory of the brave dead of the old soldiers on behalf of the Union in the war of the rebellion. The dress suit and a restaurant week will be the G. A. R. uniform, and as the old soldiers, people can dress as they please, and so on the old soldiers for a card of invitation. Don't fuss about what you shall wear. Come out and give a friendly hand to our commander-in-chief and his good wife. By the way, the brave and patriotic citizens of our Saintly City can make the opening event one of the greatest pleasures to our distinguished guests."

The reception begins at 8:30 Monday evening, and will be held at the Ryan hotel.

There are something like 2,000 applications for seats in the grand stand, and seats for but little more than one-half the number. The committee in response to numerous inquiries, has issued a letter in which he says: "The reception is a public affair. The cards will be issued, but all of them will be given without further notice. All the old soldiers then in the city are especially invited to attend. We also all those who cherish the memory of the brave dead of the old soldiers on behalf of the Union in the war of the rebellion. The dress suit and a restaurant week will be the G. A. R. uniform, and as the old soldiers, people can dress as they please, and so on the old soldiers for a card of invitation. Don't fuss about what you shall wear. Come out and give a friendly hand to our commander-in-chief and his good wife. By the way, the brave and patriotic citizens of our Saintly City can make the opening event one of the greatest pleasures to our distinguished guests."

The reception begins at 8:30 Monday evening, and will be held at the Ryan hotel.

WELCOME EXTENDED.

The Dolphin steamed down the bay, with Gen. Ruger and the guests on board, shortly after 10 o'clock, and at 10:30 she dropped anchor off quarantine, awaiting the arrival of the St. Louis. The latter arrived at quarantine at 12:30 and was immediately boarded by the government welcoming officers from the cruiser Dolphin, to extend to the Chinese statesman, in behalf of President Cleveland, a welcome to the United States.

When the St. Louis reached Quarantine, Li Hung Chang was dining, and he and his guests called for the steamer was surrounded by the fleet of boats making it impossible to proceed very fast and as she steamed up bay towards the fleet, there was a continued toot of steam whistles and some boats touched a Chinese anthem in the shape of several bunches of fire crackers.

The party of Americans were ushered into the aft drawing room and waited for some minutes to see the ambassador, in the meantime meeting the members of his staff. Li Hung Chang went to the aft drawing room and waited for some minutes to see the ambassador, in the meantime meeting the members of his staff.

At 10:30 the ship was surrounded by the fleet of boats making it impossible to proceed very fast and as she steamed up bay towards the fleet, there was a continued toot of steam whistles and some boats touched a Chinese anthem in the shape of several bunches of fire crackers.

The party of Americans were ushered into the aft drawing room and waited for some minutes to see the ambassador, in the meantime meeting the members of his staff.

At 10:30 the ship was surrounded by the fleet of boats making it impossible to proceed very fast and as she steamed up bay towards the fleet, there was a continued toot of steam whistles and some boats touched a Chinese anthem in the shape of several bunches of fire crackers.

The party of Americans were ushered into the aft drawing room and waited for some minutes to see the ambassador, in the meantime meeting the members of his staff.

At 10:30 the ship was surrounded by the fleet of boats making it impossible to proceed very fast and as she steamed up bay towards the fleet, there was a continued toot of steam whistles and some boats touched a Chinese anthem in the shape of several bunches of fire crackers.

The party of Americans were ushered into the aft drawing room and waited for some minutes to see the ambassador, in the meantime meeting the members of his staff.

At 10:30 the ship was surrounded by the fleet of boats making it impossible to proceed very fast and as she steamed up bay towards the fleet, there was a continued toot of steam whistles and some boats touched a Chinese anthem in the shape of several bunches of fire crackers.

The party of Americans were ushered into the aft drawing room and waited for some minutes to see the ambassador, in the meantime meeting the members of his staff.

At 10:30 the ship was surrounded by the fleet of boats making it impossible to proceed very fast and as she steamed up bay towards the fleet, there was a continued toot of steam whistles and some boats touched a Chinese anthem in the shape of several bunches of fire crackers.

The party of Americans were ushered into the aft drawing room and waited for some minutes to see the ambassador, in the meantime meeting the members of his staff.

At 10:30 the ship was surrounded by the fleet of boats making it impossible to proceed very fast and as she steamed up bay towards the fleet, there was a continued toot of steam whistles and some boats touched a Chinese anthem in the shape of several bunches of fire crackers.

The party of Americans were ushered into the aft drawing room and waited for some minutes to see the ambassador, in the meantime meeting the members of his staff.

THE WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS.

RECEPTION IN PHILADELPHIA HALL, SIXTH AND ROBERT STREETS, TUESDAY AFTERNOON FROM 3 TO 6.

The ladies of the G. A. R. will hold a reception in Philadelphia hall, Sixth and Robert streets, Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 6.

Officers at the central police headquarters are patriotic even if the encampment does mean eighteen hours daily duty for them. The city did not seem disposed to appropriate any money for the ornamental part of the headquarters on Third street, and the officers who travel out of the old barracks concluded they would buy the new up-to-date paper was passed and each blue coat chipped in a small sum. The result was sufficient to make a creditable showing, and the police

There are something like 2,000 applications for seats in the grand stand, and seats for but little more than one-half the number. The committee in response to numerous inquiries, has issued a letter in which he says: "The reception is a public affair. The cards will be issued, but all of them will be given without further notice. All the old soldiers then in the city are especially invited to attend. We also all those who cherish the memory of the brave dead of the old soldiers on behalf of the Union in the war of the rebellion. The dress suit and a restaurant week will be the G. A. R. uniform, and as the old soldiers, people can dress as they please, and so on the old soldiers for a card of invitation. Don't fuss about what you shall wear. Come out and give a friendly hand to our commander-in-chief and his good wife. By the way, the brave and patriotic citizens of our Saintly City can make the opening event one of the greatest pleasures to our distinguished guests."

The reception begins at 8:30 Monday evening, and will be held at the Ryan hotel.

There are something like 2,000 applications for seats in the grand stand, and seats for but little more than one-half the number. The committee in response to numerous inquiries, has issued a letter in which he says: "The reception is a public affair. The cards will be issued, but all of them will be given without further notice. All the old soldiers then in the city are especially invited to attend. We also all those who cherish the memory of the brave dead of the old soldiers on behalf of the Union in the war of the rebellion. The dress suit and a restaurant week will be the G. A. R. uniform, and as the old soldiers, people can dress as they please, and so on the old soldiers for a card of invitation. Don't fuss about what you shall wear. Come out and give a friendly hand to our commander-in-chief and his good wife. By the way, the brave and patriotic citizens of our Saintly City can make the opening event one of the greatest pleasures to our distinguished guests."

The reception begins at 8:30 Monday evening, and will be held at the Ryan hotel.

There are something like 2,000 applications for seats in the grand stand, and seats for but little more than one-half the number. The committee in response to numerous inquiries, has issued a letter in which he says: "The reception is a public affair. The cards will be issued, but all of them will be given without further notice. All the old soldiers then in the city are especially invited to attend. We also all those who cherish the memory of the brave dead of the old soldiers on behalf of the Union in the war of the rebellion. The dress suit and a restaurant week will be the G. A. R. uniform, and as the old soldiers, people can dress as they please, and so on the old soldiers for a card of invitation. Don't fuss about what you shall wear. Come out and give a friendly hand to our commander-in-chief and his good wife. By the way, the brave and patriotic citizens of our Saintly City can make the opening event one of the greatest pleasures to our distinguished guests."

The reception begins at 8:30 Monday evening, and will be held at the Ryan hotel.

There are something like 2,000 applications for seats in the grand stand, and seats for but little more than one-half the number. The committee in response to numerous inquiries, has issued a letter in which he says: "The reception is a public affair. The cards will be issued, but all of them will be given without further notice. All the old soldiers then in the city are especially invited to attend. We also all those who cherish the memory of the brave dead of the old soldiers on behalf of the Union in the war of the rebellion. The dress suit and a restaurant week will be the G. A. R. uniform, and as the old soldiers, people can dress as they please, and so on the old soldiers for a card of invitation. Don't fuss about what you shall wear. Come out and give a friendly hand to our commander-in-chief and his good wife. By the way, the brave and patriotic citizens of our Saintly City can make the opening event one of the greatest pleasures to our distinguished guests."

The reception begins at 8:30 Monday evening, and will be held at the Ryan hotel.

There are something like 2,000 applications for seats in the grand stand, and seats for but little more than one-half the number. The committee in response to numerous inquiries, has issued a letter in which he says: "The reception is a public affair. The cards will be issued, but all of them will be given without further notice. All the old soldiers then in the city are especially invited to attend. We also all those who cherish the memory of the brave dead of the old soldiers on behalf of the Union in the war of the rebellion. The dress suit and a restaurant week will be the G. A. R. uniform, and as the old soldiers, people can dress as they please, and so on the old soldiers for a card of invitation. Don't fuss about what you shall wear. Come out and give a friendly hand to our commander-in-chief and his good wife. By the way, the brave and patriotic citizens of our Saintly City can make the opening event one of the greatest pleasures to our distinguished guests."