EVENTS TODAY.

Grand—The Ensign, 2:30; S.J.S.
Market Hall—Democratic Con., 10:30.
—Populist Convention 10.
MOVEMENT OF STEAMSHIPS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Arrived: Bovie, Liverpool; Sparadain, Rotterdam; Phoenixia, Hamburg.
MOBILE—Arrived: Gordonian, Montreal, for Liverpool.
QUEENSTOWN—Arrived: Bothnia, Boston for Liverpool.
BOSTON—Arrived: Catalonia, Liverpool.
Gen. Palmer tersely states the case when he says, of two evils choose neither.

Chicago thieves have taken to looting coal offices. It is more profitable than stealing diamonds.
Both Weyler and Maceo have taken to the woods since Bryan and McKinley got on the warpath.

Put Kansas in the doubtful column. Ingalls declares he will not leave the state until the funeral is over.
Geysers in the Yellowstone park are said to be going out of business. Jealousy of the Nebraska spouter.
Mr. Towne intimates that he has too big a job on his hands to attend to that libel suit before election.

Western farmers think that by burning corn for fuel they are going to make it hot for the coal trust.
Bikestrian is the latest method of distinguishing the wheelerman from the pedestrian and the equestrian.
Let Mr. Watson bear in mind that he will always find a warm welcome at Canton, along with the other pilgrims.

It seems that a few years ago Mr. Bryan was a full beard, but it had to go, as his whiskers interfered too much with the wind.
Regarding the question of politics any bicyclist will tell you that the average country teamster belongs to the middle-of-the-road class.

Li Hung Chang didn't stop in Japan to ask questions. His curiosity regarding that country and its inhabitants has already been fully satisfied.
"Large and respectable" audiences of past campaigns have disappeared. With the average correspondent they are now "large and enthusiastic."
Perhaps aspirants for the St. Paul postmastership would get an earlier answer by addressing their letters to Canton, O., instead of Buzzard's Bay.

Going out between the acts is the latest fad of New York women, and their escorts don't relish the time-worn excuse that they "want to see a man."
Tillman has rivals in two Chicago men who used pitchforks with which to settle their little difficulties. One of them, however, will never hold office.

It remains for a Minneapolis politician to go Bryan one better. He is going to tour his district, but proposes to have bagpipes furnish the wind for him.
Mr. Bryan had an idea after reading the returns from Maine that that state would be a quiet place for a silviculture to spend a day of rest in. Hence his visit to Bath Sunday.

When the world was young the days were short, only three hours, says a British authority. With the young of the present time it is the evening in the front parlor that is too much abbreviated.
The Populists claim Minnesota by 54,000, and the Republicans claim it by 45,000. The size of these figures indicates that both parties are scared. In the meantime, Mr. Palmer is running well without claiming anything.

Now it is the torch of Hymen that has to give way before the triumphal progress of the modern juggernaut. An up-to-date bicycle lamp lighted a loving pair of Indiana wheel devotees on their midnight journey to the altar.
The bee as a pet is proving useful in Eastern parlors. It perfumes the air with a delicious incense. But when a visitor accidentally sits down on the pet, the incensed nature of his remarks leaves a sulphurous smell that is stronger than the perfume.

WHITNEY TO WED

THE EX-SECRETARY TO BE MARRIED TODAY AT BAR HARBOR.
SURPRISE TO HIS FRIENDS.
NONE OF HIS RELATIVES ARE EXPECTED TO WITNESS THE CEREMONY.
MRS. EDITH RANDOLPH THE BRIDE.
Her Former Husband Was a Captain in the Fifteenth, "Queen's Own" Hussars.
NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Hon. Wm. C. Whitney, formerly secretary of the navy, will be married at noon tomorrow to Mrs. Edith S. Randolph, widow of the late ex-Capt. Arthur Randolph, of East Court, Wiltshire, England.

WILLIAM C. WHITNEY.

This fact was formally announced to-night by Mr. Whitney's private secretary, T. J. Reagan, who received a communication during the day from Mr. Whitney advising him of the prospective wedding.

Society has been speculating on the event for some time, but not even the closest friends of Mr. Whitney had anticipated that the wedding would be so soon. Mr. Whitney, himself, when he left the city two weeks ago to recuperate did not expect to be married so soon.

There are several features which tend to cast a halo of romance over the marriage—the courtship, the sudden engagement and hasty consummation of the event, Mrs. Randolph is an old friend of the Whitney family and has been intimately associated with them for the past ten years.

Mr. Whitney's late husband was a captain in the Fifteenth Hussars, commonly called "The Queen's Own." She was originally Miss Edith S. May, and is a first cousin of Herman Oelrichs, also to Mrs. Col. Wm. Jay, of Athens, the testimonials of regard any children, the eldest thirteen years old.

FUSION DEAL TO GO

IN THE COUNTY CONVENTIONS OF THE TWO PARTIES HELD TODAY.

There are a few problems of distribution of the offices only to be adjusted between them.
Nominations are in doubt.
Although in one or two cases there are some apparent "sure things."

Lacking the gift of prophecy, the county Democratic managers declined to give out a slate for the county convention today. In racing parlance there are but two "sure things" in the entire list of candidates.

Everything is now complete for the nomination of a fusion ticket to oppose the Republican nominees. France is a go. The Democrats and Populists will meet in separate conventions this morning.
