BURNING GASOLINE

FLIES OVER LOUIS REHL AND HE IS PROBABLY FATALY INJURED.

BACK IS AWFULLY BURNED.

HE IS TAKEN TO A HOSPITAL—ANNUAL SESSION OF CHRISTIAN MISSIONS.

MINNEAPOLIS CRICKET CLUB.

It Proposes to Keep Together During the Winter—May Give Some Entertainments.

Deadly gasoline was the cause of another serious burning early last evening, and, as a result, Louis Rehl, 806 1/2 Tenth street south, a well-known bicycle repairer, and also the inventor of several bicycle devices, lies at St. Barnabas' hospital in a very critical condition. His back from head to foot is charred almost to a crisp, and his recovery is doubtful. The accident happened about 6 o'clock at 719 Tenth street south. Rehl was at work brazing a bicycle frame. In the shop with him were his thirteen-year-old brother, Henry, and an employe, Lyman Meyers. In brazing the parts of the frame, Rehl was using a flame which was fed by gas generated from gasoline in a tank containing several gallons. Just exactly how the accident happened is not known, but it is supposed that the weight of a brick, which was on top of the tank, was too much and the pressure caused the pipes leading from the tank to explode. In a moment's time the burning fluid was scattered about the room, and Rehl's back was massed of flames. There was nothing in the shop with which the flames could be extinguished. Had the victim left the burning building immediately for help, his condition would now be much less serious. But, with remarkable grit, he attempted to shut off the gasoline escaping from the tank, and also tried to extinguish the flames. By this time he was forced to flee and run into the street calling for help. City Salesman Brower, of the Anthony Kelly company, had his horse tied near the shop, and, taking several blankets from the rig, he wrapped the victim in them. Rehl's condition is not so good as it was at first. He is unable to get up, and his back is so badly burned that he is unable to get up. ABOUT $500 A YEAR.

The Charter Commission on the Salary of Aldermen.

The Minneapolis charter commission, in its preliminary discussion last night, tentatively agreed that while the work on the streets should be abolished, the office of street commissioner should be retained.

For the first time since the commission was organized, there was less than a quorum on hand ready to begin business promptly. Several members are out of the city, and they will not return until next week.

CHRISTIAN MISSIONS.

Fortieth Annual Convention of the Minnesota Society.

The fortieth annual convention of the Minnesota Christian Mission Society was begun at the Portland Avenue Church of Christ yesterday afternoon. There was an attendance of fifty-two delegates from all over the state.

The convention of the Christian Women's Board of Missions will commence Wednesday morning, and the Christian Endeavor programme will be given Friday afternoon and evening.

The convention yesterday afternoon was opened by devotional exercises led by Levi L. Ferguson, of Howard Lake. The president, Dr. D. O. Thomas, of Minneapolis, presided and introduced Rev. Carey D. Morgan, who delivered an inspiring address of welcome. He noted the progress of the work of the two score years of the society, and assured the delegates of their welcome on behalf of the members of Portland church. The response was made by Percy Leach, of Rock Rapids, Io., who formerly preached in Minnesota, and spoke in place of Rev. J. W. Uterback, of Rochester, who had not arrived.

Dr. Thomas delivered his annual address.

CHICAGO SAUSAGE MAKER ON TRIAL FOR MURDER.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—After two preliminary hearings and three months confinement in the county jail, Adolph L. Luertger, the rich sausage maker, was put on trial, charged with the murder of his wife, before Judge Tutill in the criminal court today. Long before the case was called for trial, the coroner of the criminal court building was packed with people anxious to get into the court room, and a special detail of police was necessary to keep them in order. When the case was called, the court room was filled with suffocation, a remarkable feature being the number of women present. Luertger himself sat close to his attorneys, unusually pale. The coolness which has characterized the sausage maker ever since his arrest deserted him, and he showed unmistakable signs of nervousness. He was dressed neatly in black. Immediately after the case was called to order, State's Attorney Deenen arose and announced that the prosecution was ready to proceed with the trial. The attorneys for the defense made a similar announcement, no application for a change of venue being made. Controversy then arose as to the manner of drawing the jury, the prosecution contending that it should be drawn under the new jury commission law. After some discussion, it was agreed to Attorney Vincent for the defense, however, noting an exception for the purpose of a test as to the constitutionality of the law. Court then adjourned until tomorrow.

DESPERATE FIGHTING.

General Revolt of Afridis Under the Mad Mullah.

SIMLA, Aug. 23.—There are persistent rumors here tonight that Fort Musjid and Fort Maude, which were attacked this morning by the Afridis, have fallen into the hands of the enemy, but there is no official confirmation of these reports. The government has received a written communication from the ameer of Afghanistan in which he denies all responsibility for the murders or fanciful pretenses of the different tribes. This is the most important pronouncement and if published broadcast on the frontier may have great effect upon the tribesmen. The Afridis number about 20,000 first-class and 100,000 second-class fighters. An anxious feature of the situation is that Anglo-Indian army is largely recruited from the Afridis.

DEBTS DEMOCRACY.

Call Issued to Attend the St. Louis Conference.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Aug. 23.—Eugene V. Debs today issued a call to the Social Democracy of the United States to attend the St. Louis conference at St. Louis next Monday, when, he says, prompt action will be taken in regard to the miners' strike, and especially in regard to the judicially issued restraining orders. "The hour has struck to call a halt," he declared. "The miners' strike is an American manhood protest against the spectacle of judges playing the role of tyrants, and against the usurpation of the rights of trial by jury, forbidden by the constitution, and against the suppression of peaceful assemblage and the transformation of a peaceful protest into a riot. They are guilty of judicial treason and should be made to answer at the bar of an impartial jury. We have retreated before it to the verge of slavery. Let us now meet it as we would have met it by the patriots of 1776."

THE STAR OF HOPE.

"I had lost all hope and gone to my father's grave," said Mrs. M. L. Evans, of Mound, Correll Co., Texas. "I had been married five years, and I had a baby year ago, the 5th of June last." She adds, "and I was so weak that I could not do very well for 8 or 9 days, and then I began to feel very bad, my stomach was so full, and my stomach was so full, and I seemed to suffer with everything that could be borne. I was in bed 5 months and there was not a day that I was able to get up. We had the best doctors that our country afforded. I had taken 100 bottles of medicine.
