MISS IDA CLOTHIER TALKS.

The Proposed Amendment to Abolish Districts—General News of Minneapolis.

Wesley church was gaily decorated in yellow and white, the national colors of the W. C. T. U., yesterday morning, and the national flag and handsome banners from local unions made attractive bits of color. Autumn leaves, flowers and fruits made a harmonious moral decoration, and one in keeping with the season. The local committees had been busy at work and everything was in readiness for business when Mrs. Susanna M. D. Frye, state president, called the convention to order at 9 o'clock yesterday morning.

SCHOOLS OVERCROWDED.
The Registration is Reported Already Over 27,000.

The old question of inadequate accommodation for the school children of Minneapolis was brought to light again yesterday at the regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Minneapolis public schools.

WILL SHOW THEIR COLORS.
Railroad Men Are Planning for a Demonstration.

The railroad employees of Minneapolis are planning for an important demonstration in the interests of kind money, and various railroads were well represented in the Bourke club parade of two weeks ago, but now the railroad men are planning for a demonstration of their own.

BREAK IN A MAIN.
It Will Be Detected by Bubbles in the River.

John Lund, the diver, who has been engaged to repair the leak in the submerged main in the East side channel, made his first descent to the bottom yesterday afternoon.

TO RECEIVE ALLEN.
Senator W. M. Allen, of Nebraska, who had been invited to the city, turned up at two places in the city, Turner hall and the hall on the evening of Saturday, Oct. 2, will deliver a single address in this city. It will be given at Exposition hall, and it is expected that the entire free river population of Minneapolis will be out for the occasion.

SEWALL ASKS GOLD.
Admits He Put Such a Clause in His Charter Contracts.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 29.—So much has been written of late concerning Vice Presidential Candidate Sewall's contract with gold contracts, that L. C. Delang, of this city, who is a former associate of Sewall, has written a letter to the following effect:—Dear Sir: In reply to yours of the 29th instant, I desire to state that it is true that I am making contracts with gold clauses inserted in them, but I do not desire to do so in any other way. Sewall's contracts for foreign voyages are invariably made in this way, and I doubt if you could make them in any other way. Sewall is a man of high standing in the community, and I am sure that he is perfectly willing to take silver or currency in payment if custom permitted.

CLAIMING TEXAS.
Republicans Give the Details of Their Figures.

DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 29.—Republican leaders who are working to pull Texas into the McKinley column have been in conference with the McKinley committee in Dallas, Tex. The conference has been held in secret. McKinley's committee, headed by McKinley, and headed by McKinley, were present. UNFORTUNATE ARMENIANS.
Destitute in France and With No Hope Apparent.

MARSEILLES, Sept. 29.—There exists a condition of affairs in this city of present which seems to be a disgrace to Europe, and to the Armenian associations generally throughout the world. Subsisting and fellow countrymen, municipal or private charity here, are 600 unfortunate Armenians, men, women and children, young and old, healthy and infirm, who have succeeded in escaping from the bloody massacres at Constantinople and who were one and all buoyed up by the hope on landing here, of finding some means of subsistence.

HIS A CRUEL FATE.
Elmer E. Joslin Killed While on the Way to Work.

Elmer E. Joslin, a clerk in the Great Northern railroad, was killed yesterday morning while riding his bicycle on the street in front of the Great Northern building. He was struck by a horse and killed.

Hanson Committed Suicide.
Hans Hanson, a stationary engineer of Lake Crystal, Blue Earth county, Minnesota, committed suicide yesterday morning by taking a considerable quantity of morphine. He was found by his bedside yesterday morning.

Meeting of the Church Club.
The Church club of the diocese of Minnesota held its Trinity-ide or Michaelmas meeting at the Nicollet hotel, and a representative gathering of the members of the Episcopal churches of Minneapolis gathered down to an elaborate dinner at the dining room.

FRANCE WAS SUCCESSFUL.
The Eastern Question Robbed of its Acuteness.

PARIS, Sept. 29.—A semi-official note issued today says that the embassies at Constantinople are unanimous in regarding the representations made to the Sultan by M. de Cambon, the French ambassador, as having exercised the most effective influence upon the Turkish government, and as being destined shortly to deprive the Eastern question of much of its acuteness.

ARMENIAN REFUGEES NOT BARRED BY THE UNITED STATES.
NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Officials of the Armenian societies in this city do not believe that the United States will be less hospitable in receiving immigrants from the Armenian countries of Europe which received them with open arms. J. J. Rooney, secretary of

ALL MEN STILL OUT
FREIGHT TRAFFIC ON THE CANADIAN PACIFIC IS AT A STANDSTILL.

STRIKE MAY BE EXTENDED.
OTHER CLASSES OF TRAINMEN IN SYMPATHY WITH THE OPERATORS.

REPORTS FROM ALONG THE LINE.
In the West the Walkout Came as Very Much of a Surprise All Around.

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 29.—There are no new developments in the operators' strike tonight. All the men are still out, and the passenger trains are running, but freight traffic is suspended. The operators seem to have a perfect organization. All classes of train men are in sympathy with them, and the strike, if not settled in a couple of days, may extend to all branches of the service.

SAULT STE MARIE, Sept. 29.—Business on the Soo and Canadian Pacific railway is at a standstill. The strike of the railway employees has raised havoc with all Canadian Pacific trains. The east-bound limited train on the Soo road, which arrived at Sault Ste. Marie this morning, was still detained here this afternoon.

MONTREAL, Sept. 29.—Canadian Pacific railway traffic is at a standstill. The company is going to serve all striking employees with protests because they are not working under conditions without the notice provided for in their contracts. The operators claim that the train dispatchers are with them.

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 29.—The Canadian Pacific railway seems to be getting its passenger trains through today. The freight trains are still at a standstill. The freight traffic is at a standstill.

PEORIA, Ill., Sept. 29.—It is stated at the headquarters of the Order of Railway Telegraphers, in this city, that the freight traffic is at a standstill. The freight traffic is at a standstill.

WELCOME FOR DR. BROWN.
Dubuque Conference Declined to Change Front.

DUBUQUE, Ia., Sept. 29.—At its annual meeting at Strawberry Point, today, the Dubuque district conference of Congregational churches took up the resolution of the Brown conference, of San Francisco, that the action of the Dubuque body, condemning the California or expelling Rev. C. L. Brown, after he had been acquitted by a church trial on charges of immoral conduct with Miss Overman, be rescinded.

Little Children Fatally Burned.
ALGONA, Sept. 29.—A little ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dixie was fatally burned yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock. The little girl and her brother, about six years old, were playing at home in the yard.
