

SAINT PAUL.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

Blush Gilbert will be at St. Clement's church for the morning service today. The Sunday school will be reported at the health office yesterday from 147 Macalester avenue.

Dr. Shields' lecture that was to have been given in Crutcher school Nov. 24, was postponed until Nov. 27.

St. Paul Council No. 296, of the National Union, is going to give an entertainment and ball at Oxford hall Dec. 15.

Jack Murphy, mentioned in an evening paper in connection with Al Rey, the pugilist, is not Jack Murphy, formerly of Nina avenue, this city.

The regular meeting of the board of directors of St. Paul school of fine arts will be held Tuesday, Dec. 1, at 11 a. m., in the studio of Hotel Metropolitan.

The trial of Miss Rebecca Taylor, charged by James Schoonmaker with criminal libel, will be heard before Judge Orr and a jury in the police court tomorrow.

A meeting of the requisition committee was called at the city hall yesterday at 4 o'clock. The meeting was not held, however, as all the work to be done was the signing of a petition, which Chairman Tim Geason executed.

At Crusaders' hall, Sixth and Fort streets, there will be a social and ball on Monday, Dec. 1, at 8 o'clock on the proposition: "The President of the United States Should be Eligible for One Term."

The Atwood & Jones Manufacturing company, with a capital stock of $25,000, filed articles of incorporation yesterday.

M. F. Farrell, arrested ten days ago for the disappearance of a harness from Fred Toensing's barn, was arraigned in the police court yesterday.

Capt. Peter Berkeley was a prisoner in the police court yesterday morning, having been arrested for violation of the health ordinance. An outburst in the rear of the defendant's residence, which has not been reported in ten years and which Mr. Berkeley kicked against having cleaned, was responsible for the arrest. The case was continued to Tuesday.

The Ladies' Society of the St. John's Lutheran church will give a social and bazaar in the parlors of the church, corner Marquette and Hope streets, Wednesday evening. Numerous articles suitable for Christmas presents have been prepared and a large assortment of dolls will be displayed.

Rudolph Egbert, of 77 Jenks street, was thrown from a rig which he was driving on East Seventh street yesterday morning. His buggy was struck by an electric car on the Seventh street line and one of the forward wheels knocked off. He fell under the vehicle and had his right arm bruised by the wheel passing over it. He was slightly injured by the fall, but recovered sufficiently to walk home.

MENACE TO HEALTH

NEW BRIGHTON STOCK YARDS SCHEME IS THIS SEVERELY DENOUNCED

AT A WARM MASS MEETING OF THE BUSINESS MEN OF SOUTH ST. PAUL AND VICINITY.

THEY SAY THEY WILL NOT MOVE Whether the Inchoate Deal is Carried to Completion by the Railroads or Not.

A meeting of the business men of South St. Paul was held in the Exchange building, Saturday afternoon, to consider the matter of the contemplated purchase of the New Brighton yards by the Minnesota Transfer company.

The following firms were represented: The Union Stockyards company, C. L. Haas Commission company, E. M. Prouty & Co., Rogers & Rogers, Tomlinson, Bowles & Co., Mallory, Son & Zimmerman company, Thuet Bros., Union Stockyards bank, the St. Paul Distillery, the Daily Reporter, Staples & King, W. E. McCormick, the Minnesota Stock company, J. B. Fitzgerald, J. R. King, G. W. Wentworth, Shimmer & Evans, J. E. Bolton, Edgar & Long, J. B. Long & Co.

Hankey Bros., T. J. Moutat, of Sutphen Packing company, Duluth; J. P. Nolan, city recorder.

J. J. Rogers was elected chairman, and George Dart secretary, and the following resolutions were unanimously adopted: Whereas, it has been stated in the public press that the Minnesota Transfer Railway company, a corporation owned and controlled by eight of the prominent railway companies in the United States, is contemplating the purchase of the Minneapolis stock yards, thus banding together for the purpose of maintaining and promoting the interests of said stock yards as against those at South St. Paul, thus endangering St. Paul's commercial interests in general and those of South St. Paul in particular; therefore be it resolved, by the business men of South St. Paul, and in particular, therefore be it resolved, by the business men of South St. Paul, that they will not move from their present location, and will not be induced to do so by any offer of a compromise, which was refused by Mr. Ingersoll, and a dismissal of the case has finally been ordered upon motion of the plaintiffs.

When the dispute arose representation was made to Mr. Ingersoll which induced him to destroy his negatives and to abandon the business, but upon the advice of his attorneys, C. D. O'Brien, he again began making the pictures and the suit in the federal court followed.

A temporary injunction was secured by Kilbourne & Davis, which was dissolved, and later they applied for a permanent injunction. This was refused and the case came before Judge Thomas on a demurrer to the complaint which was never decided.

Bourne & Davis then made an offer of a compromise, which was refused by Mr. Ingersoll, and a dismissal of the case has finally been ordered upon motion of the plaintiffs.

FAST DRIVING NOW The Charge Against the Three Suspected Banditti.

John Moberg, H. Peterson and Charles Ferguson are having a merry time in the police court. Last Monday night Moberg was arrested while in a pawn shop by Patrolman Ferro, Peterson and Ferguson, who were outside the store in a rig, drove off as soon as their companion was taken in custody. They drove to Minneapolis, but Moberg having told where the rig was hired, the police of that city were waiting for the twin when they drove in. Peterson and Ferguson were brought back and arraigned in court yesterday along with Moberg, charged with stealing two pairs of pants from Louis Johnson. The second hand store man in whose possession the pants were found, says they are not his property, and the three prisoners deny all knowledge of the clothing. Ferguson was expected by the officers to take the stand and turn state's evidence on the other two. He refused to carry out the contract, and in consequence the case against them was dismissed. The trio were, however, returned on a charge of fast driving and will have a trial on this charge Tuesday.

FOUND A GARNISHEE. Hamm Brewing Co. Is Hard After Prigge's Money.

The case of William Prigge, the West side saloonkeeper who was recently brought back from Florida on a charge of defrauding the Theodore Hamm Brewing company, was before Judge Kelly yesterday on garnishee proceedings. It was learned by the court that Prigge had been in the hands of a company that D. C. Campbell was supposed to have control of certain funds belonging to Prigge and the former had refused to give up the same. Prigge referred the matter to L. J. Dobner to take the necessary disclosures.

HENRY DIVORCE CASE. Question of Alimony Now Involved.

Mrs. Kate Henry, who is suing her husband for divorce, is applying to Judge Willis yesterday for alimony and attorney's fees, but Peter Henry, the defendant, secured a continuance on the application for collection upon which he upon the immediate surrender by him of all of his wife's personal effects and the payment to her of the sum of $10 before 9 o'clock last evening. The condition of the order were not complied with, Judge Willis stated that he would grant Mrs. Henry $10 a month alimony and $50 at once for attorney's fees.

LOWE IS RELEASED. Prison Doors Opened on Supreme Court's Order.

Charles R. Lowe, sentenced to Stillwater for complicity in the death of Clara Berg, has been released from prison. The indictment upon which he was convicted having been found defective by the supreme court. Mr. Lowe was in St. Paul yesterday, and returned to Chicago.

NOLAN IS MISSING. East St. Paul Man Mysteriously Disappears.

The police have been notified of the disappearance of J. C. Nolan from his home at 1016 East Seventh street. Nolan went away last Monday and no trace can be found of him since that time. He is forty years old, 5 feet 6, weighs 160 pounds, dark hair and brown mustache. He wore a suit of navy blue clothes, and had on overshoes without shoes.

A few dollars each week deposited to the credit of your family at our State Savings Bank, Germania Life Bldg., 4th and Minn. Sts., may some day stand between them and want.

Proper Sources of Relief. The twenty-first parlor conference of the associated charities will be held at Rev. Dr. Smith's, Tuesday evening, Dec. 8. The subject to be "Proper Sources of Relief," to be presented in the following papers: "From the City," H. Hart; "From the Charitable Society," D. R. Noyes; "From the Church," Rev. D. E. Edson; "From the Individual," M. Hanson. General discussion will follow the papers. Invitations may be had from the secretary, J. F. Jackson, 1064 New York Life building.

beret of reason and continued so for a long time after the accident. The plaintiff claims that the city authorities were notified of the defective walk on and prior to the date of the accident.

The other complaint is made by Winie McKenna by her guardian ad litem, Manus McKenna. Plaintiff is less than fourteen years of age. The complaint states that on Aug. 22 the plaintiff's foot caught in a hole in the walk on the south side of Reaney street, between Arcade and Mendota streets.

A broken board flew up and caught her toe, throwing her and causing her to sustain injuries in the form of a broken collar bone. The amount demanded is $500. Edward J. Cameron acts as attorney.

FIELD, SCHLICK & CO. ORIENTAL RUGS AT NEW PRICES.

We have been working hard for nearly a week to get our new stock of Oriental Rugs ready for exhibition and sale. It's probably the largest stock ever shown in the Northwest, and every Rug was selected with the utmost care for its texture, colorings or patterns.

Now there are several ways of selling Rugs. One way is to sell them at auction whenever a bid is received that's high enough to suit the alleged Turk who sells them. In these cases the collections are the left-overs from sales in other cities.

Another way is to mark them at a profit of 100 per cent and then knock off 25 per cent. Neither of these ways suit us. In the first place we bought them wonderfully cheap and we propose to sell them on our basis of Lowest Prices.

The Rugs—even the Antiques—are in perfect condition. There isn't a "rag" in the entire collection. And we promise you the prices will be The Lowest You Ever Saw.

Oriental Rugs in all sizes, from small door mats to large carpets. For convenience of quick selling we make five Very Special lots at very special prices for the opening day of the sale:

- Lot 1—Carabagh Rugs, $6.90. Lot 2—Carabagh Rugs, $8.50. Lot 3—Daghestan Rugs, $10.00. Lot 4—Daghestan Rugs, $12.00. Lot 5—Daghestan Rugs, $15.00.

Bokhara Rugs, in rich, mellow colorings, $15.00, $17.00, $22.00, and up to $45.00. The finest collection of Antique Persian Rugs, large sizes, $35.00 to $85.00 each.

Extra large carpet sizes, $45.00 to $125.00. Stair Rugs, or Hall Runners, all sizes, $35.00 to $140.00. We repeat—these Rugs will be sold on a New Basis—cheaper than you ever saw them.

Every Rug is perfect. They'll wear for years and years and become more valuable every year. Do you know of anything that could be more acceptable as a Christmas Gift? We don't.
