Lord Salisbury has to say of the Turkish question and the Armenian outrages is a sad reflection upon the British name. He bases his position upon the assumed incompetence of Great Britain to do anything in this field alone.

THE IMPUDENT ROBBERS. Of all the trusts that have been spawned in Republican paternalism we doubt if there is a more impudent and arrogant one than the wire nail trust.

A suit, pending in Indiana before Judge Baker, of the federal court, illustrates the high-handed methods employed by this trust in establishing its mastery of the market.

THE SPEECH. The speech of Lord Salisbury at the lord mayor's banquet, on Monday evening, has a double interest. First, as being the first explicit and formal announcement by the British government of its foreign policy.

During the campaign Eastern papers published letters from Western business men explaining the political conditions in their localities and why there was such an apparent strength of the silver movement there.

It is reassuring to read the emphatic language with which Judge Baker overruled the plea. "The trust described," he said, "is an unlawful combination and conspiracy to raise the price of goods and interfere with the manufacture of wire nails, and is in direct violation of an act of Congress of good morals and the public weal."

THE NEW YORK EVENING POST, in summing up the verdict rendered by the American people on Nov. 3 presents one aspect of it which, judged by press and individual comment the country over, is destined to produce a deep and lasting effect.

Now, a week has passed, and the first issues of the press all over this country, commenting upon the result, have poured into newspaper offices. It is with pride in the great profession of journalism that we read the loyal and patriotic words spoken over this verdict by those to whom it comes as a disappointment of hope and the knell of party ambition.

It is not of great interest in the press campaign except as it bears upon the political development of the future. We were told by employees of the mining syndicate and by a few persons who would rather see the Democratic party destroyed for all time to come than to relinquish the temporary prominence which they achieved and used so unworthily for a few short months, that free silver is to be the slogan for all time to come.

Laying aside the arguments that have been worn threadbare in the last few months, take only the practical side of the question. As we have said once before, men will not continue to play a losing game in politics forever. You cannot get up enthusiasm enough to run a campaign or even keep an organization together unless the individual members believe that there is some chance for them to win.

THE VICTORY MEANS. The victory means the establishment of a new party, and the production of a new party, it is to be the same in every particular as it was in the New York run, except the change in the name.

THE ELECTION IS OVER and has resulted in a victory for the Republican party. The decision is so decisive as to leave no doubt as to the result of the contest.

THE CAUSE OF Bimetallism has gone down in defeat. The necessity for a stronger encouragement to keep the issue alive until the gold standard has been established is no longer a question of time.

THE WHEELS GO ROUND. Hard times are not over by any means, and those who think that the result of this election augurs a sure triumph for the Republican party are badly misled.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES. Scarlett fever is reported at 265 East Fourth street, and at 1203 Avenue A.

Schiffman Not a Candidate. Friends of F. C. Schiffman have brought forward a candidate for the assembly to succeed Assemblyman Kramer, who will retire the first of the year.

Slippery Sidewalk Starts. Ida Anderson, living at 323 St. Peter street, fell on the icy sidewalk at the corner of Seventh and Second streets yesterday.

THE REPUBLIC IS SAFE. We do not find in our great cities or mighty railroad systems or enormous productive capacity, or any other of the evidences of wealth, any proof of national greatness as in the cordial acceptance by the tremendous army of the defeated of the will of the majority as their law for the future.

AT THE THEATERS. There will be two performances of "The Man in the Iron Mask" at the Metropolitan opera house today.
