

BIG RALLY TONIGHT

SOUND MONEY DEMOCRATS WILL SHOW THEIR STRENGTH AT THE AUDITORIUM

WHEN PALMER AND BUCKNER

WILL TALK ON THE ISSUES OF THE PRESENT NATIONAL CAMPAIGN.

WARMLY RECEIVED IN ST. PAUL.

The Distinguished Kentuckian Passed Through the City Yesterday.

Sound money Democrats will make a demonstration at the Auditorium tonight that will prove beyond a doubt the sincerity of their convictions, and prove as well that the Bryanites do not have the strength claimed for them in St. Paul.

Gen. Buckner arrived in St. Paul yesterday afternoon, shortly before 3 o'clock, in the special car "President" over the Milwaukee road.

The first address made by Gen. Buckner yesterday was at La Crosse. He spoke also at Winona, Red Wing and Hastings.

The first address made by Gen. Buckner yesterday was at La Crosse. He spoke also at Winona, Red Wing and Hastings.

The "President" was attached to a special train on the Great Northern road, and the start for St. Cloud was made at 3:45.

After lunch at the Merchants, the visitors will return to the Aberdeen for rest, and will dine at that hotel.

Members of the Democratic county committee, all the candidates and all members of the ward and precinct committees will meet at headquarters in the Globe building this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

All the county candidates will attend a free silver meeting to be held at Gladstone tonight.

The St. Paul First Presidential Voters Bryan and Lind club, which was organized a few days ago, now has 122 members enrolled.

Arrangements have been made to have Francis Clarke speak at white Bear Tuesday, the 27th, and at Gladstone on the 28th.

Senator Nelson has recovered from recent indispositions and is campaigning in the Seventh district in the effort to re-elect Congressman Eddy.

Senator John M. Thurston, of Nebraska, passed through the city yesterday morning on his way West.

Paul du Chaille, the African explorer, who has been presenting the cause of sound money to the Northwestern French and Canadian Americans in Minnesota, the two Dakotas and Iowa, returned yesterday.

Two hundred German voters attended the sound money meeting held at Arion hall on West Third street last night.

FUN IN THE THIRD

ANOTHER REPUBLICAN MEETING DEVELOPS A STRONG ANTI-CHAPEL FEELING.

CHARGES MADE IN THE FIRST

ARE SPRUNG AGAIN, BUT IN A DIFFERENT AND UNEXPECTED WAY.

DEMANDS FOR INVESTIGATION.

Are Opposed by Col. Samuel Lowenstein—Meeting Broke Up in a Row.

The Third Ward Republican club held a meeting at Fifth and Rosabel streets last evening, and for a meeting at which there were only about fifty present, it was probably as hot a session as ever was held outside of a 24-foot ring.

The cause of the trouble was the same thing that created the sensation in the First ward meeting Wednesday night. Everything was going on swimmingly. G. A. Dallimore, who wants to get into the legislature, spoke briefly, giving the Republican chances for success, and an enthusiastic crowd, and an enthusiastic crowd, and an enthusiastic crowd, and an enthusiastic crowd.

But the real hit did not come until G. W. Tuck, a modest and unassuming citizen, rose and inquired into the truth of the reports circulated in the First ward meeting concerning the methods by which Charles Chapel was alleged to have secured his nomination for sheriff.

This made the Third warders hot. They knew his part for he had no reason to doubt them, for he was a man, a butcher for a grocery firm, he said, who had been told by a friend that he received $50 for voting for Chapel in the convention, and had shown him the money.

Sam Lowenstein, tactful veteran that he is, spoke in opposition to the motion. He hoped that the election law provides that ballot clerks shall be appointed in the same manner as the regular clerks, and in such a manner that the ballot clerks should be appointed in the same manner.

The insurance men who participate in the sound money parade Saturday evening will each carry a lantern instead of a torch.

There will be a social gathering for the consideration of the political situation at the residence of H. A. Campbell on Saratoga avenue Monday evening next.

The Democratic mass meeting at Plebush hall, corner of Laford and Arundel streets, last night was the largest and most enthusiastic yet held in the Eighth ward.

Thomas F. Martin, the Democratic candidate for the legislature from the Eighth ward, opened the meeting with a brief address, chiefly devoted to a discussion of the national issues.

Mr. Martin was followed by Conrad W. Miller, ex-city treasurer and ex-Republican. Mr. Miller explained why he had changed his party faith, and then turned his attention to the Republican candidate for sheriff in particular.

Mr. Miller finished the audience was entertained with a number of stereoscopic views, which included portraits of the Democratic candidates, all of which were greeted with cheers and applause.

Gen. Mason, his aides and chief marshals of the several divisions of the big parade of Saturday evening, met in the Endicott building last night.

Gen. Mason has selected the following staff: Capt. Ed. S. Bean, Col. Albert Scheffer, Maj. W. W. Price, Capt. R. L. W. C. Smith, Lt. C. H. Appleby, Capt. C. T. Spear, C. H. Hart, W. B. Kingsbury.
