BERG MEN WAKE UP

DO NOT PROPOSE TO BE CAUGHT NAPPING BY GIBBS AND RICE

IN THE RACE FOR GOVERNOR.

SAID THAT THE OTHERS ARE ALREADY ACTIVE IN THE FIELD.

AND BERG'S FRIENDS INTEND TO PUSH THE GILMAN HASSO PROFOUNDLY INTO THE STATE'S GREATEST POLITICAL HONOR.

Their bid recently put in for the superstructure of the new state capitol was, as far as can be figured out, among the lowest, and the firm name was prominently mentioned as likely to be awarded the job.

The firm is now working on the big annex to the New York life building and the Ryan annex in Milwaukee, with their new work in Milwaukee, will in no sense interfere with their ambition to secure the building of the new state capitol.

BRUTALITY OF THE POLICE.

West Side Officers Skillful With Their Clubs.

William Weimar, of 873 York street, presented a much better appearance in the police court yesterday than he did on the morning of June 18, when he was drunk and disorderly. He was charged with disorderly conduct, Weimar, Paul Schultz, Mrs. Anna Schultz, Mrs. Maria Beyers and Miss Maria Schultz were arrested on the morning of June 18 at the Schultz residence on Fairfield. Weimar was first taken by Sergeant Martin and Patrolman Malquist, at the Ducan street station, and beside being arraigned was given a brutal beating by the two policemen. The case has been postponed from time to time during the past month at the request of the police officers, who claimed that they were looking for an important witness. The evidence taken yesterday showed that there had been no disorderly conduct on the part of the police officers, and after listening to the testimony Judge Orr ordered the discharge of the defendant.

Sergeant Martin and Patrolman Malquist both testified that all the persons at the Schultz residence that night were drunk and disorderly. Each of the other hand a dozen witnesses testified that Weimar was brutally assaulted by the officers without any provocation and that none of the persons at the party were intoxicated. One of the witnesses living opposite the police box, where the arrest occurred, testified that after Weimar had been assaulted and beaten by Sergeant Martin and Patrolman Malquist, E. McDonald appeared for the prisoners and had been discharged announced that charges would be filed with the mayor against the sergeant and patrolman.

There was an unusual gathering of Republican politicians in the corridors of the state house yesterday morning and from the fact that most of them knew each other and every one of them knew some one who knew them all, there was a strong suspicion that the henchmen were drawn together by some common purpose, especially as this is not the usual season of the year for such congregations. This suspicion was heightened when the larger number of the visitors adjourned to one of the legislative rooms upstairs and remained for some hours in secret session. The press was not officially informed as to the deliberations of the solemn convocation, but from the fact that the meeting included members of both branches of the legislature, all of them prominent in the councils of the party and many of them from the districts from which the returns in 1896 indicate that the hottest fight will have to be made in 1898, there seemed to be little ground to doubt that the purpose of the meeting was political. A number of the people present at the meeting were generally understood by the friends to be friendly to the candidacy of Albert Berg, the present secretary of state, to the governorship of 1898, and the Globe is informed by those who are in the know something at least of the conclusions reached with respect to the determination that the friends of Mr. Berg should not be defeated by inertia at least.

It was whispered about that already John L. Gibbs, the present lieutenant governor, thinks he is in the line of promotion and that he is already out of the running. The Jolly Jockey, an agricultural element into the same belief as far as may be. The fact that the name of ex-Lieut. Gov. A. E. Rice, of Wilmar, has been mentioned in connection with the same connection, and that he is believed by the leaders to possess undoubted elements of strength in the critical district, was also looked upon as a signal for the Berg people to be up and doing.

THOUGHT HE HEARD BURGLARS.

W. J. Doran Receives a Shock and Shocks a Policeman.

The resident in the vicinity of East Winifred street and Bancroft avenue who was given a burglar scare yesterday morning, shortly before 3 o'clock W. J. Doran, who resides at 297 East Winifred street, was aroused from his slumber by a strange noise which at once convinced him that there were burglars in the house. The residence is lighted with electric lights, and just at the head of the bed occupied by Mr. Doran is a window which, by the turn of a thumb screw, lights the entire house. The lights were immediately turned on and the sudden illumination of the room, as well as the scene a policeman, who, according to the neighbors, keeps a close watch on the houses in that section of the city. Mr. Doran is the son of the present chief executive of the city and head of the police department, and this is why there is always a policeman within sight of his home. The officer hustled to the house, and being hailed from the upper window by Mr. Doran, was informed that there were burglars about. A careful search was made of the premises, but no trace was found of any prowlers.

OPENS WITH RECEPTION.

Exhibit of Manufacturers in the Market Building.

The members of the Northwestern Manufacturers' union who have been busy for the last few days placing exhibits of their products in the market house, have completed their work and the lower hall in the building now looks considerably like a department in a real fair. The names of the firms who have placed goods there were mentioned in yesterday's Globe. All of these are now in shape and today at 1 p. m. the doors will be thrown open to the public. Beginning Monday, the exhibit hall will be open to the public daily from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. during the week, and on Saturday evenings will remain open until 10 o'clock. In addition to the exhibitors and residents of St. Paul will always find a welcome there and also a fine place to take strangers coming into the city.

GOING TO BUFFALO.

Large G. A. R. Delegation Will Attend Encampment.

St. Paul will be liberally represented at the G. A. R. encampment at Buffalo, N. Y., which is only seven weeks' distant. As yet no definite arrangements regarding the transportation of the St. Paul G. A. R. post have been made, but it is generally understood that the delegation will be a large one. Gen. M. B. Flower, of Acker Post, says that very few of the comrades of that post will miss the national encampment. Gen. Flower also looks for a big delegation from the entire state of Minnesota.

WHERE BUSCO MEN THRIVE.

Union Depot Gives Up Its Customary Victim.

John R. Macken, who calls from Steubenville, New York, has three sons in Seattle, and quite a little money, being a thrifty farmer, since he left St. Paul. He has less money when he left St. Paul than when he reached here yesterday morning. It happened on the Northern Pacific, and on the morning of the Northern Pacific, he was walking away an hour or two before the train started from the depot on the foot of Sibley street. A very accommodating fellow showed him over the berth and explained to him the details of the train, and how much the river had risen, and was willing to show him other things, when a second man, who explained that he was an agent of the Northern Pacific, appeared, and was short $12 to give a patron change on a freight bill. Could other things help him out for a minute? The old man could, and upon the promise that his berth would be given him in addition to the return of the money, easily gave up the coin. Possibly the freight men could not get back with the money, but the man who started on the train, or possibly it was one more case of plain everyday "freight bill bunco" as it is called, the latter. The old man left St. Paul July 8.

In the Globe voting contest it is not necessary that the Retail Merchants' Association should be advertisers in the Globe.

MISSING MAN HEARD FROM.

Chief Goss yesterday notified the Montreal office that S. E. Hibbs, who, it was supposed, had mysteriously disappeared simply because he failed to reach that city at the same time as his baggage, was all right. It appears that Mr. Hibbs stopped at the Globe hotel during his stay in this city and left Thursday morning for home.

ST. PAUL FIRM'S SUCCESS.

Hennesy & Cox Secure Contract From the Government.

St. Paul people will be glad to learn that, according to a Washington telegram, the well-known St. Paul firm of contractors, Hennesy & Cox, has been awarded the contract for putting in the interior work on the public building in Milwaukee. They were the lowest of twenty-one bidders, the amount of their bid being $250,983. The award was made yesterday.

Hennesy & Cox came into prominence long ago as big contractors, some of the best and most substantial buildings done in this section of the country having been completed under their contracts. Such representative structures as the Wisconsin State building, the Minneapolis, the New York buildings and Globe buildings in both cities, the Spalding hotel in Duluth, are monuments to their skill and enterprise.

Of summer the blood must be kept pure and the stomach and digestive organs in a healthy condition. Otherwise there is great danger of sudden illness which may lead to protracted suffering. TO LOSE COL. JONES

GOVERNMENT ENGINEER OF THIS DISTRICT WILL BE TRANSFERRED TO BALTIMORE.

CAPT. ABBOTT SUCCEEDS HIM.

CONDITION OF THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER RESERVOIRS AT THIS PARTICULAR TIME.

TWO ARE COMPLETELY FILLED.

Others Are Rapidly Filling Up—Will Not Be Opened as Early as Usual.

Col. W. E. Jones, who has for the past eight years been government engineer in charge of the district of St. Paul, will, Oct. 1, be transferred to the district having its headquarters at Baltimore. He will be succeeded here by Capt. Fred V. Abbott, now stationed at Charleston, S. C. Col. Jones, who is now away on leave, in Boston, will be in St. Paul during the month of September, the office in the interim being in charge of his assistant, A. O. Powell.

Chief among the duties of this department is the care of the system of reservoirs constructed and maintained in this state for the purpose of collecting the surplus water, principally from the precipitation of winter, spring and early summer, to be systematically released so as to benefit navigation upon the Mississippi river below the dams and as far down as Lake Pepin. Reduction of heights of floods in localities immediately below the dams is expected to obtain to some extent, but control of extended floods or freshets is not expected.

This year the reservoirs have caught more water than ever before, since their construction, so that two of them—at Pokegama and Sandy lake—are completely full, while the remaining three—at Lake Winnibigoshish, Leech lake, and Pine river—are filling up rapidly. It is the custom during the low water season to open these reservoirs each year about Aug. 1, at which time the water is thus raised some eighteen inches for the benefit of navigation, but this year, on account of the continued heavy rains, it is expected that the date may be somewhat later, possibly not until late in September. Following a high stage of water, this process is the more necessary for the reason that high water flattens out the river, and renders the channel less useful for navigation than ordinary low water.

There are now in the jurisdiction of this district five completed reservoirs as follows: At Lake Winnibigoshish, capacity 45,800,000 cubic feet; at Leech lake, capacity 30,000,000 cubic feet; at Pokegama falls, capacity 4,700,000 cubic feet; at Sandy lake, capacity 7,500,000 cubic feet; at Lake Pepin, capacity 3,000,000 cubic feet.

The government has for the past two weeks been acquiring some 3,000 or 6,000 acres of land for flood rights, twelve miles west of the city of Brainard, where the next reservoir will be constructed. An additional 1,000 acres will be necessary, and the fall and winter will probably be spent in getting possession of this land, after which the work of building will be begun.
