Clothing has no place here. We haven't room for something you don't want. Remark that feature of our stock next time you're in. Correct Clothing—moves sprightly—old styles linger, as poet laureate Austin would say. The war-whoop of reduction doesn't affect 'em—they've been scalped too often. Wouldn't pay us to handle such stuff. Our stock is new, crisp, right. Bright chevots—no nobby tweeds, and undressed worsteds, are the correct stuffs. Every size—long, stout, and regular. Always remember—wrong made right—reliable clothing—money refunded.

Suits $8 to $25. Trousers, all-wool, $2 to $6.

GILGILY'S HARD LUCK STORY.

Searching for His Wife, He Lands in Jail.

Joseph Gilgily, a tinner by trade, who arrived in St. Paul from Winnipeg Monday last, occupied a cell at the central police station last night. He was arrested by Patrolman William Banker shortly after 6 o'clock last night on East Third street on complaint of W. J. Willows. Gilgily is charged with the tab with carrying concealed weapons, and a 44 calibre revolver was found in one of his pockets when he was searched at the station. He claims that there is nothing to the charge and tells a hard luck story about the cause of his arrest. Some eleven years ago, he married Mattie Adair, of Millbrook, and since that time has lived at Winnipeg working at his trade for J. H. Ashdown, of that city. In July last his wife came to St. Paul on a visit, and after remaining here several months returned home. In February last, accompanied by the two children, a girl aged ten and a boy two years old, she came to St. Paul and wrote him that she intended to make her home here. Last Monday Gilgily came to St. Paul, but failed to find the place where his wife came to St. Paul, and after making an attempt to meet her on the street and had an interview, at which one of the children was present. Yesterday he learned that his wife and children were living in the Presley block on East Third street, and called at the apartments. There was no one home but the two children, who were playing. He returned he says he was informed by his daughter that Mr. Willows, who roomed there, had a big revolver in his trunk, and that the children had taken it to his wife, who is of an excitable temperament, might return and cause trouble, he placed the revolver in his pocket. When the children got out of the street to await their mother's return and shortly afterward was approached by a policeman who took him to the station. Gilgily says he intended to go to his wife and children last night had he not been arrested. Willows is a tinner and formerly lived at Winnipeg. He is twenty-four years old, and has a beard. He explained that he was fearful that Gilgily intended to use the weapon, and for that reason caused his arrest.

SERIES OF TABLEAUX.

Excellent Entertainment by the School of Fine Arts.

A studio entertainment was given at the school of fine arts, last night. Fully 500 people were present, who appreciated and enjoyed the artistic posing. The coloring of the pictures was seemingly correct as to color and were excellent reproductions of the pictures they represented. The only trouble to be found was that some of the pictures were not perfectly distinct. The first picture, Madonna and Child and John, characters impersonated by Miss Greiser, Mr. Farwell and professional model, was quite good. The next two, the Madonna, by Botticelli, and Circé, by Burne-Jones, were impersonated by a professional model, Miss Mesner, Miss Holman and Miss Almest pictured "The Blessed Damozel." Miss Nabeberg and Miss Coglan took the parts in "Some of Her New Friends," by Kenyon Cox. Miss Murray made a pretty picture in "The Loving Cup," in Dante's "Dream." Mrs. Thompson, W. F. Farwell and W. P. Hale posed.

Minor State Matters.

The Swedish Republicans are howling because, as they say, Gov. Clough has removed half a dozen more Swedish-Americans from more or less important positions under the state since his inauguration for his last term. They say that burning the party as well as himself and them. Tomorrow being the day for the celebration of Memorial day, the offices at the state house will be closed all day. State Treasurer Koerner has gone to his home in Litchfield to spend Memorial day. Gov. Clough and staff will sit for a photo this morning in Minneapolis, before taking part in the Memorial day exercises. This will be the first getting together of the new staff.

That Part of the Official Programme Relating to the Afternoon Exercises and Parade.

Memorial day is here again. The celebrations that mark this day which have not hitherto appeared in connection with the honors to the memory of the dead heroes. The exercises at the several cemeteries will be in general the same as those of former years. They will take place this morning. This afternoon comes the parade, which is scheduled to start at 2 o'clock. Several hundred school children will be in line for the first time, and the Junior Pioneers will also appear in the parade. They will also place wreaths on the graves of the Juniors who have passed away. The day will generally be observed in St. Paul. For the benefit of the readers of the Globe and those who participate, that part of the official programme relating to the afternoon's events, the parade and meeting at Auditorium, is reproduced.

DOG CATCHERS IN TROUBLE.

Mrs. J. C. Willard Accuses Them of Assault.

A warrant was issued yesterday for the arrest of A. St. Germain and P. I. Rolin, two of the city dog catchers. The complaint was made by Mrs. J. C. Willard, of 633 West street, who alleges that the men assaulted, kicked and attempted to throw her to the ground. It appears from Mrs. Willard's story that the two dog catchers visited her house yesterday morning and demanded that she take out a license for two small dogs. As neither of the animals was licensed, Mrs. Willard informed them that under the ordinance no license was required. One of the pups was seized by one of the dog catchers and placed in the wagon, but the other one Mrs. Willard took in her arms. The men, according to Mrs. Willard, attempted to get possession of the dog and one of them scratched her face and attempted to throw her to the ground while the other kicked her. Neighbors who had witnessed the assault came to Mrs. Willard's rescue and prevented the dog catchers from taking the dog. Mrs. Willard is in a very delicate condition and her husband, who accompanied her to the city hall to secure a warrant against the men, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Malloy, who reside in the vicinity of the Willard residence, and a number of other persons who have been subpoenaed as witnesses. After the trouble was over the dog catchers went away, but took neither the dogs which caused the excitement, nor the license fee.

COUNTY PRISON ASSOCIATION.

Election of Officers Goes Over Three Months.

The board of directors of the Ramsey County Prison association held its annual meeting at the office of Judge Willich yesterday afternoon. Prof. H. S. Baker was in the chair. Others present were: Vice President J. D. Ludden, R. A. Kirk, Rev. William R. Lord, Prof. H. W. Slack, Secretary H. H. Hart, Rev. S. G. Smith, J. C. McNeil, J. C. Ripley, J. C. Phillips, Judge Willich, Mrs. C. W. Leonard and Secretary Wellington. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted: Resolved, That after a year's experience in all its efforts to promote the cause of the prisoners in the county, it is important to the youth of our city and to the welfare in the prevention of crime and dependence. Resolved, That the board collectively and individually do all in their power to promote the work and sustain the secretary in carrying it on. The election of officers was deferred until the next quarterly meeting.

Oh, How Thankful

Suffered for Years With Terrible Sores.

Pain Was Maddening and Hope of Cure Had Been Abandoned

Wonderful Results of Purifying the Blood With Hood's Sarsaparilla. A running sore, constant suffering, relief abandoned—all the results of impurities in the blood. Suffering relieved, pain banished, health restored by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood, cures skin diseases, restores the system, and gives you a new lease of life. It is the only medicine that will cure you of your blood. I was taken with a pain in my left knee, and it became worse and worse. Ever since then I have been a running sore. I discharged a great deal and the pain from my thigh down was maddening. Large, Hard, Purple Spots would appear on my leg, and the veins would become so large that sometimes I thought they would burst. No matter how I washed, it would not get better. The sore was so sensitive that I could not walk, and a slight touch would cause it to bleed. I suffered in this way for years, and gave up all hope of ever being cured. My wife was reading of a case like mine. Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla and she advised me to try it, saying she believed it would cure me. I began taking it and in a few days I felt better. I found relief from my suffering. I now feel no pain, and the sore is nearly healed. Oh, how thankful I am for this relief. Since I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I am a different man than I have ever been in my life. I am in the best of health, have a good appetite and am a new man altogether. J. P. Moore, Lisbon Falls, Me.

IN THE SCHOOLS.

Lessons of Memorial Day Were Made Prominent.

If the children of the St. Paul school lack ought in their reverence for the heroes of the civil war, it is not the fault of the teachers, for certainly the exercises which were held in all the city schools yesterday, in accordance with the programmes previously printed, showed a careful preparation which could scarcely be faulted for its thoroughness. In the youthful minds some spirit of patriotism that would outlast the detailed recollection of the details of the

IN HONOR OF NEWEL

YALE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION OF THE NORTHWEST AT THE BANQUET BOARD.

SPEND A JOYOUS EVENING.

THE ST. PAUL MAN PROPERLY INSTRUCTED CONCERNING HIS FUTURE DUTIES.

GEORGE C. RIPLEY, PRESIDENT.

Chosen at a Business Meeting Held Preliminary to the Festivities of the Occasion.

Fully half a hundred members of the Yale Alumni Association of the Northwest gathered about the banquet tables at the Aberdeen last night to bid farewell and Godspeed to their fellow alumnus, Stanford Newel, who is soon to depart for European shores. Mr. Newel will remember the occasion for a long time to come. So will all who participated, for surely no man was ever the recipient of a heartier testimonial of good will and expression of best wishes from his friends and associates than Mr. Newel received from his fellow alumnus. The object of the gathering was characteristically expressed in the following announcement that appeared on the menu card: "As previously announced by our secretary, we have come together at this our annual meeting, a little out of season, partly that we may have an opportunity to bid Godspeed to Newel and partly to see that he is properly instructed concerning the duties of a foreign minister. The following well known diplomats are expected to give him the necessary information and advice: "Hon. Samuel Thayer, President Cyrus Northrop, Hon. George C. Ripley, Hon. Dan W. Lawler, Perpetual Secretary C. S. Jelley and Hon. M. D. Munn. "Appropriate musical specialties will be introduced during the evening by Merrill, Griggs, Dudley and others." The programme was carried out in all respects. Mr. Newel was "properly instructed" concerning his duties abroad, and there was no dearth of "appropriate musical specialties." The Aberdeen ordinary resounded with the familiar and spirited college airs which all joined in singing. The menu card was tasteful and unique in device. The outside bore the inscription "Yale Alumni Association of the Northwest, to Hon. Stanford Newel, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Netherlands." The card consisted of two outside covers of stiff Bristol card board. On the frontispiece is a picture of a typical Dutch town, and the back cover is a large pair of wooden sabots, marked "S. N." and "U. S. M." There is a path between a field of tulips leading from the sabots to the town. The picture tells its own story. On the back of the cover are the Yale colors and the Stars and Stripes. The inner pages contain the menu. The committee in charge of the banquet comprised Dr. Burnside Foster, William R. Begg and W. W. Heffelfinger, of Minneapolis.

QUESTS A REPRESENTATION.

Organized Labor and the Proposed Charter Commission.

The Trades and Labor assembly last evening authorized the executive board to prepare a list of free holders to be submitted to the district judges with a request that representatives of organized labor on the charter commission be chosen therefrom in the event that the common council passes the ordinance requesting the appointment of the commission. M. E. Murray and Frank Pampusch were appointed as vacancies on the executive board. Frank Pampusch, T. P. Thomas, James Morrow, J. E. Krieger and M. E. Murray were constituted a committee on arrangements for the convention of the national union of leather workers on horse goods, scheduled to meet here next month. J. J. Conlin was appointed to a vacancy on the organization committee; T. P. Thomas, as press and council committee, and Henry Glese Jr., and J. C. McNeil, as delegates to the State Federation of Labor convention. A Sure Deliverance. Not instantaneously, it is true, but in a few days the persons of a bilious habit are saved from the tortures which a disordered liver is capable of inflicting by Hostetter's Stomachic and Cathartic. It is a specific of the first rank. The pain in the right side and through the right shoulder is relieved, the constipation and saffron hue of the skin, are entirely removed by this estimable restorative of tone to the organs of secretion and digestion. DELEGATION OF FARMERS. Milwaukee Brings in a Party From Down the Line. The Milwaukee road ran in a special over the Iowa and Minnesota division yesterday morning, bringing in about 200 farmers. The party was in charge of "Traveling Passenger Agent Scanlan. The visitors returned to the city last evening. The farmers boarded special cars on the city electric line and went direct to the state farm. They were entertained there, Col. William M. Liggett and others of the agricultural college doing the honors of the occasion. The visitors returned to the city last evening, some of them going home and others remaining until today. E. T. SOMERS DEAD. Passed Away Thursday Night of Heart Disease. The funeral of Edmund T. Somers, who died Thursday night of heart disease, 480 State street, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The deceased was forty-seven years of age, and although born in New York state, had lived in St. Paul nearly forty years. He was a brother of other farmers, and for some time past has been engaged in the real estate business with an office in the Germania Life building.

THEIR SABBATH AT HAND.

Work Suspended at the Adventists' Camp Grounds Today.

"Yesterday was an ideal day for 'camping out' purposes, and the inhabitants of the 'city of tents,' at Merriam Park, where the Adventists' camp meeting is in progress, thoroughly enjoyed and fully improved its opportunities and privileges. The campers were early astir. The morning devotional service, beginning at 6 o'clock, followed by breakfast and family worship, occupied the time until 8 o'clock, when all the available hands in the camp were called to the large open space near the entrance to the grounds, to assist in erecting the big pavilion, which has a seating capacity of 2,500, and is the most conspicuous object in view in the midway district. As today is the Sabbath with the Adventists, yesterday was of course, preparation day, so every effort was put forth to complete the preparation of the camp before the setting sun should usher in the sacred hours of the Sabbath day, for, true to their professions of following the teachings of the word of God in all things, they observe the Sabbath from evening unto evening." However, believing that nothing can properly take precedence of the service and worship of God, at the appointed hour all tents were dropped, all work postponed, and all assembled at the place of worship. The 11 o'clock hour was occupied by Elder W. A. Sweeney, of Albert Lea, who called attention to the Savior's invitation to all who are weary and heavy laden, to come to Him and find rest. The programme in the afternoon was slightly changed, the 5 o'clock council meeting being omitted, and a public Bible reading being held instead at 2:30, by Elder N. W. Kanbie, on the subject of the latter rain. The study of this subject in the scriptures revealed the fact that the time of the latter rain is here, and that soon its refreshing showers will fall upon the earth. At 7 o'clock all the campers assembled at the pavilion and welcomed the Sabbath hours of the Sabbath, as the sun sank from view in the western sky. The pupil was occupied in the evening by Elder D. E. Scoles, of Walla Walla, Wash.
