AFTER BACK SALARY

EX-CORPORATION ATTORNEY DARRAGH BEGINS AN ACTION AGAINST THE CITY.

THE CUT THAT WAS ORDERED

WAS, HE CLAIMS, CONTRARY TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE CHARTER.

HE PROTESTED AGAINST IT.

Now He Proposes to Show that the Act of Cutting it Off Was Not Justifiable.

The curtain has risen on the second act of a municipal drama which had its inception more than a year ago.

The complaint was made by the corporation attorney, Darragh, who was called in a hurry by the rest of the officials in order that he might ascertain his views on the matter.

After a rather stormy session, during which Mr. Darragh gave notice that if the cut was made he would, at the end of his term, sue for the amount which he had lost.

Attorney Darragh's term of office closed March 10, and true to his word, he has begun suit to recover the amount which has been deducted from his salary since Jan. 1, 1896.

That during the year 1896, and prior thereto, and until March 10, 1897, said plaintiff discharged the duties of the office and rendered service for the defendant as such corporation attorney aforesaid, and that by the act of the city council, an act to amend the charter of the city of St. Paul, passed on the 27th day of January, 1896, the salary and compensation of the plaintiff, as set forth in the charter of the city of St. Paul, is fixed and established at the sum of $12,000 per annum, payable in equal monthly installments, out of the city treasury of said city.

Wherefore, the plaintiff demands judgment against the defendant, for the sum of $722.20, with interest, on the various sums since the time due, together with the costs and disbursements herein made, and an order that the defendant pay the same.

In an interview with Attorney Darragh yesterday afternoon, he said: "It is my intention to have this action tried in the court of law, and that the statutes cannot be delayed, and that I will have the least right in the world to cut my salary."

It was decided that the true between now and the next regular meeting would make too long an intermission in view of the business to be done, and President Kuhles called a special meeting to be held Monday evening next, in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce.
