the thieves, he made known to them by shouts that he would not stand their work and they ran out of the street. Mr. Schmitt says there were two and possibly three in the gang, as he heard them when they ran from the scene.

Wednesday night the gang seemingly not at all deterred by the loss of their rest, again visited the same locality. The hardware store of Hertz Bros., at 521 University avenue, was picked out as the "good thing," and armed with large auger, the thieves commenced operations on a rear door to the store. A couple of holes were started near the lock of the door, but the burglars wasted their time as the inside of the door was lined with steel and they were unable to gain entrance. One of the men from last evening, said the parties must have kept a close tab on the store, as on Wednesday over $150 was collected and placed in the safe. His idea was that the thieves had an inkling of this and intended to break into the store and make an effort to secure the cash.

One of the large show windows in the store, located by H. Gerker at 551 University avenue, was smashed during Wednesday night and half a dozen pairs of gloves and mittens and other goods, which were in the window, abstracted. Mr. Gerker thinks the thieves also secured a couple of pairs of shoes, but is not certain as to this. The window to the apartment was broken, through which the store at 4 o'clock yesterday morning. The pedestrian notified the owner and also the police.

MR. ELLER'S FUNERAL.

Many Friends Pay Their Respects to the Deceased.

Funeral services for the late Homer C. Eller were held from the family residence, 575 Holly avenue, yesterday afternoon. An attendance was made by citizens, friends of the deceased and family, and members of the Ramsey county board of health. The service was conducted by Rev. Charles E. Haupt, rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity, with music sung by the quartette choir of St. John's church, the Episcopal service for the dead was read by the clergyman. There were also other services. The dead man needed no eulogy. Already enthroned in the hearts of his friends the eulogy was simple and brief, symbolizing his modest and unostentatious life. Cardinal Newman's perennials hymn, "Lead Kindly Light," was chanted in the hearts of his friends. The pallbearers were Messrs. J. P. Kueffner and J. T. Fitzpatrick. To Be Considered by the Western Association.

An important meeting of the Western Passenger association and one of the Trans-Missouri committee will be held in Chicago next week, the former Nov. 10 and the latter on the following day. A big batch of important business will come up before the meeting, and one of the most important is that of the routing of special excursions. DELAYS THE GAME.

Southern Pacific Blocking the New Freight Association.

President Washburn, of the Kansas City, Fort Scott & Texas road is blocking the progress of the new Western Freight association, and if it were not for the administrative board which is its administrative board it would launch its administrative board this week. But President Washburn holds the balance of power and he does not intend to yield until he wins his case. He wants the privilege of naming one of the two men to fill the vacancies. All the other members of the administrative board have agreed upon W. L. Shute, of the Kansas City, Fort Scott & Texas road, and William Duncan, another railroad man, while Mr. Washburn wants Commissioner Vallandigham, of the Kansas City, Fort Scott & Texas road. President Washburn has nothing against Messrs. Shute or Duncan. The only reason he wants Vallandigham is because he has been a member of the Kansas City and its territory. But the Washburn candidate is not satisfactory to the managers. Washburn originally nominated General Freight Agent Fletcher, of the Kansas City, Fort Scott & Gulf, and the latter refused. There is great suspicion in the minds of the managers that the man who got the job was not the man who got the job. The man who got the job was not the man who got the job.
