TODAY'S VOTE TELLS

SHALL THE PACIFIC RAILWAYS DEBT BE FUNDED OR NOT?

DECISIVE VOTE IN THE HOUSE.

FRIENDS AND OPPONENTS BOTH CONFIDENT OF WINNING IN THE SHOWDOWN.

PETTIGREW'S HOMESTEAD BILL

Will Reach a Vote in the Senate—Week's Forecast for Congress.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The fate of the Pacific railroad funding bill, which was debated three days in the house last week, will be decided tomorrow, when the measure with the pending amendments will come to a vote under the special order under which the house is proceeding. The bill involves the settlement of the $112,000,000 of indebtedness of the Union Pacific and Central Pacific on the basis of 2 per cent. with an annual extinguishment payment on the principal at the rate of $365,000 for the first ten years, $580,000 for the second ten years and $750,000 for the remaining years. It involves as the alternative of its defeat the probable immediate foreclosure of the government's lien and the sale of the property. It is the culmination of the struggle which has gone on in congress for a dozen years to secure some sort of an adjustment of the Pacific railroad indebtedness on the basis of an extension, as it has been apparent for a long period that the roads would default when the bonds matured. The interests at stake are gigantic, and the friends of the bill are straining every nerve. The opponents of the measure are also active, and the result is awaited with intense interest. Both sides have made polls of the members upon which they predicate their claims. Before the final vote is taken on the bill the Bell and Harrington, will be voted upon. The former provides that if the Union Pacific and Central Pacific will discharge the first mortgage indebtedness of $61,000,000, so as to advance the government's lien to a first mortgage, the government will agree to an extension of the debt at a substantial rate of interest. The Harrison bill provides for the creation of a commission consisting of the secretary of the treasury, the secretary of the interior and the attorney general, for the settlement of the debt on a basis fair to the roads and just to the government. After the funding bill is disposed of the house will proceed with the consideration of appropriation bills until Saturday, which will be given up to eulogies on the life and character and the services of the late ex-Speaker Crisp. The Indian and military appropriation bills are on the calendar and before they are disposed of the agricultural bill will be brought up.

THE SENATE.

The course of the senate this week will depend largely upon whether the Pacific railroad funding bill passes the house and whether Senator Cameron will call up his Cuban resolutions. Mr. Cameron's friends expect that he will be in his seat next Monday, and that when he returns he will indicate his desire as to the resolutions on the Cuban question. If he decides to press the resolutions there will be a determined effort to aid him in this direction, but if there are any likely to be a few speeches on Cuba. Senator Mills has announced his purpose to address the senate on the question tomorrow and it is understood that Senator Davis is preparing a Cuban speech. The Pettigrew free homestead bill is expected to reach a vote Monday or Tuesday, and it is to be followed by the Pacific railroad bill, if the latter bill passes the house. Senator Cullom, who will have charge of the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, said today that he expected to be able to report that measure by the middle of the week, and that he would ask the senate to consider it as soon as reported.

Alger at the Capital.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Hon. Russell A. Alger, of Michigan, is in the city for the purpose of securing speakers for the Michigan club banquet, which takes place at Detroit on the 22d of February. He was accompanied by Mr. Babcock, the president of the club.

E. V. SMALLEY THERE.

Delegates to the Monetary Conference Gather at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 10.—Only a few members of the monetary conference have as yet arrived in the city. John P. Irish, of California; W. E. Dodge, of New York, and E. V. Smalley, of St. Paul, being the most prominent of those already here. The majority of the delegates, which it is thought will number 400, are expected tomorrow. It is almost a settled conclusion, however, that a convention shall be created by the convention whose duty will be to submit a final plan to congress and urge its adoption by that body. INAUGURATION OF MCKINLEY IS TO BE A MOST BRILLIANT AFFAIR.

PARADE TO BE GORGEOUS,

AND BIG PRICES WILL HAVE TO BE PAID FOR ACCOMMODATIONS TO SEE IT.

BRAVE AMERICANS THESE.

Declared Allegiance to Spain to Save Their Lives.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 10.

James McGuire, of this city; Jeremiah Bonds, of New York, and Charles W. Allen, of Stamford, Conn., have just reached this city after a brilliant experience in Cuba, in the course of which Wm. Barry, of New York, who had accompanied them, was shot and killed by Spaniards who have expressed themselves as opposed to such a course, and rather favor the placing of the whole subject into the commission's hands with as little debate as possible. The general feeling is that it will not avail much to urge financial reforms on the spring session of congress, owing to the tariff legislation having the right of way.

REGAL INAUGURATION BALL

Such an Affair as Washington Never Witnessed Before—Big Throughs Expected.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The arrangements for the inauguration of President-elect McKinley are progressing in a manner very satisfactory to the committees having them in charge, and it is believed that the decorations, illuminations and ceremonies incident to this event will at least equal in beauty and impressiveness those of any former inauguration. All of the money asked for by the executive committee has been contributed, and a number of contracts have already been let. At a meeting of the executive committee, Chairman Wright, of the committee on public comfort, reported that he will be able to furnish lodgings for 100,000 persons, if necessary. He had already registered 9,100 places where meals can be obtained, and 171 windows and a number of balconies from which the parade may be witnessed. Gen. Clay, from the committee on military organizations, reported that there would be in the parade one entire division from Pennsylvania, consisting of the governor and his staff, division and brigade commanders and their staffs; three regiments of ten companies each; twelve regiments of eight companies each; one battalion of four companies; two companies of cavalry; two companies of naval militia, in all 8,600 men. Maryland will send her entire national guard, and large bodies of troops are expected from New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Rhode Island, Massachusetts and other states. The cadets from the United States military academy at West Point and from the United States naval academy at Annapolis also will be in line, as well as a large number of other military organizations from different parts of the country. Applications from many civic societies and clubs for positions are being received, and this feature of the parade will no doubt be unusually fine. The inaugural ball promises to be an exceptionally brilliant affair. The decorations will be very elaborate and all of the appointments of a very high order. A military band of sixty-five pieces and an orchestra of 125 pieces will furnish the music from separate stands to be erected at the east and north fronts. The committee of civic organizations contemplates the erection of information booths along the line of the parade and in the business portions of the city, to be manned by members of the Washington High School cadets. The Washington Light Infantry Veteran association has tendered its services to the committee to do escort duty during inaugural week. The usual reductions in railroad fares from all parts of the country are expected.

THE SMALL BOY, TOO.

He is Jollying up McKinley—What Office Does He Want?

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 10.

President-elect McKinley is expected at home of Col. Myron T. Herrick today. This morning, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Herrick, he attended services at the Episcopal church. There was a large congregation present. The pastor prayed for divine blessing upon the president-elect and those who were to compose his administration. Mr. McKinley was about to leave the church, an amusing incident occurred. After he had taken his seat in the carriage, three small boys ranged themselves in line before the carriage door. The president-elect bowed and smiled and was about to say a pleasant word to the youngsters, when one of them, evidently by prearrangement, cried: "Three cheers for McKinley." The cheers were given with a hearty good will, while the assembled by-standers clapped their hands and the president-elect's face beamed with smiles. Mr. and Mrs. McKinley will return to their home in Canton tomorrow forenoon.

JONES OF ARKANSAS.

His Re-election Is Considered as Settled.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 10.

The thirty-first biennial session of the Arkansas legislature will assemble tomorrow. There are strong contests for the speakership of the house and the presidency of the senate, there being five candidates for the former and three for the latter place. The first public business after the two houses are organized will be the inauguration of Daniel W. Jones as governor. The ceremony will be very simple. The legislature will, on the second Tuesday after its organization, elect a United States senator to succeed James K. Jones. As Senator Jones has no opposition, the election excites no interest.

POPS CUT LOOSE

OFFICIALLY DECLARE THEY WILL NO LONGER TRAHN WITH SILVERITES.

THEIR ALLIANCE ENDED.

DISINTEGRATION WOULD RESULT FROM CONTINUAL ADVOCACY OF WHITE METAL.

HAVE NO PLANS FOR FUTURE.

National Convention of Leaders to Discuss the Situation Suggested.

BOSTON, Jan. 10.

George F. Washburn, member of the People's party national executive committee, today issued an address to the Populists of the United States. In part the address is as follows: We are to be congratulated upon the growth of our party, and the fact that in the recent election nearly half of the voters of the Union endorsed much of our platform. No party ever achieved a more brilliant success in so brief a time. Although handicapped in the late campaign, we emerged from the contest stronger than ever. Our party alone has a voting force larger than that elected Lincoln, and an able, effective reform press of nearly 2,000 papers. We elected several governors, as well as hundreds of other state, county and town officials. We hold the balance of power in the United States senate, and have four times as many congressmen as ever before. Our party united with the silver forces in the recent campaign, not because we believe free coinage of silver is the solution of the financial problem, but because it would better existing conditions, would meet with the least resistance and would become the entering wedge for our main issue, viz., full legal tender paper money, issued and regulated by congress. Having proved our loyalty at the polls, we are free to act separately on advanced lines and to emphasize the issues our party was born to advocate. We cannot in honor lay down our arms and cease our activity until the wrong which we are enlisted has ended in victory for our cause. The Democratic party proposes to continue the silver fight. Two parties cannot exist on the same issue. The greater absorbs the smaller. Therefore, if we remain mere camp followers of another party, disintegration will result. Our party success alone forced the Democrats to adopt the Chicago platform and nominate a Populist for president. Converts made by party regularity cannot be trusted with the reforms of the future. We are not Democrats and cannot be classed as such. We simply united for a single campaign. The Democratic party is not our party. We do not stand for redemption money, but for a scientific and kept inviolable by proper regulation of the money volume. Then why should a high school scholar graduate achievements are in the future. The proposed retirement of the greenbacks and the issue of the Pacific railroad are not our party's platform, and the strongest measures of our platform, and the logic of events will force upon both congress and the people the consideration of the issue of our party. We are not to win and to our rank and file, we are to win from both the Republican and Democratic parties. I suggest that a national conference of party leaders and workers be held as soon as possible, to discuss the platform and free expression of opinion regarding our platform. We hope, therefore, that the reformers will bring before congress the position of their views on this important subject; and our friends are invited to write their views on the platform and to present their ideas on the independent party action herein proposed.

DREDGERS MAY STRIKE.

Outcome of a Convention of Steam Shovel Engineers.

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.

At the closing session of the convention of the Brotherhood of Steam Shovel and Dredge Engineers and Crane Men of America today the following officers were elected: President, Charles Rees, Chicago; first vice president, John Miller, Chicago; second vice president, Frank Sweet, Trenton, Ont.; third vice president, Mike McGinnis, Salina, O.; fourth vice president, William O. Kennedy, St. Charles, Mo.; secretary, P. J. O'Connell, Moline, Ill.; financial secretary, D. P. Maher, Geneseo, Ill.; secretary, Thomas J. Dolan, Chicago.

LEADVILLE AGAIN WILD.

Killing of Dougherty Nearly Caused Another Riot.

LEADVILLE, Col., Jan. 10.

The killing of Frank Dougherty last night by Policeman Guyton caused intense excitement throughout the city, and led to threats of lynching, armed citizens turned out and reinforced the police guard at the county jail until morning. There were other apprehensions tonight that trouble may yet arise. It is claimed by the police that about a dozen striking miners, including Dougherty, had planned to "do up" the special police force Saturday night, the signal to be the first word uttered to any one of the party by a policeman. Dougherty chanced to be the first man spoken to by an officer, when Officer Guyton asked him if he had a gun. After the shooting, no further effort was made to wipe out the police. A crowd of several hundred collected at the saloon where the shooting took place, however, and the provost guard had to fix bayonets and charged before the street was cleared.

NOT THE EQUAL OF ALTGELD.

Gov. Matthews Paroles Only Three Murderers.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 10.

Gov. Matthews late yesterday decided upon the final disposition of six pardon cases. He made the announcement today of his action in these cases. Five paroles were granted and one remission of a fine. Three of the men paroled were murderers. They were Daniel W. Smith, sentenced from Wayne county, in 1882, for the murder of his father. He was but seventeen years of age at the time, and the deed was done at the instigation of his mother, who was sent to prison for life. George Stoler, of Delaware county, who was sentenced to prison for life in 1868 for the murder of the two sons of a farmer for whom he was working, was another, and Michael Reinhart, sentenced in 1888 for twenty-one years for the murder of Joseph Robinson at Frankfort, Pulaski county, was the third murderer released.

HONOR FOR KEANE.

He Will Be Nominated as Bishop Assistant at Rome.

ROME, Jan. 10.

It is now certain that Bishop Keane, formerly of Washington, will be nominated as bishop assistant at the pontifical throne, though the nomination has not yet been officially made. The pope will also nominate him as titular archbishop and canon of the Patriarchal Basilica, and adviser to some Roman congregations. Since Bishop Keane will make his stay here in order to render services to the Vatican in American religious matters.

COUNT HANNA OUT

HE IS NOT TO BE A MEMBER OF PRESIDENT MCKINLEY'S CABINET.

PREFERS TO BE A SENATOR.

SO SHERMAN WILL GO INTO THE CABINET, AND HANNA INTO CONGRESS.

BLISS HAS NOT DECIDED.

But It is a Certainty Alger Wouldn't Decline to Be Secretary of War.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 10.

The opinion among those who claim to know is that Senator Sherman will be offered and will accept the secretaryship of state in Mr. McKinley's cabinet, and that Mr. Hanna will not be one of the cabinet advisers of the next president. It is believed to be certain that Mr. Hanna will be appointed as the successor of Mr. Sherman in the senate, a place which he very much prefers to any portfolio which the president could offer him. Inasmuch as the senatorial appointment would have to be made by Gov. Bushnell, the arrangement herein suggested is said to indicate the friendly feeling which Senator-elect Foraker has for the president-elect and for the chairman of the national committee. Regarding the selection of Cornelius N. Bliss, of New York, for secretary of the navy, it is said that Mr. Bliss has been offered the place, but that he has deferred his acceptance until he could ascertain whether he could so arrange his business affairs as to permit of his taking the place. Gen. Alger, of Michigan, is counted as certain to be the secretary of war.

PROCTOR SAW MCKINLEY.

He Wasn't After Any Cabinet Office, Either.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.

Senator Proctor, of Vermont, has returned from Cleveland, where he was in consultation yesterday with President-elect McKinley. The senator declines to discuss for publication the object of his visit, as he says his conference with Mr. McKinley was entirely confidential. Mr. Proctor, however, felt free to say for himself that it had been known that he personally did not want to be a cabinet member, but a cabinet position or any other office.

ILLNESS AIDS PERKINS.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 10.

Partisans of Senator Perkins claim a victory for him next Tuesday on the first ballot for United States senator. The illness of three assemblymen will reduce the number necessary to a choice from sixty-one to less than sixty, which Perkins claims sixty members bound by their caucus pledges.

TRUSS CRUSHED TWO.

Butte Workmen Killed by Falling Trestle Work.

BUTTE, Mont., Jan. 10.

While a gang of workmen were employed repairing a trestle on the Great Northern railroad just outside of town today, a big iron truss, which was being put in place, slipped, carrying down with it Peter Hishohn and John O'Connell. The latter was killed outright. Hishohn lived an hour. The company's physician was on his way to the scene on a switch engine, when collision occurred with a freight engine. The doctor, Dr. I. C. Freund, was thrown off, sustaining serious, but not fatal, injuries.

DEBS' HIGH OPINION OF LABOR.

Men Can Be Hired to Shoot Their Fellows.

DENVER, Col., Jan. 10.

E. V. Debs, the well-known labor leader, arrived this morning. He is here to make a series of addresses in aid of the Leadville striking mine. He spoke this morning at the Broadway Temple, and the latter being of a socialistic character, Mr. Debs urging all friends of union labor to support the Leadville strike. He denied that union labor was in favor of fighting for political rights, for, he said, men who will not vote right cannot be depended upon to fight right. He predicted that in a war between capital and labor plenty of laboring men could be hired for 75 cents a day to shoot their fellows.

Chance for a Fire Sale.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 10.

The five-story brick building on the corner of Elliott and Seneca streets, occupied by Altman & Co., wholesale and retail clothing, was badly damaged by fire this afternoon. The fire apparently broke out on the fourth and fifth stories simultaneously, but its origin is unknown. Loss, estimated, $150,000, principally by water and smoke. Insurance about $175,000.

Bottled Yellow Fever.

LONDON, Jan. 10.

A Times dispatch from Montevideo confirms the recent dispatch from Rome which said that a young Italian doctor had discovered the yellow fever germ, after he had himself recovered from the disease. The discoverer was Giuseppe Sanarelli, an eminent disciple of Pasteur and director of the Uruguayan National Institute of Experimental Hygiene.
