Independence in Prospect for Cubans.

So Mr. Hitt Declares in the House During the Course of an Exciting Debate.

Negotiations to That End Are Already on Foot Under Direction of the Administration—Early Results Expected by McKinley.

House Votes the Relief for Americans on the Island Asked of Congress by the President.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Cuban affairs furnished the house with a day of bitter partisan debate. The resolution appropriating $50,000 for the relief of American citizens was adopted without a dissenting vote, but the Democrats endeavored to force consideration, also, of the Morgan resolution for recognition of the belligerency of the insurgents.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The long and exciting debate on the joint resolution, recognizing the existence of a state of war in Cuba and declaring that strict neutrality shall be maintained by the United States, passed the senate by the decisive vote of 41 to 14 at a late hour this afternoon.

STOP! YOU HAVE GONE FAR ENOUGH.

authority," Mr. Hitt began, and, hesitating toward his answer, finally continued: "I have reason to believe that the president is taking as active and as effective steps as he can to secure the independence of Cuba, and that fact I am convinced has reached Spanish headquarters, for the news reaches us today that the minister, who will probably be in power in thirty days, has said that the Cuban war is utterly hopeless."

Formal General Armistice. Terms of Peace Now Under Discussion. CONSTANTINOPLE, May 20.—The armistice concluded today is general, and includes the land and sea forces of both combatants.

LONDON, May 20.—The armistice agreement stipulated that a mixed commission of officers of superior rank shall establish a neutral zone between the two armies and that no advance on either flank shall be permitted.

ATHENS, May 20.—M. Ralli, the premier, in the course of an interview today, said: "The indemnity which Greece will pay to Turkey will be in proportion to the resources of Greece and her financial position."

Berlin, May 20.—A telegram received here from Constantinople this afternoon says that the attempt of the Turkish commander in Epirus to treat with the Greeks for an armistice has resulted in failure, owing to the Greeks having ignored the flag of truce, and their having attempted yesterday with two battalions of the troops to make a fresh incursion into Turkish territory.

Senator Earle Dead. Up to the End Hopes Were Entertained of His Recovery. COLUMBIA, S. C., May 20.—Senator Joseph R. Earle died at his residence in Greenville this afternoon at 5:35 o'clock.

Heavy Hoboken Loss. Property Valued at Nearly $700,000 Destroyed by Fire. NEW YORK, May 20.—Twice tonight fire visited Hoboken, N. J., and the loss was heavy.

Morgan's Resolution Is Passed.

Senate by an Overwhelming Vote Recognizes the Insurgents as Belligerents.

The Final Vote Preceded by Two Tests of Strength and a Bitter Debate in Which All the Leaders Were Involved.

An Early War with Spain Predicted by Mr. Hale as the Result of the Action Taken.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The long and exciting debate on the joint resolution, recognizing the existence of a state of war in Cuba and declaring that strict neutrality shall be maintained by the United States, passed the senate by the decisive vote of 41 to 14 at a late hour this afternoon.
