

STUART VERY ILL

PROMOTER OF PUGILISTIC ENTERPRISES PULLED THROUGH A DESPERATE CRISIS.

HIS LIFE DESPAIRED OF.

ONE IN TWENTY WERE THE CHANCES FOR THE TEXAN'S RECOVERY.

IS ABLE NOW TO BE ABOUT.

Mountain Fever the Malady Which Threatened to Put Stuart Out—Gossip of the Fight.

CARSON, Nev., Feb. 24.—Although Dan Stuart, promoter of pugilistic enterprises, has been confined to his room for ten days, it was not known until this evening that the Texan had on two occasions been given up by his physicians. It had been reported all along that Stuart was suffering from an attack of indigestion. Tonight it was stated that he was taken down with a peculiar form of pneumonia, known in this section as mountain fever. Both of Stuart's lungs were affected and last Thursday his temperature was 104. A consultation at which four leading physicians of this section were present was held and the medical men declared that Stuart had not more than a chance in twenty to recover. This afternoon he was able to walk about his room and hopes to be about inside of a week. The physicians will not allow anybody to see Stuart.

The live bird shoot to be given here in conjunction with the three chamcame deep with slush, and bright-colored sleighs, which have been kept on the go by numerous newspaper correspondents for a week or more, will hereafter be laid up, probably for the balance of the winter.

BOTH MEN ACTIVE.

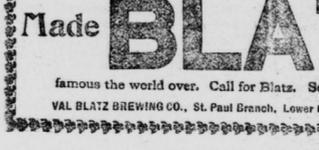

Greater activity was noticeable about the training quarters. The morning train brought assistants to both principals in the coming fight. At Corbett's Billy Delaney and John Jeffries were to come as the mild weather, while Fitzsimmons came to the depot to meet his old assistant, Jack Stelzer. Fitzsimmons came in on foot, covering the entire distance between town and Carson's ranch at a brisk dog trot, followed by Roebor and Hickey in a buggy. After a short time in Carson he returned to quarters in the same way, giving the horse attached to the buggy and his big dog plenty to do to keep pace with him.

When seen by an Associated Press reporter today Fitzsimmons was engaged in a game of checkers with Hickey. He said his cold had almost left him and he expected to take daily runs in addition to gymnasium work from this time on. He will do his road work in the morning, and devote the afternoon to sparring, wrestling and bag punching.

Billy Delaney, who trained Corbett for all his fights, takes the keenest interest in Corbett's work. He is really director-general of the camp. Before he left San Francisco Delaney was very much annoyed by the conflicting reports which were widely circulated about the champion's condition. As soon as he left the train Delaney drove to Shaw's Springs. The celebrated trainer had a long talk with his principal and watched with the greatest interest Corbett's morning work. Delaney was pleased with Jim's condition. He said that in his judgment Corbett is quicker, stronger and heavier now than he ever was before while training for a fight. Jeffries did not have a fight means much to boxing. If a good, clean contest the acute will prosper, otherwise it will kill it.

FITZ' SIDE OF IT.

Speaking of his decision not to agree to any rules prior to the date of the fight, such as proposed in Chicago by Silly Fitzsimmons said:

"Why should I agree to rules at this date to let Corbett practice from my dictation? What a fool I should be to lay down rules for him to study. He runs in addition to gymnasium work from this time on. He will do his road work in the morning, and devote the afternoon to sparring, wrestling and bag punching.

Women will be admitted to the fight. Dan Stuart through his representative made the following announcement last night:

I will admit women to the fight simply because some of the prominent men in the state have indicated a desire to bring their wives. I am not making this move for any other reason, but as a matter of accommodation to the men mentioned. They are the best judges of what they should and should not see.

The live bird tournament in connection with Dan Stuart's other sporting enterprises, March 17 and 18, while it will not interfere with the attendance at the fight, will certainly attract a good deal of attention. J. A. R. Elliott, the Kansas City crack, who holds the championship trophy for live bird shooting, will be the champion. He will be opposed by Philvins, from Red Bank, N. J., and others have already entered for the championship of the world at fifty dollars and $1,000 and the $50 entrance fee will be divided into four moneys. American Shooting association trap rules will govern. Entries may be sent to L. M. Houseman, the secretary of the sporting editor of the Kansas City Star.

Dan Stuart's representative announces that there will be two fights on March 17, besides the one between Corbett and Fitz. "Mysterious" Billy Smith and George Green will figure as the principals in one of the added bouts. The other will be between Martin Flaherty and Dal Hawkins, which, it is believed, will be the most interesting of the night.

BETTING LIVELY.

Consist Odds are Largely in Corbett's Favor.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—Billy Delaney, who "trained" Corbett for his last business, left last night for Carson with J. J. Jeffreys, of Los Angeles. Jeffreys, who is considered the best bookmaker in the west, is engaged to spar with Corbett. He is a big, ambitious novice, but whether he will be a success or not is a matter of opinion. Since Harry Corbett's return from Carson, betting has opened here at a fairly lively rate. Some of the odds on the long end, the rate 10 to 7, with Corbett on the long end, the "big" speculators are quibbling over the odds. Some of the odds on the short end, Harry Corbett's hands to bet on his brother in law, the Fitzsimmons men, however, went 10 to 5.

George Green will leave for Carson this evening and will be in Carson by tomorrow. He is making preparations to train vigorously for his fight with Corbett, who probably leave for Nevada in the near future.

AWARDED TO RYAN.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Feb. 24.—Tommy Ryan, of this city, defeated Tommy Tracey, of Australia, before a crowd of 2,000 persons last night at the Empire Athletic club here. The fight was for three rounds. The Australian stood up for an awful drubbing. He showed his gameness throughout, but was not match for the American champion. In the eighth round, Ryan, who was behind him, entered the ring with a right hand and picked up Ryan's man, who was lying on the floor. Ryan saw him and ordered him out of the ring. In the next round, Ryan jumped into the ring and Ryan saw the move and made a kick at Creedon, which just grazed Dan's face. After the battle had been awarded, Creedon jumped into the ring and advanced toward Ryan's corner. Ryan squared off and it looked like trouble until the men were separated by the referee.

The fight was for the welterweight championship of the world and half of the amount goes to the winner, and 25 per cent to the loser. The winner of the fight was offered a match with George Green (Young Corbett) before the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight, but Ryan says he will not accept it. Ryan has had to have time to become acclimated in Nevada. The men fought at 145 pounds. Ryan weighing within half a pound of the limit.

In the first round Ryan led left for the face, after considerable fighting, but fell back with a straight. Ryan landed a right and a left to the face and a right to the body during the clinch. He was warned by the referee. Ryan landed a right to the body and a left to the face. Tracey hit again in a clinch and was hit. Tracey rushed, but Ryan landed a right to the body and a left to the face. Ryan swung his left to the body. Ryan sent a right to the body. Ryan sent a right to the body.
