SOUND MONEY DEMOCRATS SAID TO HAVE DEMANDED THE COUNTY ATTORNEYSHIP.

WHAT WILL BECOME OF STAN?

THAT IS THE QUESTION THAT NOW VEEXES THE PARTY LEADERS.

"HONEST JOHN" WAGNER, TOO.

Scheme to Crowd Him Out to Make Strickland, of Flag Fame, Treasurer.

The sound money Democrats are in the field with a demand for recognition on the county ticket.

Recognizing the fact that all Democratic votes will be needed this fall, the free silver leaders have sought by every means to conciliate and win over to their side the sound money Democrats to save the county ticket.

Accordingly the sound money men were approached by the silver leaders, who asked the plump question, "Do you want anything—what can we do for you to secure your support?"

And the prompt reply was, "You bet we do. We want the office of county attorney—that and that only."

And thereupon there was sorrow in the camps of the silverites, for had not the nomination been promised to Stan Donnelly? How to get Donnelly off the track was a poser.

He has the influence and backing of the strongest element in the silver side of the house at his command, and in fact his nomination has been dictated by some of the leaders who are running the state campaign.

But there is more than one way to skin a cat or knife a friend.

Consequently, the silver Democrats persuaded the Populists to express an opinion on Donnelly's candidacy.

The pops have an affection for the young man's father, but are not so much attached to the son.

After the Populists' conference it was decided that they would not guarantee the undivided support of the People's party vote for Donnelly, and the Democrats are now making this an excuse to retire Donnelly and put up another candidate.

It is said that Pierce Butler will accept a renomination, but as he is not on the best of terms with some of the factions of the party, probably that rumor has been thrown out as a feeler and to draw attention from the manifest desire of the leaders to give the nomination to a sound money Democrat.

If this is done, there's nothing can prevent the nomination going to J. J. McCafferty.

While not posing as a candidate, he will not refuse a good thing handed to him without the effort of reaching for it.

McCafferty would get much of his support from the Republicans, if nominated, and as the sound money Democrats will stand by the ticket if they are given the nomination for county attorney, it is the part of wisdom for the Democrats to recognize the claims of the sound money voters.

F. W. M. Cutcheon went to Stillwater last night and organized a sound money club.

He spoke at length on the financial question and was followed by local speakers.

Stillwater has been ripe for the organization of a sound money club for some time.

The late evening men in that city have long since declared themselves in favor of a sound currency and have urged the organization of such a club.

The late evening work is done from a non-partisan standpoint, and for that reason has been unusually successful as a campaigner.

Friday night he addressed a large meeting at Hastings and made many friends for the sound money movement in the stronghold of free silver.

Democrats about the state headquarters profess to be indifferent as to the result of the Democratic convention in the Seventh congressional district.

This convention was held on Thursday and a baker's dozen of delegates attended.

The Republicans and some others in the district claim that the delegates were not properly accredited to the convention, that the convention was not properly called, and other dreadful things that, if true, might nullify the action of the few delegates who indorsed E. E. Lommen, the Populist candidate for congress.

As a matter of fact the delegates present were properly accredited.

The reason they were so few present is accounted for by the fact that the result was a foregone conclusion, and that it was a waste of time to make the long journey to Crookston to merely indorse the work done by the Populists some weeks ago.

Furthermore, the Democrats do not care if the secretary of state refuse to put Lommen's name on the official ballot as the Democratic candidate, for the Democrats will vote for him as the People's party candidate if not as a Democrat.

No other candidate will be put up in opposition to Lommen, so it would seem that his chances of election are just as good with a Populist label as with the Democratic brand.

The Democrats are trying to persuade John Wagner that he should be a candidate of the party for sheriff at the coming election.

All that will be as the party's nominee for treasurer.

The attempt to get Wagner away from the treasurer's office lies in the fact that some of them have concluded that W. G. Strickland is a good man, if he can be persuaded to allow the use of his name as a candidate for the office of county treasurer.

Mr. Strickland is well known as a business man, who has never been in politics, and whose record for business ability would be of great assistance to the Democratic ticket.

If he can be persuaded to make the race, Wagner will be offered the nomination for sheriff, and if he doesn't take that they say that he can wait for another old office that may happen in his way.

Henry J. Strouse will be a candidate for the legislature from the Fourth ward, if his Democratic friends will urge him loudly enough.

Lawrence I. Cassery, who has been mentioned in connection with the Democratic nomination for county auditor, says a mistake has been made.

He wants to be county commissioner and work his way up to the auditor's office.

Tomorrow afternoon the Republican county committee will meet in the Endicott arcade at 5 o'clock to prepare a list of election judges to be recommended to the board of aldermen.

County Commissioner Kellerman, of the Second ward, is a candidate for reelection.

Tenth precinct Republicans of the First ward have indorsed Frederick C. Nelson for the legislature.

Mr. Nelson is one of the thirteen candidates for legislative honors from this ward.

The sound money club of the Ninth ward has indorsed Charles S. Benson for the legislature, Dr. J. C. Nelson for coroner and H. Killberg for county commissioner.

After considerable argument E. L. Mabon was indorsed for sheriff.

"John Lind will run ahead of the rest of the fusion ticket, but the en-evening to the issues of the campaign, and the necessity of arousing sound money enthusiasm.

It was a big night for the Swedish voters of that ward, and they opened the evening's programme with a big parade, which was headed by the Young Men's Republican club and the club drum corps.

There was no need of a drum corps to summon the crowd, for the hall at Payne avenue and Wells street was packed to overflowing.

The speaker of the evening was Hon. O. C. Peterson, of Chicago, who spoke in the Swedish language upon the issues of the campaign.

The interest in the discourse was great. Mr. Peterson is well posted upon the currency question, and dwelt very largely upon this topic.

The cheering each time the name McKinley was mentioned indicates a sentiment among the Swedish voters of the First ward.

Judge Flandrau and Gen. Clapp addressed the Railway Men's Sound Money club at the Northern Pacific shops yesterday afternoon.

When the speakers arrived, shortly before 3 o'clock, the usual work-train was on hand to convey the workmen from the shops, and all who did not care to attend the sound money meeting left on that train as is the usual custom.

About 200 of the workmen did not care to remain.

Judge Flandrau was the first speaker.

MRS. B. T. WHITMORE.

The peculiar shade termed "Titan," and eyes of a deep violet. Her figure is superb and manner captivating.

She won many friends during her stay in St. Paul and left a pleasant memory when she left for Yellowstone Park with the party which left here Friday night.

Residents of the West side and particularly those of the Prospect terrace, are in the throes of a mad dog scare and canines great and small are given a wide berth by all who encounter them.

The dog has existed only a few days, although the occurrence in which it had its origin dates back three weeks.

At that time a handsome but ill-tempered Bernese dog owned by Theodore Strickler, who resides on Prospect terrace, between Winslow and Bidwell streets, after appearing ill and sullen for several days, became very violent in his actions and began his career of mischief by biting a child.

The Strickler family became alarmed at this unusual exhibition of ferocity and the career of the dog was ended by a policeman with a revolver.

Then the excitement died out for the time being, although the owners of some of the dogs bitten by the St. Bernard rabies and were uneasy.

A week ago last night, Joseph Minea's pointer dog, one of those which had been bitten, was against the house and which is a sore throat and irritation of the sinuses.

Mr. Minea wishing to take every precaution, at once called Dr. Price the veterinarian and having his dog examined, pronounced the case to be a rabies.

The dog was removed to Dr. Price's infirmary where he died Friday night.

An autopsy held yesterday afternoon confirmed the doctor in his opinion.

This case Dr. Price describes as a mite rabies in which the victim does not at any time become violent and which is easily mistaken for some other disease.

The St. Bernard, he says, was afflicted with the disease, which is readily recognized.

While the St. Bernard was at liberty, he bit many other dogs and the officers of the Duane street station are making every effort to quarantine all dogs and animals.

One owned by Gotfrid Hinebaugh and two others, whose owners are unknown, were caught yesterday and confined.

SOCIETY STIRRED UP.

Unusual Commotion in the "Bad Lands" Friday Night.

Judge Orr yesterday morning considered the cases of Michael Gillen, Mrs. Brennan, and Mrs. Kelley, who were arrested by Sergeant Ross and Officer Klimek in the section of the Mississippi street known as the "Bad Lands," and accused of disorderly conduct.

It was shown by the testimony that the trio at the time of the arrest were engaged in that popular diversion known as "police vermacular" or "rushin' de can," and although that in itself does not constitute an offense, and many of the first families of the city are known to engage in the pastime with perfect dignity and decorum, it appeared that in this instance the "rushin' de can" was accompanied by disorderly conduct and other unseemly demonstrations.

Michael Gillen and Mrs. Brennan were sentenced to 30 days each, but Mrs. Kelley was discharged.

MAYOR DORAN'S SIG.

It Was Attached to Two Ordinances Yesterday.

Mayor Doran has signed the ordinance reducing the salaries of all members of the police department three and one-half per cent.

The ordinance will not go into effect until Oct. 1. It will effect a saving of about $50 a month.

The mayor also signed the ordinance regulating pawnbrokers, junk men and dealers in second hand goods.

This ordinance a more effective system will be formed, with a separate force and no opening is left to escape prosecution for violations of the ordinance, as is the case with the former ordinance.

WOMEN'S CLUB PROJECT MENACED BY AN IMPROVEMENT SCHEME OF TRUSTEES.

WILL MOVE KITSON HOUSE

TO THE DAYTON AVENUE SIDE OF THE LOT, MAKING MORE ROOM FOR OTHER IMPROVEMENTS.

Fine Arts Society Secures the Historic Old Sibley Homestead at Mendota.

The St. Paul Trust company, which is in charge of the Kittson estate, contemplates the removal of the old house, which has recently become nationally famous as the scene of the women's festivities during the encampment of the G. A. R. for 1886, to the part of the lot which faces Dayton avenue.

If this is done, it would in a measure injure the project for the establishment of the women's club there, as the charming grounds were to be small factor in the selection of this location for that purpose.

Other obstacles, too, have arisen, the fact that some of the clubs already have gone to considerable expense in establishing themselves in fitting quarters which they do not care to surrender without some material inducement.

The Society of Fine Arts, too, has closed a lease for a summer school in the historic as well as picturesque old Sibley house at Mendota.

Burt Wood, the Minneapolis artist, has held the lease of the property and occupied it as a summer studio for some time.

He has now gone to Europe for three years' study, and the local society considers itself very lucky in securing the lease.

The school will open Oct. 6th at the studio in the Metropolitan hotel, and the new quarters at Mendota will not be fitted up until spring.
