The Gentleman Has Been Unable to Get Work in St. Paul-What Experts Say of Him.

Rev. George T. McClelland, the Presbyterian minister whose conduct has greatly worried the St. Paul presbytery, of which he has been a member for the past six years, found himself in the probate court yesterday afternoon to answer to an information of insanity filed by Rev. John Pringle, pastor of the Goodrich Avenue Presbyterian church. Rev. The witnesses who testified against Rev. Mr. McClelland were Rev. J. P. Egbert, Rev. David Morgan, Rev. John Pringle and Dr. Arthur Sweeney. Their testimony in general was to the effect that Mr. McClelland was under the delusion that his brother ministers were persecuting him, that he was mentally incapable of performing the duties of a minister of the gospel, or of earning his living in any capacity and that he was guilty of incessant indiscretions. David Morgan testified in detail as to Mr. McClelland's eccentric behavior while he was boarding at the Bethel, where, according to Mr. Morgan, he reweeks. All the witnesses agreed that the unfortunate preacher was an ob-

"As far as this testimony about my declaring that I am persecuted is concerned, others have talked about it more than I have. Most of the com-plaints the presbytery received from ministers in other states were mere tion. Many of the complaints came from the elders, a large number of whom are soreheads. The synodical missionaries, an abnormal institution of the Presbyterian church, are also

'As to Mr. Morgan's statements about my conduct at the Bethel boat, they are not all true. In the first place, I will swear I stopped there only two weeks and two days, and never took more than one meal a day there, for which I paid 10 cents. It is not true, as Mr. Morgan says, that I gorged myself with pies, cakes and eggs and made myself sick. I have only this to say, that I have never suffered such deprivation as I have in St. Paul. I don't know as I blame the presbytery for this. I merely state It as a fact. I do know, however, that my experience at the Bethel boat made me sick and was the cause of my going to the hospital. I seldom talked with Mr. Morgan. I remember he told me about the rough and tumble experience had undergone to get a living, as if that was any reason why I or any other man should go through the same

Mr. McClelland said he had been unable to get work in St. Paul and intended to go further south. His mother and a brother live in Brighton, Ill. and another brother, who is a minister, resides in New Jersey.

Dr. E. J. Abbott testified that, in his opinion, Mr. McClelland's mental con-dition was not as bright as one would look for in a man of his calling, that is he was not, as Dr. Abbott put it, "up to the standard of the average Presbyterian clergyman.' He was in a ondition of mental instability, querulous and complaining, and unable to earn his living, but not in a condition iring restraint in an asylum. After some twenty minutes' consulta-Drs. Riggs and Ancker decided McClelland ought to be discharged,

The court inclined to a different opinion and ordered Davis committed to the workhouse for two months.

ROSE CASE RESUMED.

Testimony for the Prosecution Not Yet Completed.

The trial of F. R. Rose on the charge of forgery in the second degree, before Judge Kelly, was resumed yesterday forenoon. W. R. Clark, the Minneapolis hotel keeper, whose examination was not finished Saturday, resumed the stand and completed his testimony. The next witness called was H. R. Berclay, the agent of the National Land company, of this city. Mr. Barclay testified that the defendant had presented one of the advertising orders to him, and that he had given a check for the amount, but afterwards discovering that the amount named in the order had been raised, he stopped

LEGACY FOR JUDGE ORR.

Judge Twohy Insisted on Complicating the Michaels Case. Leon Michaels, the proprietor of the ney Darragh, was arrested on a state warrant yesterday, despite the effort of Mr. Darragh to circumvent such proceedings, and arraigned in the police court on the charge of assault and bat-municipal court on March 4. In this connection it was stated that, if the case should be dismissed before Judge Orr, upon motion of City Attorney Darragh, as has been done before Judge Twohy, the latter, if not satisfied with the disposition might next mouth the disposition, might, next month, have Michaels rearrested. To obviate At the this contingency Judge Twohy stated that, should Judge Orr dismiss the case, that would end the matter. The open question now appears to be who will prosecute the case when it comes up The prosecution, it is said, lies within the province of either the city attorney or the county attorney, but on ac-count of the forced issue more com-

FOR SCHOOL INSPECTORS.

Bernard Zimmermann.

Edward O. Zimmerman, of the Second ward, and Bernard Zimmerman of the Fifth ward, were yesterday ap pointed members of the school boar to succeed E. J. Abbott and Richard S McNamee. The appointment of "Bar ney" Zimmermann, of the Fifth ward was one that had been expected as the Globe last week told the fact that the mayor had given it out that he was favorably inclined to the gentle man from the Fifth ward. The ap pointment of the other Zimmerma was something in the nature of a sur prise. It was expected that Charles. F. Mahler would be the second appointee, but as Mr. Mahler is now in the South and is not expected back for a couple of months, the Second war statesman was selected. It is under stood that Mr. Mahler will be given the next vacancy which occurs in the beard. Then Mr. Zimmerman wanted a position on the board of public works but these have both been promised. Bernard Zimmermann is a busine man and has been connected with th People's Ice company for a number of years. He is prominent in Fifth ward politics, and this, it is claimed, gave him the call with the mayor in making the selection.

Edward O. Zimmerman was a member of the reform board of aldermen which was ushered in with the Wright reign in 1892. He was a candidate for re-election in 1894, but fell by the wayside, Charles Kartak securing the elec-tion by a close vote. He has been a resident of the city for a number of years and is said to have been strongly indorsed for some position. This being the only one the mayor had at his disposal, it was given to him. The two appointees are not related to

The contractors claim that they went to considerable expense last year in purchasing brooms carts and other tools, and, as they kept the streets clean and in good condition, they are entitled to the work again

COMO AVENUE GRADE.

Rice Street People Object to Paying for It.

The matter of assessing property on Rice street from University to Como and on Como from Rice to Dale street for a change of grade on Como avenue came up before the board of public works yesterday afternoon. The grade was changed when the new bridge was put in over the railroad and the cost was $1,200. Of this amount the city paid $725 out of the general fund, leaving about $500 to be paid by assessment. A number of the Rice street property owners objected to being as sessed for Comosavenue improvements and the board adjourned the hearing in order that the council could be d some relief. The assess ment is $2.53 per lot.
