

SAINT PAUL.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

State Auditor R. C. Dunn will take a week of next week to help Princeton entertain the State of Wisconsin...

Scarlet fever is reported at 144 South Washburn street and 681 Frank street, and diphtheria at 430 Morton street...

W. H. Anderson, of Merriam Park, died a week of assignment yesterday to Houghton G. Thomas, of Minneapolis...

Committees of the commercial department of the Central high school will meet at the Central high school building tonight...

The members of Union Lodge No. 48, I. O. O. F., and members of the order generally are invited to attend a game of football...

The aldermanic committee on claims at its session yesterday afternoon held up the livery bills incurred by the board of public works...

Judge Willis held an order yesterday evening appointing Arthur E. Jones receiver of the rents and profits of the premises involved in the foreclosure proceedings instituted by the Kaye against Lizzie E. Montgomery and others...

Another non-resident insane person has been found. Yesterday evening Sheriff Hart received word that the probate judge at Duluth had refused to commit an insane man brought before him, on the ground that the man was not a proper charge of the state...

Two large samples of cheese from Fergus Falls were received by the state dairy and food commissioner yesterday. Several families in and near Fergus Falls made sick by eating the cheese, and the manufacturers, who themselves sent the samples, are anxious to know what is the matter...

A meeting was held last Wednesday evening by fifteen enthusiastic chess and checker players interested in organizing a chess and checker club...

The governor also appointed C. N. Cosgrove, of Le Sueur, to succeed the late John Byers, of Hastings, on the state board of managers of the public school at Owatonna...

T. N. Rosby, of Bemidji, was appointed probate judge of the newly organized county of Beltrami.

No Extra Charge. For seats in the Reeling Chair cars on the Burlington Limited Trains. We were asked, when this train was exhibited in Minneapolis...

Fort Snelling Notes. The usual drill was suspended yesterday on account of the rain.

Day Coaches. On a good many railroad lines are about the most uncomfortable method of transportation that a passenger can have inflicted upon him.

One Fare to Pittsburg. And return via Chicago Great Western Railway (Maple Leaf Route) on account of the meeting of the Junior Order United American Mechanics, June 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 1897.

Carlson Bound Over. Joseph Carlson, accused of attempting a criminal assault upon Miss Jennie Martinson at her home, 472 Bradley street, was given preliminary examination in the police court yesterday and held to the grand jury.

Look at the Low Rates. To New York and Boston and Return. June 11, 12, 13, and 14. The North-Western will sell tickets from Minneapolis to St. Paul to New York or Boston and return at $30.50.

Geo. H. Chickering. President Chickering & Sons writes the following: Since the first piano manufactured by Jonas Chickering in 1825, we have made none but the highest grade pianos.

Chickering Pianos. Are sold in the Northwest only by Howard, Farwell & Co., 20-22-24 West 6th St.

TIED OF THE FIGHT

PHILIP REILLY BATTLES WITH DISEASE UNTIL IT BECOMES THE MASTER.

DRIVING HIM TO SUICIDE.

PRESIDENT OF THE JOHN MARTIN LUMBER COMPANY ENDS HIS LIFE.

WENT TO TOP OF THE WAREHOUSE

His Body Found a Few Hours Later - Sketch of the Prominent Figure.

Philip Reilly, one of St. Paul's pioneer residents and prominent in commercial circles, as the president of the John Martin Lumber company, ended his life yesterday morning, by blowing out his brains with a revolver. The deed of self-destruction took place at the yard of the lumber company on Como avenue about 10:30 o'clock, but was not discovered until noon, when a son of the dead man found him on the fourth floor of the warehouse with the top of his head blown off and the weapon lying at his side. His health covering a period of five years, resulting in acute melancholia, is assigned as the cause for the suicide. Coroner Nelson, after an investigation, decided an autopsy unnecessary.

PHILIP REILLY.

Mr. Reilly had been feeling unusually ill for the past week, but had regularly attended to his business duties. Thursday, however, he felt so badly that he was unable to go to work, and he remained at home during the afternoon, but yesterday again made his appearance at his place of business. He looked very poorly, and so patient were the effects of his sickness, that those about the office remonstrated with him concerning his presence. Mr. Reilly replied that he felt badly, but nevertheless went to his desk for the transaction of his day's business.

Shortly after 10 o'clock he left the office, and as the noon hour passed without his return, a search was instituted which resulted in the finding of his dead body on the top floor of the warehouse, of which the office, occupying the ground floor, is a part. No one had heard the report of the pistol. The body lay upon a pile of new doors with the upper part of the head completely blown away. In the left hand was clutched a large revolver. The weapon had been held to the right side of the head showing the deceased to have fired the shot in an awkward position or while reclining.

The announcement of Mr. Reilly's death created a shock among his business associates, and an effort was made to keep the matter from becoming generally known, until the sad news could be quietly broken to Mrs. Reilly. The news of the tragedy gradually spread, however, and from all sides came expressions of sympathy and condolence.

Mr. Reilly's business affairs are said to be in excellent condition. Wednesday morning he returned from Iron River, Wis., where he had large interests in lumber mills, and stated that he was entirely satisfied with the way they were running and pleased with the general business outlook.

His physical trouble was a complication of diseases, primarily caused by chronic asthma. He had made an ill fight against failing health for some years, and in the opinion of his family, only succumbed to the melancholia which oppressed him, when his mind had become unbalanced by his ailments.

The dead man came to St. Paul from West Virginia in 1865, and soon thereafter founded the business which he built to its present proportions. Naturally a hearty and genial disposition, he made friends of all with whom he came in contact, and in any plan for the advancement of the city he was to be found among the foremost supporters. Mr. Reilly leaves a family composed of twenty-one years of age, and two daughters. The family residence is at 655 Dayton avenue, whence the funeral arrangements for which have not yet been made, will take place.

Philip Reilly was born Dec. 15, 1842, in Marshall county, West Virginia. He was educated in St. Vincent's college, Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania. He came to St. Paul in May, 1865, for the benefit of his health, which was so much improved that he decided to locate here permanently. The same year he began working for W. V. Washburn as clerk of his lumber yards, remaining with him until 1871. He then formed a partnership with H. J. Taylor at general lumber dealers in this city dissolved in January, 1887, the outcome being John Martin Lumber Co., afterwards and at present the John Martin Lumber company, of which Mr. Reilly was the president until his death. July 10, 1873, he married Miss Jennie Taylor, of Sugar Grove, Warren county, Pa., a daughter of his former partner, a pioneer resident of St. Paul.

Metropolitan Attractions. When the Giffen-Neill stock company finishes its engagement in this city it will leave

DEPOT LOOP ORDINANCE.

That Drawn by Aid, Sanborn Recommended for Passage.

The committee on streets of the board of aldermen held a comparatively short session yesterday afternoon, but succeeded in transacting some important business.

After disposing of a few routine matters, the committee drew the Sanborn depot loop ordinance from its pigeon hole, and after a brief discussion, recommended it for adoption.

The ordinance provides for the construction of single tracks on Sibley street from Fifth to Third, on Third from Robert to Wacouta street, and on Wacouta from Third to Fifth street. The design is to operate four lines of street cars on the loops thus formed, the Lafayette and Grand avenue and the Grand avenue and Hamline lines. The first two

ITS YEAR IS CLOSED

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES AT HAMLINE MORE THAN USUALLY INTERESTING.

TOPICS OF CURRENT TIMES

ARE TREATED BY THE ORATORS OF THE CLASS OF 1897.

MEDICS IN SCARLET CAPES

Add a Metaphoric Effect to the Scenes of the Final Day at the Methodist College.

The annual commencement exercises of the senior class of Hamline university took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the university chapel. The graduates of the medical department came in a body from Minneapolis, and as they marched from the car with their black gowns and caps, distinguished from those of the academic school by a crimson band, they made a picturesque effect.

The formal decorations were numerous and beautiful. Around the platform whereon stood the orators, were many large palms, and festoons of smilax intermingled with sweet peas had been lavishly hung over the entire building. The flowers were selected and arranged by Misses Jessie Evans, Mary Fluke, Leona Lewis, Dolly Adams and Winifred Bloomfield; Messrs. Atha, Arthur Olsen, Leo Merritt, F. H. Taylor, Knox Campbell, Carl Young, Arthur Martin and A. Lawson.

On the platform were seated the following trustees and members of the faculty: Dr. C. B. Mitchell, Dr. J. F. Chaffee, Dr. Jabez Brooks, Dr. Crafts, Prof. J. T. Moore, Prof. Columbus Slagle, Prof. C. M. Ferro, Prof. G. C. Barton, Dr. W. H. Hollowell, Dr. C. J. Byrnes, Dr. J. H. Stuart, Dr. David O. Thomas, Prof. F. B. Mearick, Prof. W. C. Thompson, Prof. W. C. Thompson, L. H. Batchelder, F. B. Cowgill, W. H. Shannon, Dr. Innes, Rev. Dr. R. U. McKaig, Prof. Griffin, Rev. Mr. Ward, Dr. Bridgman, of St. Paul.

The degree of doctor of divinity was conferred upon Rev. Frank B. Cowgill, pastor of the Methodist church at Hamline, and Rev. Matt S. Hughes, pastor of Wesley Methodist church in Minneapolis. Responses were briefly made by Messrs. Cowgill and Hughes.

The principal orator of the day, Dr. C. B. Mitchell, in his address, dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education." He said: "The modern education is not a new thing, but an old thing that has been re-created. It is the result of the struggle between the old and the new, and it is the result of the struggle between the material and the spiritual."

Dr. Mitchell's address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day.

Dr. Mitchell's address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day.

Dr. Mitchell's address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day.

Dr. Mitchell's address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day.

Dr. Mitchell's address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day.

Dr. Mitchell's address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day.

Dr. Mitchell's address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day.

Dr. Mitchell's address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day.

Dr. Mitchell's address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day.

Dr. Mitchell's address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day.

Dr. Mitchell's address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day.

Dr. Mitchell's address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day.

Dr. Mitchell's address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day.

Dr. Mitchell's address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day. He dealt with the subject of the "Modern Education," and his address was one of the most interesting of the day.

MR. AUERBACH QUILTS

HE WILL DO SO WHEN THE COURT GIVES ASSENT.

DUTIES OF RECEIVERSHIP

TAKE UP MORE OF HIS TIME THAN HE CAN DEVOTE TO THEM.

THERE WERE OTHER REASONS.

Was Placed in an Awkward Position and Desires to Have Done With It.

Maurice Auerbach tendered to the district court yesterday his resignation as receiver of the Allemania bank. Mr. Auerbach also petitioned the court to accept the same and to name a time when he could render his account and be discharged as such receiver.

The resignation was formally presented to Judge Otis in chambers, by A. G. Briggs, attorney for Receiver Auerbach. Thereupon Judge Otis signed an order providing that "the matter of the resignation, accounting and discharge of Maurice Auerbach as receiver of the Allemania bank and the appointment of his successor as receiver, be heard by the court at a special term thereof, to be held Saturday, June 19, at 10 a. m., or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard."

The court further ordered that notice of the hearing be given to all parties interested, by serving a copy of its order on the Attorney General Childs, and publishing it in the three daily papers of the city.

In the meantime, Mr. Auerbach will continue to act as receiver until June 19, or until his successor is appointed and qualifies. Mr. Auerbach, when seen later, said in explanation of his action:

"It is true that I have resigned as receiver of the Allemania. I regretted exceedingly to have to do so, but I found it absolutely necessary to take the step for the reason that I could not attend to my own business and that of the receivership at the same time.

"The receivership took up a large share of my attention and I was obliged to neglect the Allemania business interests which are quite extensive."

"Again, if I enforced the orders of the court in conformity with my oath as receiver, it would be necessary for me to bring suits against a number of business men, which mean ruin to them. A number of these have called on me and beseeched me not to enforce the liability against them. I have heard to turn a deaf ear to such petitions, and yet I had no option in the matter if I was to do my duty to the capacity of receiver. You can see for yourself how awkward my position was. I valued my peace of mind more than the dollars and cents in administering the receivership, and no amount of money would tempt me to remain as receiver under all the circumstances."

"It is my intention to take a European trip with my family in the fall, and I could not have done so had I remained as receiver. These are the only reasons that prompted me, though quite reluctantly, to tender my resignation."

Mr. Auerbach said that he had no idea when the court would appoint in his stead.

BICKEL READY FOR TRIAL. His Attorney Will Ask to Have It Called at Once. W. H. McDonald, attorney for William F. Bickel, is anxious to have the trial of his client called at once. Bickel is indicted for the larceny of $1500 from E. J. Lucas. As soon as the case against Congressman Stevens had been disposed of yesterday, Attorney McDonald stopped the county attorney and suggested that the Bickel case could be taken up first. McDonald said that he would be busy for several days with the grand jury, and would not have time to try the case inside of a week. Mr. McDonald insisted that his client must have a speedy trial, and intended to return to the city in a few days. He has the case called at once. Mr. Anderson, however, refused to consider the matter, and after a return to the city, there was no prospect of his being able to trial under the circumstances, he would be glad to hear of it. The trial will be held at the residence of Judge Lewis. Mr. McDonald intending to request the court for an immediate trial of the case.

Time Is money and it is always said to be the essence of contracts. It is certainly important to a traveler to arrive at his destination in time. There is no line in the Northwest which has a time record superior to that of the Burlington, if equal to it, either in speed or in promptness of arrival at terminals. In fact, in many of the smaller towns along the line, the inhabitants have ceased to rely upon the "clock," but note the passage of the Burlington Limited, by which they regulate their time. If you desire to have a good time and pleasant time, and arrive at your destination on time, making good time on the way, secure your ticket via the Burlington. Ticket offices, 406 Robert st., (Hotel Ryan), St. Paul, and 300 Nicollet av., Minneapolis.

It Eases the Nerves. Brings health and contentment. Anheuser-Busch's Malt-Nutrine. The greatest of all malt tonics. To be had at all druggists.

"A Cosy Corner," The subject of one of Millet's paintings, made him famous—either that or "The Angelus." Both are superb. Our Furnishings Corner isn't a painting, but all the colors of the famous artist's pallet are gathered there in studied harmony. Not vulgar creations that offend, but exquisite weaves that please. Nothing cheapens one's appearance so much as "cheap," gaudy Neckwear. "Cheap" Neckwear is usually made up in big quantities—of short-end Silks—and invariably of undesirable silk weaves. It pays to buy the best, even in Neckwear. No matter what your needs—be it Collar Button or a handsome suit of Pajamas—our time is yours—make the best of it. Everything for rainy weather. Drop in to-day—any day—you won't be importuned to buy. SIXTH AND ROBERT. The Boston St. Paul BOWLBY & CO.

MR. AUERBACH QUILTS. THAT IS, HE WILL DO SO WHEN THE COURT GIVES ASSENT.

DUTIES OF RECEIVERSHIP. TAKE UP MORE OF HIS TIME THAN HE CAN DEVOTE TO THEM.

THERE WERE OTHER REASONS. Was Placed in an Awkward Position and Desires to Have Done With It.

Maurice Auerbach tendered to the district court yesterday his resignation as receiver of the Allemania bank. Mr. Auerbach also petitioned the court to accept the same and to name a time when he could render his account and be discharged as such receiver.

The resignation was formally presented to Judge Otis in chambers, by A. G. Briggs, attorney for Receiver Auerbach. Thereupon Judge Otis signed an order providing that "the matter of the resignation, accounting and discharge of Maurice Auerbach as receiver of the Allemania bank and the appointment of his successor as receiver, be heard by the court at a special term thereof, to be held Saturday, June 19, at 10 a. m., or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard."

The court further ordered that notice of the hearing be given to all parties interested, by serving a copy of its order on the Attorney General Childs, and publishing it in the three daily papers of the city.

In the meantime, Mr. Auerbach will continue to act as receiver until June 19, or until his successor is appointed and qualifies. Mr. Auerbach, when seen later, said in explanation of his action:

"It is true that I have resigned as receiver of the Allemania. I regretted exceedingly to have to do so, but I found it absolutely necessary to take the step for the reason that I could not attend to my own business and that of the receivership at the same time.

"The receivership took up a large share of my attention and I was obliged to neglect the Allemania business interests which are quite extensive."

"Again, if I enforced the orders of the court in conformity with my oath as receiver, it would be necessary for me to bring suits against a number of business men, which mean ruin to them. A number of these have called on me and beseeched me not to enforce the liability against them. I have heard to turn a deaf ear to such petitions, and yet I had no option in the matter if I was to do my duty to the capacity of receiver. You can see for yourself how awkward my position was. I valued my peace of mind more than the dollars and cents in administering the receivership, and no amount of money would tempt me to remain as receiver under all the circumstances."

"It is my intention to take a European trip with my family in the fall, and I could not have done so had I remained as receiver. These are the only reasons that prompted me, though quite reluctantly, to tender my resignation."

Mr. Auerbach said that he had no idea when the court would appoint in his stead.

BICKEL READY FOR TRIAL. His Attorney Will Ask to Have It Called at Once. W. H. McDonald, attorney for William F. Bickel, is anxious to have the trial of his client called at once. Bickel is indicted for the larceny of $1500 from E. J. Lucas. As soon as the case against Congressman Stevens had been disposed of yesterday, Attorney McDonald stopped the county attorney and suggested that the Bickel case could be taken up first. McDonald said that he would be busy for several days with the grand jury, and would not have time to try the case inside of a week. Mr. McDonald insisted that his client must have a speedy trial, and intended to return to the city in a few days. He has the case called at once. Mr. Anderson, however, refused to consider the matter, and after a return to the city, there was no prospect of his being able to trial under the circumstances, he would be glad to hear of it. The trial will be held at the residence of Judge Lewis. Mr. McDonald intending to request the court for an immediate trial of the case.

Time Is money and it is always said to be the essence of contracts. It is certainly important to a traveler to arrive at his destination in time. There is no line in the Northwest which has a time record superior to that of the Burlington, if equal to it, either in speed or in promptness of arrival at terminals. In fact, in many of the smaller towns along the line, the inhabitants have ceased to rely upon the "clock," but note the passage of the Burlington Limited, by which they regulate their time. If you desire to have a good time and pleasant time, and arrive at your destination on time, making good time on the way, secure your ticket via the Burlington. Ticket offices, 406 Robert st., (Hotel Ryan), St. Paul, and 300 Nicollet av., Minneapolis.

It Eases the Nerves. Brings health and contentment. Anheuser-Busch's Malt-Nutrine. The greatest of all malt tonics. To be had at all druggists.