only purchased the plant on credit, but borrowed the money from the machinery required some overhauling, which was done in Mobile, and never paid for. Hall then leased two other boats, and in the latter part of the year he had accumulated a small amount of money from them, which he forgot to pay, as well as the wages. It is remarkable how a small amount of money, when run through a slick tongue, could come into a community and build, equip and run a mill, lease two other boats, purchase a sawmill, and run three months without the outlay of a single dollar.
