

BULLETIN OF THE ST. PAUL GLOBE.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 17.

Weather for Today—Fair; Northerly Winds.

PAGE 1.

Cockran Talks to Thousands. Oration to Daniel W. Lawler. Empire State Convention. Tammany Denies Fusion Talk. Sewall Declines to Withdraw.

PAGE 2.

Work of the Physicians. Minnesota Editors Return.

PAGE 3.

News of Minneapolis. Donaldson's Military Opening. Bryan Tours in Two States.

PAGE 4.

Editorial. Silver and the Farmer.

PAGE 5.

Millers Give the Tigers One. Blues and Hoosiers Break Even. Columbus Defeats Milwaukee. Tynan Not the Real "No. 1."

PAGE 6.

Bourke Cockran's Speech Continued.

PAGE 7.

Bar Silver 65 1/2c. Cash Wheat in Chicago 50 1/2c. Stocks Weakening. Wants of the People.

PAGE 8.

Increase in Hennepin Valuations. Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show. Inspection Begun at Sandstone.

PAGE 9.

Met-Tar and Tarrar 8.15. Grand-Charley's Aunt 8.15. University At-Will West 2, 8. First Swedish Ch.-Concert 8.15.

PAGE 10.

MOVEMENT OF STEAMSHIPS.

NEW YORK—Arrived: Majestic, Liverpool; Hekla, Copenhagen; Werra, Genoa; Muehen, Bremen; Spree, Bremen; Sailed: Paris, Southampton; Kensington, Antwerp; Britannic, Liverpool. LIVERPOOL—Arrived: Angolan, Montreal. BREMEN—Arrived: H. H. Mester, New York. GIBRALTAR—Arrived: Georgian, Boston. GIBRALTAR—Arrived: Bolivia, New York for Marquette. QUEENSTOWN—Sailed: Aurania, New York. SOUTHAMPTON—Arrived: St. Paul, New York. Sailed: Lahn, New York.

The Sewall barrel was evidently headed up and fully guarded.

Many of the middle-of-the-road speeches are made on the curb.

Well, rub Tynan off the board. The public isn't interested in him any more.

Hetty Green is in Chicago. The town isn't escorting her around with a brass band, however.

The fellows who are fighting for the old flag and an appropriation are about as numerous as ever.

Even the Republicans of Wisconsin would not object to fusing if something feasible would come in sight.

Uncle Sam is coming up to Christmas feeling quite chipper. He has $114,271,705 in his gold reserve now.

At last Taubeneck is up where those who want to can shoot at him. He is on the fusion electoral ticket in Illinois.

At the same time it should not be forgotten that there are states in the union that can speak louder than Maine.

Jupiter Pluvius is entitled to the thanks of this town. He prevented the St. Paul team from getting a licking yesterday.

Tom Watson has struck Wahoo, Neb. It is the general impression that Wahoo isn't far from Waterloo. Move on, Watson!

Wautoma, Wis., boasts that it is the leading free silver town of the union. A canvass shows that every voter in the place is for sound money.

The question, Will Sewall resign? appears to be in everybody's mouth. If he is a brave man, he will stick to it and take his medicine with the rest.

The silver Democrats of New York have fused with the Populists. As the Populist vote of the state is only 11,000, it appears to be a case of "misery loves company."

William E. Curtis, one of the Chicago Record's commission of inquiry to Mexico, writes that the happiness and prosperity of Mexico are largely dependent upon corn. Lumber, ore, labor, everything, in fact, depends upon the price of corn.

A California woman who took in washing worth $15,000 in a lottery, whereupon her husband refused longer to work, and secured her illegal incarceration in an insane asylum. Moral: Do not buy lottery tickets, but keep on taking in washing.

A pretty New York girl asked Chauncey M. Depew to buy her a wedding trousseau. He thought it was a joke that she wasn't in the habit of doing things in niggardly fashion, paid $150 for it. The first baby in the new home will be called Chauncey.

A St. Louis girl has sued Chris Von der Ahe, the famous base ballist, for $10,000 for promising to marry her and then going over to Erie, Pa., and making a girl of that town his wife. All St. Louis hopes he will have to pay for failing to patronize home industry.

When Whitelaw Reid told the Republican editors of Ohio that "to pay the national bonds" was "in silver" was a simple robbery," had he forgotten that Mr. McKinley voted for just that robbery in 1877? Or does he think that paying bonds in silver depreciated thirteen cents on the dollar is not robbery and it only becomes forty-seven cents? Or had he forgotten that McKinley voted for the Stanley Matthews resolution?

FOR A MILLION VOTERS.

Bourke Cockran Pleads the Sound Money Cause Before an Audience of 8,000 in Minneapolis.

HIS ORATORY FIRES THEIR ENTHUSIASM

As He Translates Some of the Nebraska Man's Utterances on Free Silver From Bryanese Into English.

D. W. LAWLER RECEIVES AN OVATION

When He Appears on the Same Platform Where Four Years Ago He Sought the People's Suffrages.

Eight thousand people cheered the sentiments uttered by W. Bourke Cockran, eloquent but weak and hoarse in voice, in the Minneapolis exposition building last night. More than that number thronged the streets about the great structure unable to gain admittance. Thousands of persons who held tickets of admission found the doors closed against them. Men in uniform, bearing torches, bands by the dozen, women and children, were in the throng that surged and swayed before the closed doors, and vented its disappointment in cheers for Cockran and sound money. Inside the great hall, with every seat occupied and hundreds standing, the enthusiasm was almost as great as in the streets outside. The platform was occupied by distinguished persons from all ranks and professions. The body of the hall was set apart for uniformed bodies, while in the galleries were those fortunate ones who gained admission and found seats long before the parade had closed. Prominent among those seated on the stage were:

Dr. J. E. Schade, Platt B. Walker, Tams Bixby, Judge Kerr, R. Rev. John Ireland, H. W. Brown, H. P. Stevens, G. G. Ackley, Rev. Fr. McNulty, Frank Nye, Dr. Thomas McDavid, W. G. Byron, C. C. Edger, J. Edgar Kane, M. D. Mann, Albert Berg, Eli Warner, R. G. Evans, J. H. Sheehan, A. B. Barton, Dr. Walter Courtney, George Foster, Dr. J. F. Fulton, J. E. Phelps, Geo. H. Thompson, James Gray, Frank M. Griggs, G. W. Newell, W. C. McLean, E. J. Phelps, Carl Taylor, John Broderick, H. H. Thayer, H. E. Knight, Henry Johns, Mayor Pratt, M. D. Grover, J. H. Enright, Lodge Thomas Wilson, Rev. Fr. Christie, Loren Fletcher, G. L. Keyser, Dr. J. E. Fretz, G. M. Pfeiffer, Judge Lochren, C. A. Pillsbury, J. H. Elliott, John C. MacMillan, John C. Oswald, Louis Hull, J. H. McLaughlin, J. W. Griffin, Cyrus Northrop, J. S. Shaw, J. H. Howard, C. K. Prior, R. R. Woodard, F. R. Thompson, G. E. Farnestock, George C. Fisher, A. G. Paul, E. J. Miller, Capt. Snider, C. A. Brackett, Judge Elliott, Wm. A. E. Wells, James Easton, N. D. A. Gelles, Manchester, E. J. West, Gov. Tate, Winona.

There were several curious coincidences in connection with the gathering in Exposition hall last night. The meeting was held on the same spot as the one held four years ago when William McKinley refused to permit his name to go before the Republican National convention.

The question, Will Sewall resign? appears to be in everybody's mouth. If he is a brave man, he will stick to it and take his medicine with the rest.

The silver Democrats of New York have fused with the Populists. As the Populist vote of the state is only 11,000, it appears to be a case of "misery loves company."

William E. Curtis, one of the Chicago Record's commission of inquiry to Mexico, writes that the happiness and prosperity of Mexico are largely dependent upon corn. Lumber, ore, labor, everything, in fact, depends upon the price of corn.

A California woman who took in washing worth $15,000 in a lottery, whereupon her husband refused longer to work, and secured her illegal incarceration in an insane asylum. Moral: Do not buy lottery tickets, but keep on taking in washing.

A pretty New York girl asked Chauncey M. Depew to buy her a wedding trousseau. He thought it was a joke that she wasn't in the habit of doing things in niggardly fashion, paid $150 for it. The first baby in the new home will be called Chauncey.

A St. Louis girl has sued Chris Von der Ahe, the famous base ballist, for $10,000 for promising to marry her and then going over to Erie, Pa., and making a girl of that town his wife. All St. Louis hopes he will have to pay for failing to patronize home industry.

When Whitelaw Reid told the Republican editors of Ohio that "to pay the national bonds" was "in silver" was a simple robbery," had he forgotten that Mr. McKinley voted for just that robbery in 1877? Or does he think that paying bonds in silver depreciated thirteen cents on the dollar is not robbery and it only becomes forty-seven cents? Or had he forgotten that McKinley voted for the Stanley Matthews resolution?

When Whitelaw Reid told the Republican editors of Ohio that "to pay the national bonds" was "in silver" was a simple robbery," had he forgotten that Mr. McKinley voted for just that robbery in 1877? Or does he think that paying bonds in silver depreciated thirteen cents on the dollar is not robbery and it only becomes forty-seven cents? Or had he forgotten that McKinley voted for the Stanley Matthews resolution?

When Whitelaw Reid told the Republican editors of Ohio that "to pay the national bonds" was "in silver" was a simple robbery," had he forgotten that Mr. McKinley voted for just that robbery in 1877? Or does he think that paying bonds in silver depreciated thirteen cents on the dollar is not robbery and it only becomes forty-seven cents? Or had he forgotten that McKinley voted for the Stanley Matthews resolution?

When Whitelaw Reid told the Republican editors of Ohio that "to pay the national bonds" was "in silver" was a simple robbery," had he forgotten that Mr. McKinley voted for just that robbery in 1877? Or does he think that paying bonds in silver depreciated thirteen cents on the dollar is not robbery and it only becomes forty-seven cents? Or had he forgotten that McKinley voted for the Stanley Matthews resolution?

When Whitelaw Reid told the Republican editors of Ohio that "to pay the national bonds" was "in silver" was a simple robbery," had he forgotten that Mr. McKinley voted for just that robbery in 1877? Or does he think that paying bonds in silver depreciated thirteen cents on the dollar is not robbery and it only becomes forty-seven cents? Or had he forgotten that McKinley voted for the Stanley Matthews resolution?

When Whitelaw Reid told the Republican editors of Ohio that "to pay the national bonds" was "in silver" was a simple robbery," had he forgotten that Mr. McKinley voted for just that robbery in 1877? Or does he think that paying bonds in silver depreciated thirteen cents on the dollar is not robbery and it only becomes forty-seven cents? Or had he forgotten that McKinley voted for the Stanley Matthews resolution?

When Whitelaw Reid told the Republican editors of Ohio that "to pay the national bonds" was "in silver" was a simple robbery," had he forgotten that Mr. McKinley voted for just that robbery in 1877? Or does he think that paying bonds in silver depreciated thirteen cents on the dollar is not robbery and it only becomes forty-seven cents? Or had he forgotten that McKinley voted for the Stanley Matthews resolution?

When Whitelaw Reid told the Republican editors of Ohio that "to pay the national bonds" was "in silver" was a simple robbery," had he forgotten that Mr. McKinley voted for just that robbery in 1877? Or does he think that paying bonds in silver depreciated thirteen cents on the dollar is not robbery and it only becomes forty-seven cents? Or had he forgotten that McKinley voted for the Stanley Matthews resolution?

When Whitelaw Reid told the Republican editors of Ohio that "to pay the national bonds" was "in silver" was a simple robbery," had he forgotten that Mr. McKinley voted for just that robbery in 1877? Or does he think that paying bonds in silver depreciated thirteen cents on the dollar is not robbery and it only becomes forty-seven cents? Or had he forgotten that McKinley voted for the Stanley Matthews resolution?

NEW YORK POSITION

REPORT THAT A DEAL WAS CLOSED DENIED BY TAMMANY LEADERS.

THERE IS ONE IN PROSPECT.

POPULISTS CLAIM THEIR AID WILL CARRY THE STATE FOR BRYAN.

SITUATION AT BUFFALO.

Not Very Greatly Changed and Boyd Thacher is Still the Probable Nominee.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 16.—The platform of the Democratic party in the state as drafted tonight, will have as its first proposition this statement:

The Democrats of the state of New York in convention assembled, do hereby unreservedly endorse and approve the platform adopted by the national convention at Chicago, and we hereby unanimously approve the nomination of William Jennings Bryan, Arthur Sewall, and pledge them our earnest support.

Tonight Tammany hall voted 98 to 1 to act as a unit in the convention, despite the opposition of the Sulzer influences on the outside. It is thought the full strength of Tammany will be cast for Thacher for governor.

The end of the first day's session of the Democratic state convention has not disturbed, in any great measure, the forecast that had been predicted. The conditions tonight, however, are interesting because of the interlarded fights, which, while good-natured upon their surface, are not wanting in internal bitterness.

The principal strife tonight is to prevent the adoption of the unit rule, and prevent thereby the nomination of any candidate without a fair and open fight. Particularly are the friends of Congressman Sulzer striving to this end. It is reasonably certain tonight that the ticket will be:

For Governor—John Boyd Thacher, of Albany. For Lieutenant Governor—Ernest Major Ryan, of Syracuse.

For Judge of the Court of Appeals—Robert C. Titus, of Buffalo. For National Committeeman—Frank Campbell, of Buffalo.

Complications may arise, however, which will change any name on the ticket, with the possible exception of Judge Titus. The planning of the candidacy of Mr. Thacher has been in the hands of Anthony N. Brady, of Albany, the president of several large corporations and a stockholder in the Chicago Gas company. This fact has arrayed the more radical free silverites against Mr. Thacher, and they are claiming many pledges.

The greatest excitement of the day was the announcement of the Chicago platform and candidates, which Senator Hill's friends had been active in assisting the Populists. The story came directly from the chairman of the Populist committee of five, consisting of Col. A. Flske, of Denver; C. E. Matthews, of Buffalo; D. M. Druseau, of New York city; Lawrence I. Mohr, of Buffalo; and George W. Phelan, former secretary of the national committee of the People's party, and C. R. White, president of the Farmers' Alliance.

A conference was held with Elliott Danforth, and Mr. Flske said after that was over: "It was agreed that the Populists would support the nominees of the platform of the convention, no matter who the nominees were. In return for this support they will be allowed to name five presidential electors."

We told Mr. Danforth that we would support the platform of this state either way, and are sure that the union with the Democratic party will result in Bryan and Sewall carrying New York state by a large majority.

Mr. Danforth said: "Mr. Flske did see me, but I gave him no decided answer, as one of his conditions was that Mr. Flske should be chairman of the committee of appeals. I agreed to see him again."

To this Mr. McPharlin said: "We certainly understood Mr. Danforth to say that he would favor such a fusion."

At 5 o'clock this afternoon another meeting was held at Mr. Danforth's rooms and the matter talked over. Mr. Danforth said: "The Populists are again. They asked me if, as chairman of the state committee, I would favor fusion. I told them that I could not answer the question, as I was not chairman. I assured them that we would like to make some arrangements with them. I thought that to get some of the electors upon the ticket they should work directly with the chairman. They said they would try, and I assured them that I would help them."

The Populists say that the interviews were very satisfactory to them and the general impression is that they will be for the ticket.

It appears to be a fact that two sets of resolutions were prepared on the convention by their submission to the convention. One set which Elliott Danforth has in charge, is said to have the approval of Senators Hill and Murphy and Chairman Jones of the Democratic national committee. The latter, it is said, is willing to accept a qualified endorsement of the Chicago convention platform, if by the adoption of a gold standard Democratic ticket can be avoided. Congressman Sulzer and others of the radical silverites declare, however, that there shall be no half-hearted endorsement, and that the party must be freed from the domination of those who are designated as "kickers" and the distinction is further made that the state organization will be made up independent of those who took part in the revolt at Chicago.

CONVENTION ORGANIZED.

It was 12:30 o'clock when Chairman Hinkley rapped the convention to order and announced that the state committee had selected State Senator Thomas F. Grady for temporary chairman and George W. Phelan for secretary for a period of about twenty minutes in part said:

"As my representatives of Democratic constituencies have assembled to again discuss the question of the principles and your respect for Democratic authority and your faith in Democratic success. In this respect you differ from some who were for many years associated with you, using their profession of Democracy as a mask under which to conceal the purely selfish character of their political actions, and who are now leagued with your political opponents, designing Democratic principles, denying Democratic authority and aiding, in so far as they may, to defeat the Democratic candidate."

"It is a shame Democracy that subverts to the will of the majority only when no selfish interest is affected or sacrificed in so doing. It is a shame Democracy which sets up the opinions of a few as entitled to control, because of wealth, culture, or pedigree, or those by whom such opinions are held. It is a shame Democracy which has for its purpose the undue enrichment of a single individual, upon the single condition of an international agreement, and to

But, my friends, Mr. Bryan entirely misapprehends the condition under which the most for labor are fixed. On that subject he is as innocent as might well be expected of any young gentleman who has never traveled very far from a Nebraska farm. The difficulty under which he is laboring is not a reduction of the price. When wages are less, employment is hardest to find; when wages are high employment is easiest to find. It is not a question of the price of labor, but of the fact that labor can only be

His Own Statement.

In his speech at Madison Square Garden he laid it down that if the employer would consent to take a cheaper dollar he would have a better opportunity for employment, and if he took a cheaper dollar he would have a better opportunity for employment. Now that statement is not original with Mr. Bryan. There never yet was an employer who would consent to accept the wages of his employees that did not declare that unless he accepted a reduction of the price of labor he should engage in a strike.

Now that statement is not original with Mr. Bryan. There never yet was an employer who would consent to accept the wages of his employees that did not declare that unless he accepted a reduction of the price of labor he should engage in a strike.

Now that statement is not original with Mr. Bryan. There never yet was an employer who would consent to accept the wages of his employees that did not declare that unless he accepted a reduction of the price of labor he should engage in a strike.

Now that statement is not original with Mr. Bryan. There never yet was an employer who would consent to accept the wages of his employees that did not declare that unless he accepted a reduction of the price of labor he should engage in a strike.

Now that statement is not original with Mr. Bryan. There never yet was an employer who would consent to accept the wages of his employees that did not declare that unless he accepted a reduction of the price of labor he should engage in a strike.

SEWALL WON'T GO

CHAIRMAN JONES SAYS THE MAINE MAN WILL NOT BE WITHDRAWN.

NO NEWS OF MR. WATSON.

MANAGER OF THE DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN KNOWS NOTHING OF TOM'S PLANS.

GORMAN WILL NOT RUN THINGS.

While Denying Mr. Jones Said There Was No Truth in Rumor of His Retirement.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—Chairman Jones, of the Democratic national campaign committee, arrived in the city tonight from the East. He said positively there was no likelihood of the withdrawal of Mr. Sewall from the ticket. As to what Mr. Watson will do, he said, he did not know. The report telegraphed from the East yesterday to the effect that the chairman was about to resign from the position he now holds, and let Senator Gorman run the campaign from now on until election, he declared to be utterly without foundation. "I am going to stay right where I am," he said, "and I do not want to think Senator Gorman will come West during the progress of the campaign."

He said that he had made a careful canvass of the situation while in the East and in his opinion Bryan would carry the state of New York without much trouble. George F. Washburn, chairman of the Westchester branch of the Populist national committee, and its representative to discuss the subject for the reason that Jones is placed no credence, he said, in the published account of what Chairman Jones has reported to the effect that he had made a careful canvass of the situation while in the East and in his opinion Bryan would carry the state of New York without much trouble.

Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not withdraw, but I am not prepared to say whether he would prove acceptable to our people. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of his withdrawal, and I think it is probable after Senator Jones' return, he will be awaited upon by some of our people and urged to bring about Mr. Sewall's retirement."

Mr. Watson will not get off the ticket," he said, "nor will his party countenance the withdrawal of Jones. It is to take his place should he be entirely acceptable to him and his party. Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not withdraw, but I am not prepared to say whether he would prove acceptable to our people. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of his withdrawal, and I think it is probable after Senator Jones' return, he will be awaited upon by some of our people and urged to bring about Mr. Sewall's retirement."

Mr. Watson will not get off the ticket," he said, "nor will his party countenance the withdrawal of Jones. It is to take his place should he be entirely acceptable to him and his party. Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not withdraw, but I am not prepared to say whether he would prove acceptable to our people. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of his withdrawal, and I think it is probable after Senator Jones' return, he will be awaited upon by some of our people and urged to bring about Mr. Sewall's retirement."

Mr. Watson will not get off the ticket," he said, "nor will his party countenance the withdrawal of Jones. It is to take his place should he be entirely acceptable to him and his party. Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not withdraw, but I am not prepared to say whether he would prove acceptable to our people. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of his withdrawal, and I think it is probable after Senator Jones' return, he will be awaited upon by some of our people and urged to bring about Mr. Sewall's retirement."

Mr. Watson will not get off the ticket," he said, "nor will his party countenance the withdrawal of Jones. It is to take his place should he be entirely acceptable to him and his party. Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not withdraw, but I am not prepared to say whether he would prove acceptable to our people. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of his withdrawal, and I think it is probable after Senator Jones' return, he will be awaited upon by some of our people and urged to bring about Mr. Sewall's retirement."

Mr. Watson will not get off the ticket," he said, "nor will his party countenance the withdrawal of Jones. It is to take his place should he be entirely acceptable to him and his party. Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not withdraw, but I am not prepared to say whether he would prove acceptable to our people. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of his withdrawal, and I think it is probable after Senator Jones' return, he will be awaited upon by some of our people and urged to bring about Mr. Sewall's retirement."

Mr. Watson will not get off the ticket," he said, "nor will his party countenance the withdrawal of Jones. It is to take his place should he be entirely acceptable to him and his party. Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not withdraw, but I am not prepared to say whether he would prove acceptable to our people. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of his withdrawal, and I think it is probable after Senator Jones' return, he will be awaited upon by some of our people and urged to bring about Mr. Sewall's retirement."

Mr. Watson will not get off the ticket," he said, "nor will his party countenance the withdrawal of Jones. It is to take his place should he be entirely acceptable to him and his party. Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not withdraw, but I am not prepared to say whether he would prove acceptable to our people. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of his withdrawal, and I think it is probable after Senator Jones' return, he will be awaited upon by some of our people and urged to bring about Mr. Sewall's retirement."

Mr. Watson will not get off the ticket," he said, "nor will his party countenance the withdrawal of Jones. It is to take his place should he be entirely acceptable to him and his party. Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not withdraw, but I am not prepared to say whether he would prove acceptable to our people. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of his withdrawal, and I think it is probable after Senator Jones' return, he will be awaited upon by some of our people and urged to bring about Mr. Sewall's retirement."

Mr. Watson will not get off the ticket," he said, "nor will his party countenance the withdrawal of Jones. It is to take his place should he be entirely acceptable to him and his party. Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not withdraw, but I am not prepared to say whether he would prove acceptable to our people. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of his withdrawal, and I think it is probable after Senator Jones' return, he will be awaited upon by some of our people and urged to bring about Mr. Sewall's retirement."

Mr. Watson will not get off the ticket," he said, "nor will his party countenance the withdrawal of Jones. It is to take his place should he be entirely acceptable to him and his party. Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not withdraw, but I am not prepared to say whether he would prove acceptable to our people. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of his withdrawal, and I think it is probable after Senator Jones' return, he will be awaited upon by some of our people and urged to bring about Mr. Sewall's retirement."

Mr. Watson will not get off the ticket," he said, "nor will his party countenance the withdrawal of Jones. It is to take his place should he be entirely acceptable to him and his party. Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not withdraw, but I am not prepared to say whether he would prove acceptable to our people. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of his withdrawal, and I think it is probable after Senator Jones' return, he will be awaited upon by some of our people and urged to bring about Mr. Sewall's retirement."

Mr. Watson will not get off the ticket," he said, "nor will his party countenance the withdrawal of Jones. It is to take his place should he be entirely acceptable to him and his party. Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not withdraw, but I am not prepared to say whether he would prove acceptable to our people. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of his withdrawal, and I think it is probable after Senator Jones' return, he will be awaited upon by some of our people and urged to bring about Mr. Sewall's retirement."

Mr. Watson will not get off the ticket," he said, "nor will his party countenance the withdrawal of Jones. It is to take his place should he be entirely acceptable to him and his party. Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not withdraw, but I am not prepared to say whether he would prove acceptable to our people. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of his withdrawal, and I think it is probable after Senator Jones' return, he will be awaited upon by some of our people and urged to bring about Mr. Sewall's retirement."

Mr. Watson will not get off the ticket," he said, "nor will his party countenance the withdrawal of Jones. It is to take his place should he be entirely acceptable to him and his party. Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not withdraw, but I am not prepared to say whether he would prove acceptable to our people. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of his withdrawal, and I think it is probable after Senator Jones' return, he will be awaited upon by some of our people and urged to bring about Mr. Sewall's retirement."

Mr. Watson will not get off the ticket," he said, "nor will his party countenance the withdrawal of Jones. It is to take his place should he be entirely acceptable to him and his party. Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not withdraw, but I am not prepared to say whether he would prove acceptable to our people. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of his withdrawal, and I think it is probable after Senator Jones' return, he will be awaited upon by some of our people and urged to bring about Mr. Sewall's retirement."

Mr. Watson will not get off the ticket," he said, "nor will his party countenance the withdrawal of Jones. It is to take his place should he be entirely acceptable to him and his party. Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not withdraw, but I am not prepared to say whether he would prove acceptable to our people. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of his withdrawal, and I think it is probable after Senator Jones' return, he will be awaited upon by some of our people and urged to bring about Mr. Sewall's retirement."

Mr. Watson will not get off the ticket," he said, "nor will his party countenance the withdrawal of Jones. It is to take his place should he be entirely acceptable to him and his party. Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not withdraw, but I am not prepared to say whether he would prove acceptable to our people. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of his withdrawal, and I think it is probable after Senator Jones' return, he will be awaited upon by some of our people and urged to bring about Mr. Sewall's retirement."

Mr. Watson will not get off the ticket," he said, "nor will his party countenance the withdrawal of Jones. It is to take his place should he be entirely acceptable to him and his party. Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not withdraw, but I am not prepared to say whether he would prove acceptable to our people. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of his withdrawal, and I think it is probable after Senator Jones' return, he will be awaited upon by some of our people and urged to bring about Mr. Sewall's retirement."

Mr. Watson will not get off the ticket," he said, "nor will his party countenance the withdrawal of Jones. It is to take his place should he be entirely acceptable to him and his party. Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not withdraw, but I am not prepared to say whether he would prove acceptable to our people. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of his withdrawal, and I think it is probable after Senator Jones' return, he will be awaited upon by some of our people and urged to bring about Mr. Sewall's retirement."

Mr. Watson will not get off the ticket," he said, "nor will his party countenance the withdrawal of Jones. It is to take his place should he be entirely acceptable to him and his party. Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not withdraw, but I am not prepared to say whether he would prove acceptable to our people. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of his withdrawal, and I think it is probable after Senator Jones' return, he will be awaited upon by some of our people and urged to bring about Mr. Sewall's retirement."

Mr. Watson will not get off the ticket," he said, "nor will his party countenance the withdrawal of Jones. It is to take his place should he be entirely acceptable to him and his party. Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not withdraw, but I am not prepared to say whether he would prove acceptable to our people. There can be no doubt as to the wisdom of his withdrawal, and I think it is probable after Senator Jones' return, he will be awaited upon by some of our people and urged to bring about Mr. Sewall's retirement."

Mr. Watson will not get off the ticket," he said, "nor will his party countenance the withdrawal of Jones. It is to take his place should he be entirely acceptable to him and his party. Justice Clark is a good man. He was supported by Democrats, Republicans and Populists. He will not