THE PEOPLE HAVE SPOKEN. The most momentous election held in thirty-five years is over. The people have spoken, and that with an uncertain sound.

so powerful and the danger to our national life so great. Let this be neglected, let corporate power go uncurbed, let legislation continue to be prostituted, as it has been, to the benefit of the few against the many, and the next trial of strength will see the now repressed and demoralized forces marching on to victory.

THE LOCAL RESULT. The returns from the state are too meager, at the hour of going to press, to warrant any confident statement as to the state and local tickets. McKinley has carried Minnesota by a plurality that is not likely to fall below 35,000 and may rise to 60,000 or more.

NO BAD TASTE IN THEIR MOUTHS. The story is told of a Detroit Irishman who, when asked how he was going to vote this year, said: "I've voted nothing but a Democratic ticket for twenty-seven years, but this year I'm going to get me a gallon of whisky and then I'm going to the polls and vote for McKinley. After that I'm going home and get down on my knees and ask God to forgive me for doing it, and then I'll take the whisky and work the bad taste out of my mouth."

WITH INTENT TO AMUSE. Hoax.—Why did Goulbugge move from his Broad street house? Hoax.—The number was 16-2-1.—Philadelphia Record.

THE PEOPLE HAVE SPOKEN. The most momentous election held in thirty-five years is over. The people have spoken, and that with an uncertain sound. That has happened which was expected by those who had faith in the constancy and honor of our people.

THE FUTURE ALIGNMENT OF PARTIES. The most interesting of the many great questions that are to be settled now that the election is over is what is to be the future attitude and alignment of political parties in this country. For the moment, party lines are all in confusion.

CANTON IN A WHIRL

STREETS CROWDED WITH PEOPLE WHO CHEERED WITH A WILD ENTHUSIASM. MAJ. MCKINLEY IS MODEST. HE RECEIVED NONE OF THE CONGRATULATIONS OFFERED TILL AFTER MIDNIGHT.

MR. BRYAN WENT TO BED EARLY. He Received the Returns in Private and Retired Without Making Any Formal Statement.

CANTON, Nov. 3.—Canton was in a whirl of excitement tonight as the time the returns began to come in. It was distinctively a McKinley crowd on the street, and as the bulletins came more and more in his favor the enthusiasm grew.

At 8 o'clock definite returns began coming in, and preparations were made for reading them in the McKinley library; the doors being open to all who chose to come in. A message from James M. McKinley, at New York headquarters said: "Maine's majority for McKinley will reach 50,000, and this was soon followed by the news that the state of Ohio carried Chicago by about 60,000.

At 10 o'clock the major's nephew Mr. Seaton, emerged from the parlor and handed to Mr. Cooper a private dispatch just received, to read it. It was from Garret A. Hobart, vice president of the McKinley club, who at this early hour felt that the victory was won, and telegraphed his congratulations.

PLEASANT FOR REPUBLICANS. Returns at Chicago Headquarters Come All Their Way. CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—The first message received at the National Republican headquarters tonight that did not deal in vague promises came from Donald Mackay, chairman of the Oregon state central committee. It was as follows: "The city of Portland gives a majority of 5,000 for McKinley and this insures the state for the Republican ticket."

"This is a good one to start on," said Vice Chairman Payne, "but it's only the first rain drop of the coming deluge. We will have plenty more of the same sentiment by and by." Then ensued an hour of indefinite messages from all parts of the country, all of them, however, being of an encouraging nature to the Republican cause.

After this, the telegrams came in a shower that seemed never to cease. A vote of a few precincts in Iowa here and a county there, with, however, little of a substantial nature to ballast them. Then came a telegram from the crowd in the hall and the room adjoining Mr. Payne's office, when the telegraph instrument ticked off the message from Chairman Ferry, of the Michigan state central committee. "Michigan is safe for McKinley by 50,000." This news was cried out of the window with a shout below and the howl in the halls above was a gentle whisper to the wild roar from the pavement.

The next chairman to report with definite assurances was Bixby of Minnesota, who said that his commonwealth wanted Mr. McKinley and wanted to see him elected. "This came in a few minutes after 10 o'clock. Vice Chairman Payne at this time sent out a telegram to Chairman Hanna in Cleveland and to the various state chairmen saying: "McKinley has carried Chicago by about 60,000. Returns from Michigan, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska, and Ohio show that those states are safe for McKinley."

The report from Nebraska headquarters to the effect that Bryan would be beaten in this western state, a majority of 13,000 gave the liveliest satisfaction and the cheers were long and loud when from the East came news of equal import. Chairman Hanna, secretary of the New York committee, sent word that McKinley had carried Maryland, West Virginia by 2,000, and that the state of Tennessee spoke up once more and Iowa sent word that Bryan would be 80,000 to the rear when the final roll is called. Wisconsin by 30,000; Illinois by 100,000; Nebraska, 15,000; Iowa, 75,000; Minnesota, 35,000; Kentucky, 20,000.

REBUKE TO ANARCHY. Says the State Republican Committee of Illinois. CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—The Republican state central committee has issued the following: To the citizens of Illinois: The Republican state central committee congratulates you on the great victory of today, which places the Western Empire state at the head of the list of states in the Union. Chairman Hanna, secretary of the New York committee, sent word that McKinley had carried Maryland, West Virginia by 2,000, and that the state of Tennessee spoke up once more and Iowa sent word that Bryan would be 80,000 to the rear when the final roll is called.

REPUBLICANS ASTONISHED. At the Showing the Party Made in Illinois. CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Returns from over 100 counties in Illinois show that McKinley has made as big gains in proportion throughout the counties and towns as he has in Chicago, securing 100,000 more votes than the Republican committee that the state has gone 100,000 Republican. If the gains, which are already reported, hold up in the districts yet to be counted, the majority for McKinley is said, will exceed that figure. In the southern part of the state, the gains have not been so heavy and several districts are still in doubt. McKinley having given Bryan small majorities. In the dispatches comparing the votes of Tanner and McKinley, the former being only about 600 or 700 votes behind the latter. The figures, however, plainly show that Tanner's loss was no gain for Altheld. Forman was the victor in that contest, and the vote cast for Harrison in 1892, show very heavy gains in nearly every instance over the Republican vote cast that year. At headquarters considerable surprise was occasioned over McKinley's vote in a number of counties which were expected to give Bryan majorities. It is believed that the gains for the Republican candidate.

SEWALL SHOWS SPLEEN. Maine Man Not Very Graceful in Accepting Defeat. BATH, Me., Nov. 3.—Candidate Sewall was interviewed by an Associated Press representative. He said: "We will be under government control by next year. As headquarters considerable surprise was occasioned over McKinley's vote in a number of counties which were expected to give Bryan majorities. It is believed that the gains for the Republican candidate."

Message From Morton. CANTON, O., Nov. 3.—At 11 o'clock Maj. McKinley received the following from New York: "At 9 o'clock, from returns already received, few instances run such a course as that of the state of Ohio, which McKinley has carried by a majority of 100,000. The members of the party figured it out that Bryan would be 80,000 to the rear when the final roll is called. Wisconsin by 30,000; Illinois by 100,000; Nebraska, 15,000; Iowa, 75,000; Minnesota, 35,000; Kentucky, 20,000."
