TWO BANKS UNITE

HEREAFTER THE UNION NATIONAL WILL NOT BE GOES WITH THE FLOUR CITY.

F. H. PEAVEY MAY BE MADE PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

BOY GUILTY OF GAMBLING. Grand Jury Brings Very Little Work to the District Court—General News.

The tendency toward consolidation and simplification of business which has been manifested in nearly every branch of business was manifested yesterday in the case of two of the best known banking institutions of Minneapolis, the Union National and the Flour City National. As has been generally known in banking circles, arrangements have been pending for some time for the deal which has been consummated. There were only minor considerations upon which the officers of the banks differed, and these have been satisfactorily settled. The Union National bank will abandon its banking house in the Phoenix block, and its books and assets will be transferred to the Flour City National bank in the Lumber exchange, where deposits will be received and checks paid. A part of the force of the Union National bank will be found at the Flour City bank and business will not be interrupted. The name of the Union National bank will disappear from the list, and the Flour City will become one of the biggest and strongest banks in the city.

The negotiations between the two banks have been going on with the approval of the comptroller of the currency, James H. Eckles, who had a representative on the ground in the person of Joseph T. Talbert, national bank examiner. Mr. Talbert would not discuss the matter for publication when seen at the West hotel last evening, further than to say that all the facts in connection with the consolidation of the interests have been known to the comptroller and were approved. In his judgment, Mr. Talbert said, the arrangement was an excellent one in every way.

MR. BRYAN'S PLANS.

He Will Undertake an Extensive Lecture Tour.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 17.—It has been definitely arranged that William Jennings Bryan is to take the lecture platform and his first address will be at Atlanta, Ga., early in December. His route, as far as he has at present been arranged, will be after leaving Atlanta, Jacksonville, Savannah, Charleston, Savannah, Birmingham and New Orleans. After leaving the latter city Mr. Bryan will go through Texas, then on to California and Oregon, and will not reach the cities of the East before the latter part of February, 1897. The man behind the enterprise is W. E. McBea, of Norfolk, Va., the associate of Mr. Bryan in the Air line. On election night Mr. McBea, who had been a hard worker for the Bryan ticket, wired to this city offering Mr. Bryan a large amount for a series of lectures in case the election should turn against him.

No attention was paid to the matter at the time Mr. Bryan was in the city, but the defeat of the Democratic ticket, Mr. McBea once more renewed his offers, negotiations were begun and the result has been that Mr. McBea has signed contracts for a series of lectures under the management of Alexander Comstock, who is the representative of the Associated States of America. The terms of the agreement have not been made public, but it is readily understood that the remuneration which Mr. Bryan is to receive will exceed the salary he would have received as president of the United States in the event of his election to that office. Arrangements are already under way to have the delivery of Mr. Bryan's lectures in Atlanta, made on the occasion of a great demonstration which will be in the nature of a monster reception. The lectures to be delivered will be in the nature of a partisan in their character and will for the most part be upon governmental and social topics as it is expressly stipulated in the contract that they shall have no political aspect or coloring.

MCKINLEY AND HIS MANAGER MEET FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE ELECTION.

CONFERENCE LASTED TWO HOURS.

The National Chairman Declines to Express an Opinion as to Cabinet Possibilities.

CANTON, O., Nov. 17.—National Chairman M. A. Hanna was in Canton yesterday afternoon. He arrived over the Valley road at 10 p. m. in company with Gen. Osborn, national secretary, who has been in Cleveland for several days. President-elect McKinley went to the depot in the family carriage to meet the visitors. They drove direct to the McKinley home, where lunch was delayed until after their arrival. This is the first time the president-elect and the national chairman have met since election.

Mr. McKinley remained in conference from lunch till 4 o'clock this afternoon with Mr. Hanna and Mr. Osborn. When the trio came down stairs at the hour mentioned, Mr. Hanna's face beamed with good humor and good spirits that made him look younger than when he actively entered the great presidential contest as Mr. McKinley's friend over a year ago. When a reporter asked him if a cabinet would be announced soon, he simply said: "You must ask the major," and the newspaper men knew that no asking would get any information on which to base an authoritative opinion on that subject at this time.

As Mr. Hanna was walking to the carriage for the train, he was asked if he expected Maj. and Mrs. McKinley to go to Thomasville, Ga., to sojourn with him at his winter home. He said he would be mighty glad if they would do it, but again referred that subject to Mr. McKinley, who said he had heard nothing from Mr. Hanna on the matter. Mr. Hanna returned to Cleveland at 4:15. Gen. Osborn will remain here until Wednesday, returning to New York by next Monday.

Hon. E. H. K. Greene, chairman of the Republican state committee of Texas, ex-State Chairman H. H. Huston, of Indiana; Charles Hodges, of Galveston, and Hon. Tams Bixby, chairman of the executive committee of the Republican committee of Minnesota, were among a score of callers awaiting an audience with Mr. McKinley during his conference with Mr. Hanna. Mr. McKinley drove to the station with Mr. Bixby this afternoon.

Maj. McKinley and Mrs. McKinley took a drive during the morning, in the family carriage, and were seen handling the lines. They drove about the city, returning home at 11:30 p. m. The McKinleys are planning a great deal toward bringing the hints of health back to Mrs. McKinley's face, and she seems much strengthened and refreshed.

Foster, the assignee shows that by cash on hand, sales and other assets, the company has a net worth of $50,000. The assignee's expenses, including his own fee of $100 and his attorney's fee of $100, have been paid. The assignee has a cash balance of $27.38. The liabilities amount to $42,335. The assignee has a list of creditors, including a list of warehouse receipts not included in the inventory of assets, but the assignee has a net worth of $100. The unsecured claims amount to $26,335.

UTAH ELECTION INVALID.

According to the Opinion of a County Attorney.

SALT LAKE, Utah, Nov. 17.—County Attorney W. H. Whittier this afternoon handed down an opinion on the legal status of the recent election. It declares the ballot of the canvassing board, which is mandatory and prohibitory, therefore the election itself is absolutely invalid, and, in fact, no election. The board of canvassers is advised, however, that it must perform its duty, and that the county clerk must issue the certificates of election required by law unless he is prevented from so doing by the intervention of a court of competent jurisdiction. The opinion was delivered to the board of canvassers at its meeting this afternoon in reply to a resolution of the county canvassing board to the effect that the legality of the election had been brought into question and asking that the duties of the canvassing board be defined.

McManigal Did Not Lose Much.

F. R. McManigal, candidate for the office of county treasurer at the recent election, filed his expense account with the county auditor yesterday, which amounted to $3.25 in itemizing his expenditures for the election. He had had laid out $25 for printed cards, for the distribution of which he had spent 50 cents additional.

Did Not Take the Horse.

Andy Martin was arrested by Officer Goven yesterday afternoon, somewhat under the influence of liquor, for stealing a horse blanket which he had. Later John Calder, living at 148 East Eighth street, identified the blanket as his property. Calder said the blanket had been taken off his horse in front of his home early in the afternoon. In addition to the charge of drunkenness at first booked against Martin, he was accused of larceny, and will be arraigned in the police court today.

Be Strong and Manly.

HERE IS HAPPINESS IN STRENGTH.—Joy and gladness shine forth from the eyes of the manly and strong. Confidence, respect and love of society come with the return of nature's vigor. Electricity, the force of vitality, makes men great. It brings back the fire of youth. It helps manhood.

"Dear Sir:—The belt that I purchased from you some time ago has given entire satisfaction, and is all that was represented to be. Do not fail to make use of what my troubles were, out suffice it to say—I was cured by you, after having taken medical treatment for years to no avail. The simple and common sense hygienic rules which you forwarded at my request, were followed out, and alone I consider are worth the price of the belt. Yours very truly, F. W. A Complication Which May Make Trouble.

A serious complication which is almost certain to find its way into diplomacy is reported by interested parties as a result of the erection of a dam across the outlet of Lake of the Woods at Rat Portage. The dam is situated at the outlet of the lake, and has raised the water in Lake of the Woods about three feet. In addition to the raise by the dam the lake now rises by the dam has been in effect equivalent to a raise of six feet during wet weather, such as was experienced in the spring. The outlet of Lake of the Woods is singular. North the land lies high and rocky in part, but on the east side it is a plain. The land is low and marshy and a rise of a few feet sends the water back for miles. It is estimated that the lake now rises two square miles, which were above water two years ago. The lake shore for miles has been entirely changed, and the water has risen half a block of where she lived.

WHY NOT F. H. PEAVEY?

Who Will Be President of the Board of Education?

The popular impulse to put the best man in Minneapolis into office as much as possible, which resulted in the election of a class of men not common enough in the city, has not been a notable instance of which was the election of F. H. Peavey, a single person, has been followed by the suggestion that Mr. Peavey be elected president of the board. The board of education is one which at present has most to do with raising funds and furnishing the equipment for the schools, its great problem being of finance, and the suggestion is made that a man who has been so successful in guiding and building up a great business should be equally valuable in handling the matter for the people. There is no question that Mr. Peavey is a man of high character, and that he would be a valuable member of the board as any financier in America.

SHE DROPPED DEAD.

Mrs. Johnson Suddenly Passes Away at Her Home.

Mrs. Johnson, whose husband is employed as a janitor at the Post Office, died at her home, which is located at 533 Penn avenue north, was found dead on the floor of her kitchen yesterday morning. She had been in excellent health previous to her death. The family consisted of the parents and two children, the youngest being only seventeen months. Except the latter, the children were absent from home attending school during the day and on the night their mother lying dead on the floor of the kitchen and the youngest child crying piteously by her side. Mrs. Johnson was thirty-nine years of age. Death is thought to have been due to heart disease, but a post-mortem examination will be held to day to ascertain the cause.

WEDDED IN SANTA MONICA.

Miss Linton Wedded to Edward Sabine Baring-Gould.

Society was disappointed of an anticipated wedding, and was deprived of attendance on the marriage of one of its representative brides, when the marriage of Miss Marion Darragh Linton and Edward Sabine Baring-Gould took place yesterday in Santa Monica, Cal., rather than the family. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Linton, who reside at the home of the parents of the bridegroom in Low Treacher, Devonshire. In the spring they will return to Minneapolis to reside. Mr. Baring-Gould formerly lived in England, where his father is the widely known novelist.
