If Prof. Andree has no more pigeons, will he please send the balloon back?

The Klondike miner who was sun-struck was the only pebble of that sort on the beach.

It is at least odd enough in Alaska to enable a whole lot of people to freeze onto fortunes.

Oklahoma raised 125,000 bales of cotton this year. That isn't all it raised, but let that pass.

The reaper is in the wheat of Southern Minnesota and South Dakota, and merry music it makes.

Your cigar costs you 50 cents at Dawson City, Alaska, but it is nevertheless the same old five-cent cigar.

A Missouri judge has declared slot machines not gambling devices. That is a sort of Montana decision.

"The president is off," says the Minneapolis Tribune. We hardly expected a Republican paper to say that.

Connecticut is trying to solve a murder mystery with only two hairs to work on, and one of these is a red one.

Mobile, Ala., is getting to be the liveliest place on the continent. It had three murders on Wednesday night.

A man has to have "rocks" to buy lumber in Alaska. It is selling as fast as it can be sawed at $150 per thousand feet.

Secretary Sherman has denied the rumor that he intends to resign. This was entirely unnecessary. Ohio men do not resign.

A cow burned up Chicago in 1871 by kicking over a lantern. A young man with a cigarette narrowly escaped doing the same thing yesterday.

Peter McNally, an American, swam thirty-five miles across the English channel. He may be listed as "one more American in the swim."

How's Mexico as a counter irritant to Alaska? One miner has been taking $15,000 a month from placer diggings in the state of Guerrero, Mexico.

The mailsters of the United States have formed a trust. They will continue to sell the schooners that pass in the night at five cents per schooner.

A correspondent, who is willing to make affidavit to his accuracy, says the mosquito of Alaska has been slanted. He says he is neither so big as the New Jersey mosquito nor so industrious as the mosquito native to Mississippi.

A discussion is on in Chicago as to the weight of the honey bee. It must depend largely on whether or not he has his fighting clothes on. The foot of the bee is as heavy as that of the elephant sometimes and a thousand times hotter.

Mr. Goodnow says he doesn't expect to please his enemies or even all his friends. Let it go at that, Mr. Goodnow. Both your friends and your enemies think it perfectly lovely of you to go away for four years, and most of them hope you will make it eight.

Mr. Dingley and his friends are going to be fooled on revenue receipts as to many things. For instance, an explosive company, of Cologne, Germany, which manufactures dynamite, gun cotton and nitro-glycerine, is going to build a branch factory at Spotswood, N. J., and avoid paying any duty whatever.

DE ARMITT'S MINERS MAY JOIN IN THE STRIKE.

The Stories Are Conflicting as to the Result of the Great Mass Meeting Held as a Means of Moral Suasion.

MEN ALL QUIET.

No Disorder During the Meeting.

Four Men Arrested in Pennsylvania for Ignoring an Injunction Issued by a District Judge—Mr. Debs Hopes for the Best.

PITTSBURGH, July 29.—The great mass meeting, arranged by the strike leaders in the hope of inducing the men employed by De Armitt in the mines of the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal company to join in the movement, was held today and reports are conflicting as to the result.

Long before daylight the strikers were up, and after eating their frugal meal, prepared for the day's work, the intention was to see as many of De Armitt's men before they got into the pits this morning as possible.

A short time later, Sheriff Lowrey, who had been wired to for assistance, arrived from Pittsburgh with fifty deputies, armed with Winchester.

When the meeting was called to order at 10 o'clock this morning there were 3,000 striking miners in attendance, before the meeting was well under way, there were 5,000 people in the vicinity of the school house.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 29.—Messrs. Gompers, Hatchford and Sovereign, the committee who came here yesterday to confer with Gov. Atkinson, left early this morning.

Late tonight Mr. Warner, secretary of the miners' union, telephoned that a break in De Armitt's men has taken place. He says that after the day meeting another meeting was arranged for tonight, and it was attended by many of the men who have been at work.

The letter of June 28, written by Minister Cooper, containing the offer to arbitrate, remarks: "Referring to the subject of correspondence between his imperial Japanese majesty's government and the government of Hawaii, relating to the controversy that has arisen in regard to the rejected immigration, permit me to add to my letter of the 25th inst. that, while still maintaining the integrity of the position taken by this government, yet, should the parties fail to arrive at a settlement of the question, I am authorized by this government, in view of the friendly relations that have so long existed between the two countries and the great benefits in this crisis maintained in regard to the rights of Japanese immigration, to suggest that the matters at issue be referred to a disinterested arbitrator or arbitrators for settlement, and in case such suggestion is accepted by his imperial Japanese majesty's government, to say that the Hawaiian government will abide the result."

The next mail from Japan will be due on the 7th, which it will be known definitely whether or not Japan will accept Cooper's offer.

NOT CASUS BELLI.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—There was some comment here today over statements, said to have been made in a report to the navy department, by Admiral McFar, commanding the flagship Olympia, at Yokohama, Japan, that not one of the numerous Japanese vessels in the harbor dressed ship on the Fourth of July, although both a British and a French flagship observed the day by duplicating every incident of the celebration of the day by the Olympians.

Natu, who were arrested yesterday on a charge of distasteful and escorted outside the limits of the Poona collectorate, have been deported under the act empowering the viceroy to issue a warrant for the arrest and deportation, without trial, of persons known to be engaged in disloyal practices.

It is believed that the hostility of the Natu family is due to the fact that one of the brothers who had been afflicted with the plague, was sent to the Poona segregation camp along with the low castes.
