

MINNEAPOLIS

OFFICE 29 SOUTH FOURTH STREET.

HULBERT IS READY

HE GETS SCHOOL AND LIBRARY BONDS—AS TO SINKING FUND.

MR. HASTINGS MAY DEMUR.

REPORT ALSO THAT HAUGAN MAY BE A BIT OF A STUMBLING BLOCK.

HAWLINS POST ENTERTAINMENT.

How the Young People of the Portland Avenue Church of Christ Cleared Off a Debt.

The board of sinking fund commissioners met at noon yesterday in Mayor Pratt's office and settled the question which arose at Monday's meeting as to the amount of the sinking fund bond which Treasurer-elect Charles S. Hulbert should be asked to give. It has been the custom of his predecessors to give a bond amounting to $150,000 for this fund, but Mr. Hulbert represented that he really did not have the money and that, inasmuch as he did it mostly as an accommodation, it was only fair that it should be lowered to at least $100,000.

The commissioners did even better than Mr. Hulbert had hoped for. After a consultation with the city attorney they agreed to ask the council that the fidelity bond of $500,000 be made to cover the sinking fund. This will not exactly do away with the sinking fund bond, as $400,000 will be made to stand as security for the general funds, and $100,000 for the sinking fund.

The new city treasurer means business. He has been working on his bonds ever since his election, and it has evidently been a comparatively easy matter to secure them. He filed his school and library board bonds.

The sureties on the library board bond of $50,000 are Julia J. Hulbert, the new treasurer's wife, who justifies in the sum of $30,000, and George G. Fuller, who justifies for $20,000. The bond was presented to Secretary Cameron, of the board, yesterday, and he will recommend its approval at the next meeting of the library directors. Albert G. Simonds and C. M. Amssen, elevator men, are the sureties on the school board bond of $50,000. Mr. Amssen takes oath that he is worth $50,000, and Mr. Simonds swears that he is worth $2,000. The board has been submitted to Director F. H. Pease, and he will turn in a favorable recommendation to the board of education.

Although Mr. Hulbert fully intends to take possession of his office tomorrow, complications will probably arise to prevent him from transacting any business. It is rumored that while County Treasurer Hastings recognizes Mr. Hulbert as his legal successor, he will not properly dispose of any money turned over to him, the former will nevertheless be governed by the technicality of non-residency, which may possibly eventually deprive Mr. Hulbert of his office. If Mr. Hastings is not persuaded that the treasurer-elect is legally qualified to look after city funds, the probability is that he will refuse to turn over to him the money due the city. If Registrar Moody, of the waterworks department, pursues a like course, Mr. Hulbert, in the absence of funds, will be unable to do business, and city employees will go without their next monthly stipend.

C. C. Haugan may prove a stumbling block when he is requested to turn over to the treasurer's office to Mr. Hulbert. It is reported that he will decline to do so until the validity of the recent election has been determined beyond all question.

"I see nothing to prevent me from taking charge of the office in a day or so," said Mr. Hulbert, "and I will have less talk about quo warranto proceedings, and I doubt very much if any steps will be taken toward ousting me before the expiration of thirty days, when, of course, it will be necessary to formally re-elect me. In the meantime, having been duly notified of my election and having qualified, I see nothing to prevent my assuming the duties of the office."

THEY ARE GLAD OF IT.

Young People Commemorate an Important Event.

The Young People's Society of Portland Avenue Church of Christ recently formed a unique exercise at the home of Rev. Carey E. Morgan, 260 Portland avenue. The occasion was marked by the society at this time having in its possession a note for $500 given Feb. 15, 1885, for which the pipe organ had been purchased. The note had been during the last two years being gradually paid off in installments, and the couple of months had been allowed to lapse. As the concern from which the organ had been bought, the note was recently assigned, strenuous efforts were made but a short time ago to raise the remainder of the mortgage. This was realized by the young people, and the organ cleared of its debt.

The exercise at the home of the pastor was in commemoration of this event. After a short address by Walter H. Brown, president of the society, the pastor, Rev. Carey E. Morgan, the later read the note, which in its time had been a heavy burden, and applied a lighter name to the now worthless object. The ashes of the note were subsequently consigned to a small bottle, and will be carefully kept following the cremation of the note. The exercise was presided over by W. G. Germaine, on behalf of the first church of the church, and A. T. Ankeny, who spoke in behalf of the trustees.

The remainder of the evening was spent in the playing of games and in the enjoyment of music. A dainty lunch was also served. One of the pleasant features of the evening was the presentation of the Young People's society of a telephone to their pastor. The church has been the beneficiary of the gift, as the house had been carefully wired during the day and the instrument put in its place last evening. The pastor had his attention otherwise engaged. In the telephone directory Mr. Morgan will be known as South 251.

IS SHE MENTALLY UNSOUND?

Ladies Interest Themselves in the Case of Miss Newman.

Steps are being taken to secure the release of Annie Newman from the county jail. Yesterday afternoon three ladies, who would not give their names, called upon the county attorney, and made the statement that Miss Newman, as she called herself, was a lady of quality of standing and of good connections, who was really in a demented state. They wanted to know what could be done, and what they should do. They should desire to get her out of jail and place her where she could be treated for the nervous prostration which she was suffering. The county attorney stated the means, which should be applied, and applications to the court. From what could be learned, Miss Newman has influential friends who have only to be affected by her trouble. The ladies who called were evidently well connected, and in earnest in their endeavor to secure the release of the unfortunate woman. They promise to take the will come out from the affidavits are filed for the purpose intended, or at least when the facts are clear. The charges are that the mental condition of the prisoner will therefore be tried very shortly in open court.

NECESSARY STEPS, AND UNDOUBTEDLY THE FACTS

IT WAS UNIQUE.

Very Enjoyable Affair Given by Rawlins Post.

The rather novel idea originated by Rawlins post, G. R. M. Temple, of having stated evenings of private entertainment for the members of the army, in a particular state might entertain the post, has met with enthusiastic success. Last evening was the "Pennsylvania" night, and the descendants from the Quaker state held forth to their satisfaction. The feature of the evening was a paper read by Post-Commander Torrance, treating of the general work of the people of the state during the war. The paper was read by the efforts of the women towards those who were soldiers who passed through that state. He stated that the possession of the two children of Gettysburg who came from Pennsylvania were ranged in columns of 1,000 each in a market square, and that they would take from 8 o'clock in the morning until 4:30 in the afternoon to pass a given point, the number being given by the Advance Guard delivered by Comrade Fox, of the Sixty-third regiment; Comrade Perkins, of Acker post, St. Paul; Comrade Mortimer, of Morgan post, and others.

HUNTERS CHILDREN.

Arguments in the Case to Be Heard This Morning.

Judge Russell heard another chapter in the case of the Maternity Hospital against C. O. Huntress and the possession of the two children, and then continued the case until this morning for the arguments. The defense was presented by the attorney for the hospital, and he swore on his own behalf that the children were out of the city when the writ was issued. Judge Russell asked him pointedly if his oldest child was his own, and he swore that it was. Judge Russell then asked if the child was the child of Huntress, and he swore that it was. The court then ruled that the children were out of the city when the writ was issued, and the case was adjourned until this morning.

PLEADED NOT GUILTY.

Case of A. E. Bishman Has Been Misunderstood.

The case of the arrest of A. E. Bishman, of Willmar, for improper using the mails, was misunderstood on the part of certain newspapers. Bishman pleaded guilty, and was bound over to await the federal grand jury. He was not bound over to await the federal grand jury, and he was not bound over to await the federal grand jury. He was not bound over to await the federal grand jury, and he was not bound over to await the federal grand jury.

CAUGHT ON A SLEEPING CAR.

A unique point of law was settled recently by Judge Seaman, of the United States district court, at Milwaukee. It was in a suit brought by the Falls Manufacturing company to recover $10,000 alleged to be due them by the Twin City Rapid Transit company for the use of the street railway.

ELLA LEWIS UNDER ARREST.

William O'Connor, a lumberman, claims that he was relieved of $40 secreted in his trunk on the train. He was arrested by the police, and the trunk was searched. The money was found, and O'Connor was released. He was arrested by the police, and the trunk was searched. The money was found, and O'Connor was released.

JUDGE RUSSELL WILL CHARGE.

The jury in the case of The State against Edward F. Ferris and Fred W. Harvey, who were charged with the murder of a woman, will be charged by Judge Russell. The case is being tried in the United States district court at Milwaukee.

FOR INCORRECTIBILITY.

Annie Moore, a bright, active, thirteen-year-old girl, will be taken to the Red Wing training school this morning. She is being taken to the school because of her incorrigible behavior. She is being taken to the school because of her incorrigible behavior.

CAR WALLACE HURT.

Carl Wallace, of the Pioneer Press, who was in the collision yesterday afternoon between the car and the street car, was injured. He was taken to the hospital, and his injuries are not serious. He was taken to the hospital, and his injuries are not serious.

BRAIN DEWENT A REEL.

Three years is too long for the freshman course at the university, in the opinion of the faculty, and as a result one of the class of 'naughty-naughts' has been dismissed for the rest of the year. The young man entered the institution with the class of '88, but for various reasons took things easy, and concluded that the time had come when he should leave. He was dismissed for the rest of the year.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH.

The verdict of the jury that acted on the coroner's inquest over the remains of Rev. Dr. George H. Truick, formerly of Minneapolis, was that his death was accidental. The remains were found in a box, and the jury found that they had been there for some time. The remains were found in a box, and the jury found that they had been there for some time.

COL. STEVENS BETTER.

The report in an evening paper yesterday to the effect that Col. John H. Stevens was ill and his recovery doubtful, was unauthenticated. During the past few days Mr. Stevens has been in better physical condition than he has since his illness, which commenced six months ago. He is at present residing with his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Wainster, 1232 Park avenue.

MINNEAPOLIS GLOBULES.

Judge Simpson granted a divorce yesterday in the case of the divorce of Mrs. J. H. Simpson from her husband. The divorce was granted because of the husband's misconduct. The divorce was granted because of the husband's misconduct.

DAVID WOLF, AGED TWENTY-FOUR, DIED YESTERDAY

of the city of Minneapolis, of heart disease. He had been receiving treatment at the hospital for some time. He had been receiving treatment at the hospital for some time.

FLOOD CREEPING UP

IT IS FEARED THAT WHEN THESE WATERS BEGINS TO FLOW THE BANKS WILL BE SWOONED TO OVERFLOWING.

RELIEF FOR SUFFERERS.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 16.—Gov. Jones today issued a proclamation calling the legislature in session the necessity of making appropriations for the relief of the sufferers from the great drought in Arkansas. The proclamation represents the district composed of Chicot and DeWitt counties, which are overflooded.

LOSS OF LIFE EXPECTED.

CASUALTIES ARE CERTAIN UNLESS THERE IS A SPEEDY CHANGE IN CONDITIONS.

HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE HOMELESS. No Effort Spared to Rescue the Flood Victims and Relieve Their Necessities.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 16.—The Mississippi river, which tonight gauges a fraction over 35.5 feet, is of over one-tenth since morning. The river continues to rise slowly. Two lives are known to have been lost during the day. Two negroes, who live near Newark, attempted to cross Mound lake in a dugout when they were caught in the mighty current, the boat capsized and they were swept away.

HONORS AT STAKE

Continued From First Page.

took a short run in the morning and a long run in the afternoon. He kept his wind in good condition, but he took no violent exercise, and for the greater part of the day he remained in his quarters. He was not allowed to see his opponent, and he was not allowed to see his opponent.

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

HONORS AT STAKE

Continued From First Page.

took a short run in the morning and a long run in the afternoon. He kept his wind in good condition, but he took no violent exercise, and for the greater part of the day he remained in his quarters. He was not allowed to see his opponent, and he was not allowed to see his opponent.

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

When asked if he did not think that the superior weight of Corbett would be a serious handicap to Fitzsimmons, Julian said: "I think that Fitz can get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett. He will get the best of Corbett, and he will get the best of Corbett."

AT RAN BLOW UP

LOVE IN THE SCALE.

"How much does the baby weigh?" is often another way of asking, "Is he healthy and strong?" When a baby is welcomed into the world with good care and strength, his chances for health and strength are increased a hundred-fold.

TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY SPANISH SOLDIERS KILLED OR WOUNDED.

SIX CARS ON A BRIDGE. HEAVY CHARGES OF DYNAMITE UNDER THEM EXPLODED BY ELECTRICITY.

COUP PLANNED BY AN AMERICAN.

Debris Flew Into the Air and Fell Into a Deep Gorge, Crashing the Victims.

NEW YORK, March 17.—A Havana special to the World says: Through Cubans here it is learned that a train carrying Spanish troops was blown up by dynamite while passing over a deep gorge south of Candelaria, Pinar del Rio province, and the nearly 200 soldiers were killed or injured. The motive and six cars were demolished. The tragedy occurred about the 10th. The Spanish Gen. Arrial had learned of a projected insurgent attack, supposedly on San Cristobal, and he sent off 500 troops in armored cars to reinforce the garrison there. About ten miles from San Cristobal the train crossed a deep gorge on a very high bridge about 500 feet long.

The insurgents learning of the departure of the train, lined the bridge at the bend of dynamite, connecting the explosive by wires with a battery in the woods some distance off. Three hundred insurgents lay in ambush near the bridge, and when the train crossed they fired. The train was blown up, and the debris flew into the air like so many clouds. The engine and cars were crushed by the wires. The engine and cars were crushed by the wires. The engine and cars were crushed by the wires.

Three Sweepstakes Matches Shot Off at Carson.

CARSON, Nev., March 16.—Owing to the delay in the arrival of the train, half a dozen wing shots from Utah and California failed to arrive in time to enter the contest. The contest was postponed until the afternoon, when ten men were required to fill the cup shoot, the championship event was declared a match race between J. A. R. Elliott, of Pasadena, Cal., and A. P. Bigelow, of Ogden, Utah.

When the sweepstakes shot, in which Champion declined to enter, A. P. Bigelow, of Ogden, won the cup by hitting one on ten straight kills, while "One Barrel" of Carson, Cal., hit nine on ten. The second sweepstakes was won by the champion, who hit ten on ten. The champion was J. A. R. Elliott, of Pasadena, Cal.

When the sweepstakes shot, in which Champion declined to enter, A. P. Bigelow, of Ogden, won the cup by hitting one on ten straight kills, while "One Barrel" of Carson, Cal., hit nine on ten. The second sweepstakes was won by the champion, who hit ten on ten. The champion was J. A. R. Elliott, of Pasadena, Cal.

When the sweepstakes shot, in which Champion declined to enter, A. P. Bigelow, of Ogden, won the cup by hitting one on ten straight kills, while "One Barrel" of Carson, Cal., hit nine on ten. The second sweepstakes was won by the champion, who hit ten on ten. The champion was J. A. R. Elliott, of Pasadena, Cal.

When the sweepstakes shot, in which Champion declined to enter, A. P. Bigelow, of Ogden, won the cup by hitting one on ten straight kills, while "One Barrel" of Carson, Cal., hit nine on ten. The second sweepstakes was won by the champion, who hit ten on ten. The champion was J. A. R. Elliott, of Pasadena, Cal.

When the sweepstakes shot, in which Champion declined to enter, A. P. Bigelow, of Ogden, won the cup by hitting one on ten straight kills, while "One Barrel" of Carson, Cal., hit nine on ten. The second sweepstakes was won by the champion, who hit ten on ten. The champion was J. A. R. Elliott, of Pasadena, Cal.

When the sweepstakes shot, in which Champion declined to enter, A. P. Bigelow, of Ogden, won the cup by hitting one on ten straight kills, while "One Barrel" of Carson, Cal., hit nine on ten. The second sweepstakes was won by the champion, who hit ten on ten. The champion was J. A. R. Elliott, of Pasadena, Cal.

When the sweepstakes shot, in which Champion declined to enter, A. P. Bigelow, of Ogden, won the cup by hitting one on ten straight kills, while "One Barrel" of Carson, Cal., hit nine on ten. The second sweepstakes was won by the champion, who hit ten on ten. The champion was J. A. R. Elliott, of Pasadena, Cal.

When the sweepstakes shot, in which Champion declined to enter, A. P. Bigelow, of Ogden, won the cup by hitting one on ten straight kills, while "One Barrel" of Carson, Cal., hit nine on ten. The second sweepstakes was won by the champion, who hit ten on ten. The champion was J. A. R. Elliott, of Pasadena, Cal.

When the sweepstakes shot, in which Champion declined to enter, A. P. Bigelow, of Ogden, won the cup by hitting one on ten straight kills, while "One Barrel" of Carson, Cal., hit nine on ten. The second sweepstakes was won by the champion, who hit ten on ten. The champion was J. A. R. Elliott, of Pasadena, Cal.

When the sweepstakes shot, in which Champion declined to enter, A. P. Bigelow, of Ogden, won the cup by hitting one on ten straight kills, while "One Barrel" of Carson, Cal., hit nine on ten. The second sweepstakes was won by the champion, who hit ten on ten. The champion was J. A. R. Elliott, of Pasadena, Cal.

When the sweepstakes shot, in which Champion declined to enter, A. P. Bigelow, of Ogden, won the cup by hitting one on ten straight kills, while "One Barrel" of Carson, Cal., hit nine on ten. The second sweepstakes was won by the champion, who hit ten on ten. The champion was J. A. R. Elliott, of Pasadena, Cal.

When the sweepstakes shot, in which Champion declined to enter, A. P. Bigelow, of Ogden, won the cup by hitting one on ten straight kills, while "One Barrel" of Carson, Cal., hit nine on ten. The second sweepstakes was won by the champion, who hit ten on ten. The champion was J. A. R. Elliott, of Pasadena, Cal.

When the sweepstakes shot, in which Champion declined to enter, A. P. Bigelow, of Ogden, won the cup by hitting one on ten straight kills, while "One Barrel" of Carson, Cal., hit nine on ten. The second sweepstakes was won by the champion, who hit ten on ten. The champion was J. A. R. Elliott, of Pasadena, Cal.

When the sweepstakes shot, in which Champion declined to enter, A. P. Bigelow, of Ogden, won the cup by hitting one on ten straight kills, while "One Barrel" of Carson, Cal., hit nine on ten. The second sweepstakes was won by the champion, who hit ten on ten. The champion was J. A. R. Elliott, of Pasadena, Cal.

When the sweepstakes shot, in which Champion declined to enter, A. P. Bigelow, of Ogden, won the cup by hitting one on ten straight kills, while "One Barrel" of Carson, Cal., hit nine on ten. The second sweepstakes was won by the champion, who hit ten on ten. The champion was J. A. R. Elliott, of Pasadena, Cal.

When the sweepstakes shot, in which Champion declined to enter, A. P. Bigelow, of Ogden, won the cup by hitting one on ten straight kills, while "One Barrel" of Carson, Cal., hit nine on ten. The second sweepstakes was won by the champion, who hit ten on ten. The champion was J. A. R. Elliott, of Pasadena, Cal.

AT RAN BLOW UP

LOVE IN THE SCALE.

"How much does the baby weigh?" is often another way of asking, "Is he healthy and strong?" When a baby is welcomed into the world with good care and strength, his chances for health and strength are increased a hundred-fold.