Ice is still plentiful at Chippewa Falls. The only thing the early bird is sure to catch this winter is a cold.

Perhaps the thermometer wouldn't be so low-spirited if it would ride a bicycle.

A cry is going up from the country for rest. Will Mr. McKinley hear it next March?

The weather clerk has Chippewa Falls in his grasp. He also has a fair grip on Eau Claire.

Couldn't congress create the position of "statistician in ordinary" and give it to Gen. Grosvenor?

In 1892 only New York and Pennsylvania cast over 1,000,000 votes. In 1896 Illinois and Ohio were added to the list.

I am not going to pose as a talking fighter—Thomas Sharkey. Please do not forget that remark, Mr. Sharkey.

Probably Capt. Gen. Weyler has plenty of courage, but he can't keep his legs from running away with him.

If the Fifty-fifth congress holds an extra session in March, 1897, the people will hold an extra session with the Fifty-fifth congress in November, 1898.

The superior court of Delaware has ordered a recount of the vote of that state. There is nothing to prevent the peach state from counting votes all winter.

A gun has been manufactured which, it is said, will pitch a base ball successfully. Well, get the life of the man at bay well insured and let the game proceed.

A Pennsylvania town has equipped itself with a bicycle fire department. Heaven only knows what will become of that town some night when a fire or two gets punctured.

Referee Harp realizes that his work in the Sharkey-Fitzsimmons contest was very "square." He says he should have given Sharkey the decision in the fourth round. Pass on, Mr. Harp.

Fashion has decreed, it is said, that ladies shall wear diamonds on their finger nails. To carry out its fads fashion ought to be able to decree that a big check shall go with each of them.

It required a year and a half to pass the McKinley bill, and about as long to pass the Wilson bill, and yet some people appear to believe that the extra session of the Fifty-fifth congress will pass and have in operation a new tariff measure before the end of May.

The question of what is the most expensive product in the world has been settled. It is not diamonds at all, as Consuelo Vanderbilt would have us believe, but the charcoal filaments of incandescent lamps, which are worth $2,000 per pound.

To those who are curious to know, it may be stated that the Bryan and Watson vote of the country was about 110,000. Of this 24,059 was cast in Alabama, 2,137 in Florida, 7,320 in Mississippi, 379 in New Hampshire, 2,615 in Ohio, 6,103 in Pennsylvania, 4,525 in Tennessee, 79,252 in Texas, 2,877 in Maine and 461 in Vermont.

A Republican mathematician, nettled by the constant reiteration of the statement that a change of 25,000 votes would have elected Bryan, calls attention to the fact that the change of 22,397 votes in California, Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, West Virginia and Wisconsin in 1892 would have elected Harrison. It might be added that if all the people had voted exactly opposite from what they did in any election the man who was defeated would have been elected.

REBEL RANKS SWELLED BY THE DESERTION OF FIVE HUNDRED MEN.

WEYLER'S DEFEAT REPORTED.

Rumors Rife of a Battle Between the Troops of Maceo and the Captain General.

KEY WEST, Fla., Dec. 4.—

Passengers by steamer from Havana tonight say a train with 500 wounded Spanish soldiers arrived there today. It was said that most of them came from the vicinity of San Cristobal and Candelaria. No definite statement could be had as from what battlefield they had come. Rumors prevailed on their arrival that Weyler had sustained another defeat. Counter statements were also made that the vanguard of Maceo's army had been defeated. Moreover it was announced that Weyler is the eve of attempting to storm some of the hill tops which Maceo is entrenched, and this has raised great expectations in Havana. This afternoon it was current rumor on the streets that another garrison of Spaniards had deserted over to Maceo with their arms, ammunition and stores. The place was not given, though it is supposed to be near Palacios. Over 450 men were in the garrison. Late in the afternoon guerrilla fighting was reported across the bay from Havana. Just beyond the line of forts, a small party of insurgents made a dash into the suburbs. They succeeded in killing three Spanish soldiers, capturing one captain and firing several shots. They lost five men killed.

Several American correspondents at Havana have had friendly warnings to the effect that Weyler is contemplating deporting some of the more outspoken ones because their reports do not please him.

GROVER WILL ACT.

Congressman Hitt Expects a Radical Proclamation Soon.

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—The chairman of the house committee on foreign affairs, Congressman Robert H. Hitt, was entertained this afternoon at the Union League club at an informal luncheon. A score or more prominent Republicans were present at the conclusion of the feast, Mr. Hitt said he was on his way to Washington and that the object of his visit to the capital at this time was to take some action on the Cuban question. He said that within a month the president would issue a proclamation that would provide for the withdrawal of American troops from Cuba. He said he cordially sympathized with the Cubans. He even went so far as to say the United States should give them material assistance. Just what that assistance should take, however, he did not say. He left for Washington this afternoon.

Famous Half-Back Dead.

ITHACA, N. Y., Dec. 4.—Maj. Winchester D. Osmond reported to have been killed at Guymaro, Cuba, was well known at Cornell. Osmond played on Cornell's football team in 1892 and 1893, and is generally conceded to have been the greatest half back in the history of intercollegiate football.

CRESPINO MAY REBEL.

Unexpected Turn of Affairs in the Boundary Dispute.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Minister Andrade, of Venezuela, will sail from New York for Caracas tomorrow morning on the 10th instant, arriving at New York about the 17th and coming direct to Washington to present in person to Mr. McKinley a copy of the Venezuelan authorities, so far as determined at present, on the British-Venezuelan settlement. James J. Storrow, who accompanied the minister, returned at the same time. They went to Caracas for the special purpose of laying before President Crespo and his associates a copy of the Venezuelan agreement. Their early return is a great surprise. Since their departure, it has come from Venezuela, further than a general statement that the outlook was promising for an acceptance of the agreement and treaty. Now that they have returned to return to the assembly of the Venezuelan congress, it is felt that their meeting with President Crespo has developed some definite line of action on the part of Venezuela.

NOT MR. HANNA.

Grosvenor Says Mark Will Not Be in the Cabinet.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—Congressman Charles S. Grosvenor, of Ohio, is in the city. In an interview he said he did not think Hanna or any other Ohioan will be in the cabinet.

STILL A DEMOCRAT.

Dave Hill Has Nothing Else to Say of Politics.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—Senator David B. Hill arrived in this city tonight. To a reporter who tried to interview him on political matters he said: "There is nothing to say on the line of politics. I am going over to Washington on Sunday. I am a Democrat, and I have been so ever since I can remember what I think to be the interests of the party. I certainly will not say or do anything in the line of politics between Democrats. There are questions of finance and tariff which are bound to come up. These I will discuss on the floor of the senate, but not here."

OREGON VOTE.

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 4.—The official canvass of the vote of Oregon in the late presidential election shows that 97,243 votes were cast, divided as follows: McKinley, 48,771; Bryan, 46,723; Palmer, 973; Levering, 519; McKinley's plurality, 1,972.

He Charges Conspiracy.

WEST SHERBURG, Dec. 4.—A suit has been filed against the Superior Typographical union and its officers under the "conspiracy" statute. The plaintiff is a printer named Ernest Mussgang, who for the past two years has been foreman of the Evening Telegram. Recently the paper adopted the union scale and the union demanded the discharge of Mussgang, refusing to take him into the union. He was discharged, and the higher officers of the typographical union refused to order his reinstatement. He has now brought suit, claiming conspiracy, and demands $2,000 damages.
